Every room and every cottage are taken at the Seaside. Those registered there are Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Niles Almy, Dr. and Mrs. Dunbar and Mr. Stewart Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. Raymer Sharpe and family, Colonel and Mrs. Sam Johnson and son, Mrs. Gardiner Wilder, Miss Barnes, Miss Wix, Mr. Donald, Elele, Kauai; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pilling and Miss Spensly, Tenson, Arizona; Tom Murray, Seattle; Mr. Hamilton, Seattle; Miss Kelly, Los Angeles; Raymond Brown, of the Immigrant Station; Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Styne and Mrs. E. M. Styne, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Nahiku, Maui; Mr. Mana Widemann and Major and Mrs. Purdy.

Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Miss Schaefer, Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. Charles Foster, Mrs. Du Roi, Mrs. Hoffmann, Miss McGowan, Miss Plagemann, Miss Hazel Hoffman and Mrs. Gaines had tea last Wednesday at the Country Club. It is a very pleasant rendezvous, this Country Club, and a decided innovation to be able to drop in of an afternoon at the end of a walk, a drive or a ride, and have served to one a delicious cup of tea. Ladies especially appreciate this favor.

Friends of Mrs. S. D. Heapy and Miss Burbank will be pleased to know that though quick traveling, they are having a pleasant time in England, Belgium, Switzerland, Germany and France, and are now in Rome, visiting the art galleries and other places of interest. While in London, they were guests of Lord Aberdeen, at a reception held on the celebrated Terrace of the House of Commons, where they met many old friends. Although a month in England they never saw sunshine once.

Miss Restarick gave an at home on Monday, July 29, for Miss Theda Burnham, who is visiting her from California. Those present were Misses Beatrice Castle, Irene Fisher, Dagmar Sorenson, Buchly (2), Angus, Catton (2), Gunn, Day, McStocker (2), Hopper (2), Violet Damon, Jane Winne, Belle Ashley, Linda Schaefer, Sara Lucas, Belle McCarrison, Eunice Pratt, Blair, Wills, Ella Wight, Rycroft (2), Freeth (2), Edith Smith, Helen North, Spalding (2) and von Holt, and Mesdames Dougherty, Herzer and Moore.

One of the pleasantest picnics of the year was given Wednesday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Macfarlane at the Peninsula, by Miss Rosie Herbert. About forty young people were present and enjoyed a pretty lunch, after which all went over to Ford's Island for a bathing party. They were afterwards taken out in La Paloma by Mr. Macfarlane, coming home in the evening after a happy day.

On Thursday evening Hon. Wm. R. Castle will give a dinner in honor of his classmate, Secretary Straus, at the Alexander Young Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson of Nahiku, have taken a cottage at the Seaside.

Dr. and Mrs. Dunbar and Mr. Stewart Dunbar have a cottage at the Seaside.

Miss Dagmar Sorenson and Richard Cooke, whose engagement has been recently announced, were the guests of honor at an informal dance given on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. McClanahan in their charming bungalow in Manoa. Among the guests present at this most delightful affair were Misses Dagmar Sorenson, Irene Fisher, Alice Cooke, Beatrice Castle, Linda Schaefer, Violet Damon, Vera Damon, Helene Irwin, Margaret Hyde-Smith, Elsa Schaefer, Edna Green, Harriet Hatch, Catherine Goodale, Katherine Hopper, Bessie Hopper, Bernice Hartwell, Dorothy Hartwell, Madge McCandless, Marion Scott, Gertrude Brown, Nora Swanzy, Nora Sturgeon, Lily Paty, Lorna Iaukea, Ella Wight, Belle Ashley, Constance Restarick, Sara Lucas, Belle McCarrison, Alice Cooper, Justine McClanahan, Messrs. Richard Cooke, Sherwood, Frederick and Alan Lowrey, Alfred Castle, Harold Castle, Georges Canavaro, Geo. Fuller, Walter and Harold Dillingham, Fred Damon, Allison Jordan, Alexander Walker, Gustave Schaefer, C. Wright, Bruce Cartwright, O. Sorenson, Kenneth Brown, Guy Macfarlane, George Renton, Coleman Schwartz, George Brown, Herbert Dowsett, Derwent Kennedy, Ralph Johnstone, Mr. Meyers, Robert Paris, William Lidgate, Harold Giffard, Percival Galt, Southwick, Weller and Arthur Mackintosh.

Miss Coan, sub-editor of Emanu-El, of San Francisco, is a guest of the Royal Hawaiian, and will spend a month here on vacation. Miss Coan brings letters of introduction to many well-known Honoluluans and has already found a number of friends here. She finds particular pleasure in the surfing at Waikiki and already has acquired a considerable skill with the surfboard.

Sir H. R. Swanzy, one of the new knights created by King Edward, is a brother of F. M. Swanzy of this city. His picture, which is reproduced herewith, appears in a recent number of the London Illustrated News. In an article on the new knights and baronets in the same paper, Sir H. R. Swanzy is described as an eminent eye and ear specialist.

Secretary A. L. C. Atkinson gave a small surfing party Thursday afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth. Crowds of spectators were on the beach watching the canoe containing the distinguished guests, riding the crest of the waves. Mr. Atkinson's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Longworth, Mr. and Mrs. Straus, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Church and Governor Carter.

G. H. Gere and family have moved from Makiki street to 1813 College street.

Miss Freda Gay has invitations out for a dance to be given tomorrow night at the Seaside.

Mrs. Stafford Heapy of the Kaulani Home is recovering from an attack of appendicitis.

The summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Damon, at Moanalua, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last night, Miss Lucy C. Vrooman, M. D., becoming the bride of William J. Cooper, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. A. S. Baker of Kona. The wedding was a quiet one, both the young couple being comparatively newcomers in Honolulu.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. A. R. Vrooman of San Francisco, a close friend of Mrs. Damon who arranged the details for the wedding and the wedding supper. She has been in Honolulu for a few weeks only, having come here for a rest after having completed her studies at the Cooper Medical College and having passed with distinction the State examination for practicing physicians.

Mr. Cooper is a native of West Virginia, arriving here some months ago from San Francisco to accept a position on the editorial staff of the Hawaiian Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will live on Nuuanu avenue, near Judd street.

A dinner of unusual moment was given at the Seaside last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Frederic J. Church in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth and Mr. and Mrs. Jack London. The criticism by President Roosevelt of London's account of a fight between a bulldog and a wolf aroused a good deal of expectancy among the guests, but, to their disappointment, the subject was not mentioned. The dinner was served in the Turkish room of the Seaside, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, Secretary A. L. C. Atkinson, Miss Harvey, Miss Irmgard Schaefer, and James Wilder. The Kaal Quintet Club, assisted by Mrs. Alapal and Miss Kaal, sang during the dinner and for the dance afterwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack London are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lorrin A. Thurston until the sailing of the Snark for the south.

Mrs. George R. Carter will be at home on Wednesday afternoon, from two o'clock until six.

The dance at the Seaside on Thursday night in honor of Congressman and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, was a most decided success. Mrs. Longworth wore an exquisite Parisian creation of black silk and was, of course, greatly admired by all. Fred Church was very much honored by being given the only dance that the charming daughter of the President has had in Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymer Sharpe have taken a cottage at the Seaside, and will remain at the beach for some time.

Miss Kelly, a society belle of Los Angeles, has gone out to the Seaside for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rodiek are leaving Honolulu the fourteenth of the month for a trip to Europe. They will be gone several months.

Miss Fitz Henry has moved from the Hawaiian Hotel over to the Young where she has taken a studio for her painting and music. Her dainty place cards have been very much admired at some of our swell dinners of late and her many friends are pleased to know she has decided to take a limited number of pupils in music as well. Miss Fitz Henry gets on admirably with young people and is very proficient in music, having studied in London with reference to teaching.

The Faxon Bishops have returned to town from Tantalus where they spent several weeks at the Rodiek cottage. They were very thoughtful of many of their town friends by inviting several "over Sunday" parties to enjoy the beautiful mountain air. The Bishop hospitality is well known.

Mrs. A. M. Brown is the guest for several days of Mrs. Arthur Wilder on Tantalus.

John H. Humburg was a passenger on the Siberia from San Francisco this week, coming, it is understood, to take Mr. Rodiek's place in the Hackfeld firm while Mr. Rodiek goes for his long contemplated journey. Mrs. Humburg and infant may soon join him here.

Mrs. Haines gave an informal luncheon on Thursday for Miss Plagemann at the Country Club.

Percival Galt and his two college friends, Messrs. Southwall and Weller, left last Tuesday for a trip to the volcano and will return by the Mauna Loa next Tuesday. They return to the mainland early in September with many other of the Island young people for their college duties. There are many affairs "sur le tapis" for these young men who are charmed with the Islands.

The engagement of Miss Charlotte Baldwin to Harold Rice of Maui has been announced, and is being received with a great deal of pleasure by the numerous friends of both throughout the Islands.

Bishop and Miss Restarick have gone to Hawaii for a short visit.

Much sympathy is expressed for Mrs. Litchfield over the most unfortunate injuries sustained by Mr. Litchfield in the auto accident on Wednesday night. Almost as much sympathy is felt for Walter F. Dillingham, who was running the machine at the time. At the eye-witnesses to the affair agree that Mr. Dillingham did what was possible to avert the running down of the man who had stepped before his machine, going up on to the sidewalk curb in an effort to pass. After the accident he also proved his manliness by coming at once to the assistance of the injured man and in shouldering the blame for the affair. He has been constant, too, in calling upon Mrs. Litchfield and doing whatever lay in his power to lighten her trouble and to do what he could for the sufferer.

A luncheon at which Miss Hartwell was the hostess was given on Monday last, the guests being Misses Dagmar, Sorenson, Irene Fisher, Anna Tucker and Elsa and Linda Schaefer.

Admiral and Mrs. Stevens, who are guests at the Moana, expect to leave before the end of the month for Washington, D. C., where they have taken a large house.

A very large number of the society ladies of Honolulu left cards on the ladies at Fort Schafter on Friday, the first day at home of Mrs. Dunning and the other ladies at the Fort.
