

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

The Iwalani arrived to-day.

The Likelike arrived this afternoon.

Ladies! For Jet ornaments, go to L. B. Kerr's.

The A. P. A. will have no success in this country.

Honolulu is now going to have a Methodist Church.

The W. G. Hall is coming into port as we go to press.

For Novelties by every steamer look in at L. B. Kerr's.

A Chinaman's hack was damaged by a runaway last night.

If you don't get your paper, ring up 841—THE INDEPENDENT.

Minister Willis will probably be absent from town about 15 days.

For Paste Buckles, Steel Buckles and Gold Buckles, go to L. B. Kerr's.

The indefatigable Berger gives a concert at Thomas Square this evening.

It is expected that Geo. Lyeurgus will return to this town before going to Greece.

The dedication of the new High School takes place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Flowers, Feathers, and Jet Aig-riths are very much in evidence at L. B. Kerr's.

The Kawaihauo Church will be opened very soon. The electric lights are in working order.

Don't forget the Tennis Concert at the Y. M. C. A. to-morrow evening. It is going to be a musical treat.

The C. D. Bryant sailed yesterday afternoon. Among her passengers were Mrs. Clifford Rhodes and R. L. Warson.

There will be a meeting of the Missionary Children's Society to-morrow evening, at the residence of C. H. Atherton.

Fritz Rowell was elected first lieutenant of Co. A last evening instead of Ed. Towse who has been promoted to be an adjutant.

The California Wine Co. has made an assignment. Account of stock is being taken this afternoon by the agents of Geo. Lyeurgus.

The entertainment given by Co. A at the drill shed last evening was pronounced a great success, and all those present unite in crying da capo.

Government officials were paid off yesterday and to-day. No official statement has yet appeared showing how the necessary funds were raised.

The directors of the Kalakaua Monument Association will meet this afternoon. It will be interesting to subscribers to see a wind up of that ancient affair.

The drum corps is taking singing lessons from Professor Yandley. As the boys have promised not to sing in public they are excusable for their ambitious designs.

Duke McNichol is back again to his duty after a severe attack of grippe. His friends welcome him and rejoice at his recovery. He now attempts to play ball at the Anchor.

Thanksgiving Day is coming and Henry Davis & Co. have realized the proper celebration of the day by importing fattening and offering for sale a select herd of turkeys. See advertisement.

For once there is a shortage in the supply of California wine in this city. It is hoped that the S. G. Wilder will bring enough of the California grape juice even to satisfy the Y. W. C. T. U.

N. S. Sachs has returned on the steamer China from a business trip to the Coast, where he selected a large and varied stock of Millinery, Dry and Fancy Goods, the latest Novelties, the "Knox Sailor Hats," Dress Goods, etc., etc.

To-morrow and Sunday excursion trains will be dispatched for Waianae and an excellent opportunity offered to those who have not yet taken the trip over the new road and enjoyed the fresh breezes and picturesque scenery of Waianae.

Jailor Low is devoting his time in giving evidence in the cases relating to the claims of those illegally imprisoned during the late rebellion. The position held by Mr. Low, and his interest in the matter, will hardly help to give any weight to any statement he may have made.

V. V. Ashford will return to Honolulu by the next steamer if his health permits him to do so. C. W. Ashford, whose claim against the Republic of Hawaii is being forcibly pushed by the British Government, will appear here and look into the evidence given against him by Jailor Low, Hitchcock, McEvoy, Allen, and a number of other creatures of Messrs. Kinney & Co.

Mr. B. F. Dillingham took Mr. E. P. Davies, Q. C. of Vancouver and Mrs. Davies together with Colonel W. F. Allen and some other invited friends to Waianae yesterday. The visitors had a delightful trip and were most hospitably entertained by Mr. A. Abrendts, the manager of the plantation. To-morrow, Minister Damon will probably visit the present terminus of the railroad as the guest of Judge Widemann.

The Advertiser bicycle contest is quite interesting. The three lucky candidates who get the most votes will compete with each other on a road ride, and the winner will get a bicycle as a prize. The favorites so far are Reuby Dexter, D. G. Sylvester and Tom King. If these three boys win the day the contest will be unusually interesting as all are known as fine riders and regular racers. Cast your ballot for one of the three and an exciting race will ensue.

Organized.

Delegates from the different tennis clubs met yesterday and succeeded in organizing a tennis association. The following gentlemen will serve as officers: Geo. C. Potter, president; Professor French, vice-president; L. de L. Ward, secretary and treasurer; E. Rose, Clifton Tracy and Dr. Nichols, committee on constitution and by-laws; E. A. Jones, C. H. Atherton and J. Q. Wood, committee on tournament. The new organization expects to "boom" tennis in the islands.

Memories Dear.

John Nott to-day records the fortieth anniversary of his ever happy marriage.

Seaborn Luce the "youngster" as Nott calls him, entered into wedlock twenty-two years ago. Both are living proofs of the fact that marriage is not a failure.

Died.
