HAWAIIAN GIRLS ARE GUESTS AT TEA

Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Gowen entertained at tea yesterday afternoon at their home, 169 Eighth avenue, for the young Hawaiian girls at the exposition, all of whom are personally known to them, Mr. Gowen having at one time been rector of St. Andrew's church at Honolulu.

The ladies present were the Misses Irene Boyd, Pauline Evans, Wattie Holt, Miriam Munden and Mrs. Charles Siemens, native Hawaiians, and their chaperons, Mrs. Will J. Cooper and Miss Frances Lawrence, who are Americans.
Last night Mrs. Siemens and Miss Munden sang several Hawaiian selec-

LAST DAY FOR EXCURSION TICKETS

Have you secured your tickets for the excursion next Saturday to Hilo and the volcano? Today is the last day to secure good accommodations. If you wait until tomorrow, you will have to take your chances with a mattress on the deck.

A large and representative crowd secured tickets for the big excursion yesterday, including many prominent people who wish to join in the fun and at the same time see the volcano at its best.

The rates for the trip are unusually low and no one should miss the opportunity of going. The rate to Hilo and return is only $15.00; to the volcano and return $25.00, including board and lodging at the Volcano House.

THE RACE TO HALEIWA.

Manager Kimball is making preparations to entertain the people who will go to Haleiwa and spend the Fourth watching the arrival of the yachts on the cruise to that point.

There will be so much to attract the attention of the visitors that the day will pass only too quickly. There will be fireworks and a dance in the evening and music that will make dancing more than ever a pleasure. This will be Mr.
Kimball's first Sunday and first big holiday at Haleiwa, and he will do everything possible to make the affair one grand success. Many persons have booked, and there will be more to follow. Everyone can not go to the volcano and some will not go when there is such a delightful resort as Haleiwa so near home.

ALEXANDER YOUNG GUESTS.

The following guests are registered at the Young: G. J. Becht and wife, San Francisco; Miss A. Stewart, San Francisco; Thomas Fitch, Wood Beal,
