TOKIO COMMENT ON BASEBALL

Japanese Papers Devoted Whole Pages to St. Louis Games
---Crititized Some---

The interest taken in Tokio in the playing of the St. Louis baseball nine is shown in the amount of space devoted to the different games by the Japanese papers, the files received on the Korea having pages devoted to detailed write-ups of the matches and to baseball illustrations. The Honolulu players seem to have made a great hit with the Japanese, although the comments of some of the Japanese papers after the first game, in which the Honolulu team was beaten, indicate that the visitors had not played up to the reputation which had preceded them.

The Tokio Kokumin (Nation), a leading newspaper of Japan, gives the following account of the first match, translated freely. After describing the elaborate decorations of the Keio grounds for the occasion, the arch of welcome erected in honor of the visitors, the yelling crowd of students and the great assemblage of spectators, the Nation says:

"As the St. Louis nine entered through the arch a great shout of welcome was given them by the thousands assembled. The visitors practised a little before the game. Pitcher Leslie's throwing was wonderfully quick and his speed surprised the Keio players. The batting order of the Hawaiian team showed their tactics, the Chimanan, En Sae, noted as a fast runner, coming first to bat because they wanted to utilize his speed and bunt to put him to first in safety. He bunted as was expected and ran like an arrow. When within twelve feet of firstbase he threw himself along the ground. His speed was simply wonderful. He stole down to second and on the catcher's error got to third. He came home on a hit from Bushnell. The tactics were splendid. In the third innings the Hawaiian team got another run, but in the fifth, by hard hitting and taking advantage of the rattling of the catcher, leftfield and third baseman the Keio players got three runners, putting them in the lead. The rooters yelled with joy and gave their college calls. In the sixth and eighth innings the Hawaiians got two more runs, tying the score. Then the rooters got discouraged and quieted down. The run in the eighth was made on bad error on the part of Keio. Fernandez was on third and Fox-like Evers was on second. He stood far off the base. This was a Hawaiian trick, for if Ioki, the Keio pitcher, threw to second to catch him the runner on third would come home. The spectators feared that Ioki would be caught and he was, throwing to second and allowing Fernandez to come in.

In the ninth both sides had scored the same and it was decided to play on. "Now the Keio rooters picked up courage again and began their college yells, filling the grounds with their voices. This weakened the spirit of the Hawaiians and Fernandez, who was standing on the coaching line, making horrible noises which caused laughter among the spectators, became quiet. Yet the Hawaiians showed much spirit and many feared that they would win. But in the thirteenth innings Keio succeeded in getting some of the Hawaiians rattled and brought in two runs, thus settling the destiny of the day. In the tenth and eleventh innings the Hawaiians came up strong, but never until they had two men out, when it was too late. "Perhaps the spectators who had heard reports about the Hawaiian team were surprised at the result. Of course, the ability of the team can not be judged altogether on the first game, but as a team they are not perfect. Pitcher Ioki threw splendidly and his opponents were bothered with his curves, even the strongest batters among them being fooled by his magical throws. That Mr. Evers, before the game, was struck in the stomach and had his wind knocked out, was not a good omen for the Hawaiian team. Perhaps today was an off-day for the Hawaiians and they may come up stronger later. The Waseda players were among the careful observers today and they may have gained some pointers. There were about eight thousand at the game, charged on an average thirty cents each. If the Hawaiians make a better showing with Waseda the game will become very popular and there will be enough money to pay the expenses of the Hawaiian team."

STARS WIN FIRST SERIES

The Star indoor baseball team justified its name last night by defeating the Financiers in the F. M. C. A. series by a score of 24 to 9, thus winning the championship of the first series. The Financiers played one man short, which accounts to an extent for the one-sided score. The teams lined up as follows:

Stars—Dennis Keoho, c; F. A. Bechert, p; P. Schmidt, 1b; D. Voeller, 2b; J. Nott, 3b; F. Michael, rf; L. Richards, lf.
Financiers—Johnson, c; M. Keoho, p; J. Clark, 1b; C. Gilliland, 3b; J. Spalding, rf; S. Gunn, lf.

Score by innings:

Stars	123456789
Financiers	020436900-24
Stars	111004002-9

The game on Thursday was between the Salesmen and the Ironworkers, the latter winning by 22 to 13.

Standing of the teams:

	P.	W.	L.	Pct.
Stars	3	3	0	1.000
Ironworkers	3	2	1	.750
Financiers	3	1	2	.350
Salesmen	3	0	3	.000

The second series in the league will begin on Friday, November 29.

BASEBALLERS ENTERTAINED

The visiting baseballers enjoyed their first night in Honolulu by attending the two dances arranged in their honor, spending the early hours at the Young Hotel dance given by the members of the St. Louis Alumni as a welcome home to Barney Joy and a welcome to Hawaii for them, and afterwards taking in the hop given at the Seaside Hotel. Both dances were crowded and the malihinis had an opportunity of meeting and becoming acquainted with many Honoluluans. The visitors seem to be as much at home on the waxed floor as they were during the afternoon on the grassy diamond and they missed nothing.

Naturally Barney Joy was the especial guest of honor at the Alumni dance at the Young, where he was presented with a carnation lei and surrounded at all times by an admiring circle of friends, to whom he related how "we do it in Frisco." Mike Fisher was also the center of attraction, while the big baseballers did not lack at any time for attentions.

FERREIRA RIDES SOME WINNERS

Domingo Ferreira, well known here as a skillful jockey, has been riding some mounts to victory on the Inland Circuit in California. At Concord he brought home two winners, in a three-quarter mile dash piloting Clausule, a four-year old Brutus colt, belonging to Jim O'Rourke, home in 1:14-1/4, while another horse from the same stable took second place. In a fast half-mile he rode the winner, Concord Boy, a big chestnut, winning by a length from a big field. Both of these horses were trained by as well as ridden by Ferreira.

Ferreira is now in Oakland taking off weight in order to get a mount in some of the events on the Oakland track. He finds that he has acquired too much avoidupois to compete with the jockeys there and is therefore doing stunts on the track himself with a blanket.

ST. LOUIS YELL IN JAPANESE

The Jiji Shimpo, of Tokio, has published a Japanese translation of the war song of the St. Louis College baseball nine, adding an explanatory note that the words and music were composed by Theodore Richards, of Honolulu, who had been for many years the principal of the college. The original words of the song may be familiar enough here, but they are hardly recognizable in the retranslation made from the Japanese. That version runs this way:

"Rain, rain, Kalihii rain,
Comes like the echo of our song.
Rah, rah, St. Louis!
Let me shout, while the valley swells
Our song prolongs."
Mr. Richards is not and never has been the principal at St. Louis and it is doubtful if he would recognize any composition of his in the lines quoted above.
