

AMUSEMENTS. THE ODEON I. C. SPEERS, Manager.

"ANOTHER BUNCH OF FUN ON THE WAY TO TOWN."

Saturday, 30 SEPTEMBER ALFRED J. BUSBY

Presents London's Loudest Laugh, the Fascinating Farce,

Scattering Merriment 'till the Breaking of the Morn.

PRICES: 25-35-50-75c

PRESCOTT & COMPANY, ARCHITECTS.

Over Postoffice. New Telephone 52 MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA.

Advertisement for Beecham's Pills, featuring an illustration of a pill bottle and text describing its benefits for stomach and liver ailments.

W. B. KIBBEY, 125 EAST MAIN STREET.

REAL ESTATE, Loan and Insurance Broker.

F. A. GILLETTE, Grand Master E. H. Hibben, of the Odd Fellows, went to Grundy Center this morning.

Dr. W. B. Kibbey returned to Clear Lake Monday evening, after a stay of about a week in the city.

What will be, perhaps, the greatest millinery opening of the season is the one scheduled for Saturday of this week.

DR. B. F. KIERULFF, EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT, 104 East Main Street.

Her Face was Her Fortune. A friend took it with any old camera and she secured a position with a dime museum.

Fisher Governor Co., 201 SOUTH FIRST AVENUE, MARSHALLTOWN OWA.

SPARKLING SODA, And all kinds of SOFT DRINKS

Evans' Drug Store.

Times-Republican. PUBLISHED DAILY BY THE TIMES-REPUBLICAN PRINTING CO. TERMS: One Year, by Mail, $5.00; By Carrier, $6.00.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Dr. Mighell, surgeon and physician. Boys! Listen! Engagement rings at Heilberg's.

Millinery opening at Mrs. Morrill's Thursday and Friday.

Ladies' ready-made wool waists from $1 up at the Hawkeye.

Millinery opening Thursday and Friday at Miss Middlekauff's.

The opening at the New York Millinery will be Friday, Sept. 29.

Call and see the new line of ladies' dressing jackets, Lee & Benedict.

The Ladies' Reading Club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Mary Batts.

Big chicken supper at Y. M. C. A. rooms Thursday, Sept. 28. Supper, 25 cents.

Children's heavy fleeced lined underwear at 20 and 30 cents a suit. Lee & Benedict.

The grandest millinery opening of the season at Hoyt's Department Store Saturday of this week.

A new supply of girls' and boys' plaid caps just received at Pappe Bros. The choicest only 25 cents.

Mrs. A. V. Hoxsie is at 111 South Third avenue for two weeks, and will give instructions in embroidery.

Ladies, call at Miss Middlekauff's Thursday and Friday and see the elegant display of fall and winter millinery.

On account of my leaving the city soon I will offer at private sale all of my household goods at a bargain.

Charles R. Powell, of Laurel, and Miss Lilla F. Miller, of Ferguson, were married in this city this afternoon.

The county heating plant was crippled today by the bursting of a pipe, and the occupants of the court house did more or less shivering during the morning hours.

Even if you are not going to get married, you must be thinking about it, and will enjoy looking at those beautiful new clocks Heilberg has just received from the factories.

William Lee, a stranger, was before Justice Burritt this morning, charged with intoxication.

Mr. Will Carmody and Mrs. M. Scurry, of Eldora, who were in the city Monday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Annamaria, of this city.

There is no use talking, you can't be well dressed unless your clothes fit you, and the surest way to get a good fit is to have them made to order.

Grand Master E. H. Hibben, of the Odd Fellows, went to Grundy Center this morning, where tonight he will institute a Robkah lodge.

Dr. W. B. Kibbey returned to Clear Lake Monday evening, after a stay of about a week in the city.

What will be, perhaps, the greatest millinery opening of the season is the one scheduled for Saturday of this week.

Miss Bessie Isbett, one of the press agents for the Buffalo Bill show and a foster daughter of Col. William F. Cody, passed through the city Monday evening en route from Mason City to St. Louis.

Mr. E. T. Young, of Pasadena, Cal., a former resident of Marshalltown, arrived in the city this morning and is visiting at the S. B. Lusby and Capt. L. G. Arnold homes.

James Long was arrested by Constable Leech Monday upon an information filed in Justice Burritt's court by Eugene Mann, who charged him with making a nuisance of his place.

Thomas Murray and James Morgan, the two men arrested with stolen goods in their possession, were taken before Justice Burritt this morning for a hearing.

Dr. Henriksen, diagnostician. Millinery opening at Mrs. Morrill's Thursday and Friday.

The opening at the New York Millinery will be Friday, Sept. 29.

The largest stock of cloaks, capes and collarettes will be found in Lee & Benedict's cloak room.

Dwinell, Wright & Co.'s celebrated Java and French coffee is sold only at Reynolds, Watson & Co.'s.

Men's stylish fall footwear at any price from $2 to $5. See the various styles and prices in Wallace's window.

That was an elegant ring at Maloney's wedding last night and you will want just as nice a one. Heilberg sells them.

Mrs. Anna Coppock was called to State Center Monday evening, where her sister, Mrs. John Carney, is quite ill.

The Non-Partisan W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. M. J. Dobson, corner of Linn street and Sixth avenue, Thursday at 3 o'clock.

Word received from Prairie City announces that Secretary T. W. Shriver, of the Home Life Insurance Company, of this city, who recently went to his home to recuperate from a severe typhoid fever, is worse, that he has some fever each day and is back on a milk diet.

The Literary Club was entertained Monday evening by Miss Evelyn Bronson, and the meeting proved both pleasurable and profitable.

Miss Nellie Bronson gave a party at her recent trip abroad, embellished with views of many points of interest she visited. Miss Bronson served refreshments.

The Women's Club will hold its first meeting of the season on Wednesday evening in the quarters in the Odd Fellows' block.

A glance down the street in front of the great Bee Hive Department Store yesterday would soon have convinced the most skeptical of the amount of business done at that place.

Much interest is being manifested over the song and piano recital by Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond, of Chicago, at the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening.

Mr. Trace Ford, who has been making his headquarters in this city for some time, left Monday evening for northern Minnesota, where he will enjoy a month's hunting.

The report of the approximate earnings of the Iowa Central for the third week of September, as issued from the office of General Auditor J. E. Wasson, shows a big week and a fine record.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

Excitement in golf circles is fast waxing hot and this week is likely to see the warmest tournament of the season.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

A very happy family gathering was enjoyed Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Painter.

Major Frank G. Pierce arrived home this morning from New York, where he went last week to attend the convention of the National League of Municipalities at Syracuse.

The annual election of officers of the Methodist Sunday school was held Monday evening in the church parlors.

In a private letter from Mr. J. M. Cox, of Pella, to a friend in this city, it is learned that his son, Mr. Murray Cox, is not much better and that the young man's fever still ranges high.

Des Moines Leader: Mayor MacVicar, who has been in New York for nearly three weeks, returned home yesterday morning, coming direct to the city from attending the third annual meeting of the League of American Municipalities, which closed Friday at Syracuse.

Des Moines Leader: Mayor MacVicar, who has been in New York for nearly three weeks, returned home yesterday morning, coming direct to the city from attending the third annual meeting of the League of American Municipalities, which closed Friday at Syracuse.

Des Moines Leader: Mayor MacVicar, who has been in New York for nearly three weeks, returned home yesterday morning, coming direct to the city from attending the third annual meeting of the League of American Municipalities, which closed Friday at Syracuse.

Des Moines Leader: Mayor MacVicar, who has been in New York for nearly three weeks, returned home yesterday morning, coming direct to the city from attending the third annual meeting of the League of American Municipalities, which closed Friday at Syracuse.

Des Moines Leader: Mayor MacVicar, who has been in New York for nearly three weeks, returned home yesterday morning, coming direct to the city from attending the third annual meeting of the League of American Municipalities, which closed Friday at Syracuse.

Des Moines Leader: Mayor MacVicar, who has been in New York for nearly three weeks, returned home yesterday morning, coming direct to the city from attending the third annual meeting of the League of American Municipalities, which closed Friday at Syracuse.

Abstracts, Isaac B. F. Cummings. Dr. Nichols, physician and surgeon, 108 East Main.

Wanted—Apprentice girls who know sewing, at Mrs. Benjamin's.

Fifty new styles of crepons to make your selections from at Lee & Benedict's.

The grandest millinery opening of the season at Hoyt's Department Store Saturday of this week.

The meeting of St. Paul's church club will be held at the rectory on Wednesday evening of this week.

Linemen's attention is especially called to a new extra heavy solid shoe, double sole running through to the heel, making shank of the shoe extra strong and adaptable to your line of work.

The marshal and sheriff received a telegram from Sheriff Stout, of Des Moines, in which they are asked to look out for two prisoners who effected their escape yesterday.

Rev. Richard Swearingen, of Albion, was in the city Monday to see his son, Mr. Charles E. Swearingen, of LaPorte City, who has been at Colfax for the past two weeks trying to rid himself of an attack of jaundice.

Archie Parker tells of a peculiar incident in which his advertisement in the T-R was read a long way from home.

A very pleasant dancing party was given at Forney's hall Monday evening.

Word received in the city this morning announces that the remains of Frank Hewitt, of Minneapolis, will arrive in the city this evening for interment in Riverside.

Excitement in golf circles is fast waxing hot and this week is likely to see the warmest tournament of the season.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

Excitement in golf circles is fast waxing hot and this week is likely to see the warmest tournament of the season.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

Excitement in golf circles is fast waxing hot and this week is likely to see the warmest tournament of the season.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

Excitement in golf circles is fast waxing hot and this week is likely to see the warmest tournament of the season.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

Excitement in golf circles is fast waxing hot and this week is likely to see the warmest tournament of the season.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

Excitement in golf circles is fast waxing hot and this week is likely to see the warmest tournament of the season.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

Excitement in golf circles is fast waxing hot and this week is likely to see the warmest tournament of the season.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

Excitement in golf circles is fast waxing hot and this week is likely to see the warmest tournament of the season.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

Excitement in golf circles is fast waxing hot and this week is likely to see the warmest tournament of the season.

Mr. Robert Denbow, of Albion, left Monday evening for Forbush, where he spent today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Cora Mundell.

Dr. Janss, physician and surgeon. The opening at the New York Millinery will be Friday, Sept. 29.

H. E. Slimkins, undertaking exclusively. Second door west of the postoffice.

A heavy frost this morning was very much in evidence, and the night was by far the coldest of the autumn season.

Mr. George J. Allen went to Chicago Monday night where he will attend a series of lectures at the McCormick Ophthalmic College.

Now, ladies, we have the neckwear you have been looking for. A new line of the swellest effects ever brought to the city. The Hawkeye.

Smoke "Governor Dole" 10-cent cigar. It's the best seed and Havana goods on the market.

Mr. Herbert Linsday, of Chicago, who, with his wife, is in the city for a visit at the parental James Carmody home, went to Boone Monday evening.

We have customers tell us that times are so good that nothing but gold will suit them, but we can show some silver ware that will change their minds.

What will be, perhaps, the greatest millinery opening of the season is the one scheduled for Saturday of this week.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

President H. R. Mithler, of the Marshall County Sunday School Association, and Mrs. A. L. Van Tine and Miss Belle Welch, delegates from the Congregational Sunday school, went to State Center this morning.

You'll See GOVERNOR DOLE AT ALL DEALERS ITS A GOOD CIGAR!!

CONSIDER WELL HOW YOUR HOME IS TO BE WARMED. PURE FRESH AIR. THE LENNOX FURNACE. Will not leak gas and impurities into the air that comes into the house from it.

FREE! This little good advice. Buy your Lumber of C. R. HARPER & CO., 103 SOUTH CENTER STREET, MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA.

We believe in advice, have taken advice, and profited by it. We would like to advise those who expect to buy furniture to come to our store and see our new goods.

MARION GARD. 123 EAST MAIN STREET.

LOOK HERE! LOOK HERE!! Are you going to build this spring? If so, see the feature of the IOWA BUSINESS MEN'S BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION of Marshalltown, Iowa.

YOU CAN BORROW MONEY AS FOLLOWS: Class F. Stock, $1.65 per 100, Payments Limited to 96 Months. Class B. Stock, $1.95 per 100, Payments Limited to 76 Months. Class A. Stock, $2.25 per 100, Payments Limited to 63 Months.

ASSETS JUNE 1, 1899, $475,000. NO DELAY IN GETTING MONEY. COME AND BE CONVINCED. JOHN D. VAIL, Sec'y and Manager, 130 W. MAIN ST. MARSHALLTOWN, IA.

THE McCOMBS BROS. Have the Omnibus and Transfer Line in Marshalltown, and they exercise the same care for their patrons as they would if they had competition.

A METROPOLITAN TRANSFER CO. McCombs Bros. Grain-O Brings Relief. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious.