

SOME TELEGRAPHING TRIED AT THE POLLS

At the polling booth of the fifth precinct of the fourth district, Kapuāhewa building, a man came to vote on Tuesday under a name on the register. The name was checked off and the ballot was about to be deposited when O. C. Swain, one of the inspectors, asked the would-be voter to repeat his name.

This seemed to strike the man dumb, for he made ineffectual attempts to speak. He also became visibly agitated. Mr. Swain then passed him paper and pen, asking him to write his true name. With no little effort the man wrote a name, but it was an entirely different name from that under which he had offered to vote.

After consultation the inspectors decided to let the "telegraph" go with a warning. Of course the ballot was not cast.

At the Emma square booth, fourth precinct of the fourth district, a young man tried to vote in the name of his father, who was absent in Kona. Inspector Marcellino happened to know the people and spoiled the game by asking the young fellow questions. On finding himself detected the personator trembled and, not daring to say he was registered, was glad enough at nothing happening to him worse than being ordered out of the place.

HALEIWA.

The Haleiwa Hotel, Honolulu's famous country resort, on the line of the Oahu Railway, contains every modern improvement and affords its guests an opportunity to enjoy all amusements—golf, tennis, billiards, fresh and salt water bathing, shooting, fishing, rowing and driving. Tickets, including railway fare and one full day's room and board, are sold at the Honolulu station and Trent & Company for $5.00. For departure of trains consult time table.

On Sundays, the Haleiwa Limited, a two-hour train, leaves at 8:22 a. m.; returning, arrives i. Honolulu at 10:10 p. m.

The public is invited to attend a social given by the young men of the Y. M. C. A. this evening. A most interesting programme is being arranged.

F. P. Sargent, Commissioner General of Immigration, and his secretary, P. A. Donahue, Collector E. R. Stackable, F. M. Bechtel, inspector of immigration, and Mr. Lott of the U. S. Department of Justice, formed a party that left in the Kinaiu on Tuesday for the Volcano. They will return via Maui in the steamer Maui on Sunday morning.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Henry Vierra Sr. is very ill at his home in Kukuia lane.

Judge Dole yesterday took four custom house appeals under advisement.

Miss H. Keam has been appointed a teacher at the Girls' Industrial School.

The grand jury will make its final report before Judge De Bolt today and be discharged.

The time table of the launch for the cable ship Restorer is published elsewhere in these columns.

There will be a special meeting of the Pacific Lodge this evening, with work in the second degree.

Sam Leslie, lately a lieutenant on the mounted patrol, has obtained employment on the Kahuku ranch.

The Board of Education has fixed the salaries of the Normal and High School principals at $200 a month each.

Secretary Atkinson is expected home from the mainland on the Alameda today, but may come on the China.

The band will play at the Hawaiian hotel this evening for Governor Carter's dinner in honor of Congressman Hepburn.

The Civic Federation is going to attack the nuisance of unsightly advertising signs that mar the suburban landscape.

Mr. and Mrs. Claus Spreckels are expected on the Alameda today. Their Punahou home will be ready for their occupancy.

Judge Lindsay has ordered a sale under foreclosure in the suit of Bank of Hawaii vs. J. K. Prendergast and others, of property at Waipiloilo, Palama.

Sheriff J. H. Coney of Kauai has decided to market the timber growing upon the Coney estate land on Mount Tantalus. This includes a large portion of the forest planted by the Government more than twenty years ago.

There will be a medal play competition at the Moana Golf Club links tomorrow beginning at 1:30 p. m. No entries will be received after 2:30 p. m. There will be four prizes: 1st, 2nd, scratch and booby. Entrance fee 50 cents.

The rumor published some weeks ago that George H. Allen, the adopted but disinherited son of the late S. C. Allen, brought Mr. Alexander, a San Francisco attorney, here to start a contest of the dead millionaire's will, is taking definite shape.

The class day exercises at Oahu College will begin at 2 p. m. today. After the planting of the class tree there will be a ring tournament and immediately following a baseball game will be played between the senior and a picked team from the school.

All members of the Honolulu Lodge No. 616, B. P. O. E., are requested to be present at their regular meeting this evening. Important business. After the meeting the lodge will hold a social session. All visiting Elks are cordially invited to attend.

J. W. Hall left for the Coast in the steamer Manchuria, taking with him his two children in spite of their being subject to the order of the court, as to their custody, in a divorce case pending on appeal. His action is contempt of court, but that is not an extraditable offense.

The Queen's Hospital will be thrown open to inspection by visitors on the occasion of the opening of its new wing, from 2 until 5 p. m. today. There will be music by the Government band and the officials of the hospital will receive the public. No formal invitations have been issued.

Lyle A. Dickey, examiner of titles, has made a report to the Court of Land Registration on the petition of the Wilder estate, in which an interesting point is raised with respect to certain Hawaiian words in boundary descriptions. The words involve a question as to whether certain bounds lie at the border or in the middle of a stream.

Miss Helen Wilder, daughter of a sugar planter of Honolulu, is one of the few female policemen in the world. Miss Wilder is said to look very attractive in her blue dress and slouch hat as she rides along her beat—Advance (Congregational), June 8. Thus appears in a new place a story that, it would seem, should have worn itself out a long time ago through sheer force of its own inaccuracy.
