SAFETY OF CERTAIN MISSIONARIES REPORTED.

Several Others Who Are Known to Have Been Killed by the Boxers.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—A special to the Tribune from Bycyrus, Ohio, says: The news of the safety of Dr. Roberts has just reached here in a cablegram from Shanghai. The message states that Dr. Roberts and several missing missionaries who had been stationed on a farm at Kooftan had been located with the legation at Peking and are now with the allied forces, having been liberated on August 19th. Two other women who were members of the party are missing. They are Mrs. Charles Roberts and Mrs. Nellie Parker. Mrs. Parker is known to have been killed by the Boxers who surrounded the mission farm early in July and grave fears are entertained as to the safety of Mrs. Roberts, who is almost certain to have been captured by the Boxers.

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 20.—A cablegram received this morning at the China Inland Mission from Shanghai reads: "Miss H. J. Rice from Lu Chen, murdered; Miss M. E. Huston from Lu Chen, Mrs. E. J. Cooper from Lu Chen and three Saunders children are all dead, having received injuries while traveling." Miss Rice was from Haydensville, Mass., and went to China in 1898. Miss Huston came from Mobile, Ala., and went to China in 1896. The other lady, Mrs. E. J. Cooper, went out from Scotland to China in 1887. All these missionaries are members of the China Inland Mission. The following missionaries have fled from the province of Shan Si: E. J. Cooper, from his station at Lu Chen; Rev. A. E. and Mrs. Glover, from the station at Luau; Rev. and Mrs. Saunders, from Ping laot, and six children, evidently the children of Mr. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. Glover.

AN INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS FOR CHINESE SETTLEMENT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: President McKinley is considering the advisability of proposing to the powers the organization of an international congress, which shall sit in China and recommend to the several governments represented a permanent solution of pending questions. The President recognizes that the duties which Minister Conger will be called upon to perform will be so exacting and arduous that it would be unfair to ask him to take the additional burden of discussing a method of settlement of the matters in controversy; that Special Commissioner Rockhill will be too busily employed in obtaining information and in communication with the high Chinese officials to give time to them, and that direct negotiations between the powers is likely to prove unsatisfactory and give rise to complications which might otherwise be avoided. Talks with diplomats here indicate that their governments would be willing to join in a congress for the settlement of the Chinese question, and Baron Von Sternberg, the German charge d'affaires in Washington, has been suggested as the representative of Germany.

BOER GUNS CAPTURED.

Seven Hundred Burghers Also Surrender to General Rundle. LONDON, Aug. 20.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts: "Ian Hamilton captured two Krupp guns at Oliphant's Nek on August 17th. Three British were wounded. "Hamilton engaged the Boers all day on August 19th at Roodekopjes and Crocodile river. There were few casualties. "Rundle reports that 684 Boers surrendered in the Harrismith district on August 19th. "Lord Roberts has confirmed the award of the queen's scarf to Trooper Chadwick of Roberts' horse, chosen by troopers as most distinguished for bravery. Chadwick is an American. He was one of the boat's crew who cut the cable at Santiago (Chetnegos). The queen gave four scarfs to be awarded to brave men, one each for representatives of colonial troops from Australia, New Zealand, Canada and Africa. Africa's scarf will therefore go to the United States.

ICE HABIT IN ENGLAND.

Traveling Americans Have Created a Great Demand for the Article. The growth of the ice habit in England forms the subject of a report to the state department by United States Consul Halsted, at Birmingham. "The ice habit is making rapid progress in Great Britain," says the consul. "Due largely to the incessant clamor for ice in hotels and public places by the thousands of traveling Americans. Not very long ago the attendants of public places in England, where nearly everything except ice was provided, would be insulting if one complained because ice could not be had. Today, all first-class places have a few small lumps swimming in a glass dish, and in country inns and even in second-class public houses they apologize for not having it. "Though very few saloons and restaurants have refrigerators, many private residences now own them, and there would be far more general use of ice if companies were organized to distribute it from house to house. As it is, one must secure it almost by favor from the fishmonger. "Last summer was an unusually hot one, and all the American refrigerators in stock in England by consignment or otherwise were sold. Properly handled, there is good opportunity in England for American refrigerator manufacturers. "Cold storage is a growing business here, and large brewers are putting in extensive cold-storage machinery plants; but American manufacturers in this line are not, to my knowledge, in evidence. "Yesterday's issue of the London Daily Mail had an article on ice. In this the yearly consumption of ice in England was estimated at 450,000 tons, long, and in London at 160,000 tons, and the paper added: "The demand is rapidly increasing, now that the public have awakened to an intelligent appreciation of the cheapness and usefulness of the commodity." One London ice company is credited with having a permanent storage of 10,000 tons to meet unusual but weather demands, daily supplies being taken direct from ships which bring it from the mountain lakes of Norway, and, of course, a good deal of ice is manufactured.

It Saved His Baby.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea, we were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. J. H. Doak, of Williams, Or. "I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Territory.
