

DENVER ED SMITH MAY BOX

"Denver" Ed. Smith was busy at his headquarters last night, training with Attorney Brooks of this city. It was a pretty exhibition and when it was ended "Denver Ed." was jubilant over the prospects for tonight's exhibition.

"This evening," said Smith, "you will see the prettiest and most scientific exhibition in the art of self-defense that you have ever witnessed in Honolulu. I will be responsible personally for anything that happens tonight, and no one will have a right to complain."

"I am in first class form and I hope that my opponent, and all those who will take part in the preliminaries will feel in the same condition."

"Some people have tried to injure tonight's exhibition by writing to the High Sheriff that it will end in a regular fight. It will be nothing of the kind. Ever since I came down to Honolulu I have been a law-abiding citizen, and propose to be so as long as Honolulu is my home."

"The names on the program for to-night are a guarantee that the proceedings will be above reproach. All of the local boxers are well known here with the exception of one, and one is a young man prominent in law and business circles."

"C. A. Graham will referee the bouts, and Demetrius Gambinos Camarinos will be master of ceremonies. My record for clean and honest fighting speaks for itself, and if to-night's exhibition is satisfactory to the people of Honolulu, I intend to start a first class athletic club in this city."

FLORENCE CREW WERE RELEASED

VAN DYKE ATTEMPTS TO GET EVEN

O'CONNELL WAS CHARGED WITH SAILING UNDER FALSE PRETENSES.

Japanese Would Bribe a Policeman—Stiff Fine For Pair Charged With Adultery—Porto Rican Found With Dangerous Knife.

J. Van Dyke, the second mate of the ship Florence, failed to present sufficient evidence against Semon A. Jacobson, Olof Olsen and Jno. Johansen, whom he had charged with assault and battery. The defendants were discharged by Judge Wilcox at yesterday's session of police court.

From the testimony, it appeared that Van Dyke had some difficulty with Captain Spicer of the Florence, and made a formal demand for his pay. The skipper refused to comply with the request, and Van Dyke was told that he would be given his money after the cargo was out of the ship and not before. Van Dyke became very much incensed over the result, and Captain Spicer stated that the arrest of the seamen was simply a put up job to cripple his available working force aboard ship.

The discharge of the men yesterday, and their return to work, caused Captain Spicer to settle with the negligent second officer, and he was paid off and discharged from further duty aboard the vessel.

Fight at Boat Landing.
Iokopa Kane and James Berrington, boat men, were fined $6 and costs each for fighting at the boat landing Thursday night.

The case of J. F. O'Connell charged with gross cheat was postponed until Monday morning. O'Connell was arrested upon complaint of Pang Lum who stated that the defendant had agreed to install eleven electric lights into the Pang Lum premises at a total cost of $11. The Chinese further declared that O'Connell claimed to have been a representative of the Hawaiian Electric Co. The police are inclined to believe that the case arises from a general misunderstanding.

Mura, a Japanese from the training ship Mohican, was found guilty of committing adultery with a woman named Kasa, both being fined $50 and costs. The case was bitterly fought, the defendants being represented by Attorneys Long and Kaulukou. Mura was also charged with endeavoring to bribe the policeman who arrested him, the officer claiming that the bribe which was refused. The bribery charge was nolle prossed.

Bad Man With a Knife.
The case of Mira Hachi, a huckman, who was alleged to have allowed his vehicle to be used for questionable purposes was nolle prossed, it being brought up in connection with the Mura complaint.

A Porto Rican named San Michael, found frequenting the vicinity of Beretania and Punchbowl streets at a late hour of night, carrying a dangerous looking knife on his person was sentenced to two months at the reef. According to the story of three Portuguese witnesses the defendant endeavored to perpetrate a holdup, but was outclassed and failed in his mission.

Authorde, a Porto Rican vagrant, was sent to the reef for six months. The end of it.

Ah Kij, charged with heedless driving, was discharged. The man was arrested upon complaint of a Japanese cyclist who declared he had been run down by the huckman.

Horita, against whom a complaint had been filed by the board of health regarding the unsanitary condition of his premises, was granted until February 1 to remedy the existing evil.

Three Japanese, arrested on Thursday night's okolehao raid, were arraigned. They waived examination. The case will come up again Monday morning.

Not a single case of drunkenness was listed on yesterday morning's police court docket.

HAWAIIAN BOY AGAIN ARRESTED

J. WARD ENLISTS ON THE MOHICAN

SHIPS FOR FOUR YEARS BUT TOO MUCH PUBLICITY RUINS HIS CHANCES.

Bright and Capable Boy is Accused of Receiving Stolen Goods—Police Officials Interested in His Case—Enlists on the Mohican But is Arrested Again Last Night.

James Ward, a young Hawaiian boy, passed a first class examination yesterday on board the training ship Mohican and signed enlistment papers for a period of four years.

Ward is only eighteen years old and is said to be a very bright and capable young man. His father is a first class machinist, and the boy seems to have inherited some of the ingenuity of his father. A few months ago he was captain of the Catholic Mission baseball team and was very popular among all those that knew him. He was arrested for being in possession of stolen goods which had been given to him by another boy, and was locked up at the Oahu Jail waiting to appear at the next session of the Circuit Court.

Officials of the Police Department interested themselves in his case, as they thought that there had been no criminal intent on his part, and when the Mohican anchored in Honolulu harbor, they felt there was a good opportunity to give the young fellow a chance to start on a new, honest and useful career.

High Sheriff Brown took the steps necessary for such an end and the day before yesterday secured his release from the Oahu Jail and sent him on board the Mohican. He passed the examination with unusual success and signed his enlistment for four years in the United States Navy. His grandmother interviewed Captain Merry and everything seemed to bid fair for a good and honest future for the young man when an evening paper yesterday published the story of his antecedents which came under the eyes of Captain Cowden.

Young Ward had been given leave to spend the night ashore with his parents and could not be found, so Captain Cowden went to Captain

Parker and told him to hunt up the young man. Ward was found at the corner of Nuuanu and Hotel streets and taken down to the police station where he was locked up for the night pending further investigation by the ship's officers.

Sheriff Brown and Captain Parker sympathize deeply with the boy, and will renew their endeavors this morning to give him a chance to make a good and honest living.

"LOPES TOO BLOOMIN' IGH."

The Englishman's Only Comment When the Broncho Threw Him.

"Most Englishmen are considered pretty fair horsemen, but when it comes to riding a bucking broncho some of them are not in or on it for long," said the owner of a large cattle ranch in Wyoming to the writer the other day. "For instance, a rich young Englishman recently came out to my part of the country in quest of some good investment. He was at my ranch as a guest for a few days, and one afternoon as the cowboys were about to round up a bunch of cow ponies the young man said that he would enjoy a good ride in the saddle. He said he was used to riding only thoroughbreds, and he didn't think we had a horse good enough for him. The boys convinced him that they had one of the finest horses on the plains, and if he knew how to ride he was welcome to the animal. He was apparently insulted when questioned about his ability to ride and answered that he could ride any kind of a horse. A sleepy looking broncho was accordingly brought out from the corral and saddled. Though the beast appeared half dead, he was the worst bucker in the herd.

"'E's lifeless,' said the foreman when the pony was brought to him. The boys said the nag would wake up after the first mile, and mired got into the saddle. The first buck jump placed him on the horse's neck, and after the second he was in the atmosphere. He turned a double somersault and landed on the sharp end of a cactus plant. When he picked himself up, one of the boys asked what he thought of the thoroughbred now. The question made the Englishman turn pale.

"'E's a good 'oss,' he answered, 'but he lopes too bloomin' 'igh.'"

AN ATTACK OF PNEUMONIA WARD OFF.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annotto Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

THE MYSTERY OF DREAMS.

A Case in Which the Coincidences Were Remarkable.

On one occasion during the civil war I dreamed that I was standing beside a road when there came marching along it a strong column of prisoners, with guards at intervals on the flanks. I asked one of these guards who the prisoners were and where they had been taken in an engagement with the enemy on the day before and that there were 1,900 of them. I then asked some bystander what day of the month it was and was told it was such a day of a certain month, some six weeks later than the date of the dream. The whole dream was extremely distinct, and it made a strong impression on me. I related it to a number of my comrades within the next few days and then thought of it no more.

Six weeks later, on the morning of the very day that had been mentioned in the dream as the date when the column of prisoners had passed before me, I was on picket duty distant from the point where I had dreamed to be when I saw them. It was soon after breakfast, and I was standing by the side of the road at the fire talking to the officer of the picket when an aid to the commanding general came riding down the road. He had been a schoolfellow of our officer's at West Point, and he reined up when he recognized his friend. He told us that he had good news; that there had been a sharp engagement with the enemy the day before and that our people had captured 1,900 prisoners, who had just passed the headquarters that morning on their way to the rear.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

APPARENTLY.

From the Chicago Tribune.
"Is there any water in metals?" asked the instructor of the class in physics.
"There seems to have been some in copper," responded the young man with the bad eye.

THREE O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING.

There is a time of morning When the patient, seething day And the soul time of approaching dawn As yet seem far away. In the eastern sky is movement. No glow, but impending change. The house is filled with echoes. Familiar rooms look strange. Slip back the bolts and leave them. Stand alone in an unknown world Of awful purity.

Stand alone with folded hands. Wait for the gift of wings. Wait to be lifted higher. Near the heart of things!

The heavens are clear and moonlit Though the moon is on the wane; The wind that wailed throughout the night Drops with a sigh of pain. A vague alarm is creeping Over the fields and lawns; Time passed, night is over, And yet it is not dawn. Away down in the pasture The cattle farm and moan; All living things are troubled With a sense of the unknown.

For they with eyes may see now, And they who question know. Make the most of the magic hour! The east begins to glow.

The east is all in tumult. The charmed hour is past. For, breaking up the quiet skies, —Olive Moleworth in Chamber's Journal.
