

AMUSEMENTS.

THE ODEON

I. C. SPEERS, Manager.

ONE NIGHT. Friday, Sept. 15. Grand Scenic Production of the Picturesque Comedy Drama A ROMANCE OF COON HOLLOW A TENNESSEE IDYLL. SEE THE TROPICAL SENSATION. The Great Steamboat Race. The Cotton Press Tragedy. "THE COON HOLLOW SERENADERS." Coon Singers, Shouters, Buck and Wing Dancers. PRICES: 25-35-50-75c

Wall Paper

We have some BIG SNAPS in REMNANTS.

SKEGG'S WALL PAPER STORE.

116 EAST MAIN.

ICE!!

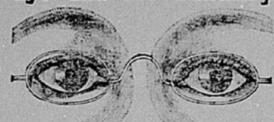

THE STAR ICE CO.

Is ready at the old stand to furnish patrons with the best of clear ice and the promptest service.

REMEMBER The Star Ice Co. FOR GOOD ICE.

E. O. CARLHOUSE, MANAGER. 33 NORTH CENTER. OLD PHONE 278 NEW PHONE 87

Eye and Ear Infirmary.

DR. B. F. KIERULFF, EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT. 104 East Main Street.

W. H. DRAPER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA. Room 9 City Bank Building.

DR. L. CLARK-MIGHELL, EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT. Over 10 West Main Street, MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA

W. T. MAXEY, LAWYER. Will practice in all state and federal courts. Criminal practice a specialty. 10 EAST MAIN STREET OVER LEE & BENEDETTI'S STORE. MARSHALLTOWN IOWA

PRESCOTT & COMPANY, ARCHITECTS. Over Postoffice. New Telephone 521 MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA.

F. A. GILLETTE, Dray and Expressman.

PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

W. B. KIBBEY, Loan and Insurance Broker. 186 EAST MAIN STREET.

REAL ESTATE. Business of non-resident clients solicited. Patrons placing business in our hands will have it attended to. Refer to all banks in city.

C. E. BECK, DEALER IN WALL PAPER. Prices from 4c upward. Estimates given on Paper Hanging, Painting and Graining. RESIDENCE 103 WEST NEVADA ST. OLD PHONE 278.

Times-Republican.

PUBLISHED DAILY BY THE TIMES-REPUBLICAN PRINTING CO. TERMS: One Year, by Mail, $5.00; By the Month, by Mail, $1.00; Delivered by Carrier, per Month, $1.00. BUSINESS OFFICE: 130 EAST MAIN STREET. TELEPHONE: 112.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Dr. Henriksen, diagnostician. Enter Business College Monday. Try the Boston Store for underwear. Our fall overcoats are right. Hopkins. All summer goods at less than cost at Bullock's. Save money by buying your fall hat at Pappe Bros.

Another new lot of perfumes just arrived at Selig's drug store. Ladies' fleeced lined union suits for 25 cents at M. F. Andrews.

Pappe Bros. are Marshalltown's leading clothing store. Fountain pens, all guaranteed. Miller, the Jeweler, 108 East Main.

We can sell you wrappers for fall for the price of the material. Boston Store. A fine line of pearl handle pens just received. Miller, the Jeweler, 108 East Main.

New stock of Wellsbach lamps, mantels and chimneys just received at Blake's. Any of our $2, $2.49 and $3 crepons Friday and Saturday only, $1.79. Boston Store.

Air-tight stoves are the correct thing this chilly weather. Bullock carries a complete stock. This is good weather for golf caps and collarettes. Lee & Benedict carry the largest stock.

Wanted—Apprentice girls for millinery and dressmaking at Leonora Cox's, 111 East Main street. Large line of men's, ladies' and children's underwear. Prices very low. Hoyt's Department Store.

Pappe Bros. invite you to look at the finest stock of men's and boys' clothing ever shown in Marshalltown. Crepon dress goods sale at the Boston Store Friday and Saturday. Any pattern in the house at $1.79 a yard.

Our stock of ladies' misses' and children's jackets, caps and collarettes is complete. Prices right. M. F. Andrews. This cool weather makes a fellow feel like looking for his winter clothing. P. H. Petersen & Co. can show you a full line.

Mr. M. E. Rice, advance representative of the "Two Merry Tramps" company, spent Wednesday night and today in the city.

The cut rate drug store has all fresh goods and it can save you 16 per cent on every purchase. 84 cents buys $1 worth at the Bee Hive drug store.

Sidney Hickok, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hickok, while caring for the family cow, was kicked and suffered a fracture of two of the small bones of the right hand.

Justice Burrill's court was closed today, his honor taking a day's vacation and, with his wife and family, took advantage of the Macabees' excursion and visited Clear Lake.

Roadmaster S. H. Brown, of the Northwestern, is in the city on business, looking after the alteration in the traffic while the work is being done on the double track in the east yards.

Miss Jessie Binford and sister Ruth left Wednesday evening for Rockford, where Miss Binford will finish a college course at the Rockford Female Seminary and Ruth will enter her freshman year.

Dr. T. C. Brady was called to Gilman Wednesday afternoon to make a further diagnosis in the case of James Brown, a wealthy farmer residing near that place, who is very low with cancer of the stomach.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Brainerd, of Grinnell, who have been in the city since Sunday in attendance at the campmeeting of the Central Iowa Spiritualists' Association, returned to their home Wednesday evening.

Remarks are made daily, "What shall I buy for a wedding present?" Walk into Heilberg's jewelry store, he can tell you what to buy. He carries the most complete line in the city. Wedding rings a specialty.

At Spiritualists' campmeeting, lecture tonight by George P. Colby at 8 o'clock. Friday, September 15, 8 p. m., lecture by Marion Carpenter, followed by spirit messages by Josie K. Folsom. Turn out and give the noted medium a rousing benefit.

Manager I. C. Speers, of the Odeon, left Wednesday night for Sioux City, where he will attend a two days' convention of the Iowa State Bill Posters' Association, of which he has been secretary for the past three years, or since its organization.

Among the Columbiana county people here Wednesday to attend the reunion were Mrs. L. M. Hambleton, of Albion, and sister, Mrs. A. W. Howard, of Chicago; also Mrs. E. M. Stanley and mother, Mrs. Rebecca Marsan, of Albion, and their sister and daughter, Mrs. Anna Bartow, of Wayzetta, Minn., who, accompanied by her son Clifford, is in Albion for a visit.

Mrs. John Fenner served a five course dinner to a number of her friends this noon. The one large table was decorated with roses and rose buds were given as favors. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Scott, Mesdames J. L. Ingledue, Elizabeth Hixson, Virginia Irvin, Nettie Chapin, M. C. Huffaker, Miriam Scott, S. H. Fuller, Mary Curtis and H. J. Duncan.

The cold weather makes a person feel as if it was time to look for his winter fuel. While looking, stop at William Elgin Coal Company's on South Center street. We handle all the different grades of the best lump coal, such as lower vein Boone, Centerville block, Maple Grove chunk and all the various sizes of hard coal, hard and soft wood. Get our prices before buying.

Hopkins for fall overcoats. Fall overcoats at Pappe Bros. Medium weight trouserings at Hopkins. One quart fruit jars at the Bee Hive for 3 cents each.

Golf caps for ladies, misses and children. M. F. Andrews. If you want a beautiful crepon don't miss the sale at the Boston Store.

Pappe Bros. are Marshalltown's leading hatters. Choicest assortment. Students are enrolling at the Business College each week. Enter Monday.

Le Nard decorative art exhibit at the Stoddard. Call and examine our new silks. Reversible plaids, pretty styles, heavy weights, cheap. Hoyt's Department Store.

Spend your money wisely for your clothing purchase. Pappe Bros. is the place. Ask for sewing machine checks at Bullock's whenever you make a purchase.

Call and see the new all-overs in white, cream and black at the Boston Store. New stock of Wellsbach lamps, mantels and chimneys just received at Blake's.

Thirty-six inch black satin for skirts and shirt waists at $1.25 per yard. M. F. Andrews. Our customers can buy peaches now at lowest prices for canning. Reynolds, Watson & Co.

Lost—Brown fur boa with black tails. Leave at 309 South Second avenue and receive reward.

For Sale—Two residences, one located 212 South Third street, the other 611 North Center street. Enquire of M. J. Rodney or E. M. Williams at office of McCormick Harvesting Machine Company.

Miss Grace Parsons, of Grinnell, who is to be a teacher in the schools of that city this year, arrived in the city this morning and will remain over tomorrow studying the methods of the third and fourth grades as used in the schools here.

Mr. Will Titus, for some time a resident of this city and an employe of the Woodard-Garey Drug Company, spent Wednesday night in the city. Mr. Titus, who recently graduated from the pharmaceutical department of the Highland Park College, is now managing a drug store at Hawarden.

A warrant was issued from Justice Burrill's court Wednesday evening for the arrest of Edwin Sandstrom, a farmer residing between six and seven miles south of the city. The charge is assault and battery and the complaining witness is Mrs. Dora Sandstrom, wife of the defendant. Constable Leech was given the papers to serve.

The members of the United Evangelical church, whose house of worship is located on Anson street "across the creek," are rejoicing at the prospect of seeing the large debt raised from the organization. Rev. W. B. McCrear, their pastor, who has been working ceaselessly for the past few months reports that $260 more will wipe out the entire debt, something over $1,140 having already been raised.

Two indigent women, Mrs. Mary Terrell, of Galena, S. D., and Mrs. Frances Nichols, of Park Rapids, S. D., were thrown upon the care of the county Wednesday evening. Mrs. Terrell arrived from Boone at 7:35 and was en route to Columbus, O., where she has relatives. Mrs. Nichols wanted to go to Kansas City, and came here from Waterloo, having been helped along this far by the poor masters. Each of the women was helped by Overseer of the Poor Pemberton. Mrs. Terrell was sent to Chicago, she succeeding in paying $3 of her railroad fare. Mrs. Nichols was furnished a ticket to Des Moines.

The beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Downing was the scene of a merry party Wednesday evening, when their son, Mr. Ned Downing, entertained a few of his friends. The company was given especially in honor of a number of the young gentlemen who are to leave the city soon to enter college. Miss Nelle Whitton played for the dancing and Mrs. Downing served a little luncheon. The guests were Mesdames Fern Foreman, Anna Hemmingsen, Florence Harris, Pearl Benjamin, Elsa Stern and Fannie Griffin; Messrs. George Fletcher, Fred Lettis, Harry Denmark, Clyde Church and Walter Putzel.

H. Hartwig and A. Weber, arrested by Officer Cochran upon charges of intoxication, were before Mayor Pierce this morning and assessed the costs. City Marshal Jones and Officer Cochran arrested Barney Wheeler, an old soldier, who also paid the costs. Another veteran, J. King, was arrested by City Marshal Jones and was sent to six days; D. Driscoll, arrested by Officers Weaver and Kurz, was given six days; John Leary, James Kelly and James Casey, all arrested by Officer Clark, were released upon payment of the costs, as was also James Sullivan, arrested by Officers Weaver and Kurz. All were cases of intoxication.

Hardin county fair visitors out of this city today were quite numerous, especially in consideration of the threatening weather. Passengers to Eldora were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Tiffany, Mesdames J. C. Duncan, A. Hollingsworth and Dan Kaufman; Mrs. C. A. Miller and Mrs. Joseph Smith, who spent the day as the guests of Mrs. Thomas McCondon; Mr. and Mrs. James Carmody, who were guests of their son, Mr. Will Carmody; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Pettit; Councilman I. S. Finkle, T. F. Bradford, Will Owings, Marlon Gard, Paul Sheller, H. F. Jones, Charles Ulmer, A. L. Putman, R. A. Harlan, E. Kinsey, H. H. Diller, J. John, Dieterich, B. Smith and Guy W. Doty.

The Des Moines Capital says: "Announcements have been received in this city of the wedding of Miss Edith Merle Adron to Mr. Frederick William Thompson, which took place at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Adron, in Cherokee, on Tuesday, September 5. Miss Adron is well known in the city, being a singer of considerable ability and having often been before Des Moines audiences when she was a student at Highland Park. Mr. Thompson is a prosperous banker at Thompson, Ia." Mrs. Thompson, as Miss Adron, will be remembered as one of the prima donnas of the recent convention of the Iowa State Society of Music Teachers, and was one of the soloists in the oratorios.

Dr. Jansa, physician and surgeon. Fall underwear at Pappe Bros. Try La Equidad cigar, at Sundell's Cafe.

Kid gloves for the little ones. M. F. Andrews. New sorghum at the Bee Hive for 85 cents per gallon.

Wanted—Apprentice girls who know sewing, at Mrs. Benjamin's. We have opened the largest line of underwear ever shown in Marshalltown. Boston Store.

For Rent—Seven room house, good location, modern improvements. C. H. E. Boardman. To fishermen—Bullock will make you unequalled prices in that line of goods to reduce stock.

Get your Wellsbach lamps, mantels and chimneys at Blake's. Office open from 6 to 9 at night. A new dining car for the Union Pacific, the "Fabyan," passed through the city Wednesday evening on the North-Western's local train, No. 13, en route from Chicago to Omaha.

This morning's Des Moines Leader says: "Frank S. Lander, of Marshalltown, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy with the clerk of the federal court yesterday. Liabilities are scheduled at $3,342.65, and assets nothing."

Mrs. Frank Brown returned Wednesday evening from Toledo, where she was called on account of the illness of her sister-in-law, Miss Edna Brown. Miss Brown is somewhat improved, but still lacks a great deal from being well.

Mr. I. W. Shriver, secretary of the Acme Life Insurance Company, left this morning for his home in Prairie City, where he will remain for an indefinite time to recuperate from a siege of fever which has kept him confined to his room at the Pilgrim for the past month.

James Brown, an old and wealthy farmer residing two and one-half miles northwest of Gilman, is lying very low at his home, suffering from cancer of the stomach. Mr. Brown has been given up to die and is gradually failing. He has had no nourishment whatever during the past ten days. Mr. Brown is 72 years of age.

Mrs. Anna Coppock, the defendant in the recent divorce proceedings brought by her husband, went to State Center Wednesday evening, where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. John W. Carney, and mother, Mrs. Mary White, of Schaller, who came to this county to be present during the hearing. Mrs. White will return to Schaller in a few days.

Chief Engineer H. J. Slifer, of the Northwestern, who has charge of the double track work on the Iowa division, spent Wednesday in the city for the purpose of overseeing a change in the tracks of the east yards. The change made is for the purpose of swinging the traffic from the JA tower to the beer garden curve, so that the graders can complete their work on the double track. The traffic was changed after passenger train No. 3 passed the point at 8:20 this morning.

The Macabees' excursion to Clear Lake this morning was very well patronized out of this city. In fact, in point of numbers from this point, the attendance was larger than on any other excursion of the season to the lake. Two hundred and six tickets were sold out of Marshalltown, and with those who had boarded the train at southern points along the line, quite a respectable excursion resulted. Nine coaches were used to transport the crowd. The train was in charge of Conductor Young and was pulled by Engineer Charley Meredith, with engine 34, leaving here at 7:45.

Des Moines Leader: F. C. Lettis, of Marshalltown, and Russell Pratt, of Des Moines, left for Chicago last night and will today open the Chicago office of the Western Brokerage Company, of which they will have charge. The company will purchase from producers, and in large quantities, goods for all the wholesale grocery houses holding stock in the concern. A meeting was held in Des Moines yesterday to close up the preliminaries of the undertaking. The following firms were represented: Lettis-Fletcher, of Marshalltown; W. H. Howell, of Pratt, Des Moines; Spencer, of Oskaloosa, and Warfield, of Quincy, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ball and baby, who are on one-half mile rail, southwest of Hartland, who were in the city Wednesday, experienced a mishap at the corner of Center and Main streets that might have resulted seriously. The team Mr. Ball was driving became frightened at a passing vehicle and shied at the same time while on the wet pavement. One of the animals got under the tongue and in getting up snapped it in two. This added to the horses' fright and they started to run, but were stopped before any more damage was done. Mrs. Ball showed presence of mind in getting out of the team's way by jumping with her babe from the carriage.

As a farewell luncheon to her young infant before her departure for Chicago, Mrs. F. C. Lettis entertained at 1 o'clock today Misses Ida Dugan, Anna and Matena Nelson, Mollie Allison, May Wasson, Adeline, Marion, Bessie and Edna Parker, Anna Heallon and Belle Fletcher. The flowers on the table were of pink. The hostess had learned the favorite color of each of her guests and a broad satin ribbon of that hue from the center of the table to the plate designated each one's place. The hostess had also learned the favorite dish of each of her guests and the table was set before the young lady she served it to the other guests. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Lettis will entertain at cards.

Sheriff McPherson returned Wednesday evening from Atlantic, where he went to take charge of two prisoners arrested in that city upon a warrant issued by Justice J. M. Carney, of Gilman. The men gave their names as J. W. Ford, of Chariton, and B. E. Allison, of Gilman. They are wanted ostensibly for beating a board bill while at work at the cannery factory at Gilman, although it is thought that a more serious charge awaits them at Gilman. The men claim that the amounts of the bills are about $250 and $6, respectively. Sherm Powers, proprietor of the Central House at Gilman, is the complaining witness. Two other men are also wanted at Gilman. One of them, Miller, is now thought to be in Des Moines, while the other is at present in New Mexico. The men's hearing was set for this afternoon in Justice Carney's court.

Abstracts, Iowa. B. F. Cummings.

H. E. Simkins, undertaking exclusively. Second door west of the postoffice. Remember, $1.79 a yard buys any crepon in the house at the Boston Store.

See our window of odds and ends of summer goods and the prices on them. Bullock. Large variety of styles in heavy and medium weight cotton blankets. Hoyt's Department Store.

Get your Wellsbach lamps, mantels and chimneys at Blake's. Office open from 6 to 9 at night. The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society will be entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Dobson, 109 West State street.

Plans are under way for the reorganization of the Married Folks' Social Club, which held a series of very enjoyable parties last winter. Mrs. Orvin Kent, of Topeka, Ind., arrived Wednesday evening from Belmond, where she accompanied Vice-President Morse's hunting and fishing party, being called home on important business matters. He says he thinks that it will not be possible for the party to get as far north as St. Paul, owing to poor connection out of Spirit Lake. Consequently the time will be put in with fall fishing at Okoboji.

The annual family gathering of the Milhiser family, in honor of Mrs. Margaret Milhiser, was held today at the William Milhiser home, on West Main street, and was participated in by the families of Messrs. William, Henry and Chris Milhiser, all sons of Mrs. Milhiser; Mrs. Thomas Trapp, of Union, a daughter; Mrs. E. B. Erbes, a daughter-in-law, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, of Melbourne, near relatives. A large dinner was served at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Smith, of West Liberty, and Mrs. Phoebe Crozier, of West Branch, who have been visiting in the city since Monday at the homes of the former's nephews, Gen. B. A. and W. B. Beeson, left Wednesday for West Liberty. The visit of Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Crozier was made doubly pleasant on account of the Columbiana county, Ohio, reunion, they all having been former residents of that county. Other members of the Beeson family present at the reunion were Mrs. Samuel Beeson, of Liscomb, who has been visiting her sons here for a week and who returned home Wednesday evening, and Mrs. T. J. McKibben and daughter Nona, who were here only for the day.

HIS LIFE SAVED. By Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "I am sure that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at one time saved my life," says A. E. Laflette, of Gregory Landing, Clary county, Missouri. "I was in such bad shape that the doctors said I could not live. When I was at the lowest ebb one of my neighbors brought in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I took it and got instant relief. I soon got up and around. That was nine years ago and I am still in good health. Since then that medicine has always been in my house and always been the best on earth. If any one should want to know more than this testimonial I can refer them to fifty." For sale by druggists.

MARRIED. Wilhelm-Harmon. Mr. William Wilhelm, of Fremont, Neb., and Miss Ethel M. Harmon, of South Third avenue, this city, were quietly married at the M. E. parsonage at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, by Rev. J. G. Van Ness. Mr. Wilhelm is one of Marshalltown's energetic, capable young ladies. Mr. Wilhelm's home was formerly in this city where he won an enviable reputation for industry and manly worth. The young couple will leave in a few days for their home in Fremont, Neb.

GO TOMORROW NIGHT. "Coon Hollow," a Tennessee Idyll—An Enjoyable Treat. "A Romance of Coon Hollow" with all its beautiful scenery, intense plot, excellently portrayed, its splendid singing and dancing by two colored quartets, male and female, and its many interesting and pretty features, will appear at the Odeon tomorrow night. Prices only 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents. It will more than please you.

Foundation Rock. We can save you money on foundation rock. We have the stone ready for immediate delivery. MARSHALLTOWN STONE CO. FRANK G. PIERCE, President.

Archie Parker's DRY GOODS 106 EAST MAIN. FALL UNDERWEAR. COOL days remind us of the lack of suitable underwear for fall wear. We are prepared to show you in Men's, Women's and Children's light weight cotton—anything you may need. Our prices, as usual, are right—quality always reliable. We have some very pretty all wool Dressing Sacks at 89c.

BEE HIVE DEPARTMENT STORE. FIRST CLASS SEWING MACHINES. AT CHICAGO PRICES AND YOU SAVE THE FREIGHT. $30.00 Sewing Machine, with three drawers, warranted five years, for $15.00. Latest style, oak pattern, $35.00 Sewing Machine, drop head, five drawers, all the latest attachments, warranted five years, 17.50. $40.00 Ball Bearing Sewing Machine, save one half the labor running the machine, five drawers, oak finish, self-threading shuttle, all the latest improvements, warranted for five years, 19.50. Same machine as above in oak, drop head, worth $45.00, for 21.50. $60.00 Sewing Machine, the famous Eldridge drop head machine, ball bearing, all the latest improvements up to the middle of August of this year, in oak finish. No better machine made, for 25.00.

FURNITURE DEPARTMENT. Since our buyer has returned from his trip east we have been receiving new goods every day, and more yet to come. Do not buy a piece of furniture until you have seen this new line. The only big store that handles everything and sells at cut prices. BEE HIVE, 105-107-109-111-113 West Main Street.

ROYAL Baking Powder. Made from pure cream of tartar. Safeguards the food against alum. FREE! This little good advice. Buy your Lumber at C. R. HARPER & CO., The people that brought you reasonable prices and the up-town-yard. 103 SOUTH CENTER STREET. MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA.