Three Concerns Intervene to Get Their Money Out of Fort Shafter.

Another chapter was added to the litigation that has followed the construction of the Army post buildings at Fort Shafter. Judge Dole of the United States District Court yesterday gave leave to three more creditors of the Burrell Construction Company to intervene in the suit of the United States of America for the use and benefit of Lewers & Cooke v. Burrell Construction Company and The Aetna Indemnity Company, of Hartford.

The intervenors are Lucas Bros. who sue for $2000 worth of mill and other work on lumber they did for the Burrell Construction Company for the Fort Shafter work.

Catton, Neill & Co. who intervene for $127.50 worth of labor and material furnished.

And A. B. Johnson who intervenes for $85.43 worth of labor and material furnished.

Ah Kong changed his plea to guilty and was fined $50. These are old cases on appeal from the District Court. Henry Hogan was originally their attorney.

CASTLE DEMURS.

Demurrer has been filed by the defendant in the suit of L. L. McCandless v. W. B. Castle, trustee under the will of Joshua Williams, deceased.

TICKETS ARE GOING WELL FOR THE MASCOT

"The Mascot," so successfully produced last week, will be presented for the last time tonight and all who have not already done so are strongly advised to take this last opportunity of seeing this particularly bright and clever opera. "The Mascot" has been voted one of the best things seen here for a long time, while the manner in which it is being produced by local amateurs calls forth much praise from all quarters. The sale of seats for this last presentation tonight is proceeding most satisfactorily, in fact there have been many productions here which have not had such satisfactory bookings for their first night as "The Mascot" is now having for its third.

This is accounted for by the really excellent way in which "The Mascot" is presented, and it has won out on merit alone.

Many will be there tonight who have seen both the previous productions of "The Mascot" last week, which fact in itself speaks louder than words in its praise. Tonight there will be a crowded and merry audience, most of the schools and colleges in Honolulu being well represented, and all seem to promise as great a success tonight as upon that of the opening.

The tickets are going rapidly at Wall, Nichols Co. and it looks as if there will be a few people standing if the sale continues as large during today. For this reason all desiring good seats for tonight should secure them as early in the day as possible. There will be no tickets held after 4 p. m. today.

AN AMERICAN CONQUEST

Merit will tell, as is proved by the continually increasing hold which it has in all parts of the universe, and its latest conquest, viz., the United States of America, will make it more widely used than any other in the world. The secret of its success is due to the fact that it is not only delicious to the palate, but that it is equally beneficial to the stomach and the entire system. From Philadelphia the superintendent writes: "For the past year we have been using Tansan Waters at the American Hospital for Diseases of the Stomach in cases of Chronic Gastric Catarrh; also in cases of deficient urinary secretion. It has proven a highly useful adjunct in the treatment of these cases. We are dispensing it as a drinking water to our private-room patients." Typhoid, Dysentery and kindred diseases are unknown to Tansan drinkers. Ring up 191 and place order.

STORY OF ROSE MAIDEN

Cowen's Cantata Is Beautiful in Theme as Well as Music.

The biggest thing in the concert line held in Honolulu in some years will be "The Rose Maiden" music festival at Hawaiian Opera House next Friday evening.

The music-loving public must not confuse this concert with the chorus of small children held yearly, as the coming event will be produced by the older students from the advanced schools and the chorus will consist of voices well trained and almost mature. The soloists will be the leading vocalists of the city including Mrs. Bruce McV. Mackall, soprano; Mrs. Dr. O'Day, contralto; C. E. Edmunds, tenor and Chester Livingston, baritone.

"The Rose Maiden" is a very beautiful cantata by Frederic H. Cowen. The argument runs as follows: The Queen of the Fairies, weary of a life of unbroken calm, prays of the newly returned Spring that he will bestow upon her also the gift of love that he bestows upon man. He warns her of the risk she runs, but finally yields to her entreaties by changing her while she sleeps into the form of a beautiful girl. Under the name of Roseblossom she wanders through the world to find the love that she seeks, and meets with a girl who, having been deserted by her lover, loses her senses and dies broken hearted. But, undeterred from her search Roseblossom becomes the wife of a forester, with whom she lives for a time in such perfect happiness that she cannot survive his death. The elves bewail the fate of their Queen, and curse love as fatal to peace and happiness.

The music is exceedingly beautiful and brings out some splendid solos. The cantata on the whole is tuneful and delectable. The chorus is exceptionally fine and under the guidance of Livingston will give a most effective rendition of the popular score.

A full rehearsal will be held Monday afternoon at three o'clock in the Opera House and frequent rehearsals will be held thereafter until the performance Friday evening.

Exchange tickets are in the hands of students of the different schools for sale and also at Wall, Nichols Co. These tickets are to be exchanged for reserved seats after nine o'clock Monday morning.

A movement is on foot among some of the students to secure the boxes at the Opera House and decorate them with their school colors.

The occasion is the one event of the year that brings all the higher schools together and in lieu of a regular oratorio is a grand musical feature of Honolulu. No one should miss it.
