

THE DAILY Honolulu Press Will be for sale Daily at the Following Places: J. M. OAT, J. & Co., Merchant street...

TO-DAY'S ENGAGEMENTS. Mystic Lodge K. of P. at 7:30 P. M. Cash Sale at Lyons & Cohen at 10 A. M.

LOCAL NEWS.

Jim Dodd's four-horse bus was out last evening. Three neat new cottages are being constructed on the plains.

The Geometry class will meet at the Y. M. C. A. class-room to-morrow night. Last evening at Fort-street Church the subject, "Christ, the Good Shepherd" was discussed.

Mr. H. Zerbe went by the steamer Lehua last evening to take charge of Mr. Cleghorn's store at Paauilo, Hawaii.

The sale of groceries by Lyons & Cohen brought good prices and the balance of the stock will be sold Friday next.

The Mutual Telephone Company has issued new lists containing an increased and corrected number of subscribers.

Mr. Edward Langley of the steamer C. R. Bishop has been promoted to the position of second engineer on the steamer W. G. Hall.

The builders of the Temperance Hotel will do the public a favor by removing the dirty rubbish that is constantly piled on the sidewalks.

The steamer Mariposa will leave at noon to-day; the mail will be held open as per previous announcement until fifteen minutes before she sails.

From the report of the Treasurer of the Royal Hawaiian Agricultural Society it appears that the cost of the foundation for the new hot house at the Government Nursery was $374.

A subscription paper has been started to raise money to purchase a portion of the last invoice of books received by J. M. Oat & Co., for the Honolulu Library.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at the hall this evening at 7:30 P. M. All members are requested to be present as business of importance will be transacted.

The Central Park skating rink will be in full blast to-night and a "great, big, funny time" is expected at the egg race. The five-dollar prize will keep a family in eggs for a week—if they don't eat too many.

"The North American Indians" was the subject discussed at the monthly concert at the Bethel Church last night. Their was a fair attendance present and an interesting programme was gone through with.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held this afternoon at half past two o'clock in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. Hall. During the meeting, a paper will be read by Mrs. Southwick upon "Alcoholics in Medicines."

Mr. S. D. Fuller, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Honolulu, leaves by the Mariposa to-day for the coast, where he will attend the State Y. M. C. A. Convention, which will be held at Napa City. Mr. Fuller will return by the same boat.

They have chickens out at Palama that catch mice. This is a true story. On last Sunday a chicken caught a mouse "right away in front" of a cat, shook it like a dog would, carried it into the next yard and proceeded to eat it. The gentleman who saw all this says he is willing to make affidavit to the fact.

Captain Kelly of the Cape Horn Pigeon reports the steam whaler Mary & Helen with 4 whales and the E. F. Herriman with one bowhead and 4 muscle diggers, before the fleet were ordered off by the Russian man-of-war. After leaving the bays, the weather being rough, and whales scarce, the Cape Horn Pigeon bore away for this port.

Two Chinamen had a little dispute in front of the Hawaiian Hotel last night. One of them twisted the other fellow's tail until his eyes were drawn around over his ears. The fellow who got the twisting declared that his countryman had proved himself as bad as a "melican" and ought to be made to read Confucius' works backwards until he was cross-eyed.

Near Halawa, Hawaii, on the road to the landing is a large round boulder—so large that not six men could move it. The story goes that it was dropped there by Kamehameha I, who carried it from the beach, "just for fun." It is also stated that near the Heiau of Hawaii is a rock where Kamehameha was born. The natives of the district have abiding faith in these traditions as well as many others.

Yesterday afternoon a hackman's horse got the best of him on Beretania street just beyond the Central Park Rink and took a little jaunt on his own account towards Waikiki. Before the horse got tired of the picnic he managed to knock a spoke out of one of the front wheels and broke portions of the harness. When he was recovered he was taking lunch with an old cow by the road side.

The custom which Chinamen have on Nuuanu street, and on other streets for that matter, of throwing their slops from the second story to the street below ought to be stopped by the policemen—if they should ever conclude to do their duty in any way. If it is not stopped people who are obliged to pass along Nuuanu street at night ought to carry a brick and use it if they get a chance. A half brick would probably be easier to throw.

Dr. Fitch has handed us a copy of the Western Lancet published at San Francisco which contains a long and well-written article of the subject of Leprosy. There are both startling facts and conclusions contained in the paper, which will more than likely raise medical discussion here. It is pretty well understood that some of the Honolulu doctors have put themselves on record on both sides of the question in a slightly contradictory manner.

Mr. Wall came into the Press office yesterday afternoon and asked us if we wanted to go through the Hoosac Tunnel next Friday. The book-keeper immediately commenced looking for the stuffed club, but as Mr. Wall said he was in dead earnest and proceeded to pay his subscription a month in advance, the evidence for his sanity was against us. "Oh, its only down at the rink" said Mr. Wall nervously as the book-keeper put the club back in its morocco case, "a two mile race and lots of fun."

Night before last, about half-past nine o'clock, two Portuguese are reported to have engaged in a fracas on Alakea street near Hotel street next to the British Club. One of them was seen partially undressed running towards the hotel with the other fellow after him brandishing a knife. The party who saw this much of the affray is of the opinion that the Portuguese with the knife was after meat, as the man who was trying to get away was lustily yelling "haul in!" The result of the trouble has not as yet transpired.

The annual meeting of the Royal Hawaiian Agricultural Society was held at the Hawaiian Hotel, last Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock. Mr. J. S. Webb read the minutes of the last annual meeting. The report of the Management was read and adopted. The Treasurer's statement, which was also approved, shows that the total receipts for the year amount to $1,927.59 and that the total expenditures amount for the same period to $2,112.17, leaving $184.58 due the Treasurer.

Considerable discussion was engaged in on different topics and a proposition was broached to merge the society with the Planters' Labor and Supply Company. The Society adjourned to meet at the Hotel on next Friday evening.

Night before last some disorderly persons in the neighborhood of Hotel street and Adams Lane, created quite a disturbance in one of the tenement houses thereabouts. The occupants of the house commenced the racket about ten o'clock and continued it until fully twelve. Several women in the vicinity became frightened and at last a roomer in one of the houses went to the Police Station and sent up two policemen, who, however, seemed to be afraid to interfere and stood on the sidewalk talking the matter over until after twelve o'clock, when things became more quiet on account of the departure of the spirits—or at least of their effects. This is not the first time this "little racket" has been carried on, but the residents of the neighborhood hope it will be the last.

They say that the occupation of the Hawaiian Dandy's affections in the hearts of the people has been lately replaced by the enterprising dandyism of a haole; that the schooner Ka Mui is either at the bottom of the vasty deep or is making sail for some foreign shore; that the night policemen at the stray dog's friends; that a spring poetry friend is coming to town; that the meteor night before last was trying to knock out Government logic; that social reforms generally try themselves up; that the optium question is going to steal a march in the next Legislature; that sanitary reform will only be attempted in case political exigency forces it; that the Government Building boys are the wittiest set of clerks in town; that their reputation is built on the fact that they always tell their jokes to each other; that the colonization scheme is going ahead finely; that the worst Government is always the best people can afford; that the navigation laws of Hawaii ought to be amended; that the American Navigation Laws are in the same fix; and that volcano tourists never see half the sights.

The Planter's. The Planter's held the closing Session of their Convention yesterday morning and at noon adjourned sine die. The Convention was called to order at 10 A. M., with seven members present at roll call. Mr. Bailey asked explanations concerning the action of the Trustees in connection with the circular on the treatment of Japanese Laborers, which was issued some time since by the Board of Immigration. The Secretary read the correspondence between the Board and Trustees. The subject was then discussed at length by Messrs. Horner, Bailey, Baldwin and others. A discussion then took place as to the future policy of the company. A motion was passed instructing the Trustees to draw up a blank form of contract to submit to planters for approval. United States Consul-General Mr. Putnam was then introduced and made a short speech and submitted a list of questions, asking the Convention to appoint a Committee to answer them. A motion was passed that such Committee be appointed. The labor question was then further discussed by Messrs. Horner, Baldwin, Whitney, Smith, Purvis and Lyan.

Going for $25,000,000.

One of the worst gangs that has ever made its appearance is now being slowly organized in this city. It comes regularly after the Hounds and the Broom Ringers. It may be known as the Boston Banditti. It has a dozen projects for breaking into the Treasury. Its instincts are not at all of the petty larceny kind. It is going for big money. Defeated at one point it commences borrowing right off for a million or two in another direction. It is not only unscrupulous but desperately voracious. Some people say that it proposes to set a bondmill going to the extent of $25,000,000—say a mortgage of 10 per cent upon every homestead in the city. The proposition in fact is to brake into every dwelling and rob it of a certain percentage. In prosecution of its schemes it hesitates at no lying. Probably there would be nothing but amusement in its proceeding but for the injury it is doing the city. It is lying against the figures and the facts. It distorts and twists everything that militates against it. It has confederates in official station. If its abilities were equal to its voracity, it might be as much dreaded as the Esmeralda anchored off the Gate.—S. F. Bulletin.

The most capable and active detective police in Europe at the present time is that of Germany. Governmental apprehension of socialism has been the stimulating force in bringing the secret service of the Empire to its high state of efficiency.

The sixth International Congress of Americanists, which was to have met this month at Turin, has been postponed till September, 1886, on account of the ravages of cholera in Spain, which would deprive the congress of the presence of Spanish Americanists.
