IVORY SOAP is the standard by which all other soaps are judged. Some soap manufacturers claim that their product is "as good" or "as pure" or "as cheap" as Ivory. Possibly it is. But neither you nor any other sensible women will bother with the "as good" kind! You want real Ivory Soap; not the imitation kind.

HAWAIIAN SINGERS' NEW YORK ENGAGEMENTS

Lot Kaukukou, the young Hawaiian singer whose voice has been cultivated Italy under the direction of Annie Montague Cooke, has not caught on in New York so far, according to a newsy note from a Honolulu now sojourning in the metropolis. The writer states that "they tried him out for the opera, but he failed to make good, as his voice was not strong enough." The writer also states that July Paka, the young Hawaiian singer of Manoa City, has closed a successful season with the Young Turk company, in which he and his wife, "Toots" Paka, made the big hit, and both are now at Montgomery and Stone in a play called "Old Town." They were expected to leave for England in June. Billy Ellis has not been doing very well of late. He has failed to secure an engagement in the last two or three months, and for some reason has not signed on. However, there are ups and downs among the Hawaiian boys on the mainland, and Billy has never been long without a good contract.

EASTER OFFERINGS AT ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL

The people of St. Andrew's Cathedral will be glad to know the offerings made at Easter Day. The congregation gave $750 for the Bishop's House fund. The offering at the Sunday school service for several missions was $470, which was as follows:

Andrew's Sunday School	$145.29
Elizabeth's Sunday School	98.30
Peter's Sunday School	92.40
Andrew's Primary	57.52
Mary's Mission	30.55
Andrew's, Hawaiian	19.45
City Mission	12.30
St. Andrew's	10.96
St. Andrew's	3.25
Total	$470.12

The offering of the children's service was $23 less than this amount. The above list is remarkable when the offerings of the Chinese and St. Andrew's schools of St. Peter's and St. Andrew's are considered. A number of little boys connected with St. Peter's Sunday school made their Lenten offering by giving shoes, and many children in other Sunday schools entered their offerings.

All Personal Taxes (Poll, Road and School) not paid before April 1, will be subject to a penalty of ten per cent. Excelsior Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., will meet at seven thirty this evening in 1041 Fellows hall, Fort street near King.

The Personal Tax (Poll, Road and School) should be paid before April 1, 1910, otherwise ten per cent will be added.

There will be a special meeting of Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, F. & A. M., at seven thirty this evening for work in the third degree.

Julia Debor, former time manager of the Union Club, returned from a visit to his former home in Greece by the Korea yesterday. This was Mr. Debor's first visit to his parents for a number of years and he enjoyed himself to the full. He will leave by the Mauna Kea today to take his place as manager of the Union Club. He was one time manager of Demosthenes cafe, in Hilo, and is popular with the residents of that city. Mr. Debor is glad to get back to the Islands though he enjoyed all of the time spent in the cities in Europe. He brought back with him two young brothers of Mrs. George Lyvergas.

PERSONALS.

Dr. Hol, manager of Ehlers & Co., is back from a trip East.

Joseph Schwartz, the jeweler, returned yesterday from a business trip to California.

Frank Unger, a well known Californian, is here on a short vacation. He has many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Himmewell, well known Boston people, arrived on the Korea yesterday and will remain here several weeks.

William C. Aehl, son of Attorney Aehl, is home from a California college on a vacation. He arrived on the Korea.

J. von Ernst, formerly attached to the German embassy at Washington, is on the Korea, en route to Tokio to join the staff there.

Mrs. Heinrich Rejes, who was one of the many girls of Honolulu, arrived from Germany yesterday to visit with her mother, Mrs. Cony.

Mrs. F. R. Day returned yesterday after an absence of several years on the mainland and in Europe. She will be the guest of the J. A. Gilman at Waikiki until she takes possession of the von Holt cottage, Waikiki, which she has engaged for the summer.

Olaf Sorenson returned from the mainland yesterday after a three months' absence. He left here a member of the sad party which took the remains of Miss Smith back to the mainland and to her former New England home. Miss Smith was killed in an auto accident near Pearl City.

EX-QUEEN IS BACK.

Among the passengers arriving for Honolulu were Queen Liliuokalani, accompanied by her ward, J. D. Atmoku. She stated that she was glad to be back in Hawaii. When the queen appeared on deck, and also on the wharf, she was greeted by male chanting by Paoloku, who was the old chanter during the reigns of Kalakaua and Liliuokalani.

WEDDING LAST NIGHT AT ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL

Miss Irmgard Schaefer Becomes the Bride of R. R. Elgin.

In the presence of a fashionable assemblage in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Miss Irmgard Schaefer and Mr. R. R. Elgin were united in marriage last evening at eight thirty o'clock, Bishop Henry Bond Restarick officiating. Following the wedding ceremony a brilliant reception was held at the beautiful home of the bride's parents in Nuuanu Valley, where a large number of friends congratulated the couple and bade them godspeed for their journey today to Hawaii, where they will reside in future.

The cathedral decorations for the wedding were simple yet very attractive. Easter lilies, roses and carnations clustered and sprayed among ferns, with two tall palms, formed a pretty chancel rail. Upon the altar were two cases holding a few lilies. At eight thirty the cathedral choir, surpliced and capped, entered the cathedral and sang a procession, and upon reaching their station, the music changed to the wedding music. The four sisters, Miss S. H. Wadhams, United States Army, R. O. Strickland, E. M. Watson and Robert Bond, presided at the bridesmaids, who were Miss Lily Fay and Miss Ruth Young, each garbed in yellow and carrying large clusters bouquets of La France roses. Following them came the matron of honor, Mrs. S. H. Wadhams, in a beautiful gown of soft yellow, and also carrying La France roses.

The bride entered the cathedral and proceeded to the chancel bearing upon the arm of her father, P. A. Schaefer, the Italian coronal. At the chancel the bride was met by the groom, accompanied by Mr. William Williamson, as best man. Miss Restarick met the bride and groom at the chancel and read the impressive services of the church. After the register was signed, the nuptial strains of the Lohengrin wedding march pealed through the cathedral and the happy bride and groom passed out as man and wife. The bride wore a very handsome gown of white, with a veil reaching to the collar, by orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride is the daughter of the Italian consul and Mrs. Schaefer. She
