"Oh! This Pain Will Drive Me Crazy."

"Well, Marthy, why don't you go to see them dentists what says they do work reasonable? I know that Abe Taylor's wife, that was Maria Brown, was took with the gold darnest toothache you ever hearen tell on, and she went to see them fellows and I'll be dogswizzled if they didn't fix that woman out in a jiffy. Took her old tooth out, stopped the pain and bridged over the chasm, er sompthin like that. Anyhow she did not have to walk the floor o' nights, fer Abe tole me so himself. Abe said, too, that them fellers are mighty reasonable in their charges. I tell ye, Marthy, I'm going to hook Dolly into the wagon and we'll go in this very day."

And he did as he said. We fixed Marthy out all right as we do everyone that comes to us.

POSTMASTER IS SHORT

Aaron Boylan, of Hubbard, Arrested by United States Marshal for Embezzlement.

The Postoffice Funds Found to Be Short About $800—The Investigation.

Failure to Forward a Money Order Leads to Suspicion—Other Crimes.

Special to Times-Republican.
Eldora, Sept. 26.—Word comes here from Hubbard that that town is all stirred up over alleged misconduct of its postmaster. It appears that about eight months ago a German bought a postoffice order for twenty-five dollars to send to his sick father in the old country. It has recently been learned that the order was not sent and that about two weeks ago the postmaster sold his cow and paid back the money. In the meantime a former postmaster and others got on to the story and started an investigation. Last Friday an inspector was at Hubbard and made an investigation, the result of which is not yet made public but the general impression is that there will be a change. Already two petitions are being circulated for the appointment as soon as the other man's head drops.

Later Developments.
Special to Times-Republican.
Eldora, Sept. 26.—Aaron Boylan, the Hubbard postmaster, was arrested by the United States marshal this morning and taken to Fort Dodge. He embezzled $800.

Confirmed at Hubbard.
Special to Times-Republican.
Hubbard, Sept. 26.—Postmaster Boylan was accompanied to Fort Dodge by the United States marshal this morning. The inspector found his accounts about $800 short. W. W. Boylan has charge of the office.

A JURY SECURED.

Twelve Men Found to Try the Tolberd Murder Case.

Special to Times-Republican.
Garner, Sept. 26.—In the case of the State of Iowa vs. Tolberd, under indictment for murder, brought here on change of venue from Cerro Gordo county, a jury has been secured, consisting of the following named men: C. W. Boutlier, E. G. Hanson, Hans Schroeder, R. C. Pond, L. W. Fullis, McElcher, H. E. Woker, M. Papousek, A. L. Goodyear and M. E. Peck. The first four are from Britt, the next two from Goodell, and the other six from this place. The state started to introduce its evidence this afternoon. It is estimated that about two weeks will be consumed in the trial.

ASSAULT THE JAILER.

Polk County Prisoners Nearly Murder Jail Keeper and Make Their Escape.
Des Moines, Sept. 26.—Albert R. Maxwell, county jailer, was assaulted in the jail yesterday by two escaping prisoners and sustained injuries that may terminate fatally. His assailants were Fred Benson, an all-around crook, who has served time and was awaiting trial for larceny from the person, known to the police as "Peg" Benson, and Edward Dimmitt, known to the police as "Eliza" Dimmitt, a house breaker who has done time and was awaiting the action of the grand jury on a burglary charge. Yesterday at 3 o'clock Maxwell went to the cell on the west side of the jail and near the north end, in which several prisoners awaiting trial were confined, and ordered Benson and Dimmitt to get their clean clothing and come with him to the bath room. The men gathered up their underwear and men walked to the bath room, where they were locked in and permitted to bathe. Half an hour later Maxwell went to the bath room for them and, marching them in front of him, returned them to the cell room and Maxwell was assaulted. Which one used the club no one knows, for the spot where the assault was made was screened from those inside the cell by solid sheeting. As nearly as could be learned from Maxwell and the prisoners, both men jumped on him and one smashed him over the head while the other held him. The prisoners in the cell heard the scrimmage and rushed toward the door to see what was going on. When they reached it Maxwell was lying in the narrow corridor surrounding the jail and blood was flowing from his nose, ears and mouth. Benson and Dimmitt had gone.

The weapon was a piece of wood broken from a bed leg. It is four inches in diameter and three feet long. One end of it had been whittled down for a handle. The indications are that it had been prepared for this occasion and that the men carried it to the bath room and back with them wrapped in their clothing.

Dr. Patchen was immediately summoned, but by the time he reached the jail Maxwell, who had rallied sufficiently to appear to Benson and Dimmitt had assaulted him and escaped, had re-lapsed into unconsciousness, rallying slightly at intervals, when he became sick at his stomach and complained of feeling ill. He was unable during the afternoon, following the attack and appeared not to realize what was going on around him. Blood was coursing from his ears, mouth and nose and at each fit of vomiting great clots of blood that had gathered in his throat were thrown up.

Dr. Patchen said Maxwell was suffering from concussion of the brain, which might prove fatal.

Alleged Swindler in Jail.
Special to Times-Republican.
Eldora, Sept. 26.—Deputy Sheriff Harris returned last Friday night with Jerome Bacon from Creston, where he had been held on a charge of swindling a man by the name of Foster, who runs a racket store at Radcliffe. The man is now in jail, and expects to be released on a habeas corpus suit to be tried before Judge Weaver today.

Real estate is on the move in this county. In 1896 there were filed in one month nine releases; in 1897, for the same time there were filed thirty-seven releases. The considerations named in deeds for the same time in 1898, the $51,000; in 1899, for same time, $44,000. Land now sold ranges from $40 to $60 per acre, according to location and condition.

RAILROADING AT SPENCER.

Two New Lines Being Built Into the City.
Special to Times-Republican.
Spencer, Sept. 26.—Railroad building is rushing here at present. A large train load of C. M. & St. P. railway track layers arrived yesterday. They began laying track here today on the Spencer and Ponda branch. The Milwaukee company has laid several miles of new side track here and have their yards full of timber, iron and posts. The most of the grading on the M. & St. L. railway is done from here to Estherville. We expect to see the iron horse from the north yet this fall. The Rock Island surveyors are working this way and we hope to see them run through our city.

The Barling hotel changed hands today. A Mr. Cole, of Ida Grove, has bought the property.
The ministers of this city have united in a union revival which will begin Sunday, October 1, in a large tabernacle that has been built for the purpose of the court house square. Evangelist M. B. Williams and Charles Alexander, his singer, will have charge of the services.
Clay county's primaries were held last evening, resulting in the nomination of J. Messenger for county treasurer, J. B. Lewis for sheriff, Mrs. Ellen Reed for county superintendent of schools. This is Messenger's second term and he had no opposition. J. B. Lewis has held the sheriff's office for eight years and was nominated by a large majority this time, which shows he is very popular. Mrs. Reed has held the county superintendent's office about six years. She also had a good large vote at the primaries and the people made no mistake when they said they wanted her to serve another term.

THE GRINNELL NEWS.

The Mincer Case to Be Tried Today—Locals.

Special to Times-Republican.
Grinnell, Sept. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rapson and son went to Chapin today for a few days' visit.
Capt. J. W. Carr is a Grinnell visitor today. He comes to conduct the preliminary trial of Mrs. Mincer, the woman accused of eloping with her daughter's husband. It is certain they went away together and were found in Omaha together. What can be shown by a trial remains to be seen. The woman in the case will have a preliminary trial today before Justice Bryant. Curry has not been arrested because he has not been found. Capt. Carr, county attorney, took the matter up yesterday and Charles Johnson, deputy sheriff, was given a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Mincer, which was served yesterday. Whether the young man is in the vicinity or not is not known.

The Davenport family is reported by the attending physician as improving except the little 2-year-old girl, who will probably not recover.
Five years ago Sunday the first Sunday dinner was served in the Chapin House by Mr. and Mrs. Chapin. On last Sunday the first Sunday dinner served in the new Monroe was served to 104 guests. The Monroe is now fairly in operation.

D. W. Norris, our lawyer farmer, shows indications of wanting to retire from the farming business by his announcement of a sale of live stock at his Westfield farm, southwest of town, on October 5. Mr. Norris offers for sale 171 cattle, mostly steers one and two years old; 79 sheep and 15 horses, which he says "are nearly all of my own raising." Such a sale would seem quite remarkable for one who does farming "on the side" if it were not known that Mr. Norris operates four farms near this city and always raises a No. 1 stock.

MARRIED SIXTY-SEVEN YEARS.

Clarinda Couple Celebrate Their Wedding Anniversary.

Special to Times-Republican.
Clarinda, Sept. 26.—Yesterday James Malesiah Hawley and wife celebrated their 67th wedding anniversary. Father Hawley was born May 10th, 1834, in Danbury, Connecticut. In 1863 he came to Clarinda, starting a store, but had been in business for ten years previous to that time at Hawleyville, this county. He sold the first dry goods sold in Page county, using two barrels and a rough board for a counter. Mr. Hawley was married in Sept., 1832, to Miss Charlotte Petty, a native of Clairmont, N. H. He has at all times taken an active part in local affairs, a life-long Presbyterian and a staunch republican. Mr. and Mrs. Hawley today enjoy most advanced health, considering their advanced age, and are in possession of all their faculties.

Returned Missionary Talks.

Special to Times-Republican.
Jewell, Sept. 26.—Rev. H. N. Ronning, who has been doing missionary work in China the past eight years, lectured at Jewell College last evening to about 800 people. He spoke about an hour and his talk was listened to with rapt attention. His narrative of Chinese methods, education and heathenism was very interesting. He also impressed his hearers with the fact that it was no "easy job" for foreigners to work among those most peculiar people. Rev. Ronning and family arrived here about one week ago, via the Suez canal and Gibraltar. They will visit Jewell and friends here and in Minnesota until spring, and return to China via San Francisco.

Child Shoots Itself.

Special to Times-Republican.
Webster City, Sept. 26.—An 11-year-old daughter of John O'Rourke, who resides in the extreme western part of the city, was accidentally shot yesterday afternoon while playing in her father's yard. She was alone when the accident happened, and her parents have been unable to get her to tell how it occurred. It is supposed, however, that she had taken her father's revolver from the house and was playing with it. The ball was of 32-caliber and entered just above the knee and has not yet been located.

Iowa Man Robbed in Omaha.
Omaha, Neb., Sept. 26.—Fred Hoffmann, of Harlan, Ia., was robbed on the Union Pacific bridge, knocked senseless and thrown seventy feet into the river.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS MADE.

Clear Lake's Building Boom—G. A. R. Excursionists Return.
Special to Times-Republican.
Clear Lake, Sept. 26.—Clear Lake is having a building boom in the residence portion. A. W. Tennant is building a modern residence to cost about $5,000. Dr. J. C. Wright is building a fine residence costing about $3,000. Ed Nichols is putting up a fine home to cost about $2,000. Charles Heister is building a residence to cost about $1,600. Ed Stark is building a fine residence on the car line to cost $2,000. Charles Woodford is building a fine residence costing over $2,000. Squire Richardson is building a fine home to cost at least $2,000. Numerous smaller residences are in course of construction.

Miss Nettie Jahren, who has been visiting Nellie F. Johnson, returned to her home at Chester, Minn., the latter part of last week.

W. C. Tompkins has just returned from Philadelphia, where he has been attending the G. A. R. encampment and visiting his son Earl, who is attending college in Philadelphia. Mrs. Tompkins, who accompanied her husband, remained and will be at home in about a week.

N. E. Palmeter and wife and J. K. Hill and wife are expected to arrive here from the latter part of this week. They have been making quite an extended visit, going from here to Philadelphia and taking in their trip New York, Washington, Boston and Niagara Falls, etc.

W. S. Johns and wife, who have been at the Outlook Club for the past three months, departed this morning for Des Moines for a short visit, when Mr. Johns will resume his trip on the road in the interest of a Des Moines firm.

Death of Rev. Hill.

Dubuque, Sept. 25.—Rev. James Hill, resident of Cascade, Dubuque county, died Sunday at the ripe age of 77 years. Deceased was born in England. He had been a resident of this country since 1854. He was for many years an active Baptist minister and organized several churches of his faith, including Epworth, Westington and Cascade. At the breaking out of the civil war he raised a company of seventy-two men for the Twenty-first Iowa infantry. He was elected first lieutenant, in which capacity he served until after the fall of Vicksburg, when he was made chaplain of the regiment, and he became "Fighting Chaplain." On his return home he resumed his missionary labors, and his wife was his co-laborer until her death in 1874. For five years he was pastor of the Baptist church at Cascade and had a regular appointment at the same time to superintend his farm. He served as director, vice president and president of the Bellevue & Cascade narrow gauge railway. He was well known in eastern Iowa and was universally esteemed. He was an ardent republican and at one time was nominated for the state legislature, and, although defeated, he carried 700 votes ahead of his ticket.

Cars Are Scarce.

Des Moines, Sept. 26.—The railroad commission is in receipt of complaints about the scarcity of cars. The complaints are from all parts of the state. They are against all of the railroads. The commission has been in correspondence with all of the roads relating to the probable scarcity of cars in anticipation of these complaints and the roads insist in their replies that they are pushed to the utmost limits of their capacity. The scarcity appears to be universal and not confined to localities. The roads say that the demand is unprecedented, in former years from time to time, except in the hard democratic times—the complaints on account of scarcity were numerous, but the roads say that the demand this year exceeds anything of former years.

Convicted of Larceny.

Maion City, Sept. 26.—King Brady of the famous Brady gang, who has been operating along the line of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, was yesterday convicted of larceny in the Hancock county court. Jim Kelly, who was convicted Wednesday, broke jail and has made his escape. Charles Toberd is now on trial as an accomplice in the murder of James Allison.

A Dubuque Wedding.

Dubuque, Sept. 26.—Mr. William Quigley, president of the Telegraph Printing Company, was married yesterday to Mrs. Anthony M. Morrissey, proof reader in the Telegraph office. The ceremony was performed at St. Patrick's church by Rev. Father Halpin. Mr. Quigley had long been regarded as an incorrigible old bachelor and his wedding was a great surprise.

Cedar County Republicans.

Tipton, Sept. 26.—Cedar county republicans held an enthusiastic convention here Saturday. Mr. Phillips of Clarence, was nominated for representative, without instructions. Resolutions were passed amid enthusiasm endorsing the administrations of President McKinley and Governor Shaw.

One More for Cummins.

Harlan, Sept. 26.—The Shelby county primaries Saturday nominated H. W. Byers for representative. Byers is for Cummins. No instructions were given.
