FINE OUTLOOK FOR ORPHEUM THEATRICALS

Tomorrow night W. J. Elleford's dramatic company, headed by Frank Cooley and Miss Gladys Kingsbury gives its first performance in this city for the season of 1907-1908 at the Orpheum theater. Honolulu people have for months looked forward to this engagement, and the advance sale is already a guarantee that packed houses will greet the company all next week. In "The Unwritten Law" the entire company appears to fine advantage.

The theme of the play naturally carries with it deep heart-interest, and the strong dramatic roles will be in the capable hands of Mr. Cooley, Miss Kingsbury, Miss Florence Plummer and Charles F. Dey.

The comedy element of the play is such as to please everyone, and the company supporting Mr. Cooley and Miss Kingsbury is strong in comedians. Miss Nera Rosa, one of the best known character actresses on the Pacific Coast; Miss Harriet James, a charming little soubrette, and Messrs. George Kenneth, William Ross and Kendall Fellows fill the comedy roles in "The Unwritten Law."

In addition to the performances of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, "The Unwritten Law" will be presented at a special matinee on Thursday afternoon, Thanksgiving day. Thursday night the bill will be changed and for the last three nights of the week "The Scout's Revenge" will hold the boards.

INTER-ISLAND SAILINGS.

Yesterday was a fairly busy day along the Inter-Island stretches of the front. The Kinan arrived shortly before eight o'clock from Hilo, bringing eighty-four cabin passengers and a full freight cargo. Included in the cargo were 15,559 bags of sugar, the bulk of it from the Oiaa mill, while in the miscellaneous freight were twenty-four bags of awa, twenty-seven cases of honey, thirty-four bags of taro and a quantity of other farm stuff.

At 1:45 the Likelike arrived from Maui and Molokai ports and the Kahulani made port at five o'clock.

SOCIETY

A wedding of interest to almost everyone in the islands was that of Mrs. Marsh to Mr. C. C. Kennedy, manager of the Waialakea Mill Company at Hilo and one of the best known of the sugar planters of Hawaii. The bride came to Honolulu some months ago, teaching school in this city, later going to Hilo. She returned to the islands shortly before the wedding from San Jose, where she had been on a visit to her parents. Mrs. Kennedy is a beautiful and accomplished young lady and has already established for herself a large circle of friends in the islands.

A number of the friends of the Howland boys spent Sunday last at a house party at Waialeale. Allan Herbert's beautiful place in Kallhi valley. The affair was in the nature of a farewell to J. Hastings Howland and his brother E. Franklin, both of whom sailed for the mainland on Friday. Before sailing, J. Hastings Howland was presented with a beautiful silver loving cup by his fellow Shriners, of which order he has been a prominent member for some time.

Sweet Home, the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Holloway, was the scene of a very pretty tea on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hyde, who is spending the winter with the Holloways. Assisting Mrs. Holloway in receiving was Miss Cushing, who is also visiting in Honolulu, while tea was poured by a number of young ladies, including the Misses Beatrice Castle, Helen Alexander, Cordelia Walker, Ella Wight, Nora Sturgeon, Alice Cooke, Violet Damon and Vera Damon.

Among the guests were Mrs. W. W. Whitney, Mrs. A. Francis Judd, Mrs. Laura Wight, Miss Ella Wight, Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mrs. Chas. Wight, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Henry Lyon, Mrs. Edward Tenney, Mrs. James B. Castle, Mrs. Walter Brinckerhoff, Mrs. Allan White, Miss Anna Paris, Mrs. Caroline Robinson, Mrs. Eben Low, Mrs. Howard Hitchcock, Mrs. von Holt, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. Fred. Lowrey, Mrs. Charles M. Cooke, Mrs. Montague Cooke, Miss Alice Cooke, Mrs. W. W. Hall, the Misses Hall, Mrs. E. Hall, Mrs. Schaefer, Miss Schaefer, Mrs. Paul Neumann, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Miss Nora Sturgeon, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. Gullick, Mrs. Chas. Cooper, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. J. O. Carter, Miss Charlotte Carter, Mrs. Ernest Mott-Smith, Miss Paty, Mrs. Angus, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. Walter Frear, Mrs. Walter Hoffmann, Mrs. J. R. Galt, Mrs. Alice Hastings, Mrs. M. M. Scott, Mrs. E. W. Jordan, Mrs. W. C. Wilder.

The McCarrison residence was the scene of a very pretty farewell luau last Wednesday, tendered to Messrs. Hastings and Franklin Howland by Mrs. Ella Hardy. The tables were very prettily decorated with maiden-hair ferns and red carnations intertwined with malle. Everything was served a la Hawaiian and was a decided success never to be forgotten by those who were present. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kerr, Dr. Walters, Miss Sarah Lucas, Mrs. Ella Hardy, the Misses Whiting, Miss Gertrude McCarrison, Messrs. Hastings and Franklin Howland, Frank Foster, J. O. Carter Jr., Cushman Carter, Geo. McCarrison, Oscar McCarrison, L. A. Kerr, Harry Wilder, C. Wilder, Harry Lucas, Stetson and others.

Mrs. Hugo P. Frear and her daughter Beatrice have come to Honolulu for the winter. They will be for the present at the Macdonald's on Punahou street.

The welcome home dance given in honor of Barney Joy at the Alexander Young Hotel roof garden on Friday night, at which the members of the All Stars baseball team were guests of honor, was a most enjoyable event. It was arranged by the members of the St. Louis College Alumni, of which Barney is a member, and the makai pavilion was well filled during the evening with the dancers and guests. Those in charge of the affair were Jas. H. Holt, president of the association; Hon. John C. Lane, Carlos A. Long, Henry N. Clark and Charles A. K. Hopkins. Assisting this committee were C. H. Rose, L. Perry, M. K. Cook, B. W. Houghfailing and J. A. Legros. Music for the dancing was furnished by the Kaai Quintette Club.

Mrs. Eickerton has taken a residence for the winter months on Wilder avenue, next to the Oscar Whites.

Mr. and Mrs. George Guild have rented the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gaines in College Hills. The Gaines have taken apartments at Mrs. Macdonald's.

For a six-month's tour of the world, Frank Armstrong sailed on the Korea on Friday.

During the week Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wilcox, of Kauai, were in the city.

The Rebekahs are to be the hostesses at a dance arranged for Wednesday night in the Young Hotel roof garden. The dance will be the first of a series to be given by the lodge ladies during the season.

Dr. and Mrs. Humphris entertained at dinner at the Moana on Sunday last, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Gaines, Lady Herroh, Mrs. William Stanley, Mrs. Reid, Miss Johnstone, Mr. Bruce Cartwright and Mr. Jamieson. The table decorations were particularly beautiful, being of pink water lilies and maidenhair ferns.

A bridge and pedro party was given on Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, among the guests present being Col. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brown, Mrs. Augusta Schmidt, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Cunha, Mr. Robert Shingle, Mr. Bert Peterson, Mr. Frederic Wickett.

Baldwin request the pleasure of your company at the marriage reception of their daughter Charlotte M. Kinney and Mr. Harold Waterhouse Rice on Saturday, the seventh of December, at 8 o'clock at Spreckelsville, Maui, Hawaiian Islands.

Mrs. Goodale Stouder, Laura Stouder and servant sailed on the Korea for their home in Berkeley, Cal., after visiting three months with her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Camp. Many social entertainments and excursions for sight-seeing were enjoyed, and it was with regret they left Honolulu and the many friends made while here. Dr. and Mrs. Camp will join them for a visit later, going by the way of Vancouver, Seattle and Portland.

Mrs. Eben Low's bridge tea last week was one of the pleasant functions of the week, a large number of her friends competing for the handsome prizes. Mrs. Jarrett, Mrs. Borah and Mrs. Robinson were the ones who held the lucky cards and secured the most—and the least—points on the score cards. Among the guests were Princess Kalaniana'ole, Mrs. Carl Widemann, Mrs. S. Parker, Mrs. E. S. Cunha, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. Willifong, Mrs. Jarrett, Mrs. Charles Booth, Mrs. Augusta Schmidt, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Hastings, Mrs. George Herbert, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Mrs. Magoon, Mrs. McStocker, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Crockett, Mrs. A. S. Wilcox, Mrs. Charles Wight, Miss Lucy Ward.

Mrs. J. B. MacKinnon, the mother of Mrs. Edward Damon, arrived in the Alameda for a visit with her daughter.

Mr. Jack MacKinnon, who has been away for a trip, accompanied his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell returned yesterday from the mainland.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, Douglas E. and Paul F. Baldwin, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baldwin returned to the islands in the Mongolia.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil A. Berndt have returned from the Coast.

Mrs. C. G. Boeckus and child returned yesterday from a long sojourn in California.

Charles Hustace, accompanied by Miss A. C. Hustace, returned in the Mongolia, being welcomed at the steamer by Charles Hustace, Jr., chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

Hon. D. P. R. Isenberg returned in the Mongolia from a prolonged visit to Germany, looking remarkably well.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr., returned home in the Mongolia yesterday. Mr. Lewis was one of the orators from Hawaii at the Lake Mohonk conference, delivering an able address on the ship subsidy bill which has appeared in the Advertiser.

Miss Margaret Lishman returned from the Coast in yesterday's steamer, being gladly welcomed by her many friends.

Col. G. W. Macfarlane, whom illness diverted from a projected business trip to London to a hot springs resort in California, returned home in the Mongolia.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lord returned in the Mongolia.

Mr. Turner, manager of a London playhouse, has a system of his own. Whenever he sees a man coming in with too much Scotch soda aboard he tells him there was a mistake made in selling the ticket, as it has already been sold, and that the patron can get his money back at the box-office. This little fiction usually works very satisfactorily to all concerned. It did not the other night, however. A tall, red-faced Englishman, loaded up to his lips, stumbled into the foyer. Mr. Turner gave him the regulation speech. "I knew you were going to say that," hiccupped the inebriated one. "You did it once before, so I bought another ticket. Here it is."

"When I heah you tawk about havin' a even tempah," said the Kentucky colonel, "I cain't he'p thinkin' of Jack Chinn and what ole man Hutchins used to say of him back theah in Harrodsburg. Ole man Hutchins used to say: 'Jack Chinn, he's jes' about the mos' even tempahed man evah wus in the wuhld, he is. Mad all the time.'"

Walter S. Hale's compliment to Rear-Admiral Coghlan (retired), at the dinner of the Schley Camp of Spanish War Veterans, may not have been in perfect taste, but it was very witty. "You hocked der Kaiser," he said, "but you must never hock this," and pinned the gold badge of the veterans on the admiral's broad breast.
