SOLD FOR A NICKEL

Do You Know What Your Photo Will Bring?

HONOLULU CELEBRITIES
Only Five Cents.

That was the sign that might have graced the portal of one of the Chinese second-hand stores that crowd the makai side of Hotel street between Maunakea and Kekaulike. It was along the first named thoroughfare that J. H. Schnack, the well-known real estate man was strolling the other day when his eye happened to fall upon a basket full of photographs that lay on the counter in one of the little Oriental stores. Picking up one of the pictures he saw that it was the portrait of a well-known Honolulu man, taken years ago. Further investigation showed that the basket was full of old and valuable pictures of Honolulu celebrities, living and dead.

The investigation was highly interesting and amusing until suddenly Mr. Schnack saw his own countenance gazing up at him from the bottom of the basket. This put a different light on the matter and the investigator hastily asked the proprietor of the shop what the price of the portrait was. "Five cents," was the reply, and in response to further inquiry the Chinaman stated that he had bought the lot of pictures from a well-known photographer of this city at an auction.

Mr. Schnack took his bargain away with him, but the story did not end there. Others investigated the picture basket, and it is reported that other celebrities have bought their own pictures at cut rates. Last night Deputy Sheriff Rawlins was informed that his portrait was quoted at five cents and started out to raid the place. Unfortunately the shop was closed when he arrived, but he declares that he will corner the market and raise prices on his portrait Monday morning. Meanwhile other persons prominent in local society are making plans to withdraw their pictures from circulation. Today the big question is: "Is my picture there?"

SOME NAMES APPEAR ON BOTH PETITIONS

Two somewhat contradictory petitions have come up to Land Commissioner Pratt relative to certain lands in Kau, one asking that a plantation lease be canceled, and the other that the lease be renewed. Twenty-seven men who sign one petition also appear as signers of the other.

The lands have been under lease to the Hutchinson Company for many years, and the leases are about to expire. Some time ago a petition came to Pratt, bearing about a hundred and twenty signatures, asking that the land be offered to private settlers when the plantation leases expire.

This was followed this week by a petition to the contrary effect. It has about the same number of names on it. It sets forth that the best interests of the whole district will best be served by a renewal of the plantation leases. On comparing the signatures Pratt made the discovery that twenty-seven persons, or nearly a quarter of the number petitioning, had signed both petitions.

LEGISLATURE CLOSES VERY BUSY WEEK

The Senate closed up a week of hard work in rather leisurely fashion yesterday, taking time as it went along to kill the Dickey bill providing for the enforcement of laws. A resolution came up from the House relative to a bridge on the Wahiawa road that may cause some discomfort to the Department of Public Works before it is disposed of. The House heard a resolution introduced by Coelho and ardently supported that would have a tendency to discourage the future Japanese citizen, if there was any way under the law to arrive at what the introducer of the resolution wants to reach. For the rest, House proceedings were not particularly significant.

A full report of the proceedings of both branches will be published in Monday's Advertiser.

INVITATION TO SEC. TAFT

Text of the Letter From This City.

Secretary of War Taft, who is to pass through Honolulu in June, accompanied by Mrs. Taft, Miss Alice Roosevelt and many distinguished people, has been written to by the joint committee of the Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' Association and Builders' and Traders' Exchange, asking that the party make as long a stay as possible in Honolulu. The letter went forward on the Manchuria yesterday, and was as follows:

Honolulu, T. H., March 30, 1905.
To the Honorable William H. Taft, Secretary of War, Washington, D. C.—

We feel that we are speaking for the people of Hawaii as a whole in extending this invitation and in assuring you that it would afford us the greatest pleasure to have the privilege of entertaining yourself and the members of your party, for such length of time as you may find it possible to spend here.

We would be pleased to arrange a program for visits to such points of interest as you may indicate, within the limits of the time you may place at our disposal.

Again assuring you of the universal desire of our people to have the pleasure of a visit from yourself and your friends, we beg to remain, Sir, Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) C. HEDEMANN,
Chairman Joint Committee.
(Signed) E. M. BOYD,
Secretary Joint Committee.

Joint Committee—E. F. Bishop, C. Hedemann, J. G. Spencer, representing the Chamber of Commerce, M. Phillips, J. A. M. Johnson, J. A. Gilman, representing the Merchants' Association, L. E. Pinkham, J. H. Craig, Marston Campbell, representing the Builders and Traders' Exchange.

BROWN NOT COERCED.

my protest about having two counties for Hawaii and I know I have got the support of the house in favoring two counties for Hawaii.

Concerning the remarks made by Senator Woods and Paris: Why, they meant every word they said about killing the county act and I knew they had other friends of theirs in the Senate to help them. This was the reason why I supported the motion to have one county for Hawaii. When the county bill has passed third reading, I will write to you and let you know the rest.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN T. BROWN.
To H. Vicars, Esq.,
Secy. Board of Trade of Hilo.

And the Senators are wondering whether that letter was written for publication, or whether Senator Brown's pen has betrayed him into the hands of his enemies. For the letter might have been pretty good politics—if privately circulated. It might even be pretty good politics published, if only people saw it who favored the two county proposition. But, there are circumstances that require explanation, perhaps.

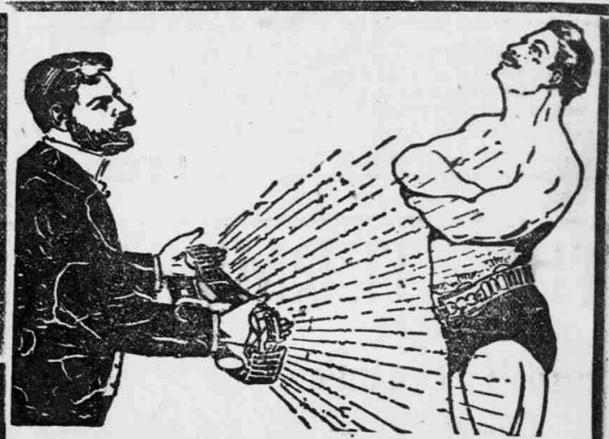

In the first place, while it is not explicitly so stated, there is a very clear inference in the letter that Paris and Palmer Woods went to their colleague and coerced him into supporting the one county proposition. In fact, the Hilo Tribune heads the story of the letter "Brown was Coerced," and in its introduction uses these words: "The letter from Senator Brown, which was read at the Board of Trade meeting, throws some light on the 'log rolling' being done at the legislature over the county bill."

"I never said a word to Senator Brown about the county act in my life," said Palmer Woods yesterday. "I did say on the floor of the Senate that I would vote against the bill if it contained the two county provision. And Chaplain Desha of the House told me the one county amendment would be carried through the House if I would agree on an equitable division of the Supervisors. But to Brown, I never said a word. All that I ever said, that he could have heard, was on the floor."

"I did not make any attempt to coerce Senator Brown on the county act," said Paris. "I said on the floor of the Senate that it would be suicidal to make Hawaii into two counties—that the people would be hanging a mill stone about their own necks. But I never said a word to Brown, nor to anybody else that I did not say in the open on the floor. I did not talk to Brown privately about the bill at all. I think that anybody who knows me will know that I would say openly and in the face of all men whatever I have to say."

And anybody who knows Senator Paris will know that. But the question arises, what does Senator Brown mean by his letter, if he does not mean that he was coerced by his colleagues? And what does he mean to tell the conference committee that will restore the two-county provision to the bill?

"Ah," said the little girl who was being filled with culture, "see the carpenter brawny building the house beautiful with his hands skillful."—Chicago Record-Herald.

"IT MAKES ME FEEL LIKE A NEW MAN"

I want to talk to men who have pains and aches, who feel run down physically, who realize that the old "fire" and energy which was so evident in youth is absent now; men who can't stand the amount of exertion they could years ago. I want you—if that means you—to see what I have done for others who were just as bad off. That's my introduction. If a friend in whom you had confidence presented some one to you and said, "Jack, here's Brown; he has made good with me, and I trust him," wouldn't you trust him, too?

"Mr. H. A. Lehndorff, proprietor of the Fernando Hotel, Fernando, Cal., a man known to thousands of Californians, a G. A. R. veteran, says that my Belt cured him of Rheumatism, and that he will praise it for all time as the grandest remedy known for that trouble."

Mr. W. F. Quite, Cedarville, Cal., writes, March 10: "Your Belt cured me after I had spent $1000 in useless doctoring."

I have cured thousands of men who have squandered the savings of years in useless doctoring.

My Belt is easy to use; put it on when you go to bed; you feel the glowing heat from it (no sting or burn, as in old style belts), and you feel the nerves tingle with the new life flowing into them. You get up in the morning feeling like a two-year-old.

An old man of 70 says he feels as strong and young as he did at 35. That shows it renews the vigor of youth. It cures Rheumatism, Sciatic Pains, Lumbago, Kidney Trouble. Banishes pain in a night, never to return.

Mr. A. C. Hammond, 339 Pine street, San Francisco, says, March 20: "At the age of 75 your Belt has cured me of general weakness and kidney trouble."

What ails you? Write and tell me, and no matter where you are I think I can give you the address of some one in your town that I have cured. I've cured thousands and every man of them is a walking advertisement for my Belt.

Every man who uses my Belt gets the advice and counsel of a physician free. I give you all that any medical man can give, and a lot that he can't. Try my Belt.

FREE BOOK—Write me today for my beautiful illustrated book, with cuts showing how my Belt is applied, full of good reading matter for men who want to be "The Noblest Work of God"—A MAN. Inclose this ad and I will send this book, sealed, free.
