

Sacrificed to Blood Poison.

Those who have never had Blood Poison can not know what a desperate condition it can produce. This terrible disease which the doctors are totally unable to cure, is communicated from one generation to another, inflicting its taint upon countless innocent ones.

Some years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. The little one was unequal to the struggle and his life was yielded up to the fearful poison. For six long years I suffered untold misery. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot, and no language can express my feelings of woe during those long years. I had the best medical treatment. Several physicians succeeded in treating me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. I was advised by friends who had seen wonderful cures made by Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I got two bottles, and I felt hope again revive in my breast-hope for health and happiness again. I improved from the start, and a complete and perfect cure was the result. S. S. S. is the only blood remedy which reaches desperate cases.

Of the many blood remedies, S. S. S. is the only one which can reach deep-seated, violent cases. It never fails to cure perfectly and permanently the most desperate cases which are beyond the reach of other remedies.

S.S.S. For the Blood

FELL THREE STORIES

Henry Cooper, a Laborer Working on the Woodbury Building Falls to the Cellar.

Elevator Gives Suddenly Away and He is Thrown to the Ground Below.

A Narrow Escape From Death—uffers Internal Injuries and Bruises.

Henry Cooper, aged 39 years, a laborer employed by Contractor Atkinson on the work of building the new Woodbury block, corner of First avenue and Main street, had a narrow escape from death this forenoon at 10 o'clock, when he fell from the third story of the building to the basement below, a distance of thirty feet.

Cooper was engaged as a helper to the masons at work on the third story. He intended going to the bottom of the building on the horse-power elevator, and had loaded on the elevator a barrow full of rubbish. He feared the elevator was not strong enough, it seems, and tried it first by stepping upon the platform. It appeared to be all right, however, and he wheeled on the load and stepped on the platform after it. No sooner had he done this than the elevator gave way suddenly and dropped a few feet before it caught. The momentum was so great that the man was thrown from the platform before he knew what had happened and went crashing through the timbers to the bottom.

His fellow workmen expected to find when they reached the cellar, where Cooper lay, a mangled mass of lifeless flesh, but gladly saw that to be the case. Instead, Cooper was found to be not even unconscious. He was injured, though, the wounds he plainly seen, and his arms and body showed the scratches and bruises received in striking the timbers as he fell.

A physician was summoned immediately and a hasty examination proved that no bones were broken. The man was taken to his room at the Haymarket hotel on North Center street, where further attention was given him.

The injured man has evidently received internal injuries, his worst complaints being from pains in the back and chest. He considers himself a lucky man, as do all who witnessed the accident.

Cooper is a good-looking man and of heavy build, which makes it all the more strange that he did not receive instant death. He has been in the city only about ten days, and resides in Chicago. He has a sister living at Morton Mills, Montgomery county.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

Items of Interest Picked Up On the Grounds—The Visitors.

One of the familiar faces missed on the grounds today was that of Mrs. Nettie S. Chapin, for many years secretary of the Marshall County Old Settlers' Association. Mrs. Chapin has not missed one of these annual gatherings for a long time, and was one of the prime movers in the organization of the association and assisted in making preparations for the first picnic, twenty-six years ago. Mrs. Chapin is ill and today was unable to go to the grounds.

Dr. George Glick, one of the pioneer residents and business men of the county, coming here in 1850, was making the picnic an attendant. Mr. Glick makes it a point never to miss a reunion of his old-time friends and it would not seem natural to have a picnic without him.

"Moses" Stern was on the grounds, of course, though up from a sick bed only a few days. Mr. Moses is very popular with the old ladies at the picnic and is always ready to do the honors. He settled in Marshalltown in 1861, and says he is good for many picnics yet to come.

A Gilman party attending the picnic was made up of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Seurr, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Vosberg; Mesdames W. J. Ward, W. B. Strickland and E. L. Wilcetts. Misses Gertrude Moffatt and Nina Lounsbury had as their guests today the following party from Alcombs: Misses Della Hawk, Myrtle Reynolds, Clara Bonham and Marie Scott; Messrs. Claude Updike, Leonard Baty, Elmer Biersborn, Earl Clarke and Bee Hauser. Dinner was partaken of at the Old Settlers' picnic at the Home.

IN ANTE-BELLUM DAYS; Some Early Happenings of Marshall County Recalled.

These annual gatherings of the older people—settlers of the early day—who rattled the dancers of overland voyages from distant lands, crossed the mighty rivers before bridges were even contemplated and then, after their arrival, hewed the timber for their own homes on the very spots where now stand stately buildings, are always the signal for the recalling of the "good old times" and occurrences—occurrences that were chronicled before the remembrance of many of our fathers. These happenings are always interesting and were talked over today by the old people in their usual happy way. Among some of the more interesting events of the early days, as recalled, have been classified below: The first marriage license issued was to Almarion Gear, and Miss Nancy Ballant, on November 15, 1849.

The first village or town in the county was LeGrand, which was designed in 1850, and recorded as a surveyed plat in July, 1854.

The first store was opened in 1850 by James A. Aliman, and the second store was owned by William Dishon at Marietta.

The first newspaper in Marshall county was the Iowa Central Journal, established at Albin in November, 1855, by Thomas J. Ward, W. Tripp, H. C. Knapp and Orson Hobart.

The first mill in the county was erected on Linn Creek by William Asher, in 1847. It was soon washed away, and the first beneficial mill was built in 1849 on Timber Creek by J. F. Campbell and William Asher.

The first death in the county was that of a child of William C. Smith, which occurred in June, 1850, and the first death of an adult was that of Hosa Dean, who died in February, 1851. The coffin in which he was buried was made of the boards of a wagon box.

The oldest settler of Marshall county, however, is Joseph Davidson, who now resides in the state of Washington. He settled in the county south of the Iowa river, in June, 1846, and took up a claim in what is now LeGrand township. He was married and his wife was the first white woman to give birth to a child in the county.

The first postoffice was located on section 34, township 33, north, range 18, west, in the present township of Timber Creek, William C. Smith was the first postmaster, being appointed June 13, 1850. The route was from the office to Newton, Jasper county, and the service was weekly, the carrier being A. J. Smith, who received as his compensation the proceeds of the Timber Creek office.

Beggs' Diarrhoea Balm. Is the only safe and sure remedy on the market for colic, diarrhoea and flux. Geo. P. Powers.

MARRIED.

Ray—Griswold.

A wedding which was a surprise to the friends of the bride, was solemnized this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Griswold, 308 North Fourth avenue, when they gave in marriage, their second daughter, Miss Nina Wright Griswold to Mr. J. M. Ray, of Tama. The wedding had been set for October, but the plans were suddenly changed and the union was consummated at 10 o'clock today. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. J. M. Ray, who acted as best man, and Mr. J. M. Ray, who acted as officiating minister. The bride wore a traveling gown of brown suiting. There were no guests whatever, and immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ray drove to Tama, where the former is a liveyman. They will board during the fall and then occupy a home, which is being built for them.

TRAVELING MEN

Should always carry a bottle of Beggs' Diarrhoea Balm with them. Safe and sure. Geo. P. Powers.

OBITUARY.

Gibson.

William Gibson, aged 63, died at 8:40 o'clock this morning at the Soldiers' Home hospital, whither he had come but two weeks ago for treatment. He had been a great sufferer from cancer of the stomach and heart trouble. He enlisted at Knoxville and was a member of Company A, Thirty-third Iowa Infantry. His wife resides at Okaloosa, and the body will be taken there on the evening train.

Hampton 16, Charles City 9. Special to Times-Republican.

Hampton, Aug. 15.—The Hampton base ball team played ball with the Charles City team yesterday at the Catholic picnic, held at Doraty, twenty miles northeast of here, where over 1,000 people were present. The following is the score: Hampton..... 13 2 1 3 0 4 2 1 4-15 Charles City..... 9 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-9 Batteries—Hampton, Hallett and Wilder; Charles City, Fleming and Heck. Umpires—Honey and Lawless.

Charles City went to bat first and our people were of the opinion that the team would not be able to outdo the wonderful start that Charles City made, but as the score shows, the Charles City boys did all they could at first.

The Grain Letter.

Chicago, Aug. 15. The wheat market was entirely under local influences today. The scalpers yesterday sold rather freely and offerings from this element were not so free and from other sources only limited. So far there is no liquidation of importance. How long will it be deferred is a matter of guess. We think there is considerable of it to be done, but outside bulls have such confidence in higher prices we think the transferring to December will be on a liberal scale. The much-talked-of absence of export demand keeps some of the best people in the trade from being aggressive buyers. This we know. Still, in face of this lack of cash demand, the weekly clearances average fairly well. We see nothing on the surface to make one very bearish on the declines. The recent bulge of 3 1/2 cents came when bulls apparently had no show at all. It is just such conditions we wish to advise our friends against.

Local Markets.

The following prices quoted are as nearly correct as it is possible to obtain. The quotations are for prices paid by dealers, corrected Wednesday afternoon quotes a price of 2 1/2 cents per bushel. GRAIN AND FEED.

W. H. Sloppy reports the following prices: Wheat—53. Oats—Old, 17; new, 16. Corn—25. Flax—30. Rye—43. Hay—Tame, loose, 10.00; wild, loose, 9.00. Timothy—55@60. Clover—3.25@3.50.

CORN.

The Glucose Sugar Refining Company quotes a price of 26 cents per bushel for corn of No. 3 grade and better.

LIVE STOCK.

Receipts today, nominal. Brittain & Co., paying the following prices for hogs in wagon load lots: Selected light, 100 to 200 pounds, 4.20. Selected mixed, 200 to 250 pounds, 4.20. Selected heavy, over 250 pounds, 4.20. Coarse and rough, 30 cents less than the above prices.

Stags and pigs, sows graded according to quality after reduction. Rough includes thin old sows, milky bellies and hogs unfit for packing. Premium hogs must be smooth and fairly well fattened.

The full economy of using Ivory Soap may not be apparent after one wash, but in time it will be noticed that the clothes last longer. The cleansing action of Ivory Soap is very different from that of soap powders and soaps containing alkali. Ivory Soap has no weakening effect on the fibre of the material; but alkali, gradually, and often rapidly, destroys it.
