

THIRTY-ONE YEARS ON JOB IS RECORD

J. F. ECKARDT.

J. F. Eckardt yesterday commenced his thirty-second year as superintendent of the Queen's Hospital, being the recipient of many congratulations from his friends...

GOOD SONGS SUNG AT NEW ORPHEUM

The members of the Casino Musical Comedy Company appeared at the Orpheum last evening in another piece of Irish nonsense, called "O'Grady's Friend."

Miss Elise Schuyler did another of her popular German songs, called "Budweiser's a Friend of Mine," and in the second act appeared for the first time here in a Cockney song...

Miss Maude Rockwell was not in the cast, but made her appearance late in the second act, clad in a very effective gown of black and silver, and sang "The Nightingale."

The Steek sisters were both as cute and clever as ever. Miss Olga sang a solo and a duet with Carleton Chase, and Miss Vilma, in a little dress of green, sang of a colleen named "Peggy."

Harris McQuire had the best part he has yet been assigned, and he made the most of his opportunities. He sang two numbers, in one of which, a march by George Cohen, he did some fast step dancing.

Miss Ethel Canfield played the "Miserere" from "Il Trovatore," and for an encore chose "The Rosary." Part of the credit for the enjoyment of "The Rosary" should go to the accompanist at the organ.

Carleton Chase was immaculately clad, as usual, and though he chose a rather old song, "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now," he took three encores. Harry Stuart appeared in a Jew character part and sang "Sadie Salome," and Harry Garrity, back again in his familiar red wig, did a thankless sort of a song called "Oh, Doctor Brown."

COWARD'S STONE HITS YOUNG HAWAIIAN GIRL

Aimed at the Chinese Athletics, while touring the city in autos last night, a stone hurled by some Japanese still rankling over the defeat of the Waseda team Sunday, struck the pretty young wife of Tom Mahuka.

Higgs—Are you not indulging in a good many luxuries for one in your position, did man? Higgs—Yes, but good Scott! the necessities are all so thundering high.—Boston Transcript.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Excelsior Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., will meet in Odd Fellows hall at half past seven this evening.

Letters are in this office for "Morning," "Russ," "K," "D. M.," "Buckboard," "L. S. D.," "Musier," "Bookkeeper," "House," "A. B.," and "W. J."

A Russian, drunk as ever drunk was drunk, cut loose in Balama last night and promised to wipe out the neighborhood with any man who offered himself. None offering he tried the long distance stunt and began to throw stones, being nabbed soon after by the police.

A Korean was arrested last night by orders of Chief McDuffie and held at the station while his connection with a missing ten-dollar piece is investigated. It is the same old story of one Korean sleeping with a second who wakes up in the morning to find his bed fellow and his cash gone.

A dull day in police court yesterday disappointed a number of those who seek to break the monotony of life by taking in its daily free exhibition. Nearly all cases were set over, those of the rioters at the ball park coming up tomorrow. Mrs. Camela Ah Lee, a Porto Rican woman of ill repute, was given six months on the reef and another case against her was not pressed.

PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Denagho will be at home at their residence on Alewa Heights after October 1.

Capt. Francis J. Koester, Fifth Cavalry, has been relieved from duty at the Presidio of San Francisco, and will sail for Honolulu August 5, to join his command.

Miss Thompson, recently stenographer with the Hawaiian Development Company at the Pahoa lumber mill, leaves on the Asia for Japan this afternoon.

Capt. Robert W. Mearns, Twentieth Infantry, has been ordered to Honolulu for duty with the second battalion of his regiment. He is at present in the Philippines.

Members of the Salvation Army are hastening these days, completing arrangements for a series of big meetings. And it will not be their fault if the hall is not packed for the welcome demonstration to their colonel next Saturday night.

Lieut.-Col. R. L. Bullard, Eighth Infantry, will station at the Presidio of Monterey, was a visitor at department headquarters yesterday. Colonel Bullard is arranging for the camp of instruction for militia officers, which is to be held in Hawaii in September.—Chronicle.

QUEEN'S HOSPITAL HONORARY STAFF

At a meeting of the trustees of the Queen's hospital held last Saturday the following members of the honorary staff were appointed as surgeons to serve on the hospital staff during the ensuing year:

Surgeons: Dr. C. B. Cooper, Dr. W. C. Hobdy, Dr. Ernest C. Waterhouse, and Dr. George F. Straub. Physicians: Dr. H. V. Murray, Dr. J. H. Raymond, Dr. F. F. Hedemann, Dr. J. L. Morong. Specialists: Dr. W. G. Rogers and Dr. H. P. Nottage. Dr. Chester George, late of St. Joseph's hospital, Reading, Pennsylvania, was appointed interne, succeeding Dr. Ritson, resigned to take up the practice of Dr. J. J. Grace in Hilo.

When a man engages in business, it matters not whether grocery, drygoods or hardware, it is a gamble. This also applies to Lakeview No. 2 Oil Company. Our chance of success is good. It is a 9 to 1 proposition in our favor; but when you consider the immense difference in profits it is a $1000 to $1 in your favor. Don't you think this is worth the gamble? Ask John D. Rockefeller what he thinks about it—he ought to know. It is up to you to live on easy street or work all your life for a salary. J. OSWALD LUTTED, Fort street, next to convent. Phone 690.

IVORY SOAP 99 1/100 Per Cent. Pure. MERELY because you have used such-and-such a soap for years, it does not necessarily follow that it is as good as, or better than, Ivory Soap. Ivory Soap would never have attained the sale it has if it were not superior to other soaps. Try it! That is the best way to determine how good it is.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Private machines cared for at the Royal Hawaiian Garage, Hotel St., opposite Hawaiian Hotel. Rent service cars.

CHINESE CHOP SUEY.

Only a Chinese chef of more than ordinary ability can prepare this popular dish so it will be palatable for Americans. At the Canton restaurant on Hotel street near Nuuanu, it is served better than in any place outside the Great Wall. With this particularly fascinating dish comes other and just as delicious viands in this establishment and the preparation of them is under the direct supervision of the manager. The Canton is open from six in the morning until eight in the evening. The second floor has been especially fitted for the entertainment of European guests and for parties, private rooms have been furnished. A reception in the afternoon will insure better service for large parties than when orders are given for immediate serving.

A PRECAUTION.

Those citizens of Milwaukee, who are of German extraction, like many of their fellow countrymen elsewhere, greatly esteem sauerkraut as a food staple. On one occasion a Milwaukee German was speaking of the high price of cabbage. "I tell you," said he, "cabbage is awful in price this year, me and wife puts up six, seven, eight barrels of sauerkraut every year but we can't do year. Dear cabbage has cost too much." "You put up some sauerkraut, Hans, didn't you?" asked a friend. "Oh yes—two or three barrels maybe—just to eat in de house in case of sickness."—Brooklyn Life.

A PRICELESS POSSESSION.
