

SOCIETY

Society is still clinging to bridge as one of its amusements during the prescribed social season, but now and then a hostess makes bold to give a tea—and almost everyone invited attends. It is merely a slight deprivation for Lent to come, but society devotees are loth to stand aside for even a little time to permit the social system to rest.

The closing of the annual outing of the "Minutes" association came to an end last Friday evening at Pearl City. The members invited their young men friends down to dinner that evening, after which there was an enjoyable dance at the pavilion, the music being furnished by the famous Ellis quintette club. During the dinner the young men presented to the "Minutes" a unique deed conveying to them two large boxes of candy. There also attended the dance some fifty other young persons, who have been spending the week at the Peninsula. During the early hours of the morning some of the older young men amused themselves by making life miserable for every one possible, especially doing their best to keep the young ladies awake. The following were present at dinner (Minutes): Misses Beatrice Castle, Alice Cooke, Irene Fisher, Catherine Smith, Dagmar Sorenson, Catherine Goodale, Alice Brown, Marion Waterhouse, Eunice Pratt, Julie Damon, and Messrs. H. Giffard, K. Brown, H. Hoffman, G. Judd, G. Renton, S. Ashford, R. Paris, G. Whitney, A. Jordan, Percy White, A. Lowrey, W. Rycroft, and W. L. Castle.

The exhibition to be given by the pupils of Mrs. Mary Gunn's dancing classes on Saturday evening, April 15, will bring out many innovations in the way of fancy dances. There will be greater diversity than in any of the previous excellent exhibitions of Mrs. Gunn's pupils, and many of the young misses show decided talent. There will be a ballet of the seasons, the dancers to be costumed in green, pink, yellow and white, with twenty-four young people participating. There will be a song and dance with a chorus of twelve girls, the solo part to be sung by Master Reynold McGrew, who made such a distinct hit in "The House that Jack Built." The "Dance of the Nations" will be one of the most attractive numbers on the program, in which Spain, Germany, Scotland, France and America will be represented. A song or monologue typical of the countries mentioned will precede each national dance. The "Guard's March" by twelve small boys, will be the same as that given in "The House that Jack Built." The Buck and Wing dance by Hazel Buckland will introduce a talented young dancer. A "Bit o' Blarney" will be acted and sung by a ballet of sixteen young girls in white. Mrs. F. Howard Humphris will take the lead in this number. Living pictures and tableaux will complete the program. During intermission thirty little boys and girls will sing a negro lullaby, all attired in plantation costumes. Rosen's Hungarian Orchestra will furnish the musical portion of the entertainment.

Mrs. Clifford Kimball gives a tea on Monday in honor of Miss Gardie Macfarlane. The engagement of Miss Macfarlane to Major Potcher has been the motif for many luncheons and dinners in her honor.

The characters for the sketch entitled "An Economical Boomerang" to be given at Miss Crosett's recital on April 7 in the Y. M. C. A. hall, are as follows: Mrs. Alexander Dabbleton, who disagrees with her husband; Mr. Alexander Dabbleton, who is suddenly seized with an economical streak; Mr. and Mrs. Bird Plover, a recently married couple; A doctor who is laboring under a misapprehension of facts; Maggie, who if she wasn't Irish might have been "French."

A very enjoyable dance was given by the young society bachelors of Honolulu. Over sixty young people were present, Thursday night. Light refreshments and punch were served during the evening, and dancing was indulged until a late hour.

NATIVE LUAU AT THE HAWAIIAN HOTEL—AN INNOVATION IN HOTEL LIFE.

HULA GIRLS DANCING BEFORE GUESTS AT THE HAWAIIAN HOTEL.

There have been many doings at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel during the past week, and the guests are most enthusiastic over the efforts of the management to give them a good time. Sunday evening an innovation was sprung in the shape of a concert by the Hungarian Orchestra which drew a large crowd from the other hotels and the town in general. Tuesday night the Royal Hawaiian band gave their second semi-monthly concert. On Wednesday the guests got up a card party, several very pretty prizes being given, after which dancing was indulged in until the wee small hours of the next morning. Thursday night the Kawaihau Glee Club played during dinner, and afterwards for a merry throng of dancers. The society set of Honolulu take kindly to these dances at the Hawaiian. This week when the transports arrive, a dance will be given, while Manager Church promises another innovation shortly in the way of entertainment.

Mr. C. Yamanaka, the vice consul of the Japanese Consulate General of Hawaii, departed yesterday on the Manchuria en route to Paris, where he will be an attaché to the Japanese Legation. This is in the nature of a promotion to Mr. Yamanaka. In social life here Mr. Yamanaka has been prominent. His place here will be filled by Mr. Kazuo Matsubara, who will arrive from Japan on the steamship Korea.

Alice Hegan Rice, Author of "Mrs. Wiggs," who is coming here soon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering gave a dinner party at the Moana Hotel on Thursday evening. The table was beautified with pink carnations and maidenhair ferns, with pink-shaded candlesticks. Hawaiian scenes adorned the place cards. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Humphris, Mr. and Mrs. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. Hawes, Miss Helen Robson, Messrs. Payson, Davis and F. H. Humphris, Sr.

A San Francisco exchange of recent date had the following item of local interest: Those who attended Mrs. Fred. Knight's tea last week say that they can well understand why so many American men are captivated by the charms of Hawaiian women. The receiving party contained a perfect galaxy of dark-eyed kanaka beauties. Mrs. Knight, through whose veins courses the blood of royalty, is a strikingly handsome woman. The Princess Kaulanaloa and her three sisters, Genevieve, Madeleine and Annie Dowsett, were among the beauties present. Genevieve is visiting Mrs. Knight. The Princess only remained here a few days, as her heart is in the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brown and Miss Gertrude Brown, who have been visiting in Honolulu for the past ten months, leave for the mainland shortly. They will return to their home in Maine. The premises of the Browns adjoins those of Mrs. Henry W. Lyon.

Have You Seen The New "Servisilk?"

All silk—not silk and cotton. It is the most beautiful and durable foundation silk for soft, clinging fabrics.

Notice its softness and finish. Test it for strength—you simply cannot tear it.

No amount of wearing strain will cause "SERVISILK" to split or pull out at the seams. Use it as the foundation for your next lace, peau de crepe, mousseline, soft taffeta or lace dress or silk waist.

Price 75c. a yard. "Norsico" is another new silk, at 55c. a yard.

Monday morning a new line of lace will be ready for sale.
