Invited Out? Have You the Clothes?

You must have them. If in a hurry, so much the better for us. We fit men in a hurry. And such good clothes. Ready for the social whirl, the theatre, the club, the lodge. Full dress for complete formality, dinner suits for the family circle and stage doings. Lined with rich silk and in the height of style. Only master tailors should ever touch cloth for full dress clothes. Ours are made by the STEIN-BLOCH SMART TAILORS, who have been making them for 50 years so that they fit smooth, show a more striking style and a clearer knowledge of the fine points of clothes-building than the work of any other needlemen in the world, barring a few crack custom shops of New York and London.

MARKS BUYS TUG ELEU

Now Question Comes Up Had Territory Power to Sell?

The Territorial Government tug Eleu was sold yesterday and now some question seems likely to arise as to whether the Territorial Government has the right to pass title to her.

Louis Marks of the firm of McCabe, Hamilton & Renny, stevedores, was the purchaser, paying $2,000 for the vessel. The first bid was $1,000, made by Mr. Marks, and that went up by $250 raises to $2,000, when Auctioneer Fisher knocked the craft down to Marks. The auctioneer stated that the inspectors of hulls and boilers, now here, would give a certificate of good condition to the purchaser. The vessel is at present on the marine railway being overhauled. The Eleu may be put into the towing trade.

Whether the purchaser, having obtained the vessel, can get a clear title to her is another question. When the tug was sold to the Hawaiian Government in 1885 by John D. Spreckels & Bro., title was not vested in the King of Hawaii, nor in the Hawaiian Government. The bill of sale was made out to Charles T. Gulick, Secretary of the Interior, and his heirs, successors and assigns. Now, was Gulick's title to the Eleu, once called the Alert, and sold under that name, passed by Gulick to his successors in office under the kingdom and the provisional government, and did the United States, when it took the islands, pass the tug along to the Superintendent of Public Works, who was the successor in office of the Secretary of the Interior.

It has always been accepted that it did, or at all events the tug has been in the possession of the Board of Public Works, and no claim of adverse possession on the part of the United States has ever been advanced. In fact, if the United States had a claim, it would seem to be up to the officers to assert it. Not having been asserted before this time, it should be outlawed by now.

ARMY FOLK DANCED ON THE ROOF GARDEN

The Twenty-first U. S. Infantry band played last night on the Young Hotel roof garden in the presence of an audience which taxed its capacity. Every chair and almost every foot of standing room was occupied by a crowd numbering many hundreds, while the lounging room and the ball pavilion were similarly packed.

The band made another hit with the public, especially in its singing parts, and sustained its reputation. Shortly before 9 o'clock the dancing pavilion was cleared and to the music furnished by the Ellis Bros. Glee Club the officers and ladies of the Twenty-first Regiment, together with the passengers accompanying the regiment about the transport Sherman, and hundreds of townsfolk whirled away in the fascinating duex temps. Every dance was encoered and the army people seemed never to tire of the innovation of dancing in the tropics. The uniforms of the officers, some white, some of the familiar old blue cloth, glittering with brass buttons and insignia of service, matched well with the pretty gowns of the ladies. It was a jolly gathering and it was an evening of delight to the army folks. Col. Williams, commanding the regiment; Col. Scott, U. S. A., Captain Taggart, U. S. A., quarter-master of the transport Sherman, were present, and the latter saw that his charges should have the time of their lives. Manager Lake of the Hotel was cordially thanked for a delightful evening.

SIGNED TREATY WITH SULTAN OF SULU

Col. Scott, U. S. A., a passenger on the transport Sheridan en route to the Philippines to join his regiment, had the honor of signing the treaty with one of the sultans, notably known as the Sultan of Sulu. Col. Scott was here several years ago when several transports were in port at the same time. At that time he was one of the regular army officers to umpire the sham battle between battalions of the Hawaiian National Guard near Rocky Hill, Manoa.

Games Will Decide Finals.

The basketball games played today on the High School court will decide the teams that will be played for championship honors.

These games today should be the best yet. All the teams are in the finest of shape and their play has advanced to such a point that it will be hard to improve.

The first game will be played between the Highs and Normals. The Highs should win by a good margin. The Normals, however, have improved very rapidly and may surprise the wise ones.

The second game promises to be the "real article." The Y. W. will toss goals with the Puns in this event. Each team has its strong points but in all they are very evenly matched.

The clever goal throwers of the blue and buff will have a hard time with the Y. W. guards.

The girls will face each other as follows: H. S.—Smith, Crews, forwards; Robertson, Smith, centers; Akau, Stone, guards.

Normals—Akeu, Akau, forwards; Jones, Saffries, centers; Kawatani, Lepowski, guards.

Puns—Taylor, Roth, forwards; Damon, Fisher, centers; Goodale, Waller, guards.

Y. W.—Schaefer, Crews, forwards; Helder, Makee, centers; Williams, Dowsett, guards.

Basketball.

One week from tonight will probably see a series of basketball games in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium begun. Tonight the Diamond Heads and the High Schools have a practice game.

Last week a team of Y. M. C. A. Juniors played an outdoor game for the first time, with Kamehameha Preparatory School boys, who had never played outdoors. The Juniors carried off the honors without much trouble, but the Kams are training for a return game in the association gymnasium next Tuesday afternoon.

Mixed Golf Tourney.

At the Manoa Golf Club at 1:30 p. m. today the fair ones and the gentlemen will combine and swat the ball for prizes.

There has been quite a number of entries for this event and some close play should be the result.

Play will begin promptly at 2 o'clock. Handicaps will be announced at the club.

SCOTT'S EMULSION makes pale, thin children fat and chubby. Overcomes wasting tendencies and brings back rosy cheeks and bright eyes.

It's surprising how quickly children respond to Scott's Emulsion. It contains just the element of nourishment their little bodies need. They thrive on it.

Even a few drops in the baby's bottle have a noticeable effect for good. Nothing better than Scott's Emulsion for growing children.

Why do substitutes for Scott's Emulsion cost less? Because they're worth less. With one you wait in vain for the benefits you had looked for. In Scott's Emulsion you get them. It never disappoints. That's worth the few cents difference in cost.

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.
