

MAN FROM MEXICO SCORES A HIT

The Bluefords successfully produced "The Man From Mexico" last evening at the Orpheum. The burden of the play fell on George Hernandez as Fitzhugh and he is to be complimented upon his performance. Chas. Edler scored a decided hit as Timothy Cook and his make-up was excellent. Pietro Sosso's Majors was a clever performance. Wm. Marion made Loveall a prominent part. Von Bulow Bismarck Schmidt is a character that seems to fit Wm. Daul. His dialect was also good. Albert Fent was satisfactory as Edward Farrer and Frank Howe as Richard Dutton showed a very nice appreciation of character. Mrs. Fitzhugh was played by Auda Due who dressed and looked the part of the suspicious wife. Myrtle Selwyn satisfactorily fulfilled the requirements of Nettie Majors and caught on with her song. Grace Lamont made the most of Sallie Gracie and Anna Dodge as Miranda made the most of a small part.

"The Man From Mexico" will hold forth again tonight and "A Woman's Sacrifice" will be given Wednesday evening.

Prof. Tait, of Edinburgh university, asked one of his students to define transparent, translucent and opaque. The young man dealt with the query in this way: "I cannot precisely define these terms, but I can indicate their meaning in this way—the windows of this classroom were once transparent, they are now translucent and if not cleaned very soon they will be opaque." The answer gained full marks from the amused professor.

SAYS IT IS HIS TWIN BROTHER.

"It was not I, but my twin brother," said James Ward, a Kanaka, who was sentenced yesterday to serve a term of five years in the penitentiary by Judge Frazer. Ward several days ago pleaded guilty to having entered a house at 29½ Front street, and stealing a revolver, a razor and other articles. He previously served two county jail sentences, and the officers had his record showing that he was once a prisoner in the Walla Walla Penitentiary. A photograph of Ward was displayed, and it was then that he announced that it was not his picture, but that of a twin brother. The likeness was identical, and his statement was not believed.—Oregonian.
