FIRE ON THE THOMAS

Lively Time On Troop Ship Out of Honolulu.

The San Francisco Call of Nov. 17 says: A sentry's frantic cry of "Fire" caused a panic on board the army transport Thomas on the afternoon of November 12, when the troopship was plowing her way here from Honolulu.

When over their scare the passengers found time to admire the splendid manner in which Captain Lynam and his officers had responded to the emergency and all on board returned to their books, cards, naps and love talks inspired with full confidence in the skipper's ability to take care of them, no matter what happened.
