PITIALE CASE ON SHERMAN.

One of the passengers on the transport Sherman en route to the mainland was a young woman who was formerly stenographer to the Attorney General in the Philippines. She was in the care of a nurse, for she became mentally unbalanced while in the tropics. Her name is Harriet Lowrey. While she was in office a year or so ago it was noticed she was not just right and she was let out, the intention being to send her to the coast for treatment. She fancied she was a victim of office-chasers and shot the assistant auditor. To avoid trouble she was returned to the United States. After a few months' absence she returned and alleged emphatically that she was promised restoration in the office if she went back to the Philippines. When she arrived she was not reinstated, but was arrested and held in Bilibid for a time. Then she was released and took a trip through the southern islands. On her return to Manila her mental condition was such that it was necessary to send her to the hospital.

Just before the Sherman sailed the woman was taken into court and it was decided to send her home in charge of her nurse, Miss Berthy Gertsch. She had plenty of money and jewels. She is being taken to her home in Cleveland, Ohio.

SHIPPING FOR THE PAST WEEK

Although there has not been very great activity on the water front except last Friday, when two foreign vessels arrived an hour apart, the activity, such as it was, was well sustained, there being changes every day. On Monday the French cruiser Petrel left for San Francisco with the mails, and the schooner Ariel arrived with a load of coal. Tuesday was the quietest of the lot, as the Mongolia arrived late in the evening from San Francisco. On Wednesday the Enterprise came in from Hilo after the refined sugar of the Honolulu plantation, and the Mongolia proceeded on her way to the Orient at noon. Thursday afternoon saw the Marion Chilcott arrive with a load of oil from Monterey and along in the evening the transport Sherman put in an appearance from Nagasaki and anchored off port.

The vessels in port are as follows: The Olympic is at Railroad Wharf No. 1 loading sugar. The Alumna, which has been out at the end of that wharf, moved in to Railroad Wharf No. 2, where the Primus has been lying. The R. P. Rithet is at Railroad Wharf No. 3, loaded with sugar. She expected to get away Saturday afternoon, but the storm prevented. The St. Katherine, Santiago and Macon Chilcott were also lying at that wharf, the two former awaiting sugar, while the latter has sailed.

The Irmgard is at the Hackfeld wharf in the Phelps' old place. She has finished discharging her cargo and is being overhauled. The Ke Au Hou and the Naeau are loading at the Inter-Island wharf, while the Mauna Loa is being overhauled. The Ariel moved over yesterday from Railroad Wharf No. 3 to the Sorenson wharf to complete unloading her cargo of coal, and the Archer is lying between the Ariel and the Mauna Loa. The Lavinia, which has been lying at the end of the Sorenson wharf, moved over beside the Irmgard at the Hackfeld wharf. The Alameda is of her usual place and will remain there until Wednesday morning. The Kinau holds down her old place.

The naval vessels have not changed since last week, the Patterson, Ingham and Petrel being at the Naval wharf, while the Bear is anchored in Naval row. To the westward of the latter is Max Schlemmer's schooner, the C. Kennedy. The Gerard C. Tebey is still unloading at the Bishop slip. The Dirigo, at the Channel wharf, has not completed discharging her mail ballast.

Shipping Notes.

The Naeau brought 4196 bags of sugar, consigned Hackfeld & Co.

The transport Dix is expected to arrive from Manila about the 15th.

The German bark Primus departed Saturday morning for Sydney Heads.

The Marion Chilcott discharged her cargo of oil and sailed yesterday for Monterey.

The Doric left for San Francisco shortly after 7 o'clock Saturday morning with the mail.

The Kaula brought 6,250 bags of Me-Bryde sugar, some other freight and twenty cabin passengers.

The Ke Au Hou takes the windward Kaula run Monday and the Naeau switches to the Hamakua run.

Purser Priel of the Kaula reports rough weather on the lee side of Kaula and heavy swells crossing the channel.

Captain Whitney and Carl P. Lehners, the steamboat inspectors, leave San Francisco on the 12th by the Sierra.

The Kinau reports 16,175 bags of sugar on Hawaii awaiting shipment, as follows: Waialae, 9,800; Waipaku, 2,900; Laupahoehoe, 4,000; Hanalei, 475.

The barkentine Koko Head was sighted Saturday afternoon just before the storm, 16 miles off, bound for Honolulu, and signaled that she wanted to be reported.

The Naeau reports 27,750 bags of sugar on Kaula awaiting shipment, as follows: K. S. M., 2,800; M. A. K., 3,650; G. & R., 2,100; K. P., 5,600; P., 2,750; H. M., 4,420; K. S. Co., 2,000.

The transport Sherman left for San Francisco at 11 a. m. Saturday. A large number of people were down to see her off, and the band gave a concert on board. The Sherman took the mail that was too late for the Doric.

The Claudine was unable to land at Lahaina Saturday night because of the rough weather. She brought a very small passenger list, but a very creditable amount of freight, among other things there being 3,200 bags of sugar.

Purser McNamara reports the steamers Hawaii and Mikahala both at Waialeale. The latter is discharging, while the former has 6,250 bags of sugar on board. He also reports that the Makai-Sugar Company will start grinding today.

The weather is so bad along the Hamakua coast that the vessels cannot work. The Helene is lying idle off Laupahoehoe because of the swell and the Nilhau cannot work at Honokaa. The Kinau people saw a boat smashed up at Honokaa, which they believe to belong to the Nilhau.

THE WORRIED WOMEN.

They say men must work and women must weep; but alas, in this too busy world women often have to work and weep at the same time. Their holidays are too few and their work heavy and monotonous. It makes them nervous and irritable. The depressed and worried woman loses her appetite and grows thin and feeble. Once in a while she has spells of palpitation and has to lie up for a day or two. If some disease like influenza or malarial fever happens to prevail she is almost certain to have an attack of it, and that often paves the way for chronic troubles of the throat, lungs and other organs; and there is no saying what the end may be. Let the tired and overladen woman rest as much as possible; and, above all, place at her command a bottle of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION a true and sure remedy for the ills and maladies of women. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Search the world over and you will find nothing to equal it. Taken before meals it improves the nutritive value of ordinary foods by making them easier to assimilate, and has carried hope and good cheer into thousands of homes. It is absolutely reliable and effective in Nervous Dyspepsia, Impaired Nutrition, Low Vitality, Wasting Conditions, Melancholy, Chlorosis, Scrofula, and all troubles of the Throat and Lungs. Dr. E. J. Boyes says: "I have found it a preparation of great merit. In a recent case a patient gained nearly twenty pounds in two months' treatment, in which it was the principal remedial agent." It carries the guarantee of reliability and cannot fail or disappoint you. At chemists.

HATTER IN DISGUISE? Was Hatter in disguise yesterday? Ask a certain restaurant man whether it was Hatter and he will tell you it probably was certainly the detective. And this is how he came to his conclusion. About noon yesterday a man with slightly gray hair came in hurriedly, and sat down at a table, and said: "Water, please bring me a bottle of beer." "We don't sell beer on Sunday," was the reply. "I've got to have it—I'm thirsty." "I'm sorry, we can't give it to you." "I'll give you a dollar for a bottle." "Can't do it." "I'll give you a dollar for a glass beer." "No, sir—can't." The stranger then arose and hurried away as quickly as he entered.

OLD FRIENDS HEARD FROM. We have received letters from Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Myers from which we gather that they are well and happy in their new home at Claremont, California, but that they still dwell upon the delights of Hawaii. It will not surprise anyone if they reappear some day on these shores, where they will find a hearty welcome.—Anglican Church Chronicle.
