MAUI CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Association Will Be Formed to Promote General Prosperity of the Valley Island.

WAILUKU, Maui, December 4.—A number of the members of the committee appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws for the Maui Chamber of Commerce met in the office of the First National Bank of Wailuku on Friday morning and adopted recommendations that will be submitted to the whole body at a meeting to be called soon for the purpose of considering the recommendations and the formation of a chamber of commerce of the county.

The articles of association state that the object of the association is that the members associate themselves together for the purpose of promoting the general prosperity of the varied interests of the Territory of Hawaii and more particularly those of the County of Maui. They will protest, foster, and develop the commercial, manufacturing, financial, agricultural and general interests of the Territory in general and of the County of Maui in particular. The members propose to use all lawful means as may be necessary to encourage and protect such interests.

The name that will be recommended for the chamber will be Maui Chamber of Commerce. The scope of the chamber will be the entire County of Maui, which will, of course, include the islands of Molokai and Lanai.

Hon. H. P. Baldwin presided over the meeting and C. D. Lufkin was chosen as secretary.

On motion of Mr. Lufkin, Superintendent J. N. S. Williams and Editor H. M. Coke were invited to participate in the discussion of the proposed recommendation which offer was accepted.

The proposed articles of association and the by-laws were copied from those of the cities of Boston, Cincinnati, Pittsburg and San Francisco.

It was decided to recommend that the place of business be Wailuku, and that there be fifteen members of the executive committee and that the officers of the association be a president, a vice president, a secretary and a treasurer.

Those engaged in commercial, agricultural or other pursuits will be eligible to membership.

MAUI NEWS NOTES.

The Pioneer mill, Lahaina, will commence grinding next Tuesday.

Dr. Wm. Osmer is suffering from the effects of la grippe, but keeps at his post.

The Thanksgiving luau at Lahaina cleared $300 for the congregation of Holy Innocents.

Capt. William Howe and Carl E. Lehner, U. S. inspectors of hulls and boilers, came up Tuesday and inspected the tug Leslie Baldwin. They returned to Honolulu Friday. While on Maui they were the guests of Capt. E. H. Parker of Kahului.

I. E. Rietow returned to Honolulu Wednesday. He has resigned his position as bookkeeper for the Puunene store and has been succeeded by N. D. Leeper.

At a recent meeting of the executive board of the Kahului Union church, A. J. Gossin was elected church treasurer, in lieu of F. Hons, who has resigned, and James Hattie was elected a member of the executive committee, to succeed Wm. Bell.

The Puunene avenue macadamizing, under the direction of George Weight, is almost completed, and the road will be one of the very best on Maui.

D. W. Burehard, formerly an attorney at law engaged in the practise of his profession in San Francisco, has located and opened a law office in Wailuku.

Frank G. Correa, the Kula rancher, was in Wailuku a couple of days this week. He reports the drought in Kula worse than ever. Cattle are dying daily, and the residents are moving away as fast as they can. The people are anxiously awaiting the coming of the pipeline, and that alone is keeping a few still there, who would otherwise have moved out.
