PALAMAS ARE CHAMPIONS OF THE RIVERSIDE LEAGUE

By Defeating the C. A. Cs. Yesterday Afternoon the Palamas Win the Second as Well as First Series.

Pilot Akina got into trouble early in the voyage of the good ship C. A. C. yesterday afternoon, and soon had her foul of the rocks. In the third inning the skipper hailed another wheel hand-

It was a sad slaughter. The Palamas were in great form, while Chi Bui's warriors were all to the lemon-colored hand-out. His Majesty, the King of Spain, stood in the box and sent over a bunch of twists that the dragonlets couldn't find with a searchlight.

Things took on a hoodoo color from the time that a gaudily ornate serving man, or field tender, or whatever you call it, exposed a big can of whitewash, the which he proceeded to sprinkle on the plate and along the lines wherever his sweet will directed.

There were four thousand and four policemen on the grounds, four of them wore uniform, and A. K. Vierra was the other four thousand. He carried his stick of office right majestically, and shooed the crowd back during the later innings when they showed signs of wanting to rush onto the field and argue with Eddie Fernandez, the umpire.

Eddie was all there with the indicator. His decisions were not hooted, as the rooters at Aala Park have great respect for his ability, and also some of them respect equally his ability to take care of himself when they become threatening in their criticisms.

The bandstand was full of band, and Captain Berger did himself proud. He had a selection of French marches that bristled with martial ardor, and he let them go in between innings with a stopover until the Palamas had made a runner or two, when he would switch off and turn round to take in the game.

The big doings started in the first inning. The Palamas went in first, and Akina's first merry action was to walk Zerbe. Then he made up for this by fanning Bailey, but Kealoha singled, and Zerbe went to second. Then Kama, who was taking Walker's place until the latter should show up, also singled, and Zerbe romped.

Then his Majesty skied to Mon Yin who returned to Sing Chong who threw wild to the plate. The ball whizzed by Chi Bui's head and both Kealoha and Kama ran in. Honan skied and the Palamas had a good start with three in the first period.

Palamas Make Five. The dragon kids went out in short order and then the Palamas came up but drew a blank in the second. In the third they made three runs, however, by handing out five. Again Zerbe walked and then stole second. Bailey put in a sweet little sacrifice and sent Zerbe to third. Then Kealoha came up and hit to Asam who fumbled the ball long enough for Zerbe to romp and Kealoha to get safe on first. Walker had arrived by this time and he took Kama's place. He sent an easy one to Akina who threw badly to first and Kealoha came in for the second run.

His royalty Espinda then came up and, before he had a chance to hit the ball, Walker scored on a poor throw by Mon Yin. Then his majesty doubled into the crowd and went home on a neat single by Honan. While Correa was busy skying Honan stole as far as third and then came in on a single by Webster unbridged. That made five runs and the score stood 8 to 0 for the Palamas.

C. A. Cs.' First Score. The C. A. Cs. made one in the second half of the third. With two men down Hong Chack walked and stole second then ran in on Mon Yin's single. Sing Chong then singled and Chi Bui walked which filled the bases and it looked like another score but Lo could not reach first and the inning finished with the score 8 to 1.

The C. A. Cs. scored another in the fourth. Akina singled and Asam sacrificed him to second. En Sang hit to Bailey who fumbled and Akina scored. They made two more in the eighth. Chi Bui singled, Lo doubled and Chi went to third. Then the king of Portugal got rattled, his crown must have been wobbling, and he sent in a wild pitch which put Chi Bui home. Asam flew out to Walker but En Sang bingled and Lo scored.

Ninth in the Ninth. That was the last run the dragons could make but the Palamas made their ninth in the ninth as thus: Bailey fanned, but Kealoha sent the ball abating and walked to second. Walker hit to Lo who made a bad throw to third to get Kealoha out and the latter was safe. Royalty then flew out but Kealoha had time to get in after the catch and the throne took credit for a sacrifice. This ended the game for the Palamas.

The C. A. Cs. did their best in the ninth to let the balloon loose but there was nothing doing in aeromantics. Hon Chack bingled and stole second but was caught napping on his way to third. Mon Yin also singled but was forced out on Sing Chong's hit to second then Chi Bui died at first and the game was over with an overwhelming victory for the Palamas.

There will be no more Riverside senior baseball this year. The Riverside juniors will play in the afternoon at Aala Park until the Kalaniana'ole league starts up, which will be towards the end of November. POOR PLAYING BY JUNIORS

The two morning games by the Riverside Junior League yesterday at the Aala Park diamond were not as good as usual. In the first contest the Comet A. C. found no trouble in defeating the Asahis by the score of 15 to 2, and in the second game the Chinese Aloha, Jrs., defeated the Perfume kids in another one-sided game by the score of 12 to 3.

Both of the victorious teams proved far more superior in the national pastime than their opponents, and it is expected that the league will allow the Nippons and Cologne bottles to strengthen their teams by some extra men who may prove to be better in the game than those now in these teams. As the Palamas have won the Riverside League championship and this closes the senior league series, the juniors will play in the afternoon, commencing next Sunday, instead of in the morning.

SAILORS REACH THE MAST HEAD

Standing of the Atkinson League: Iroquois..... 5 4 .750 Kewalos..... 4 3 .750 Ala Moanas..... 5 2 .400 Hanaiwais..... 5 2 .400 Marines..... 5 1 .200

The sailors from the Iroquois did the trick yesterday morning by defeating the Ala Moanas, and one Nygell Lorryne was smiling all over himself during the afternoon game at Aala Park. He said that he had broken his habit of scoring the first run, but he made the first bingle and got as far as third, where an unkind fate stopped him.

The Iroquois beat the Ala Moanas, and the Hanaiwais put one more on the poor marines by 10 to 8. This puts the Iroquois at the head of the league, as the Kewalos had a day off and did not play. There will be something doing when these two teams get together, and they will have a great struggle for the final championship.

Dreier pitched for the sailors and twirled a good game, although they did put over thirteen hits on him. Makolo and Kaai alternated in the box for the losers, and both were found badly to the tune of twenty-six bingles. The feature of the game was the home run of Townsend in the second, which started a landslide, during which the tugboat got away from her moorings and spun five times round the harbor before the winged kids could catch it and drop the anchor overboard.

Both games were fast and snappy, and the boys all played for all they were worth. The Iroquois deck artists are justly proud of their success and are out on the road opposite the dock practising with bat and ball whenever they get a few minutes to spare. The official scores were:

SIMPSON WINS TOURNAMENT

Austin White came very near to winning the second Tansan tournament at Moanalua yesterday but he was not quite there and, though he tied with W. Simpson in the first match, he was defeated by the size of the winner's handicap in the play off. The weather was good for golf, but no high scores were made, in fact, the average was well below that of the scores at Haleiwa. White was off color in the afternoon, his drives were good but he fell down when it came to putting and lost most of his headway on the greens.

The official list of scores is as follows: 1st Round: 2nd Round: Gross: Handicap: Net: Austin White..... 39 43 82 Ser 82 Wm. Simpson..... 53 39 92 10 82 J. D. Gaines..... 49 48 97 14 83 T. REILLY WILL NOT STAY HERE

Young Boxer Places Himself in Unenviable Light by This Action.

Reilly has refused to stay. After it was too late on Sunday morning to put any more news in the paper he was found by an Advertiser representative and asked what he was going to do about it. This was Reilly's reply:

"Go to it and put all you like about me in the paper, but I am going back to the Coast. I have made up my mind to that, and I am going just as sure as the Alameda leaves the dock on Wednesday. You know, and everybody else who is really acquainted with me knows, that I am by no means afraid of Frankie Smith. But I am not making money here. I can get more for six round bouts on the Coast than I am getting here. I have promised my wife to go back, and I am going; that is all there is to it."

A determined mind is a good thing to have, but there is such a thing as being too determined and making up one's mind too soon. It is up to Reilly to stay. Three weeks can not make very much difference to him, and the fans want him to stay. Reilly has somebody besides himself to consider. He must think of the managers who have put him on and worked to get gate receipts so that he could be paid for his services. He must think of the public, and he can not afford to ignore the public. A boxer is in the same position as an actor, only very much more so. He depends on the good will of the public for his living. It is really a fact that most of the great champions have won their way to the top and have commanded enormous purses on account of their drawing power; in other words, the liking that the great, fickle thing we call the public had for them.

Charlie is only on the first rungs of the ladder of fame. He must not antagonize his patrons now or he will lose by it, and lose badly. He has a chance, and a very good chance, to climb well up on that ladder, who knows but to the top? This is one case where personal inclination and his real duty to the public and himself are at variance. He must stay or vitiate the good impression that he has made here.

Frankie Smith has acted in a gentlemanly and proper way all through. The expenses of his trip here were paid and he is perfectly willing to stay and give those who brought him here a chance to break even. By going away Reilly is actually causing a considerable monetary loss to those who have put him on here, by preventing them from being able to give a show here with Smith and himself as principals.

Besides the public and the managers, Reilly has also to think of the papers. They have boosted him here and done justice to his clever work and his gentlemanly manner. It is the papers that make a pugilist's name, that put them before the public, that chronicle their doings and sayings and bring the attention of the fans to them. A man in his position can not afford to antagonize the papers in any way, but by leaving Honolulu at this juncture he will surely do so. The Coast will be advised of his action by the time the steamer leaves, and on that same steamer will go accounts of his untimely leaving that will spread all over the Coast. It may be only a little squib somewhere on the bottom of the sports page, but it will have its effect. Managers will take the advice of newspaper men when he applies for a go, as they always do, and then they will remember that Reilly left Honolulu when he should have stayed. The come-again sign will be hung on the managerial doors, and the wily press agent, in the outer office, will turn the frozen face on the man who left Honolulu when he ought to have stayed.

RINGER CHIEF'S TEAM WINS OUT

The Kalih Athletics pulled off another victory yesterday morning by defeating the Wallees at Kapiolani Park with an 8 to 3 score. Although the losing team was composed of players selected from two or three teams from the Atkinson and Riverside Leagues they failed to connect with Paul Burns' swift curves. The waterfowl team rooters were out there in force but they were soon silenced when the Kalihis lads started the ball a-rolling. It was no walkover for the Kalihis, who won the game by clever team work. The lineup:

Kalihis—M. Moses, c; P. Burns, p; Frank Zerbe, 1b; Wm. Mana, 2b; Henry Zerbe, 3b; George Trask, rf; S. Kamaana, cf; J. McCandless, lf; Wm. Rice, ss. Wallees—Souza, c; M. K. Silva, p; Crook, 1b; F. Freitas, 2b; J. Freitas, 3b; J. Nobriga, rf; F. Fernandez, cf; Hampton, lf; Kaland, ss. The Kalih A. C. baseball team is always ready and willing to accept challenges from any amateur team in town for match games which can be arranged with the secretary of the club. The club will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday evening at Cooley Chapel at 6:30, and all the members are urgently requested to be present as matters of importance will be brought up.

ALAMEDAS LOSE TO ENGINEERS

The best losers in the world, in other words the boys from the Alameda, took another defeat in a baseball game yesterday morning at the hands of the engineers. The final score was 8 to 7, close enough to satisfy anybody and the result of a mighty good game. McLaughlin pitched for the winners and kept his hand on the throttle in great shape while both Travers and Chandler, who twirled for the sailors, got stuck in irons once or twice and had to back their jibs before they could come about.

OLD RUGBY SONG AFTER PRACTISE

The Rugby movement has started. There is no getting away from it. All the "Limejuicers" are talking Rugby. You hear it on the cars, on the street corners and over the telephones. You even get it mixed up with baseball. Yesterday morning out at Kapiolani park a bunch of enthusiasts got hold of a ball and started to practise after the Alameda-Engineers game. Riordan, White and Jerome from the Alameda were the ringleaders and they soon had a merry bunch following them. There was some long punting and drop kicking and then they formed a scrum and the jumping half-back put the pile in and the two bunches of forwards did their best to get possession. When they were all through they got together and somebody started the good old Rugby song to the tune of "Just a song at twilight."

Once in a game, the teams I can't recall. Eight husky forwards were standing round the ball. Up came the captain, anger in his eye, "Come on you lazy louts, just one more try." Then down the field our forwards went so fast. Dribbling until again their line was passed. Just another try, boys, ere the whistle blows. While the chattering half-back swiftly comes and goes. Though your limbs be weary and your throat be dry. Buck up now, you forwards, let's have one more try.

SOLDIERS WANT TO PLAY PALAMAS

The Fort Shafter team is not so well known as it should be. The jolly soldier boys have a very fine aggregation of ball tossers and have a wonderful record for the last few months. They have played fourteen games and lost only two of them, winning the other twelve by large margins. Emil Gongol is their manager and he is there with a fine bunch of boys to back him up. He states for publication that the "Mosqueeters" are getting right sassy about this time and feel just right to trim the victorious Palamas. There is a big tub of that whitewash, up in the fort and the soldiers would like to have a chance to spread it over the craniums of the Riverside champions.

The game should take place next Sunday to please the Opu nine and it is up to the Palamas to accept and play the men in khaki. Explanation of the above euphemism is scarcely necessary. Anybody who ever saw General Shafter get into a two-seated buggy will appreciate the allusion. There was a time when he and General H. G. Otis broke a heck but that, as Rudyard Kipling says, is another story. The Palamas are properly swelled up about their victory. Lor' bless 'em, they deserve to be. But the chronicler of sporting events is very anxious to see them butt up against the soldiers. For this reason they will be properly and unmercifully singled until such time as they accept the challenge.

REPORTS FAIL TO BE TURNED IN

Several results of ball games were not turned in to the Advertiser last night. Notably the boys' game at Atkinson park. This paper has stated several times that it is unable to have reporters at every game, much as it would like to do so. It is up to managers and scorers to either telephone in results, or better still, apply at this office and get score cards on which they can make out the detailed score. These columns are always open to sporting news and the Advertiser will always do its best to help along clean sport. It is unfair of managers to bring in desultory news when they want boosting to get up a team and then not send in results after the Advertiser has aided them in doing so.
