THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Jewelry galore at Helberg's. Children's school history, Archie Parker. For the best laundry, go to Flitton, West Main. Fancy plaids from 12 1/2 cents a yard up to the best at Newcomer's. Ladies' elderdown dressing squares, $9 cents—all colors. Archie Parker. Those bottled olives are quick sellers, at Reynolds, Watson & Company's. Perfumes, the choicest odors, at Sleg's temperance drug store, 108 East Main street.

Have your fall suit dyed now and be ready for cool weather. Flitton will do it right. Begin your course at the Business College tomorrow with those already enrolled. New things in dress trimmings, all-overs, braids, fancy velvets, etc., at Newcomer's. Anti-rust linings, the best, the heaviest, the cheapest. Schmidt & Bourne, 102 West Main. The change in the weather will make you think of fall hats. See the new styles at Mrs. Morrill's. Dr. M. U. Cheshire, physician, surgeon and gynecologist, office in Brennecke block, opposite court house.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Universalist church will meet with Mrs. Rachel Baum Wednesday afternoon. Master Merrill Dudley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dudley, of 603 West Linn street, is confined to his home with an attack of tonsillitis. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Adams and family were in Gifford Sunday to attend the annual reunion of the descendants of the late David Adams. Wanted—Twelve men at the ice house of the Marshall Ice Company between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, at $1.75 a day. Miss Vera Everest went to LaMoille Saturday afternoon, where she began today her school at Marietta township No. 8, two miles northwest of LaMoille. Mrs. C. C. Cottle and children, Katherine and William, who have been spending the summer in Clear Lake at the Outing Club, arrived home Saturday evening.

We have received our full stock of the celebrated Chamberlain kid gloves, the best thing in the market, fully guaranteed, $1.35 quality for $1 a pair. Hoyt's Department Store. Mrs. James Hamble arrived home Saturday evening from North Amherst, O., where she was called three weeks ago on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Barber. Just received from the mills one case of short lengths in outing flannels, from five to ten yards each. We will sell the regular 8 cent quality for 5 cents. Lee & Benedict. A few of the Marshalltown Gun Club members participated in an informal shoot this morning in honor of "Bing" Williams, of Rochester, Pa., who is in the city for a short visit. Mrs. R. W. Stevens was in Gilman today, attending the funeral of one of her little pupils of last year, Master Clarence Jacobson, the 6-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Jacobson. Miss Bess Jones, of Newton, who has been Miss Dolly Cavert's guest for a number of weeks, left for Austin, Minn., this morning and will remain there, working in a dress making establishment. Miss Lillian Werner, of the First ward kindergarten, arrived in the city Sunday evening from LaPorte, Ind., and will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deuel until she finds a suitable place to room. "Honest John" Cavert was 75 years of age today and celebrated the event by shaving himself with the first razor his father ever owned. The razor has been about 100 years of service and is good for another century. Miss Martha Beeson, who has been enjoying her summer vacation at the home of her parents, Quartermaster and Mrs. B. A. Beeson, returned to Des Moines this morning where she teaches mathematics in the high school. Mrs. F. A. Ziegler and family leave Tuesday evening on the Colorado special for their new home in Colorado Springs. In honor of her departure the members of the Baptist Hill Bible class tendered a surprise to Mrs. Ziegler Friday night. Messrs. Max Hoffman and John Eichen, of Chicago, two well-known lights in the Spiritualistic world, arrived in the city Saturday evening from Clinton, and will be here during the encampment of the Central Iowa Spiritualists' Association. Mrs. Delos Hall, representing the C. W. B. M. of the Christian church here, went to Des Moines this morning to attend the state convention of the church. She will be the guest of Mrs. J. R. Hill. Others from the church will go down tomorrow. Miss Anna Lane, teacher of history in the high school, arrived in the city this morning from her home in Bainbridge, Ind., where she has been spending a delightful summer's vacation. Miss Lane will make her home this year with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Clark. Mrs. F. B. Garvin and daughters Ella and Edna arrived home Saturday evening from Scranton, Pa., where they have been spending the summer at the home of the former's father, Mr. J. C. McClure. Mrs. Garvin also visited at Asbury Park and Niagara Falls.

Mr. H. J. Wright, of Sioux City, who has been in the city this summer in the employ of the A. E. Shorttill Company, returned to Des Moines this morning, where he will enter upon his second year's work at Drake University. Mr. Wright will play with Drake's football team again this year, as left guard.

Dr. Janas, physician and surgeon. Children's school handkerchiefs, 1 cent. Archie Parker. Shirt waists made to look as good as new at Flitton's laundry.

For quart cans and wax strings go to Schmidt & Bourne, 102 West Main. You will find all up-to-date fancy work and materials at Newcomer's. Remnants of wool dress goods for children's school wear, cheap. Archie Parker.

Wanted—A good clerk to take charge of stock and act as salesman. Inquire at the Leader, 27 West Main. Buck's steel ranges and Buck's cooks—strictly first class—price right. Schmidt & Bourne, 102 West Main. You should see our new line of straw matting, easels and screens at Marlon Gard's. Something new and pretty.

There are others, but only one Helberg. When your watch is fixed at his place you will know it is done right. We are showing over 500 pairs of blankets at all prices and qualities, and our prices will be as low as the lowest. Lee & Benedict. Try the new ladies' Kabo corset waist with front clasp if you want something that fits well and is comfortable. For sale at Newcomer's.

The Pullman buffet car on the Central was missed Sunday morning at Ottumwa owing to the belated Wabash train, which failed to make connection out of St. Louis. For Sale—Two residences, one located 212 South Third street, the other 511 North Center street. Enquire of M. J. Rodney or E. M. Williams at office of McCormick Harvesting Machine Company.

Miss Pearl Shark, of Mt. Vernon, who has been spending the summer in the city with her sister, Mrs. T. H. Streyfeller, left for her home Saturday night, being threatened with an attack of illness. Miss Charabel Trott, of the Woodbury schools, arrived in the city Saturday evening from Tipton, where she has been spending the principal part of her vacation. Miss Trott has also visited in Grinnell and Muscatine.

It is an undisputed fact that Helberg, the reliable jeweler, carries the nicest, largest, best assorted stock of up-to-date goods in his line. When in need of such things don't fail to see him. Your trade is always appreciated at Helberg's. Our shoe shining parlor is now open. We have placed Mr. Luke Raglin, formerly of the Pilgrim parlor, in charge with a competent assistant. Our reading and smoking room is always open to the public. All Chicago daily papers on sale. Van Derveer & LaShelle.

Dr. Mark Evans, of Green Mountain, a former high school student of this city and more recently a graduate from the Rush Medical College, Chicago, is figuring on locating in LeGrand and taking up the practice of Dr. George W. Dobson, who intends to study dentistry.

Miss M. Middlekauff, Mrs. Nora Cox, Miss Mary Roe and Miss Jessie Sharp left Sunday afternoon on the Colorado special for Chicago, where they will remain for a week or two on business. Miss Ella Sharp left Saturday for Chicago and will be with her sister during her stay. The furniture which is arriving at D. C. Wilbur's every day is worth anything new to see. It comprises everything new in the furniture line. The rockers, couches, carpets and draperies are superior to anything ever brought to this city. See the new goods before deciding what to buy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Spencer and daughter, Miss Gertrude, of Oklaoska, arrived in the city this morning from the east and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Letts. They had been east for some time, going especially to meet their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. Letts, who returned from his European trip.

Miss Margaret Miller, of State Center, spent Sunday with Miss Anna and Matena Nelson. This morning she went to Iowa Falls and will have charge of the education work in Ellsworth college. Miss Miller had expected to return to Chicago for post graduate work but the offer was so good a one she was persuaded to change her plans.

Mrs. F. Moehle and daughter Clara, of Sheffield, spent Saturday evening in the city as the guests of Miss Millie Fansler, of the Western Union, leaving over the Great Western at night for Philadelphia, to attend the G. A. R. encampment. Miss Fansler went to Sheffield Sunday morning, where she will remain for a two weeks' vacation.

A 7-year-old boy whose name could not be learned was run over by a carriage at the corner of Main and Center streets about 8 o'clock Sunday night. The lad was riding on the rear step of a bus. When he jumped off he fell and a carriage that was following close behind passed over him. He was somewhat bruised and very badly frightened, but as soon as he found he was not seriously hurt he took to his heels.

Messrs. A. R. Reese, A. W. Carroll, O. Shannon and John Thorn, of the local camp of Woodmen of the World, spent Sunday in Eldora, where they attended the ceremonies of unveiling a Woodman monument erected to William Kline, of Eldora, who died last April. The ceremonies were largely attended by the Eldora and Iowa Falls camps. Mrs. Shannon and sons accompanied Mr. Shannon to Eldora and spent the day with friends there.

Labor day was not observed in the city today very generally, although the banking houses, several mercantile establishments, the Central general office, the banks and the saloons were closed. A few field day sports were indulged in this afternoon at Finkle's park, under the direction of the Marshalltown W. O. W. band, which gave a concert at the court park this forenoon. A ball game and other attractions were the order of the afternoon's program.

Mrs. Mutch, of Reinbeck, a somewhat demented woman who was the object of a search by her husband and the police Saturday, was found Sunday morning at the W. S. Lorse home, where she had applied for a temporary stopping place. Mrs. Mutch was evidently not ready to return home, for she flatly refused to accompany her husband, who left the city at 10:55 Sunday. She refused to accept any money either, but a sum was given her by Mr. Lorse to apply toward the woman's care should she require any assistance.

Enter Business College Sept. 5. New wool shirt waists received at Newcomer's. Hair ribbons—all widths, 5 cents a yard. Archie Parker. The best assortment of jewelry, and the prices always right, at Helberg's. When passing, notice the new Davenport in the window at Marlon Gard's. It is a beauty. For a gasoline stove or a refrigerator at your own price, see Schmidt & Bourne, 102 West Main. Rev. J. G. Van Ness has been in Albion today, attending the Marshalltown district conference of the M. E. church. The cool weather of today has had an appreciable effect on business and the streets presented a very lively appearance. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Reeves and daughter Marlon, who have made their home in this city for the past few summers, left Sunday night for their winter home in Odell, O. Just received, a fine line of hair goods from one of the leading importers of New York. Will discount any prices on this class of goods. Alida A. Wheeler, over 108 West Main. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hostetter were passengers Sunday afternoon for Philadelphia, via Columbus, O. They will return home by the Niagara Falls route and will be absent for a month. Mrs. Sam Anderson left Sunday evening for Longmont, Col., where she will remain for six months on account of her health. She will make her home during her absence with a sister, Mrs. Amanda Sale. Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Sleg left Saturday afternoon on a delightful month's eastern trip. They will visit Philadelphia, going via Niagara Falls and will return via Washington and Huntington, Va. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Carr left Sunday evening on a pleasant two weeks' outing, leaving at 5:30, via Kansas City, for Colorado. They will visit in Colorado Springs, Denver, Manitou and other points of interest. Mr. H. H. Gregg, who has charge of the C. C. Gilman contract work on the Elgin, Joliet & Eastern extension, arrived in the city Sunday morning from Hammond, Ind., where his headquarters are located. He remained over with his family today and will leave for Hammond tonight. Little Harriette Taylor arrived Monday evening from LaPorte, Ind., and will again make her home with her grandmother and aunt, Mrs. Emily P. Miller and Miss Harriet Miller. They will reside at No. 5 North Seventh street, in the house which has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hovey. President A. F. Balch, of the Marshalltown State Bank, and Cashier C. C. St. Clair, of the City National Bank, left Saturday night for Cleveland, O., where they will attend the national convention of the American Bankers' Association. While in the east they will visit New York, Boston, Niagara Falls and other points of interest. Besides making low prices on the sample lot of shoes for ladies, gentlemen and boys, we are making specially low prices on summer tans to close out. We have some bargains to offer you in tans as well as in other goods. When we mean it, Come in and see us. E. W. Stubbs, Economy Shoe Store. Mrs. W. H. Double and daughters, Grace and Ethel, of Frederick, who have been spending a week in the city with the former's daughters, Mesdames O. S. DeWitt and Elmer Alsbough, left for their home Saturday evening. Miss Minnie Double will remain in the city for a few days longer, during which time she will take treatment for an affection of the throat. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Beebe departed Sunday night on a trip of a few weeks in the east, leaving for Chicago at 11:25. Their first stop will be at Buffalo, where they will visit Mrs. Beebe's son, Mr. Burt Eldridge, and wife. From there they will go to Fort Recovery, O., where resides Mrs. Beebe's daughter, Mrs. E. L. McDaniels. They will also visit with relatives in various Indiana and Ohio points. Correct dressers should see Tony Psenicka before placing their order for a suit. Every person who buys a suit wants the latest and best, and Mr. Psenicka has both. The new fabrics this season are prettier than ever and Tony has the swiftest assortment in the market. It is easy enough for some tailors to say they will fit you, but they don't if you need not take the suit. See him and leave your order for a new suit. A meeting of the principals of the schools of the county was held in the office of Superintendent Morrissey Saturday, at which all the large schools were represented with the exception of three. This was the first of a series of meetings to be held by the principals jointly, for the purpose of exchanging views regarding their special work. Principals Gaunt, of Laurel; Clayton, of State Center; Biersborn, of Liscomb; Haas, of LeGrand; and Holmes, of Gilman, were in attendance. J. Collins and J. Hart, two strangers, arrested by Officer Weaver Sunday for fighting, were before Mayor Pierce this morning and were sentenced to six days in jail. Tommy Blissell, arrested by Officer Kurz Saturday night upon a charge of intoxication, and who, upon being allowed a few moments' freedom upon the request that he desired to consult with an expected bondsman, broke and ran, causing Officer Weaver a long chase, was sentenced to thirty days in jail. William Howars, arrested by Officer Clark on a charge of intoxication, was also up this morning and paid the costs. Twelve strangers, all railroaders, arrested Saturday night and Sunday by Officers Clark, Hanson, Kurz and Weaver, were tried and sentenced to six days' work. A special G. A. R. excursion train over the Chicago Great Western left the city at 9 o'clock Saturday night bound for Philadelphia. Among the passengers were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Church, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Swick, B. F. Foreman and Mr. William A. Smith, of this city; L. C. Sapp, of LeGrand township; W. L. M. Wentzell, of Melbourne; H. L. Switzer, of Monticello; J. C. Burkhart and B. A. Armstrong, of Zeating; J. S. Barney, Mrs. Molley and Miss Molley, of Sheffield. Mr. Smith is going to take the trip as an occasion to advertise Marshalltown in a novel way. Several hundred of the G. A. R. descriptive souvenirs, issued during the recent tour, were left with Mr. LeGrand, to be taken along and will be distributed en route and at the national encampment.

Abstracts, Iowa. B. F. Cummings. Dress goods in all the new styles at Newcomer's. Miss Kathrine Whitehead went to Clemons Sunday, where she will teach this term. For the best blue flame oil stove at the very best price, go to Schmidt & Bourne, 102 West Main. Mr. and Mrs. Ross C. Peterson are entertaining at their home a baby daughter, born to them this morning. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Tinker and children, Helen, Herma and Earl, were guests of friends in Union today at a picnic. Mrs. W. S. Robbins left Saturday afternoon for New York on a Boston. She will remain for a month visiting relatives and friends. Chaplain and Mrs. O. H. L. Mason and sons Verne and Booth and Miss Mary Rice, of Green Mountain, went to Clear Lake this morning for a week's outing. Miss Etta Hunter, of the chair of mathematics of the high school, arrived Saturday evening from Oasis, Johnson county, where she enjoyed a very pleasant summer vacation with her parents. Mrs. J. Reed Crowel, of Colorado Springs, on her way home from a summer's visit in Michigan, spent Sunday at the J. E. Atkinson home. Her daughter, Miss Marie Crowel, will remain for a longer visit. Adj. B. F. Warfel, of the Soldiers' Home, arrived home this morning from his few weeks' visit in California. He spent his time principally in Los Angeles, and also paid a visit to the National Soldiers' Home at Santa Monica. Mrs. O. Novak, who has been ill for some time, went this morning to Newton and will spend two or three weeks visiting relatives in the country in the hopes that her health will improve. Her little sons, Clark and George, accompanied her. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Kaufmann entertained Saturday evening at a delightfully appointed dinner Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heitsch, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Coleman, of Davenport, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Nichols, of Council Bluffs. Chief Engineer J. J. Merrill, of the Glucose Sugar Refining Company, arrived in the city this morning and will remain for a week or two, during which time he will superintend the construction of the new addition to the company's settling house, work on which has already been commenced. Mrs. E. G. Beeson went to Omaha today to join her husband, Dr. E. G. Beeson, recently appointed assistant surgeon in the regular army and now stationed at Fort Crook, Neb. Mrs. Beeson's stay will be an indefinite one, depending upon the length of time Dr. Beeson will be stationed there. She will return here before going on home to Pasadena. A Central freight that had headed north to the yards Sunday evening, northbound, and that did not clear a side track by a few feet, was run into by a string of cars being switched onto a passing track. The collision damaged the way car of the freight to a small extent, and narrowly missed forcing it from the track. The damage was very slight, however. Mr. H. R. McMahon was in Liscomb Sunday. The county convention of Christian churches is to be held in that place in two weeks, and while Mr. McMahon's friends claim that he made a mistake in the date and went to Liscomb to attend the meeting, he insists that he simply went up as an advance agent to see how the preparations for the gathering were progressing. Messrs. G. A. Meeker and Fritz Norris returned this morning from their camping trip down the Cedar. Both young men give evidence of having roughed it, showing a reasonable amount of tan and a ten days' growth of beard. The former it was remarked around the depot, might pass for the large man of the trio now wanted by the sheriff were it not for the merry twinkle in his eyes that factually softens all roughness of exterior. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Coleman and the latter's brother, Mr. H. B. Hartman, of Davenport, but formerly of this city, have been enjoying a splendid time with old friends here the past few days. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Willard entertained very informally a few intimate friends and at 7:30 this morning Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heitsch served a four course breakfast in their honor, only the nearest friends of the honored guests being present. Susie Hand, the young woman arrested upon a charge of enticing 15-year-old Clea Blum for immoral purposes, did not show up in Justice Allen's court this morning at 9 o'clock, the time set for the hearing, consequently the case was postponed indefinitely. County Attorney Stone has examined the letters written Miss Blum by Miss Hand and the case will probably be put before the grand jury for investigation. The federal authorities will also be informed of the contents of the letters. Mr. William J. Fort had a very close call to serious injury Saturday night while driving into the city on the Center street levee road. His animal became somewhat excited while nearing the city test pumping station. The animal commenced to back and Mr. Fort tried to urge him on by using the whip lightly when the horse stumbled pulling the cart over the embankment. Mr. Fort was pretty badly bruised, especially in the region of the back and hips, but no bones were broken. He was taken to his home and medical assistance summoned. His injuries confined him to his home Sunday. He rested easily Sunday night and this morning was able to sit up for a short time. Mr. Charles Wallace, son of Frisbie Wallace, one of the early settlers of Marshall county, who, for two years, has been employed as foreman of the county farm, resigned his position Saturday and went Sunday to Omaha, where he has accepted a position with the Ringling circus. The circus shows in that city today and Mr. Wallace began his duties at once. He will have charge of six of the company's horses, which he also drives. Mr. Wallace is an industrious young man and has worked steadily at his position with the county and now has a desire to see some of the country, so he chose this method of doing it. He does not expect to remain with the circus longer than Christmas time, and as the aggregation is headed west and will show in Denver during the next few weeks he anticipates a visit with his parents, as they now reside in the Colorado metropolis. G. F. Kimbly, President. GEO. A. GREGG, Vice-Pres. H. J. HOWE, Sec'y-Treas.
