Thumping the keys of a piano is not music, and putting successively various lenses before the eyes is not an examination, even though certain improvements in vision are obtained. Anybody can test your eyes—you can do it yourself, but the scientific use of lenses involves something more than experimenting. Few can examine eyes and do it intelligently and satisfactorily—quite a difference between eye-tests and eye examinations. Did that fact ever occur to you?

"KAM" GRADS CRITICIZED

The Immigration Board Detects Some Flaws.

The regular weekly meeting of the Board of Immigration was held yesterday morning at 8:30 in the board's office in the Magoon block. Commissioners Cooke, Craig and Carden and Clerk Crabbe were present.

Several letters from mainland people inquiring about the prospect of settling on public lands, were read. There were communications from Idaho, Oklahoma and Washington. It was suggested that such letters be turned over to the Promotion Committee, that organization being in the habit of receiving them continually. W. E. Armstrong of Boise City, Ida., wrote that he and his large family would be glad to settle here if the proper inducements were offered. A Polish resident of Oklahoma said he had between $500 and $1000 to invest and would like to come here if land conditions were favorable.

To this last inquiry Mr. Cooke thought it would be well to send the writer a copy of the proposition made by the plantations to men who wished to take up lands.

At this juncture Mr. Cooke said he would like to know what the government's policy would be for the next six months or a year as to the opening up of public lands. He did not believe in making any misrepresentations. He thought the Governor and the Land Commissioner should make some definite and authoritative statement in this regard.

Mr. Cooke suggested that at the close of the meeting the board call upon the Governor and get him to make some statement regarding his policy with regard to public lands. The board called upon Governor Carter shortly before 10 o'clock.

Clerk Crabbe read statements from various plantations as to the men he had sent out to work.

Kihei reported that of the twenty-four Porto Ricans received there, only four had stayed. Four men out of seventeen stayed with the Makee Sugar Company. Eight had been accused of holding up a Portuguese and had then vanished.

The commissioners agreed that this was a discouraging state of affairs. Olaa, Kohala and Makaweli had similar complaints to make.

G. H. Robertson of Brewer & Co., wrote that the manager of Wailuku plantation had an unpleasant experience with fifteen Portuguese and Porto Ricans. A dozen were merely hoodlums, who dressed flashily and did not care to work. He thought it was folly to send such men to the plantations.

Mr. Robertson added that Wailuku was a bad place to send this class of young men to work as there were too many saloons about.

Mr. Crabbe said that all the men reported on as above, who had left the plantations, had been blacklisted.

During the meeting the young men graduates from Kamehameha School were given a scolding. It was agreed by some of the members that they were not practical when they left the school and could not "deliver the goods" when it came to real work. Commissioner Craig said they were "a lot of loafers," with especial reference to the young fellows turned out of the mechanical department of the school. Commissioner Cooke thought they had too much book-learning and too little practical instruction. He brought on the discussion by stating that some young men from Kamehameha school had been offered a position in the mechanical department of a plantation. One young fellow wrote a most wonderfully worded letter to show why he had not struck to his job. Clerk Crabbe said the Kam boys could always show proficiency when it came to making a speech. He added that they were not doing practical work in the Kamehameha School. Mr. Craig said their instruction was not practical, although they had good instructors. He believed the system of instruction was wrong.

Mr. Cooke agreed with Mr. Craig in this.

FATHER TORE SON AWAY FROM MOTHER

A little incident which occurred Saturday night on Fort and King streets, during the celebration, was in sad contrast to the prevailing merriment. A man and woman began quarreling. A crowd gathered and soon learned the story. They were a divorced couple and the court had awarded the boy to the father and the little girl to the mother. The boy had found his mother while watching the throng and the store windows, and clung to her. The father came upon the scene and demanded that the little fellow leave his mother and go with him. The boy protested and cried. The mother comforted the little fellow and asserted her maternal solicitude when the father attempted to carry the boy away. There was a quarrel which ended when the father forcibly took the boy from his mother and carried him down the street, the little fellow crying and fighting to be released.

Barber (with apologetic cough)—Which side shall I part your hair on? Customer (with no hair to speak of)—The middle will do as well as anywhere. It's about six on one side and half a dozen on the other.

OAHU INMATES SING "BLEST BE THE TIE THAT BINDS."

The entertainment for the prisoners at Oahu Prison on Christmas Day was unusually interesting. About 225 prisoners were seated under the beautiful kamani tree in the prison yard. Fourteen boys from the Castle Home were seated on a carpet spread on the ground in front of the leader's table. Something over 40 visitors completed the audience. At 2 p. m. the genial and much-loved John M. Martin, who has charge of the Y. M. C. A. work in this institution, opened the exercises by calling for a song by the glee club, "supported by the government." The prison glee club responded with "Abiding in the Field." Scripture was then read by Mr. C. D. Mayfield, prayer was offered by Mrs. Mayfield, and the song "Peacefully the Flocks are Sleeping" was sung by Kaulani Home Quartet.

The further program was as follows: Song, "Tell Mother I'll Be There," Prison Glee Club.

Then came the principal address of the hour by Bishop J. W. Hamilton. His theme was "The Perfect Man." He showed that neither physical, intellectual or spiritual development alone, but all combined were needed to secure the desired result. The address was enjoyed by all present.

Senator Dickey was called upon, and responded by saying some pleasant things.

Song, "I Hear the Glad Song," Kaulani Home Quartet. A Christmas story by Capt. W. J. Josselyn.

Song, "Christ the New-born King," Prison Glee Club. Greeting to the Japanese prisoners in their own language by Rev. J. W. Wadman. Greeting to Koreans, by one of a delegation from the Koreans of Ewa plantation. Song, "Happy Day," by delegates from Ewa. All joined in "Blest Be the Tie that Binds." Benediction by a native minister. Bags of candy and nuts were then distributed by the boys from the Castle Home. All were supplied and the people returned amid "Merry Christmas" and "Happy New Year" greetings.

MISS WILHELMINE JOEHNKE.

Another talented young Oregonian is receiving recognition in the East. Miss Wilhelmine Joehnke has been engaged by the board of directors of the public schools of New York City to deliver a series of illustrated lectures on the Hawaiian Islands in various schools of the great city. Miss Joehnke lived two years in the islands, and on her return went to Chicago, where she graduated with honors from the University of Chicago last June. Since her graduation she has been traveling as correspondent for New York papers in the South and Southwest, and while on her travels delivered lectures. Miss Joehnke's parents reside near Oregon City, where she was born. She is a niece of Mrs. W. C. Duniway, of Portland.

May's Perfect Coffee

The BEST COFFEE on earth is MAY'S OLD KONA COFFEE. There are reasons for this which can be readily adduced.

In the first place we age our coffee systematically and thoroughly. Aging is a vital process if the valuable dietic qualities of the bean are to be brought out.

Then there's a whole lot in roasting and grinding. MAY'S OLD KONA COFFEE is freshly roasted and is ground fresh for every customer.

The beans are specially selected and are perfect in every respect. If the cooking end of coffee-preparing be properly attended to, MAY'S OLD KONA COFFEE will make the best cup of coffee that it is possible to obtain.
