MUSICALE
TO BE AT CASTLE MANOA HOME FINE VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL SELECTIONS BY BEST
LOCAL TALENT.

Members of Art League to Enjoy Musical Evening at Beautiful Valley Residence—Extra Electric Cars Will Take Visitors Up Hill Where Guides Will Show Way.

The musical circle of the Kilohana Art League will give a musicale on Monday evening, January 20, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. S. N. Castle, Punokona, in Mānoa valley. The trolley cars from Panahan are to run up the valley at ten minutes intervals between 7:15 and 7:55 in the evening. At Hillside avenue Japanese guides and an occasional lantern will direct the guides up Castle Hill.
The following program will be given:

- Capriccio, (two pianos).....Gurlitt
- Miss Elmer and Miss Castle.
- The Dream, (violin obligato).....
- Mercadante.....
- Annis Montague Turner.
- Gondoliera.....Liszt
- Mrs. W. L. Whitney.
- My Memories.....Paolo Tosti
- Mr. H. F. Wichman.
- Mignon.....Liszt
- Annis Montague Turner.
- Sonata, op. 13 (piano and violin).....
- Grieg
- Lento Doloroso,
- Allegro Vago,
- Allegretto Tranquillo,
- Allegro Animato.

Mr. J. A. Amme and Miss Castle.
This musicale is sure to be one of the most delightful events of the season. Those who have had an opportunity to enjoy Miss Castle's monthly "Bachelor's Concerts" know the charms of a musicale at that place and these who have not previously enjoyed such an opportunity can look forward to a most delightful evening.

The music room in the Castle residence has been fitted out with much skill and care with the result that not even the slightest touch of music played escapes the listener who is seated in one of the large adjoining rooms from the windows of which the most splendid views of the valley, the plains and far in the back around the blue Pacific, can be had.

As Monday evening will be a moonlight one the weather is fair, the views of the scenery will be more beautiful than ever, and those who attend the concert will be able to enjoy the doubled delight for the ear and for the eye.

MRS. MORGAN GIVES NASTURTIUM LUNCHEON
IN HONOR OF DEPARTING LADIES

Dainty Luncheon For Party of Six —Table Prettily Decorated with Maile, Flowers and Ribbons in Yellow Color Scheme.

A charming nasturtium luncheon was given by Mrs. J. F. Morgan yesterday afternoon at her home on Emma street, just mauka of the square.
The luncheon was given in honor of Miss S. Levingston. About four months ago Miss Levingston, Miss Bessie Church, Miss Mabel Jones, Miss Eva Dennis and Mrs. J. F. Morgan made the trip from the Coast to this city together in the Ventura, and as the young ladies are to depart for the Coast on the Sierra on January 21 the luncheon was sort of a farewell gathering.

The luncheon table which was set for six, was very prettily decorated in yellow with ferns and flowers, nasturtiums prevailing. From the chandelier which had been decorated with sweet smelling maile and Chinese oranges, yellow ribbons were arranged as streamers down to the table.

The dining room had been decorated as well with greens and flowers, a number of wooden plaques with topographically engraved motives chiefly from Omar Khayyam being especially noticeable. These were the work of Miss Levingston. At each cover was placed a tiny basket with bonbons intended as a souvenir of the occasion.
The following ladies were present:
Miss S. Levingston, Miss Bessie Church, Miss Mabel Jones, Miss Eva Dennis, Mrs. W. H. Hoogs and Mrs. J.
F. Morgan.

Pullman Will Admitted to Probate.
REDWOOD CITY, Jan. 6.—Mrs.
George M. Pullman appeared in court this morning to give testimony on the probate of her husband's will. The matter has been pending for a month or more, owing to her illness.
There was no opposition to the proceedings this morning. The estate of Pullman was valued at $500,000, but the evidence shows it to be worth $2,000. The horses and vehicles are covered by a chattel mortgage. All the servants of the dead man are clamoring for their wages.

Miss Campbell is the Bride of Prince David

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—Punctually at noon today Archbishop Riordan, who was assisted by Father Ramm of the Cathedral, united in matrimony Miss Abigail Campbell of San Jose and Prince David Kawanaka of Honolulu. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of ferns and white roses in the main parlor of the Occidental Hotel. Only a few relatives and guests of the bride and groom were present, although there was a large gathering in the corridors of the uninvited, most of them residents of the hotel, who viewed the wedding procession and stole a peep at the ceremony.

It was five minutes before noon when the decorators withdrew from the parlor and the servants finished sweeping and dusting. Prince David and his attendants had one room and the bride and her attendants another; the guests had several rooms, and an apartment was reserved for the Archbishop and Father Ramm.

As the noon hour struck Major Hooper sent word that all was ready.
The bridal procession formed quickly.
Earnest Parker, son of Colonel Sam Parker, led the way with Prince David. Mr. Ryland of San Jose escorted the bride, who is a tall and comely Hawaiian girl, and who was attired in a beautiful gown of white lace and wore a large white hat with a feather. Behind the bride walked Colonel Sam Parker and his bride, who is the mother of Prince David's bride.

The ceremony in the parlor was very simple. There was no music.
Prince David and Miss Campbell stood before the Archbishop. On the right of the Prince was Earnest Parker and on the left of the bride Miss Anita Chrystal of Honolulu, her most intimate girl friend. Judge J. C. B.
Hebbard of this city, Judge George Gear and Judge Davis of Honolulu, B. F. Dillingham of Honolulu and the younger members of the Parker and Campbell families stood about the bride and groom. Not more than fifteen others were in the parlor.

After the ceremony all the relatives kissed the bride and congratulated the groom. There was a wedding breakfast before which forty persons sat down.

The two bridal pairs, Colonel Sam Parker and his wife, and Prince David and his wife, accompanied by Judge Davis, will depart tomorrow by the Santa Fe for Washington, D. C.

IMPRESSIVE RITES MARK GILFILLAN OBSEQUIES

NOTABLE HAWAIIANS ATTEND.
George Davis Pays Tribute—Funeral in Charge of Prominent Masons and Held in San Francisco on Jan. 6.—Blue Lodge Ceremonies.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—Masons of San Francisco consigned to a grave in Laurel Hill Cemetery yesterday the body of Archibald F. Gilfillan, a resident of Honolulu, who met his death through an accident in Philadelphia ten days ago. With all the impressive ceremonial of the Blue Lodge, the brethren of the dead man honored his memory, and told of his good works in life. Relatives of Gilfillan who live in San Francisco, were present at the Masonic Temple, and conspicuous among the Hawaiian Masons attending were: Samuel Parker, Prince David Kawanaka, Judge G. D. Gear, George Davis and John G. Rothwell, all Knights Templar and members of Honolulu Commandery.

Acting Master Henry M. Owens of California Lodge, No. 1, conducted the funeral service, and read the beautiful and comforting ritual of the Blue Lodge. The Knickerbocker Quartet sang four hymns during the reading, and George Davis of Honolulu delivered an eulogy. Davis said that he had known Gilfillan as man and Mason for many years, and knew him to be possessed of the highest moral qualities. Gilfillan was to have been initiated into the Scottish Rite on his return to Honolulu from Louisville, Ky., whither he went some months ago to represent Hawaii at the convocation of Knights Templar.
Davis deplored the sad fate of Gilfillan who was killed by being thrown from a trolley car in Philadelphia on December 23d. After Davis had concluded Franklin H. Day, secretary of California Lodge, No. 1, uttered an impressive farewell to his dead brother.
Then the friends of the deceased viewed the body and the funeral cortege departed for the cemetery.

Archibald Gilfillan was a member of the Hawaiian Legislature, and prominent in business circles in Honolulu. He was a Scotchman by birth and formerly resided in San Francisco, where he had an extensive acquaintance.

JUDGE ARTHUR NOYES IS DANGEROUSLY ILL

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—Judge Arthur H. Noyes, of the United States District Court of Alaska, is critically ill at his apartments at the St. Nicholas Hotel, and nearly all last week the physicians attending him despaired of his life. On Monday evening last he was suddenly taken with a severe hemorrhage of the lungs while chatting with friends, and for the rest of the night his death was momentarily expected. For most of the week he was in a comatose condition but yesterday his physicians reported a slight improvement, and said they expected, if the improvement continues, he should be able to leave his bed in the next week or ten days.
Judge Noyes is in the city as the defendant in sensational contempt proceedings that have been pending in the Circuit Court since September last. A decision in his case is expected now almost any day.

SCHLEY APPEALS TO
THE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The object of Admiral Schley's visit to the White House yesterday was to request the President to consider an appeal for the reversal of the action of Secretary Long and the disapproval of the majority judgment of the court of inquiry. The interview was satisfactory, the President granting the Admiral's request. Admiral Schley was given an opportunity to present the case from his standpoint, and to acquaint the President with many details with which the latter could have no knowledge.

Rayner and Traque, counsel for Read Admiral Schley, came over from Baltimore today and were closeted for several hours with their client.
While it is not definitely known how much time was afforded in which to prepare the appeal, it is understood to be the wish of President Roosevelt that the matter be presented as early as possible.

The following statement was given out by Admiral Schley's counsel at the conclusion of the conference:
"Admiral Schley has concluded, after mature and careful deliberation, to appeal from the majority decision of the court of inquiry to the President of the United States as Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy. The action having been determined upon, nothing more can be divulged at this time, the regulations of the Navy being such that the nature of the proposed appeal cannot be revealed except by the President after the formal documents have been filed with him."

SIBYL SANDERSON TO BE MARRIED AGAIN

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The California singer, Sibyl Sanderson Terry, was a passenger on the fast liner Kronprinz Wilhelm, which sailed for Europe today. A large number of friends were at the dock to bid her goodby, and a number of beautiful floral pieces were presented to the lady just before the vessel sailed.
Count Fitzjames was also a passenger and confirmed the report that he and the songstress were to marry, and said that the wedding would take place in Paris during the latter part of February. The prima donna would not talk about her engagement to the count, except to say that she had wished the ceremony to be performed in this country, but was going to Paris in order that her mother might be present. "I expect to return to the United States next winter," she said, "and will probably reappear in grand opera."

CABMAN GETS DAMAGES FROM JOHN G. CARLIS' E

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—John G. Carlisle, ex-Secretary of the Treasury, was defendant in a suit before Justice O'Dwyer in the City Court today, in which Richard F. Lsake, a cabman, recovered $1,000 damages for false arrest and imprisonment. The suit grew out of the arrest of Leake on a charge of making away with a sealskin cape belonging to Mrs. Carlisle on the night of December 15th, 1898.
As soon as the cape was missed Carlisle reported the loss to police headquarters, and several days later Leake was arrested and held by the grand jury. When the case came up for trial Leake was discharged. He then sued Carlisle for false arrest and imprisonment.
Carlisle denied that he had caused the arrest of Leake. He said the police had acted on their own authority in making the arrest.

Second Great Clearance Sale

This week we shall throw our entire stock of LADIES' WASHABLE SKIRTS on our counters, to be sold at cost or less. We do not believe that any lady who visited our Muslim Underwear Sale last week was disappointed in the bargains offered, or can say that the Sale did not carry out the promises made in our advertisements. We give you our word that the values offered this week will be equally as great, and that this is an opportunity not to be passed by.

These Skirts are cut by skilled men tailors and well made and trimmed. They are of Crash, Khaki, Denim, Duck, Linen and Poppe, and are both white and colored. They are sold so cheaply that we cannot afford to make alterations on Skirts bought during this Sale, but there is a great variety of sizes and lengths, and almost everyone can be fitted.
Prices begin at 25 cents and go to $3.00, with all prices between;
the greatest bargains, however, being between $1.00 and $2.00.

SILK PETTICOATS.
We shall put in with this Sale a few beautiful Pure Silk Colored Petticoats, which we have marked at exact cost. There are only a limited number of them and they will probably all be sold on the first day of the Sale—hence better be quick.
