Every person who anticipates buying a jacket, collar, cape or child's cloak can not afford to buy until they look over our line. We have the largest trade on furs and cloaks in the city and it gives us the advantage in buying. Lee & Benedict. Lovers of fine watches are respectfully requested to come and inspect one of the best makes of watches in the world, the D. Gruen & Sons precision watch, which is strictly hand made and built on the greatest horological principles. Sold only by Wm. Heilberg. Father Lenihan went to Council Bluffs this morning to stay until the latter part of the week. He accompanied that far his brother, Bishop Lenihan, of Wyoming, who is to go home to Wyoming after a number of weeks spent with his brother here, and in travelling through Canada.

Rev. F. W. Russell was in Cedar Falls Sunday to preach and the Presbyterian pulpit here was filled morning and evening by Rev. George Bryant, son of Rev. William Bryant, formerly pastor of the church here. Rev. George Bryant is now of Cedar Rapids, having recently returned there to accept the chair of Latin and Greek in his alma mater, Coe College. While in the city he was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George Whitton. I carry one of the finest lines of steel ranges in the city in all styles and sizes. The lines carried are the Peninsular and Superior ranges. We have dozens of them now in use in the city giving the best of satisfaction and are desirous of your trade. If in need of a steel range, or in fact of a stove of any kind, see me before buying and you will be sure of a superior article and save yourself money. My prices are right. D. J. Bullock, 114 East Main. People who drive out across the river on the mill road are frequently heard to remark that they never saw the river so low as it is at the present time. The fact is that the river is not as low as it was last year at this time and there is a good flow of water. Mr. Benson, however, is making repairs on the dam, and has allowed most of the water to flow from the mill pond. At certain stages of the work it has been necessary to shut off the water entirely, where the river below the mill is almost dry.

Master Carl Glick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glick, is 9 years old today and a number of little boys invited for the hours after school are enjoying it with him. At 6 o'clock Mrs. Glick and her sister, Miss Rachel Cannon, will serve just such a supper as little boys like best. The guests are Masters Richard and Shannon Abbott and Arthur Glick, Edward Welles, Archie McPherson, Douglass Boardman, Dudley Gregory, Hallie Church, Carol Speers, Herbert and Hauser Sloan and James Wiley. There is nothing which the average child enjoys more than giving a birthday party unless it is attending one, so Saturday afternoon Frances Rimer and her little friends were very happy celebrating her twelfth birthday at her home, 108 North Avenue. A number of pretty presents were brought the little hostess and after playing merry games Mrs. Rimer served supper. The little girls present were Fay Robinson, Lois Scheeler, Maymie Mayer, Elina Haggert, Lillie Whittle, Bertha West, Alle Tinker, Martha and Carrie Weststein, and Bessie Lucke, of Laurel.

News has been received of the serious injury of Wallie Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Barnes, former well known residents of this county. The young man has been residing near Fort Morgan, Col., on a sheep ranch with his parents for several years. A short time ago he started from the camp on horseback, in search of a place where water could be procured for the herds of sheep, in order to have the home supply for the winter months. After an absence of two days his horse came home riderless, and a search was at once instituted for young Barnes. He was found eight miles from the camp, lying on the plains in the hot sun, and in an unconscious condition. He was bruised about the head and shoulders, and had lain for forty-eight hours without food and water. He had not regained consciousness up to three days ago, and it is a question whether he will ever fully recover. It is supposed that Mr. Barnes was riding after a coyote, when his horse stumbled and threw him. His revolver was found 200 yards from where the searchers found him, and it is presumed that he had crawled that distance after being thrown.

Fall underwear at Pappe Bros. The finest bakery goods in the city at Sundell's Cafe. Anti-rusting tinware at Schmidt & Bourne's, 102 West Main street. Try a dish of fresh oysters at Sundell's Cafe. Do as the trees do. Change your garb. Summer is gone, the cool evenings are with us. Have Flitton clean and dye your fall suit. Miss Lulu Calhoun returned Saturday night from an extended visit in Omaha with her sisters, Mrs. E. E. Jones and Mrs. C. D. Thompson. Have you seen those rugs at Marion Gard's, made from samples of carpet? They are beauties and are being sold at prices that you can afford to buy one. Ladies, why not buy the furniture for your kitchen at Bullock's hardware store and secure the sewing machine he is giving away? Ask him about it at 114 East Main street.

Mr. John Althen and daughter, Miss Florence, of Ames, were in the city Saturday renewing acquaintanceship among old friends whom they knew before their removal from the city nine years ago. Those couches sold by Marion Gard are handsome. The prices are lower than elsewhere and the goods are superior. While looking at the couches, ask to see the straw matting. There is nothing better. The aid department of the Women's League of the Christian church will go to a reception to the pastor, Rev. W. H. Scott, and his family, on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Benedict, on West Main street. The members of the church and their friends will participate.

The mayor disposed of the cases of several individuals this morning who had been arrested for intoxication. T. Richards, T. Welch, T. Kostigan, R. Morse, Ed Doyle, F. Cummings and A. C. Sibley were each fined $10 and costs, and all were committed to jail except the three last named, who paid up. Mr. Stephen Rice, of Green Mountain, was in town Sunday, going in the evening to Iowa City, where he enters his junior year in the civil engineering course. Mr. Roy Clarke went this morning and will graduate in law, and Mr. Ed McMillan left on the noon train to begin a four years' course in medicine. Buffalo Bill's show will be a source of great interest to the hearts of the people on the 22d and 23d inst. winter you will want something more substantial in the way of "warmth," such as our various grades of best lump coal. We handle Boone lower vein, Centerville block, Maple Grove chunk and all sizes of hard coal. Examine our coal and prices before buying. William Elgin Coal Company.

Mr. Cloud Brock, who twenty months ago went to Alaska in company with Mr. George Hixson, to hunt for gold, but who has been in Seattle during the past few months, arrived in the city Saturday night. Mr. Brock has not lost faith in Alaska, and as his health is better than it has been for years, he will go back to Alaska in the fall. He did not care to spend another winter there, and so came home. He says Mr. Hixson will be home soon. Chris Ericson, for many years a porter at the Tremont house, who will perhaps be better remembered as the victim of the elevator accident whereby he came near losing his life, arrived in the city Saturday and will visit for a week or ten days with his cousin, Mr. Andrew Wilcox, and family. Mr. Ericson is now a stenographer in Chicago for the Bridgeport Wood Finishing Company, a position he has held for the past year and a half.

Messrs. Harry Cammack, Frank Friend, Richard Mommers and Eugene Winford went to Des Moines Sunday, where this afternoon they were to play against four picked golf players of the capital city. The Des Moines Country Club dedicated its handsome new clubhouse Saturday, so this will be the first tournament held under such delightful conditions. Messrs. A. G. Glick and W. H. Zwilling went with the players as "rooters." Later in the season, the Des Moines club will send a team here to play. The condition of M. T. Whitney is somewhat improved today, and it is thought that he now has a chance to recover. He was unconscious during Friday, Saturday and a part of Sunday, but is now able to recognize those about him and to signify his wants. Mr. Whitney's friends are now under the impression that his illness is due to injuries received to his head several days ago. He had been making collections for some of the physicians and others of the city, and among these were some bills hard to collect. His friends now recall that he related before his illness how he was assaulted by parties with whom he was persistent in his demands for payment, and it is believed that his present illness is due to injuries received in the scuffle. Mr. Whitney's brother has not yet arrived in the city.

Everett White was arrested in the city Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff Garvey, charged with the larceny of a buggy and two sets of single harness. This county was taken on a warrant issued on complaint of J. P. Crinklaw and L. L. Mackaman. Crinklaw owned a half interest with White in a buggy and harness, and Mr. Mackaman owned the other harness. They alleged that White had left town with the property. The officer hunted up White's mother, who had formerly resided in Mr. Mackaman's house at the corner of Seventh and Boone streets, and she said her son had left the city, but had not taken the Mackaman harness, which she produced. While the conversation was in progress White drove up and was at once arrested. He was taken before Justice Allen, where the matter was adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned and White was discharged.
