

Condensed News From Latest Coast Files

Ricardo Jimenez has been elected President of Costa Rica.

George B. Katzenstein, a California pioneer, died at his home at Sacramento.

An early morning blaze on August 29th threatened the business section of Seattle.

Clifford Danz, a two-year-old child, was killed by a trolley car in San Francisco.

Rahn Kahn, a Persian bandit, has been captured by a Russian punitive expedition.

A Portland trolley car struck a wagon load of pickers, killing one and wounding four.

King Edward has shown marked attention to Maxine Elliott, the American actress, at Marienbad.

The authorities at the Matteawan Asylum have appointed Harry Thaw librarian of the institution.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont has said that her life and fortune is to be devoted to the cause of equal suffrage.

Dr. Carl Kurtz of Los Angeles has been chosen president of the Pacific Association of Railway surgeons.

The cruiser Yorktown met with a mishap at Hoquiam, Wash., which put her in the dry dock for several days.

The troops of the 14th Cavalry doing duty at Sequoia Park, Calif., have returned to the Presidio at San Francisco.

During an electrical storm lightning fired three oil tanks of the Ohio Company at Cynnet, causing a loss of $100,000.

Orville Wright denied that he had been married to Miss Ada Miller of Carson, Nevada, when interviewed in Berlin.

Ten thousand Germans in San Francisco marched in the parade which opened the Schuetzen Verein's golden jubilee.

Mme. Fabbri-Muller, the one time famous prima donna, died in San Francisco on August 30th at the age of seventy-nine.

Louis F. Haffer has been removed as president of the Borough of the Bronx in New York for misconduct and neglect of duty.

Ethel Due, a seventeen year old girl, beat the record swimming the New York narrows from Fort Hamilton and the Staten Island shore.

Mrs. Carrie Saunders of St. Louis attempted to kill her five children by feeding them morphine during a fit of insanity.

K. R. Flannery, superintendent of the registry department of the Dallas, Texas Postoffice, was shot by his divorced wife.

A great misison bell was unveiled at Monterey, Cal., on Aug. 29, by the civic club on the 125th anniversary of the death of Junipera Serra.

Henry Francis Dougherty, mail orderly on the cruiser Colorado, has been charged with stealing $2000 in cash and jewelry from his shipmates.

United States Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island has sailed for Europe where he will gather information regarding the monetary system in Italy.

Bishop Fallows of the Reformed Episcopal Church said in an address that spirits have intercourse with the world and become visible to mortals.

The report that General Zelaya, President of Nicaragua, is engaged in fitting out a filibustering expedition is causing uneasiness in Guatemala and Salvador.

Earl Grey, Governor General of Canada, nearly lost his life while on a hunting expedition in Alaska. He was lost in the woods and utterly exhausted when found.

Mrs. Annie Besant, the theosophist, in an interview in San Francisco, scored vivisectionists and physicians as cruel wretches and praised the givers of libraries.

The land-owners in the Sacramento Valley have planned a concerted action in the building of levees and will reclaim a million acres of land which are now useless.

Two large forest fires threatened El Portal in Yosemite valley and after heroic efforts to stop the flames, the Merced grove of big trees were saved from destruction.

The mail boat Nord, running from Calais to Dover, went ashore at the mouth of the harbor in a thick fog on August 29. Four hundred passengers were landed in lifeboats.

Private William Lane, Company C, 22nd infantry, who deserted while on a furlough at Fairbanks, Alaska, is being sought for on a charge of having embezzled $10,000 of Government funds.

A terrific rainstorm which swept southwestern Arizona and southern California on August 30th undermined miles of roadbed and paralyzed Southern Pacific traffic between Yuma and Salton.

Mrs. Kate Soffel, the woman who liberated the notorious Biddle boys from the Allegheny County jail, deserting her husband and children and going with the fugitives, died in the West Pennsylvania Hospital.

Walter Wellman who recently made an unsuccessful attempt to reach the North Pole in a dirigible balloon returned to Tromsø, Norway, leaving three men to guard the airship at Spitzbergen during the winter.

Samuel Gompers, the president of the American Federation of Labor, was the center of a big debate in Paris when several European delegates denounced what they called the equivocal attitude of the American Federation with reference to joining the international movement.

In reply Gompers introduced a proposal favoring world wide organization which would defend the rights and interests of all and create international fraternity and solidarity.

The surface traction companies in Chicago and their 10,000 employees have reached a deadlock on the wage question. Arbitration has been offered by the company, and if the men do not accept, a strike is imminent.

A great aerial race meeting was held September 5 at Brescia, Italy.

It is asserted that many Swedish strikers are actually starving in Stockholm.

Rome experienced a severe earthquake on August 31 which caused a panic.

Associate Justice William H. Moody is seriously ill at his home at Haverhill, Mass.

The Lusitania has again clipped three hours and eighteen minutes from its own fastest time.

A. P. Sawyer, of Seattle, Wash., has been appointed by President Taft to be auditor of Porto Rico.

The famous Negras gold mine in Mexico has been rediscovered after being lost for two centuries.

Glenn H. Curtiss, the American aviator, was given a dinner by Ambassador and Mrs. White in Paris.

Emperor Francis Joseph greeted a delegation from the Swiss Council at Borsch, Switzerland, on August 31.

The steamer Bandon was wrecked on the bar of the Coquille River, Or. The boat and cargo of lumber are a total loss.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt and Miss Roosevelt were the guests of President and Mme. Fallieres at their chalet in Paris.

Mrs. M. C. Allen, of Pomona, Cal., fasted 31 days to cure a skin disease and reports that abstinence has the desired effect.

Rawhide, Nevada, suffered from a cloudburst on August 31 which damaged the town and resulted in the death of six persons.

Open air schools for the accommodation of tubercular patients have received the approval of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

Charles Rowell, a one-time famous runner who created many world's records in his time in America, died at Cambridge, Mass., August 31.

Evelyn Nesbitt Thaw has stated that she does not wish a divorce from Harry Thaw but is desirous of obtaining a money settlement from the Thaw family.

Mayor McClellan of New York, has been severely scolded by Borough President of Brooklyn, Bird Coler, and charged with having abused the powers of his office.

Brewers and wholesale liquor dealers have been asked by Liquor and Beer Dealers' Association in New York to assist in a fight against dives and disorderly places.

An active movement is in progress in Osaka, Japan, to prevent the rebuilding of burned licensed resorts in their former location near the principal railway station.

Miss F. L. Todd, a young woman living on Staten Island, has constructed an aeroplane which she thinks will be superior to any which won prizes last week in France.

Frederick Cavassa, a young Spaniard, who, it is claimed, will prove a rival of Caruso as an operatic tenor, made his first appearance at the Manhattan Opera House in Aida.

William B. Bradbury, the Corto Madera millionaire, was sent to San Quentin for twelve months for perjury after having exhausted all legal means to escape the punishment.

Seth Smith, Ira Christman and John F. Jordan, all of Visalia, have been appointed by Judge Coffey to appraise the property of the late Claus Spreckels situated in Tulare and Kings counties, Cal.

Bishop Grant, the foremost man of the African Church in America and second to Booker Washington as a leader of his race, delivered several powerful sermons during his visit to San Francisco.

Walter Glenn Volviva, successor to John Alexander Dowie, as general overseer at Zion City, will have to serve six months in jail or pay a judgment of $10,000 obtained against him for slander and libel.

W. H. Mitchell, a prominent citizen of Thomasville, Ga., who, disguised as a negro, attempted to assault Miss Lucile Linton, a wealthy resident of the place, will be sent to the Convict Farm for twelve months.

Colonel W. S. Slosson, supervisor of the Santa Barbara forest reserve, has refused to resign at the suggestion of District Forester F. E. Olmstead, and has appealed to Gifford Pinchot, chief forester, following his arrival in California.

Senator E. B. Martinelli, of San Rafael, is to represent Lieutenant Governor Porter at the Alaska-Pacific-Yukon Exposition, September 4. The Lieutenant Governor is ill at his home in Santa Cruz and will be unable to accompany the State officers to Seattle.

Captain F. E. Burns of the Alaska Steamship company, whose steamer, the Ohio, was lost recently, says that so long as bigger ships are put on the Alaska run there will be constant danger unless the inside passage is thoroughly surveyed and every menage to navigation at a reasonable depth charted.

General Thomas H. Cavanaugh, aged 66 years, died at Tacoma, Wash., August 31. He was a native of Indiana, served in the 6th Illinois Cavalry during the Civil War and was Secretary of State for four years in the State of Kansas. He had been department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic for Washington and Alaska.

DON'T TAKE THE RISK.

When you have a bad cough or cold do not let it drag along until it becomes chronic or develops into an attack of pneumonia, but give it the attention it deserves and get rid of it.

Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are sure of prompt relief. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

CLEARANCE SALE

OF

SECOND-HAND AUTOMOBILES

We have to make room for our 1910 cars due here at an early date and have decided to sell at

PUBLIC AUCTION

At our salesroom, on Alakea Street

Saturday, September 11th, at 12 o'Clock Noon

the following cars, all of which are in good running order:

Winton

40 H. P. 5-passenger touring car, complete with top, three oil lamps, two gas lamps, gas generator, siren horn, tools, etc., formerly property of Mr. J. A. McCandless.

Winton

40 H. P. 5-passenger touring car, complete with top, three oil lamps, two gas lamps, gas generator, tools, etc., formerly property of Mr. H. F. Wichman.

Reo

1908 5-passenger touring car, complete with top, three oil lamps, two gas lamps, gas generator, and tools, (has seen moderate use for about one year.)

Buick

1908 5-passenger touring car, complete with top, three oil lamps, two gas lamps, gas generator and tools.

White Steamer

5-passenger touring car, with canopy top, lamps, and tools, complete, formerly property of C. L. Wight.

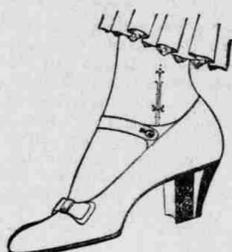

White Steamer

5-passenger touring car, equipped with lamps, generator, and necessary tools; property of Mr. W. H. Baird.

The above cars will be sold without reservation and should prove excellent bargains. Special terms will be granted if desired; one-half cash and the balance in monthly payments secured by a mortgage on the car.

See Add of Auctioneer J. W. Pratt

The von Hamm-Young Co., Ltd.

"SOROSIS SHOES"

DISTINCTIVE FOOTWEAR

Sorosis models embrace every essential of shoe satisfaction—softness and pliability in leathers, comfort in fit and graceful in form. The season's new models await you.

L. B. Kerr & Co., Ltd.

ALAKEA STREET.

In all leather at

$4

NEW MOULDINGS AND PICTURES Gurrey's

Just Received per "Alameda" at

New Arrivals, Ex Lurline

PRICES LOWEST IN THE CITY.

Dining chairs in sets, parlor rockers, rope portieres, lace curtains, bureaus, dining tables, sideboards, etc.

Honolulu Wire Bed Co.

Showroom, Corner King and Alakea.

W. W. Wright Co., Ltd.

AUTOMOBILE UPHOLSTERERS AND REPAIRERS.
King Street, near South Street.

GANDY

School commencing this week. WE HAVE OUR SPECIALTIES and a fresh supply of RHINE'S CANDIES in five and ten-cent packages.

TRY IT WHILE YOU WAIT.

Pawaa Junction Store

LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S

Panama Hats

COME AND SEE THEM.

K. UYEDA

NUUANU BETWEEN KING AND HOTEL.

STEAM ROLLER AND TRACTION ENGINE

With our new combination engine we are prepared to undertake rolling, plowing and heavy hauling. See us for rates.

HONOLULU CONSTRUCTION AND DRAYING CO., Ltd.

Office, Fort St. opposite W. G. Irwin & Co. Phone 281

CANDY

The kind that leaves only pleasant memories because made of pure goods only. Ours are fresh every day : : :

The Palm Cafe, Hotel and Union

Read the "Advertiser," World's News Daily