HIGH SCHOOL REVERSES LAST WEEK'S DECISION

McKinley Players Score Twice on Punahou Team and Win by Converted Try and Dropped Goal.

High School 10; Oahu College 0.
By Jack Densham.

Well, they did it this time as they said they were going to. The High School put it over the Punahous by the score of 10 to 0 and we can't help feeling glad that they were successful after the way they have worked for victory and practised their interference, which by the way, was really excellent. In spite of the heat the players kept up to snuff all through the game and showed wonderfully little effect of the heat. It was really good football that they played. Those who watched the game will agree with me when I say that I have watched many big games of both the Rugby and intercollegiate varieties but have never seen more speed shown individually nor better tackling.

The tackling was simply superb. The players seemed to have an innate faculty for this kind of work. Time and again some swift back would get away round the ends, his interference clearing a way for him and then there would be an apparently clear field for him. But he never got there. There was always somebody in his way and the ensuing tackle never failed. It is very evident that the boys have learned the first principles of football, to tackle low and tackle hard.

Feature of the Game.

The feature of the game was the wonderful drop kick of Henry Chillingworth near the end of the first half. The High School had the ball after it had gone out of touch and were almost in front of the Punahou goal. They made a fake formation for a place kick but, instead of placing the ball, Henry Chillingworth dropped back, took the ball and, with a swift movement, punted the ball clearly and squarely over the center of the goal.

It was a beautiful piece of work and the High School rooters on the makai side of the field went as nearly crazy as rooters can and we all know how near that is. This play was the culmination of a campaign of confidence. The school players seemed to know that they had the game and, never predicting a loss, went down the field for gain after gain, made by straight bucks, cross bucks, end runs, forward passes and every old kind of play you could think of.

Andrews' Clever Run.

Andrews score of the one and only touchdown was a very pretty piece of work. Without taking away one jot of the credit due this peerless punter, there was a kindly element of luck in the score. The Punahou signal called for a punt and Andrews blocked. Oh but that was a sweet block. One of the ideal kind. He jumped up and took the ball squarely on his chest and the pigskin bounded away from him. I think it must have been Lots who kicked, for there was nobody behind him. Just at the time the play took place I was dodging through the crowd to see what was happening and a big High School rooster was in front of me. I could not see the kicker distinctly but I did see Andrews as he leaped in the air.

Scorer Kicks Goal.

Not content with blocking the kick, catching the ball and scoring, Andrews must cap the climax by kicking the goal and it was a very pretty little "root" that sent the ball flying over the goal posts. Andrews has a great name for kicking but, however big his reputation may be, it is far beneath the exhibition of punting that he put up yesterday afternoon. If he ever plays the Rugby game he will be a tower of strength in the back line for he can punt far and certainly, finding touch every time if he wanted to.

McCandless was given much more work to do than in the last game, and he responded nobly. Some of his bucks and end runs were magnificent, also his way of breaking through the line and tackling the holder of the ball before the latter knew what had happened. Rice altogether redeemed himself for past fumbles. He was given the ball only for plays that suited him and he was as sure as fate in freezing onto the pillule and getting away with it. Encouraged by the novelty of excellent interference, he made some very clever runs and had a chance to show his excellent dodging powers.

All Played Well.

I can say very conscientiously that if I were to attempt to hand out the commendation coming to the players, I should devote half a page to each of the twenty-two men on the field. Every man played his part well, and played with that wonderful spirit that makes good winning and good losing teams.

Will Desha, at quarter; De Brettville, at right end, and Fraser, who was unfortunately hurt and sent off the field fighting to remain, stand out particularly in my memory on the Punahou side. Besides those mentioned already, King, at quarter, and Achieu, with a precise parting in the middle of his hair, at left end, made themselves conspicuous by determined and crafty rushing and tackling for the High School.

Story of the Game.

Punahou kicked off and Kuwamoto was downed on the thirty-yard line. Two small gains and then a kick gave the ball to Bill Desha, who made fifteen yards before he fell. Punahou kicked and sent to the school thirty-yard line, where McCandless bucked twice, once for eight and once for three yards, making the gain.

Then Rice was caught in a flow of Punahou players and carried back several yards, so Andrews handed out one of his peerless punts. This took the ball to the Punahou thirty-five-yard line, and Lyman tried for an end run, but was forced back. Lots kicked and the school took possession exactly on the half-way line; then McCandless tried for a trick run, but was balked, and Andrews cleared with another punt. Lots caught and made a good run, but ran into a hard bunch and lost most of what he had gained.

Again the ball was snapped on the half-way line and Punahou signaled for a forward pass. De Brettville caught very cleverly and looked like getting away, but he was downed before he was started, and Punahou snapped well down towards the school goal. Then the college started a series of very effective bucks which took them to a down exactly ten yards from the school line, with the ball in their possession.

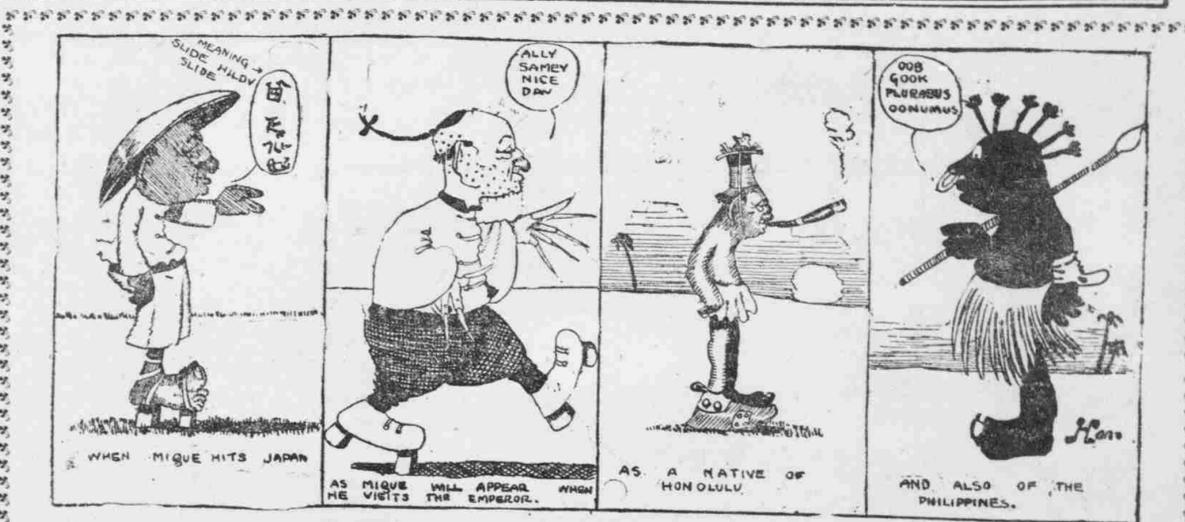

Everybody thought they would score, but they made a bad error of judgment by passing forward, and the play resulted in disaster for them. High School kicked out and the ball was soon working in Punahou territory. Then it was that, after four minutes of play, Andrews made his great block and run and scored the first touchdown, afterwards converting and making the score 6 to 0 in favor of High School.

High School Bucks.

Then the High School started a course of hard bucks down the center of the field. They lost several times, but always regained near the same place, and gradually worked their way to in front of the Punahou goal. Henry Chillingworth blocked a kick on the twenty-yard line, but a Punahou man got it and the college snapped on their own ten-yard line. Lots cleared, but Rice made a fair catch and took the fifteen-yard advance option, and it was during the line-up after this catch that Henry made his sensational drop kick, scoring four points and making the score 10 to 0 for the High School, where it remained during the balance of the game.

The Second Half.

The second half was a hot one in every way. The players were feeling the effect of the great heat very sorely and some of them were ordered to the side lines, as they were entirely non compos kickibus. Henry Chillingworth and Austin White both gave worth and Austin White both gave place to fresh players. They had been doing yeoman service for their team, and Coach Blanchard thought, very wisely, that a fresh man could keep up the good work better than they could in their battered condition. Pratt took White's place at center and James went in as left guard in

MIQUE FISHER, THE POLYGLOT PROMOTER, AS HE APPEARS IN DIFFERENT COUNTRIES, ACCORDING TO "HON" OF THE SAN FRANCISCO BULLETIN.

Henry's place. Chi Bui was entirely hors to combat on account of his ankle, and Goo On took right guard for Punahou. Fraser was literally hustled off the field, as he had a knock on the head which made him useless; he had to be forced off the field, remonstrating every foot of the way, and asserting that he was good for twenty more games.

During most of the second half of play the ball was in High School territory, but the college players could not make a score, although they threatened several times. Lyman made a magnificent run three minutes before time was called and made a fifty-yard gain which took the ball dangerously close to the High School line. But no score resulted, and the school was just beginning another concerted attack when time was whistled.

'TISERS TO TROUCE PARADISE PALADINS

The Newspaper League will come to life again this morning, when the 'Tisers meet and, of course, defeat the Paradise team at the big league park at 9 o'clock. Without boasting unduly, it is safe to say that it is a shame to think of what will happen to the poor Paradise kids. Waiialua whitewash has come to be a standing joke in town, but just wait till you get a view of the uniforms of the Paradise swatters after the game.

No admission will be charged, of course, and everybody can go out and witness the terrible trouncing the proud Paradise persons will have handed to them. Here is the lineup of the peerless bunch of noble ball-sloggers that will honor the Paradise of the Pacific by wiping it off the face of the map from a baseball point of view: Chi Bui Farm, c.; Correa (capt.), p.; Perreira, 1b.; Kupau, 2b.; Rodrigues, 3b.; McCorriston, ss.; Achieu, lf.; Bisho, rf.; Johnnie Perreira, cf. Mr. Boisse states that he has not the lineup of the Paradise paladins at hand, but that is hardly necessary when one thinks of the licking they are going to get. Eh? What?

There is going to be a little four-some of quality at the Country Club today. "Andy" Maclaren and John Evans are going to try conclusions with Giffard and Butler. Good-bye, Andy, we'll look for you on the seventh green tomorrow.

So Stanford did the trick again. The score sounds like four tries to a try, or three tries and a penalty kick to a try or a penalty kick. And talking about Rugby, what a strong feeling there is that the game must be made to go here, so that we can play the Coast teams and put them wise to their own game.

Oat & Mossman have just received a big shipment of new papereries—1909 diaries, Christmas and New Year cards and New Year calendars. 76 Merchant street, near Postoffice.

Sayegusa inaugurates his annual preliminary sale for Xmas holidays tomorrow and will continue for five days.

KALANIANA'OLE BIG OPENING

League Will Open Its Winter Series Today—Band and Big Doings.

The Kalaniana'ole League, the best-managed league in the city, and named after the champion sportsman of our town, will make its 1908 debut this afternoon at Asla Park. They will all be there. A. K. Vierra has bought a new vest of shining and brilliant hues and will wave the stick of office in front of the crowd; Frank Harvey has resuscitated his election grin and will wear it with an addition of chiming bells, and Nigel Jackson will also be there with a new pencil and a score book. It is said that Mariposa will also make his final bow to the public before descending on the innocent denizens of Kanaui, and the peripatetic and popular press agent, Tin Chong, will buzz through the crowd looking for "dope." But here is that same Tin Chong's story, and it tells better than anything else just what will be doing.

How Tin Chong Sees It.

Today will be a memorable day at the Asla Park diamond, when the opening of the Kalaniana'ole Baseball League takes place, as the ceremonies prepared by the committee in charge surpass anything of its kind that ever occurred in baseball circles. The first game will begin promptly at 1:30 p. m., when the Twilight cross bats with the local Japanese Athletic Club. The second game will be just as interesting as the first contest, as the Chinese A. C. is scheduled to play the Aalas (not the "hoodoo kids").

In the opening exercises, the officers of the league, headed by Mayor J. J. Fern and Senator Frank Harvey, will parade around the diamond, while the Hawaiian band will play appropriate music for the occasion. A. K. Vierra, the secretary and promoter of this now famous league, has stated that he expects that this occasion will not only be unique in its ceremonies, but that one of the largest crowds will be seen at the park.

Hon. J. K. Kalaniana'ole, who was selected to pitch the first ball over the plate, has notified the officials that he can not accept the honor, as he is busy preparing for his trip to Washington. Kuhio is the donor of the championship cup, which has to be won twice. This is one of the most beautiful baseball trophies ever presented to a minor league and all the teams are making a hard effort to secure it. The Chinese A. C. won the first season's championship, and if they will come out victorious again this year, Chinatown will be decorated to honor its country's lads.

Bandstand Decorated.

The bandstand will be prettily decorated this morning by the members of the league. Seats will also be provided to accommodate the public who wish to be seated and watch the games. As usual, there will be a charge of ten cents for each chair. The proceeds from this will go to help in defraying the expenses of the league, such as paying for balls, umpire and the official scorer and press agent. All uniforms and other baseball materials are being paid for by the boys themselves, who are assessed annually for this purpose.

Besides the cup presented by the Prince, there will be another one which has been donated by E. O. Hall & Son. The latter will be given to the team winning this year's championship. This will promise a season of good, clean and honest baseball by the Cupid kids.

Sport Notes

The management of the big doings at Hilo on New Year's Day have put up $150 for a baseball game, to go to the winner of a game between an Oahu team and one from Hilo. Eddie Fernandez has been in communication with the Hilo people, and it is very probable that he will take a team there when the new year comes around and wipe the earth with the haughty Hiloites.

Charlie David put Trilby Green up for the big stakes at Hilo, but took her down and put up Yola Girl instead, as there came an awful howl from the other owners who had horses in the race. Nobody seems to know why a stable has not a perfect right to enter its best in any stake race, and the owners of Adion and Brunner have another guess coming. Trilby Green is an untried horse on the track, but she seems to have a turn of speed, and just where they had a howl coming it is hard to see. Well, perhaps the Yola lady will win anyway.

Fred Carter has lost a bull terrier. It has a face like the stern of a British barkentine and a smile that smells of trouser legs, also it answers to the name of Jumbo. It used to be at Wai-kiki, but Fred has been moving and the dog ran away. We can not blame the dog, of course, but if you see one that answers to the name and description, get hold of it with a shrimp net and take same to Fred, who will say, "Thank you, sir; poor old Jumbo," or words to that effect.

John Catton came up with the soccer rules last night. He it was who kindly provided the Advertiser with the Rugby rules, and now we have the settlement of the soccer pilikia right here. Anybody who wants to see them is more than welcome to come and argue the matter in the lower office when the sporting writer is out of hearing.

The Riverside Juniors will be out again this morning as usual. The Perfume Kids will cross bats with the Aalas, and the Alohas will see what they can do with the Comets. Let us hope that the first-base bench will be back in line.

The Farewell A. C. and the Oahu A. C. will play a game of baseball this morning at 9:30. Place not stated. It looks like good-bye to the an revoir kids.

There will be no Kalihi Wailele game today. Paul Burns, known as Oom Paul, heard that Rudie Unholz was in town and so lied him to the tall timbers. He came up to the office to deny the report, but it goes just the same.

Corporal Unholz, late of Her Britannic Majesty's mounted field scouts, came up to introduce Mrs. Unholz last evening. Mrs. Unholz is petite and very charming, and says that she does not like the fighting game, but that one must make money some way. During the recent go between Rudie and Cyclone Thomson, Mrs. Unholz stayed at home and could get no returns of the fight until her husband came wandering in holding out a badly-broken right wrist.

The report in the afternoon papers that Princeton had defeated Yale was incorrect. The score was: Yale, 11; Princeton, 6.
