THIS DAY Tents Tents

Regular Army Tents You will want one. The kiddies always want one.

To be sold Monday, March 29, '09 at 12 noon J. W. SMITHIES, Manager C. A. Co.

AT AUCTION On account of removal. At the NEW ENGLAND BAKERY, Tuesday, March 30, '09 At 12 o'clock noon.

LITTLE BITS FROM VARIOUS SOURCES 'Of curious prayers a writer says: 'I have heard a layman utter this petition during his prayer: 'O Lord, be Thou with us in our uprisings and our downrisings'—a variant of the text in the Psalms, 'Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising.' A minister occasionally introduced a Latin sentence into his prayer, and forthwith proceeded to translate it. Another minister in his early days experienced considerable difficulty with the long prayer before the sermon. In Nonconformist churches this usually occupies a quarter of an hour, but long before this period had been reached he was wound up. On one occasion while in this dilemma, he startled his hearers with the words, 'And, now, O Lord, I will relate unto Thee a little anecdote!'

From Paris comes the story that in carrying out gunnery experiments on the bulk of the disabled battleship Jena the French Government intends to go further than have the other navies, and not only test the durability of the ships, but the effect of battle action on life on the ship attacked. The effect of gases generated by explosions in compartments on the ship will be studied by the substitution of cows for men in the Jena.

Newfoundland would be nothing without that great submarine plateau known as the 'banks,' on which all the fishing is done. At a small station within the edges of the great bank that the cod lives so well the sea is quite smooth. It is usual for vessels fishing on the bank to inquire from those that have arrived from the open sea as to what sort of weather it is 'abroad.'

AMUSEMENTS

Personnel of Pollards. Now that the Lilliputians are nearly through with their dates here and have made such another brilliant success as they did during their last visit, theater-goers are beginning to talk about the Pollard aggregation that is to show here next month.

The company will be composed of a bunch of the best that have graduated from the Pollard school of training, and that means that they have been bred in stagercraft ever since they were little, teeny, weeny kiddies.

The leading lady parts will be undertaken by Eva Moore, well-known for her own successes as leading girl with the Lilliputians for many years previous to 1903, when she graduated to a senior company, but also carrying much prestige as the sister of the famous Carrie Moore, the English actress who created the Dairy Maid, the Cingalee and the Sandow Girl.

Willie Pollard and Alfred Goulding will alternate in the male leads. Goulding, as everybody knows, was the original comedian of the Lilliputians and has been stage director ever since he graduated. Willie Pollard was the Lilliputian comedian when they first visited Honolulu, and will have many friends here to remember him.

Jack Pollard, who has been playing the title roles in the Williamson Pantomimes in Australia, is another Lilliputian graduate who will take comedian parts, and Fred Bindlos, whose sweet singing made a great hit with the audiences at the Opera House four years ago, will be one member of the company whose voice will certainly please.

Overend Will Manage Cafe-Theater. Robt. M. Overend, president of the Empire Theater Company, is the promoter of the new cafe-theater proposition which is to be started on the Canton property, Hotel street, opposite the new Empire Theater.

Band at Emma Square. The band will give a moonlight concert tonight at Emma Square, and Captain Berger has selected the following appropriate program. The band will also play as usual on Mondays at the Capitol building this morning:

Two Step—The Coquette.....Lafort Duet—Venician Night.....Lucatoni Waltz—That's Me.....Pietromarhi Grand Selection—Siegfried.....Wagner PART II. Vocal—Hawaiian Songs...Ar. by Berger Selection—My Old Kentucky Home Barn Dance—Mousmousse.....Vives Finale—Uncle Pete's Birthday, Douglas The Star Spangled Banner.

The Art Theater. There will be changes in the program at the Art Theater this afternoon and the changes will be appreciated. Just what they will be can not be told here today, but the public may rest assured the pictures will be good ones. See the list of pictures in the advertisement this morning and read about them tomorrow.

A Man Bought a House

But Didn't Get It WHY, HOW WAS THAT? Well! Paid the landlord the full cost of a house and lot, but the landlord still owns the property, and intends to keep it. HE RENTED. We see people every day who have paid enough money for rent receipts to buy a house, and many of them will pay for another house the same way if they keep on renting. You are buying a house, anyway, when you pay rent, but you will never own it. Why not get something for the money?
