When the gallant ship Bennington swings up to her anchorage in the harbor of the Costa Rican metropolis and Commander Lucien Young orders the Costa Rican ensign hoisted to the fore and the national salute fired there will be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth, or else profanity that will be bad to hear. For the Costa Rican ensign, together with the gorgeous standards of a dozen other three-for-a-quarter Latin-American republics, reposes peacefully in Honolulu and there hangs a tale.

Now every warship is supplied with a full set of flags of all the nations of the world, for etiquette demands that when a warship visits a foreign port she shall hoist the standard of that country and fire a salute. Likewise on the national holidays and other gala occasions the flags must be used. The Bennington had a full set, and when Commander Young was tendered a farewell ball at the Hawaiian hotel Saturday night, he graciously lent a large number of flags, mostly those of Latin-American republics and Oriental nations, to be used in decorating the lanais of the hotel. As the Bennington was to go to Molokai early yesterday morning and return last night, it was agreed that the flags should be returned to the ship when she came back from Molokai yesterday.

But when Lucien and his good ship got back from the other island just before six o'clock last night he was so anxious to get to sea that the flags probably escaped from his mind. Manager Church had them all ready and engaged a launch to take them out to the gunboat. As soon as he learned that she was off port he, with a party of Commander Young's friends, set sail in the launch. But, alas, the Bennington steamed away, and the launch, being a long way behind, was not able to catch up. The flags were brought back to Honolulu and here they will await further orders.

And it will tax the ingenuity, even of Lucien Young, to supply the deficiency when the Costa Rican salute is fired. Perhaps he will rig up an ensign out of a pair of blue pants and a red shirt, as the Americans did at Fort Oswego in the Revolution. But such will be a difficult task, as the flag of Costa Rica, one of the most insignificant of the nations, is the most elaborate creation of all national standards. But, at any rate, Lucien will be equal to the occasion, even if he has to sacrifice the shirt off his own back to make the necessary piece of bunting.

The Bennington left for Costa Rica at about 6:30 p. m. yesterday. She left for Molokai at 1:35 yesterday morning and arrived there early in the morning. Acting-Governor Atkinson, Land Commissioner Pratt and their party made an inspection of the leprosy site and then returned to the ship, which put back for Honolulu. The local party was sent ashore in the ship's launch and the Bennington then set out for her destination.

SHIPPING NOTES.
The Aloha, which left this port recently for San Francisco, with a weak mast, has arrived at the coast port safely.

When the Doric sighted the Sierra and the Korea the P. M. boat was but 45 minutes behind the Oceanic liner. When the Ventura sighted them the Sierra was 1 hour and 25 minutes ahead and she left two hours in the lead. It seems that the Korea is gradually gaining.

The value of wireless telegraphy was well illustrated in the case of the Wall Street broker who found himself recently at sea on the St. Louis on his way to Europe without money. The broker sent this wireless message to a banking firm in Wall Street: "Pay the American Steamboat Line $5000. Am aboard the St. Louis dead broke." It read. The bankers paid the money and a few minutes later the purser of the St. Louis got wireless instructions to pay the broker the money. Half an hour from the time word was sent the broker was flush.

MEMORIAL BOULDER.
Boston Sons of the Revolution last week dedicated a boulder to the memory of Captain Isaac Hall, who commanded the Medford minute men at Lexington and Bunker Hill. The boulder is of Medford granite and is in place in the yard of the former residence of Captain Isaac Hall, corner of Bradlee road and High street. On the bronze tablet facing High street is this inscription: "On this site lived Captain Isaac Hall, who commanded the Medford minute men at Lexington and Bunker Hill. Paul Revere stopped here on his memorable ride to Concord, April 18-19, 1775, to warn Captain Hall that the British soldiers were on the march. Placed by the Massachusetts Society Sons of the Revolution, June 14, 1905."

BOOKER WASHINGTON'S DAUGHTER.
Miss Portia M. Washington, daughter of Booker T. Washington, was one of the twenty-five young women who were graduated from Bradford academy at Haverhill, Mass., at the commencement exercises last week. Miss Washington is the first colored woman to receive a diploma from the institution, which is one of the oldest seats of learning in this country. She has been one of the most popular students at the academy in the four years of her stay. She took a course in music and will shortly go abroad to study music in Berlin. Her father was one of the guests at the graduating exercises. Miss Washington took part in the exercises, playing a piano solo.

The Goldfields Labor Council, of West Australia, has passed a resolution in favor of a six-hour working day, and as a labor ministry is in power the idea is likely to be realized.

The Journal of Education says: "Taking the country as a whole, one child in five between the ages of 5 and 15 is at work as a wage earner. In Alabama it is one in four, while in Massachusetts it is but one in 200! Massachusetts leads all other states—far in the lead—in this particular. Her record is 40 times as good as that of the United States as a whole."

TRUTHS BY GOVERNOR FOLK.

Good citizens make good laws, but no law can make good citizens. The government never neglects the people unless the people first neglect the government.

No government, city, state or national, was ever better than the people made it, or worse than they suffered it to become.

Plenty of men will die for their country, but the man who will live for his city and state every day is the man the government needs.

Disregard of one law breeds disrespect for all law. In allowing some laws to go unenforced we reap a harvest in having all laws broken.

The patriotism of peace is just as necessary as the patriotism of war. The patriotism of the ballot is even more necessary in a free country than the patriotism of the bullet.

Good men will observe even bad laws, but bad men will break even good laws. It should be that all men, good and bad, be compelled to keep all law, good and bad, because it is the law.

In the matter of the estate of Ann's T. K. Parker, a Minor.

Order of Publication and to Show Cause on Guardian's Application to Sell Real Estate.

On reading and filing the petition of Alfred W. Carter, the guardian of the property of Annie T. K. Parker, a minor, praying for an order of sale of certain real estate belonging to his said ward, which said real estate is situated within the Fourth Judicial Circuit of the Territory of Hawaii, and consists of the following described pieces and parcels of land:

- 1.—Land contained in Grant 2142 to J. P. Parker in Kaokoiki, Hamakua; area 125 acres.
- 2.—The land in Paauhau, Weha, Makakoulo, Keahua, and Kalopa, within the boundaries of the lease of J. P. Parker and S. Parker to W. G. Irwin & Company, dated July 1, 1886, of record in liber 101, page 175; total area, 1074.50 acres.
- 3.—The lands of Weha, Makakoulo and Keahua, adjoining the land before described; area 745.1 acres.
- 4.—One-half interest in the Kalopa Crown Land held under lease known as General Lease 101, on file in Public Lands Office, expiring July 1, 1915; area 1005.6 acres.
- 5.—The land in Kalopa described in L. C. A. 8408 to Kuhea, 19 acres.

And set forth certain legal reasons why such real estate should be sold, to-wit, that it appears that it would be for the benefit of the said minor that a portion of her real estate should be sold and the proceeds thereof should be invested in some productive stock or other investment.

It is hereby ordered that the heirs and next of kin of said ward and all persons interested in the said estate appear before this court on Saturday, the 12th day of August, A. D. 1905, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the court room of this court in South Hilo, Island and Territory of Hawaii, and then, and there show cause why an order should not be granted for the sale of said estate.

And it is further ordered that a notice of this order be published for at least three consecutive weeks before the said day of hearing, in the Hilo Tribune, a newspaper published at Hilo, and the Pacific Commercial Advertiser, a newspaper published in Honolulu, the last publication to be not less than ten days previous to the time therein appointed for said hearing.
