Marshall Business College closed its ninth year yesterday. The attendance has increased every year for a number of years, that of the past year being exceptionally good. The demand for graduates for such positions has also been good, especially for young men, the college being unable to supply all the calls that have come to it. During vacation the rooms are to be papered, painted and put in good condition for the opening of the new year, Sept. 5. Anyone interested is requested to call at the college, City Bank building, for catalogue or any information.

Mrs. Warren Anson at her pleasant home in Linn township entertained a number of lady friends at a "Mother Hubbard" party, Friday afternoon. Under the beautiful shade trees on the lawn and in the comfortable costumes ordered in the invitations, the excessive heat was easily borne. An elaborate supper was served, and of course a very long drive was enjoyed. The guests were invited as an honor to the hostess, sister, Mrs. Blanche Stahl Buford, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who will return home in a few days. The others present were Mesdames Henry Stahl, Clarence Arson, Frank Tower, and J. G. Westphaler.

A number of Rebekahs from State Center spent Friday in picnicking at the Soldiers' Home and enjoyed exceedingly warm weather, from all reports the day was very enjoyably spent. Some of the participants drove to the city from State Center, while others preferred coming by rail. Dinners were spread on the tables in Cottage Grove park. Among the State Center people present were: Miss Minnie Frothingham, Mrs. Marsh Roberts, Mrs. J. B. Matson, Mrs. Theodore Engle, Misses Marian and Flo Mitten, Miss Alice Brimhall and Miss Ildra Engle, and among the LaMolle visitors were Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Hakman.

The regular meeting of the city council will be held Monday night, at which time will come up the matter of registering objections to the sidewalk contract. The sidewalks that have been laid during the past year are probably as great an improvement as anything done in Marshalltown in recent years and is about the most interesting feature of city improvement now before the people. Another important matter to come up at the Monday evening will be the fixing of the tax levy for the coming year. The levy this year was 15 mills, and it is not at all unlikely that this will be raised to about 20. It is thought the public library will be donated another half-mile, while the sewer fund will be increased a little. There has been no water tax for about three years and it is the intention of the council to create a small fund in that line, in order to keep up with the expense of improvement in the city's supply.

Superintendent Chamberlain, of the Glucose Sugar Refining Company, returned Friday night from Boone, where he went to look over the prospects of securing men to work in the factory here. He considers his trip a successful one and secured the promise of ten men who will report for duty Monday morning. The men have been employed in the mines about Boone and are out on a strike. As it is understood that no white men will again be employed in the mines the superintendent thinks that he will be able to get more men from that locality as soon as the work is tried by the ten who will be here Monday. Mr. Chamberlain says he finds the Boone people a steady and industrious class of Germans, and many of them with families. These are the kind of men that are wanted in Marshalltown and the superintendent thinks that very soon a colony of the Germans will come here to take up their residence.

The following item from the Ogden Reporter refers to a former Marshalltown gentleman, who was a resident of the city a number of years ago and was manager of the McCormick Company's branch, and who was the admitted friend of many of the older residents of the city. Mr. Charles E. Garey arrived home this morning from Davenport, where he was in attendance this week at the annual encampment of the Knights of Pythias Uniform Rank. Mr. Garey is the last of the Marshalltown contingent to return, the having had to remain here owing to the fact that he is a captain on the staff of Brig. Gen. Manchester, and several duties naturally came to his lot after the rank broke camp.
Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. J. E. Wildman, their son, Managing Editor W. B. Wildman, of the Times-Republican, and daughter, Miss Edna Wildman, left this morning at 1:15 for Brighton, the boyhood home of J. E. Wildman, where they will visit old friends over today. They will arrive home Sunday morning and on Monday will be members of a camping party that is to occupy the McNeely camp, four miles up the river. Mrs. W. B. Wildman and children, Miss Eva Wildman and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kimberly and family of Keokuk, will also be members of the camping crowd, and a fortnight will be spent in a very enjoyable way.

Those of our citizens who have invested in North Dakota lands, are more than pleased with their purchases. Of course, no one should buy a pig on a poke, as that is taking extraordinary risks. E. W. Whinery, agent for the wild lands near Sikeston, North Dakota, would much prefer that those who have bought such lands, would accompany him on one of his trips, and see the land before they buy. He will go to Sikeston again on Tuesday, Aug. 22, and invites all who will go with him. Harvest will be in full blast at that time, and all who go will be afforded an opportunity to see what North Dakota really is, and how well the North Dakota wild lands today are just what Iowa wild lands were ten or fifteen years ago.

A porch party was given Friday evening by Miss Charlotte Whitton as a compliment to Miss Anna Woodworth, of Monroe, La. The evening was spent in a most informal manner, only one amusement having been arranged. A guessing game was enjoyed, the answers to the questions being names of flowers. The first prizes were awarded to Miss Marie Kaufmann and Mr. Guy Smith, of Chicago, and the one booby was given to Mr. Roy Keefe. Miss Nelle Whitton assisted her sister in serving refreshments. The guests were Misses Carolyn Andrews, Edna Smith, Marie Kaufmann, Florence Eberhart of LaPorte City; Messrs. Harry Hole, Charles Wasson, Fred Van Vleck, Charles Duffield, Harry Waterman, Will Bennett, Will Eames and Guy Smith, of Chicago.

Word has been received in the city from Loveland, Col., announcing the death of Mr. C. W. Duffield, brother of Dr. H. P. Duffield, of the Soldiers' Home. Mr. Duffield, with his family, visited in this city last fall, and was then in very poor health. The deceased has been in educational work in recent years and was 41 years of age. At one time he was a professor in a Spokane, Wash., college, and also in a school at Olympia, Wash. His last position was at Milton, Ore., and it was there that he received dental treatment in having a tooth filled, which caused an affection of tuberculosis to take root in the glands of the neck. This was due to the improper cleaning of the dentist's tools after they had been used on another patient. Several surgical operations failed to relieve him and a few weeks ago he went to Colorado in the hopes of obtaining relief. The funeral occurred today at Loveland.

For the next two weeks, beginning Monday, Marshalltown will be alive with schoolmasks from all parts of Marshall and adjoining counties. The institute begins Monday and the prospects are already very flattering for a large attendance. An increase over last year even, which was the largest, in point of attendance, of any institute ever held in Marshall county. The students are beginning to arrive already, a number coming in on the evening trains Friday, in order that they will be all ready to start in fresh with Monday morning's work. Miss Lillian O'Brien arrived Friday evening and will be domiciled with Mrs. L. E. Darling through the institute. Others who came Friday were Misses Hettie and Bertha Hauser of Liscomb, Miss Nettie Gulick, of State Center, in fresh with the home of her aunt, Mrs. A. T. Price; Miss Bessie Wilkey, of State Center, who will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ed Thayer; Miss Mildred Wyatt, of LaMolle; Miss Ida Weeks, of Rhodes, who will be entertained by Mrs. O. J. Worley; Misses Florence Cowan and Marie Dowd, of State Center; Messrs. Will and Charles Cowan and Miss Ida McNary, of State Center, arrived this morning. Burt Parr, whose little difficulty in the police court was mentioned in these columns Friday, desires to state that the charge lodged against him was, in his mind, a bit of spitwork at the hands of an enemy. He says he was not in the Clem dance hall at all, but simply happened to pass by on Main street while one of the dances was in progress.
Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Speers went to Clear Lake this morning, where Mrs. Speers and little sons, Roland and Morton, will spend the remainder of the summer at the A. P. Spencer cottage in the Outing Club. Mr. Speers will remain over Sunday with his family. Master Carol Speers went on to Minneapolis, to visit with Mrs. Speers' sister, Mrs. C. A. Nimocks.
Frank Crum, who rooms on the third floor over Hopkins' store, was arrested Friday evening by Constable Nicholson upon a charge of assault and battery, professed by W. Horn, who occupies an adjoining room. The case developed out of a disagreement regarding the opening of a window. Crum was arraigned before Justice Allen and was released upon his own bond to appear in court at 7 o'clock Monday morning.

AFTER SLOT MACHINES.
Licenses Must be Paid or Machines Will Come Out.
The work of collecting licenses on the various slot machines of the city is progressing nicely and as a result the city coffers are being pretty well filled. Today is the last day of grace and if the licenses are not paid by this evening, out go the machines Monday. The action is the result of an ordinance passed by the city fathers a year ago, but as yet it has never been enforced. Mayor Pierce thinks that it is about time something was being realized on the machines, which have increased in number about 100 per cent during the past year. The tax is $2.50 a quarter, which is not at all exorbitant, and will undoubtedly be paid by every person operating one of the machines. There is a division in sentiment as to whether machines pay or not. They are used in almost every place where cigars are kept on sale and of course prove a cigar seller. Nearly every dealer will admit that he breaks even, and also that having a machine enables him to rid himself of a larger number of cigars. Consequently he can afford the tax rather than to give up the machine.

STATEMENT OF FACTS.
Made by Contractor H. F. Jones, of This City.
A statement of facts made by H. F. Jones, of this city, for the benefit of others, seven years ago: "I was taken with a severe case of pustular eczema. I had treated with the best physicians in Hampton, Eldora, Marshalltown, and three different specialists in Omaha, without effect. I had despaired of a cure, when I tried Dr. Mairs, osteopathic physician, of this city, and in less than six weeks was well as ever. I have the greatest faith in his ability to cure where others fail. I live at 205 East Webster street, and am ready to show proof for the above."
H. F. JONES, Contractor.
