NEW TYPE OF HOISTER FOR ROUGH LANDINGS ON HAWAII

Honolulu Iron Works Completes New Model Especially Adapted for Service On High Bluffs—Made for Honomu Landing.

The Honolulu Iron Works had a very complete hoisting engine on exhibition at their Kakaako plant yesterday, the same having been especially designed and constructed at the Kakaako shops for the Honomu (Hawaii) Wire Cable Landing.

A large number of local representatives of sugar companies were present to witness the trial of the machine and all seemed satisfied with its working. Although mounted on a temporary wooden platform, from which it will be transferred to trucks to be taken to a steamer, the engine worked in a very satisfactory manner.

There are several of these wire-cable landings in use between Hilo and Ooakia, this system being particularly well adapted for landings on any of the weather sides of the islands, provided a suitable height of bluff is available. But one of the defects in the satisfactory run of the system, has been that ordinary hoisting engines of standard make as sold in the market by manufacturers of this class of machinery, have been used for operating the trolleys, these hoists being entirely inadequate for the severe strain and speed that is expected of them.

The hoist that is now completed has been specially built from plans originating in the Iron Works' office for this particular kind of work, and has been made on the same lines as the windlasses supplied by the Union Iron Works for the Wilder's Steamship Company's vessels.

The hoist has two pairs of 10x10 cylinders, each set with link motion reversing gears which operate two independent winding drums. All friction gears have been eliminated with the object of simplifying the arrangement as much as possible and most satisfactory results are anticipated by the Honolulu Iron Works management from this machinery.

The success of the present hoisting engine may result in orders for others from plantations along the Hawaii coast which require cables and trolleys to hoist and lower freight. The rugged coast of Hawaii between Kawaihae and Hilo requires machinery of this sort. Ordinary hoisting engines are unfitted for heavy work at the landings and the bills for repairs to them amount to a large sum every year.

To Be Depended On

Because It Is the Experience of a Honolulu Citizen and Can Readily be Investigated.

A stranger lost in a large city would place far more dependence on the directions given him by a local resident than the guidance of another stranger like himself. This is a natural consequence of experience; it's like a ship in a strange port—a trusty pilot familiar with the harbor is always called upon to bring her safely to her moorings. So it is with endorsement; we doubt the sayings of people living at a distant point because we can't investigate, but public expression of local citizens can be depended upon, for 'tis an easy matter to prove it. Evidence like the following is beyond dispute:—

Mr. W. F. Williams of this city, is a light-house keeper, and he has held this position for the last 30 years. He says: "I was for a number of years, one of that numerous army of people who suffer with their backs. Mine ached and pained me to no small extent, so that I was glad when I heard of a remedy for it, Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. I obtained some of these at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store, and took them. They gave me great relief, and I make this short narration of my experiences for the benefit of others who perhaps do not know that nearly all backache arises from the kidneys, and the best medicine for it is Doan's Backache Kidney Pills."
