TO-DAY'S ENGAGEMENT. Circus at 8 P. M. Skating Rink at 7 P. M. Y. P. C. E. Society at 7:30 P. M. Cash sale at Levey's auction room, Beaver Block, at 10 A. M.

LOCAL NEWS. The circus and churches ran opposition last night. The circus had the biggest crowd. Hon. A. S. Cleghorn will act for Governor Dominis during his absence on the other islands.

The fine radishes seen on Mr. Nolte's lunch table yesterday were raised by his customers—from the plates. Mr. W. A. Bowen, the book-keeper of Castle & Cooke's, is expected to arrive double by to-day's steamer.

The policeman who wakes up Nolte's clerk at two o'clock every morning jars the whole block when he shakes the door. It is rumored that the street sprinkling carts and the boot-blacks have entered into a deadly conspiracy against the public.

The boatsteerer of the whaler Cape Horn Pigeon is supposed to have left by one of the Island steamers which went Tuesday evening. Thos. H. Willets, manager of the Pawaa Dairy, will return by the steamer to-day and will immediately resume his active duties at the ranch.

The Wailuku Sugar Company have elected the following officers for the coming year: William H. Bailey, President; P. C. Jones, Treasurer; W. W. Hall, Secretary; M. P. Robinson, Auditor.

The globe-pusher of Hotel street contemplate organizing a club. It will be requisite that each member is able to make continuous runs of twenty points before they are admitted.

The barkentine W. H. Dimond brought down a rollers weighing 11 tons each and a cogwheels 14 feet in diameter and weighing 9 tons each—all for the Koloa Plantation. They will be shipped by the steamer Planter.

Mr. James Boyd will take a short cut through bankruptcy. His many friends will give him a hearty welcome when he returns. Those who have kept a slate will appear before the Court to prove their claims on next Monday the 26th instant.

A lamp exploded the night before last in a poi house at the upper end of Fort street and was put out in a novel manner by one of the inmates, who immediately turned a bucket of soft poi over it. Damage seventeen and a quarter cents.

The King's army marched last night. The circus could not even keep them from their duty. They marched from their armories to a position in front of Mr. Hopper's residence. After the parade, at which there was much dissatisfaction expressed—the companies dispersed.

Last night about seven o'clock, the horses belonging to the milk wagon which drives along King street, were startled by a noise at the side of the road, which started the horses into a run. The wagon was stopped near the corner of King and Richard streets, with nobody hurt.

Mr. MacDonald who lives in one of Mr. Bolster's houses on Richard street, locked up a dozen or more fine chickens night before last when he went to bed. Yesterday morning when he went to the coop they were all gone. Some Japanese who have lately come to live in the neighborhood are suspected of assisting Mr. MacDonald's feathered bipeds to their present vacation.

The North Pacific Missionary Institute has re-opened with twelve students. Two more are expected to come next week, and then the number will be full. The students support themselves by their manual labor in the afternoons and on Saturdays. Any person wishing work done promptly and handily at such times will help on a good cause by employing one of the students from the Institute, 56 Punchbowl street.

The trial of strength between two gossips on Hotel street yesterday afternoon resulted in a victory for the younger woman. The older woman was the best hand at the work of raising scandal, but along towards night her strength failed and her lips refused their office. The woman is not discouraged, however, and declares that her gossip makes up in quality of its deadly poison what the other woman gains in clamor.

Last night when the Battalion was coming back to the armories a hack got in the way of the line when it was forming in front of the Armory before they turned in. It was Mr. Tim Sullivan's hack. When he found he could not handle his horse he let him go and he broke a hole through one of the companies and knocked several of the men down.

During the military evolution last evening, in front of the Palace, a French gentleman, an acquaintance of His Majesty's, standing near and in conversation with the King, was unceremoniously seized by a police officer and a veritable assault committed. The gentleman resented the insult in a forcible manner, and, as a consequence of his timidity, would have been "jugged" but for the interference of Major Baker, who quieted matters for the time.

Yesterday morning a vegetable Chinaman set his basket down in front of a house on School street and went inside to make, perchance, a sale. When he returned he found a stray horse investigating the contents of one of his baskets with apparently the greatest interest. The indignant vendor politely but firmly requested the animal tramp to "move on." A final computation of losses showed that the basket was minus seven cents worth of carrots, a bread fruit and two dozen bananas. No insurance.

The circus held their second performance last night. The audience was only moderately large. The number would have been greater, had not the churches, the volunteering companies and the private rackets, taken the day or rather night. There was no new performance in the ring. The pedal act by the Japanese was immense. The after clap by the entire company was good as far as it went, which was clear through the hearts of the people—so to speak—the horse back riding was as far as any that has been given here for the past three years, and the tumbling and overleaping was done to the edge of perfection.

By order of His Majesty a grand concert will be given at the Hawaiian Hotel this evening at 7:30 P. M., in honor of the opera troupe expected here by the Alameda. The grounds will be brilliantly illuminated with the new Japanese lanterns that on the occasion of the last concert gave the place the appearance of a veritable fairy scene. The following programme will be played:

- March—Serenade...Porti
Overture—Italians in Algier...Rosa
Fantasia—Black Cloaks...Buccalossi
Selection—Nabucco...Verdi
Aloha Oe! Aloha Oe!
Selection—Grand Mogul—new...Audran
Waltz—See Saw...Crowe
Gavotte—Conti...Viseur
March—Euterpe...Eilenberg
Hawaii Poni.

A battalion drill took place at seven o'clock last night. The different companies formed early in the evening at the Esplanade. The King was present. He was dressed in a suit of black. The different companies marched up Fort street and along King street to a position in front of Mr. J. A. Hopper's house, where the brave soldiers went through some three evolutions and several movements. At about half past ten the different companies left the place and marched back to their barracks. The drill was an improvement upon any that have been held heretofore, yet taken as a whole was all the boys could expect when the commanding officers were not up to snuff. The corps generally were disgraced with their leaders.

The trial of Captain Tripp, Governor of Oahu Jail, for adultery, said to have been committed with a young girl that was an assistant in his family, was commenced in the Police Court yesterday and evidence for the prosecution was offered. The Police Justice used his prerogative and the trial was conducted in the absence of the public, even including, unrighteously, newspaper representatives. The case will be probably continued this afternoon. The party accused in this case, through his counsel, should demand a public trial as the more tongues that may give echo to his innocence would be no detriment, considering the prominence which the affair has obtained in local circles. Mr. L. A. Thurston, Esq., is engaged with Deputy Dayton on behalf of the prosecution and Mr. E. M. Hatch appears for the defendant.

Night before last, two young bloods, who hold a large portion of the town under control in their own estimation, both decided they knew all about circus prices, heretofore, in Honolulu, and attempted to settle the question for the general public by using the fool's argument. One of them put up Government money, and the other hypothesized Hawaiian dollars, secured by real estate collecting. After the bet was made, both gentlemen backed down. One was afraid to call stakes, and the other dar'n't. The little difference of opinion still remains unsettled for the reason that both gentlemen mustered up sufficient courage to see each other the next morning and agreed sub rosa to take down the cash they were so keen to put up the evening before. Will somebody please inform the public if the prices of the previous circus were $1.25, $1.00, 75 cents, and 50 cents, or $1.25 and $1.00.

They say: that the still waters of grief percolate through the weekly batch of Honolulu social gossip; that the planters as a body do not endorse all the individual views of members; that there were about 250 tins of opium landed from the last steamer; that the wheel within the wheel, or rather the ring within the ring knows where it went to; that while absolute proof cannot be furnished of the importation spoken of, yet the argument of probability amounts to almost a moral certainty; that the band concert at the Hotel to-night will be a delightful affair; that the circus and opera troupe will drain the town of small change before they leave; that the coming of the Alameda to-day will suffice to clear up several uncertainties; that the man who dropped his bottle of beer at the corner of Fort and Merchant streets night before last did not miss it until the next morning; that the most serious political complications can be blown away with promises; that the best sermons are sometimes preached sub rosa; and that the opposition tickets will truly be made up next week by the Government party and published in-stanter.

Answers to Correspondents. Bertie.—How you do carry on!—you ought to know and appreciate, however, that we had nothing whatever to do in the matter. Of course the Advertiser had a walk-over, everybody knows that.

R. B.—As to the opera troupe, we understand that they are all coming and will carry out the programme just as it has been represented to those who have subscribed to the fund. Of course anything else would be a swindle.

J. B. L'm.—We don't propose to tell you anything about how we got onto the opium raids, but if you send any of your spies here to find out what you ought to know—well, we'll teach you how to put a flea into the aricular acre on the side of your employer's head.

Fort Street.—Why certainly, you ought to have asked us before. If you will come to the Press office to-morrow morning at three o'clock, after we have read our last proof, we will spend the remainder of the night telling you social gossip that will make your hair stand on end. Of course we charge for such information.

Carpenter.—No we haven't seen the building plans you speak of for the contemplated changes in the Premier's house on Merchant street. Perhaps you refer to the drawings for improvements going on in the Attorney General's house. Yes, it may be that the first mentioned improvements may not take place if the King carries out some of his good intentions, so often hinted at when the people kick. If you are desirous of getting the job we advise you to "pool" your interests with political issues.

ASTOR HOUSE CURE

DYSPEPSIA!!

A Sure Remedy. Properly Cooked Food. An Ounce of Prevention Better than a Pound of Cure.

One great evil of this city is a certain selfishness displayed by restaurant keepers in the manner in which they slap victuals together and throw the same at their customers. Worse by far than a certain Nevada Eating House where a tramp was in the act of walking out without paying. The irate cashier violently seized a pie crust, took deadly aim, and brought down the unfortunate free luncher, badly cut about the head. The Grand Jury afterwards held the cashier to answer for assault with a deadly weapon. Take for instance a Honolulu Hash Factory doughnut when cooled off. A leaden bullet is no where in comparison; then again some of the HOT CAKES would prove unworkable for mending old shoes and will stretch further than any rubber band ever made. From all such etc., deliver us. The above named instances of cooking depravity are much to be deplored.

A recent change in the Proprietorship of the ASTOR HOUSE (at all times famous for good grub) enables the management to greatly facilitate the suppression of such villainous systems of careless cooking which tend in such a marked degree to destroy the Human Digestive organs. Upon all occasions it will be found a real luxury to step into our Dining Parlors (no files) and there partake of a savory meal cooked by our Champion Chef.

Every morning Boarders and Transient customers may order German Pancake, Tender Loin, Porterhouse, or Sirloin Steak, with or without onions, Prime Ham and fresh eggs Royal Breakfast Bacon, Fish every day, Rib Mutton Chop (none but the best of material used.) The midday bill of fare as published on the Bulletin Board is something that everybody should read and inwardly digest. For supper we supply in addition to the substantial goods, sponge cake, Ice cream, Jellies, Fruit, and various other dainties. Some of our would-be competitors are surprised to know how we can sell 21 meal tickets for $4.50. And in our elegantly appointed private dining room only charge 35 cent for meal.

The secret may easily be given away; the ASTOR HOUSE is centrally located and doing a large Transient cash trade. Meals at all hours produces a constant flow of ready money, thereby enabling us to go out to the market and buy at reduced rates for cash. Our patrons receive the full benefit of this superior system of dealing. All who have not yet experienced the luxury of eating at the Astor House can now come right in and be made welcome at the oldest established Dining Rooms in the Hawaiian Kingdom. 35-1 mo.
