LOCAL BREVITIES.

Theodore Roosevelt Camp, No. 1, U. S. W. V., will meet in Waverley hall this evening at 7:30.

Many of the sailors of the cruisers are taking in the dances at the Waverley dance hall, and the floor for several nights has been crowded.

A workman named Nelson was hurt on Thursday by falling from a structure at Fort De Russy. His face and head were badly injured and yesterday morning it was thought he might die. It is expected he will pull through.

Henry Smith, trustee of Rita C. Tewksbury, an insane person, has petitioned the Circuit Court for permission to sell the real estate of his ward's estate. He says in the petition that the property is bringing in but a small income now and that he has a good offer for it of about $2000.

The poi lunch for the benefit of the Episcopal Kapaehulu Mission will be given today from 12 noon to 5 o'clock in the afternoon on the Queen's grounds, Waikiki. This will be a thoroughly Hawaiian luncheon and as such should prove an attraction to visitors here. The tickets are 50 cents each.

A social to the Young People's Union will be given by the enlisted men of the fleet at the Seamen's Institute this evening. All friends of the men of the service are invited. There will be vocal and instrumental music and recitations by the men of the service. H. O. Emmons of the West-Virginia will be in charge.

Captain Schroeder, of the German cruiser Arcona, called upon Admiral Sebree aboard the flagship Tennessee yesterday forenoon. Admiral Sebree accompanied by his aids, Lieutenant Holmes and Lieutenant Glassford, paid official calls aboard the British cruiser Bedford and German cruiser Arcona.

PERSONALS.

Princess Kaliana'ole will be at home Tuesday afternoon, October 5, from three to six o'clock, at her residence, Pualeilani.

Governor and Mrs. Frear entertained at dinner last night at their home in honor of Admirals Sebree and Barry. The guests were Admiral and Mrs. Sebree, Admiral Barry, General and Mrs. McClellan, Captain and Mrs. Rees, Captain Benson, Judge and Mrs. Ballou.

Frederick Lilley, son of the deceased ex-Congressman and later Governor of Connecticut, passed through Honolulu on the Tenyo Maru on her last trip, accompanied by his bride, who was Miss Anderson, daughter of the Chief Justice of the District of Columbia. Congressman Lilley, who died recently, was a member of the first Congressional party that visited Hawaii two years ago.

DEATH OF EMILY DAVIS.

Emily May Davis, the oldest daughter of Henry and Nora Davis, departed this life at 6:30 yesterday morning at Wahiawa, leaving a sister and four brothers in mourning, beside the grief-stricken parents.

Born in Honolulu, eighteen years ago, graduated at Oahu College in the class of '08, she had a host of young friends in the islands and a bright future before her.

She was so gentle, so quiet, so modest, that many were unaware of her talents. She not only had an artistic temperament, but was decidedly musical as well.

Partly on account of a chronic disorder, Mrs. Davis had taken her to the bracing climate of Wahiawa, their country home. The fact that she was able the first of the week to go to Honolulu and back makes her death a sudden shock to her friends.

The body was brought in from Wahiawa on the afternoon train yesterday and the funeral will be from the town home, Young and Piikoi streets.

TREASURE OF ZUYDER ZEE.

Gold and Silver Lost in Shipwreck Will Be Sought.

The Dutch await with curiosity the results of a work undertaken in the Zuyder Zee. On October 9, 1799, the English ship of war Latin sunk in Dutch waters, carrying with it to the bottom thirty millions of gold and silver in bars that the British cabinet was sending to Hamburg to help at a financial crisis in the Hanse towns. The cargo, insured for nearly twenty-five millions, was entirely lost.

The Dutch government, urged by France, tried to recover the wreck, but a violent storm covered the ship with such a thickness of sand that it had to be given up. After the restoration of European peace the King of Holland abandoned his rights to his English colleague, who ceded them to the company of Lloyd.

The company made a new attempt in 1820, and its efforts were not unsuccessful, for they drew from the ship 198 bars of silver and 1,200 ingots of gold, a total value of $2,500,000. Probably francs are meant.

The company of Lloyd has entered into a contract with another society, which today undertakes the work with the help of a new apparatus, invented by an engineer named Lake. This apparatus is composed of a floating bridge, at the keel of which are fixed the instruments for diving. They consist of a number of pipes which can pump up in twenty-four hours 40,000 tons of sand. At the extremity of these pipes one finds the room of the divers, all built of metal. This chamber rests on indented wheels placed in action by a motor of a particular system, in such a manner that the divers can remove their room like a carriage and roll it at the bottom of the sea, which makes the work easier and quicker.—London Globe.
