The remains of the late S. W. Miller, of Albion, Iowa, of Mrs. George Hillman, of this city, will arrive at Albion Friday morning and the interment will occur at 10 o'clock in the Albion cemetery.

Mr. D. C. Wilbur, manager of the furniture department of the Bee Hive Department Store, says that his business during September was the largest for any September since the halcyon days of '92.

We have a greater assortment of all kinds of furniture, carpets, rugs, linoleum, etc., than is found in all the other stores of this city. Our prices are right, because we are able to buy in such immense quantities. Bee Hive furniture department.

Don't let anybody convince you that they have a shoe just as good as the recent $3.50 shoe for men, for there is not a shoe in this city at 25 cents that gives the wear, fit and comfort that does the recent shoe, and they are sold only by Ingledue & Young, Boston Shoe Store.

Dr. Enoch Lewis and wife, of Taylor township, left Tuesday evening for Wichita, Kas., where they will attend the Kansas yearly meeting of Friends, which convenes Thursday and continues during the remainder of the week. They will remain in Wichita for a visit of about three weeks.

At the home of Mr. Charles Wasmer, 114 Anson street, the Keystone League of the Evangelical church spent a number of pleasant hours Tuesday evening. After the regular routine of business had been disposed of a short musical and literary program was given and an oyster supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford C. Leach and children, of Pickering, Mo., arrived in the city Tuesday night and will be present at the reunion, being entertained at the home of the former's brother, Constable S. V. Leach. Mr. William Leach, of Pickering, another member of the Second, is also in attendance at the reunion.

Engineer George Caffall, of the Central, accompanied by his wife, spent Tuesday in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meredith. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Caffall went to Oskaloosa, which is to be their future home. Mr. Caffall will have one of the 90 and 91 runs out of Oskaloosa, but on which end of the line is yet to be determined.

Mrs. A. C. Cripps, of Albion, went to Des Moines Tuesday evening, where she will attend the state convention of the W. C. T. U. Miss Lillian Griswold went to Des Moines this morning to attend the convention, going as a delegate from the local W. C. T. U. Miss Blanche B. Griswold will also be in attendance at the convention and will go tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Auld, of Milwaukee, who have been in the city a week visiting with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Auld, left for their home Tuesday evening. Mr. Auld was a former Marshalltown boy and for many years a clerk for E. E. Hood. At present M. Auld is employed as a baggage man for the C. M. & St. P. at Milwaukee.

Mrs. C. F. Redel will accompany her sister, Mrs. G. H. Kline, who has been her guest for two weeks, home to McGregor tomorrow. After a short stay there they will go to Wisconsin to visit relatives in Appleton and Port Arthur. Wisconsin was their girlhood home and as Mrs. Redel has not been there for almost thirty years the visit will be an enjoyable one.

The low-rate excursion to Peoria via the Iowa Central to witness the dedication of the old soldiers' monument on Oct. 6 by President McKinley and the opening of the corn palace. A special train will leave Marshalltown on Oct. 5 at 9:15 p. m. Round-trip rate, $2.50. G. S. Batty, G. P. and T. A.

General Superintendent S. Sanborn, of the Northwestern, and Superintendent R. H. Aishton, of the Iowa division, passed through the city Tuesday evening on the former's business car, No. 40. Mr. Sanborn left the train at Ames, and from there goes on a trip over the northern division. Mr. Aishton went to his home in Boone.

Mr. Carl Barber, of Wheaton, Ill., arrived in the city Tuesday evening and will remain a week or so at the home of his niece, Mrs. George R. Estabrook. Mr. Barber is a brother of Mrs. A. M. Daleom, who is still confined to her daughter's home, suffering with paralysis, which has affected her mind. Mrs. Daleom shows no signs of improvement.

Private Ed J. Reed, of the Forty-fifth infantry, who spent Tuesday in the city for the purpose of securing recruits for his regiment, went to Des Moines this morning, in company with William Yesley, of 207 North Ninth avenue, and John Shillito, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Shillito. Shillito will make another trial to pass the physical examination, although he has been rejected twice already.

The Cornell College football team passed through the city this morning, en route to Des Moines to meet Drake University on the gridiron this afternoon. Mr. Joe Fogg, a former Marshalltown boy, is a member of the Cornell team, playing quarterback. Will McIntyre, a nephew of Mrs. E. Lee and Miss Mollie Allison, of this city, and a former member of Company H, Forty-ninth Iowa, plays one of the halves.

Portopapas, the Grecian Hercules, who will appear in connection with his high-class vaudeville show at the Odeon Theater on Thursday and Friday nights, is pronounced the strongest and most perfectly-formed man in the world. His marvelous feats of strength have attracted the attention of athletes in all parts of the world, and the "Grecian Hercules" has demonstrated his superiority over all rivals on more than one occasion. During his stay in this city Portopapas will be encamped at the Pilsener Hotel, and all those interested in athletics will be welcomed by this heroic gentleman at his rooms with pleasure. The manager of the Pilsener, for two or three nights and the price of admission will be 10, 20 and 25 cents.

The funeral services of Capt. R. H. Whitcomb were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family residence, No. 19 West Boone street. Rev. J. G. Van Ness speaking. Mrs. S. G. Mason and Mrs. J. G. Van Ness sang "Gathering Home" and "Sometime We'll Understand" and Mrs. Van Ness sang as a solo. Rev. Elyth Hill conducted the services. Capt. Whitcomb was a prominent member of the Masonic order and of the G. A. R., and it was his request that his pall bearers should be chosen from among those men who belonged to both organizations. This wish was fulfilled and the following gentlemen served: Messrs. C. M. Norton, C. J. Elwell, J. E. Wildman, E. C. McMillan, W. S. Reed and J. S. Whitcomb.

A small sized riot that might have had a more disastrous result occurred on South Seventh avenue Tuesday afternoon between several colored families and John Dudlka, a Bohemian residing at 209 South Seventh avenue. Just what the row started over is not known, but the first thing Dudlka knew he had a brick aimed at such an extent that he had a brick aimed at him. Missing him with the brick, Dudlka hit Dudlka with his fist, knocking out a tooth or two for the Bohemian. City Marshal Jones and Officer Clark were called, but the fuss had subsided before they arrived. They threatened all with arrest if the offense was repeated. A later development, however, resulted Tuesday evening, when Dudlka filed an information in Justice Allen's court charging Sellers with assault and battery. The hearing was set for this afternoon.

Miss Carolyn Sheldon was hostess Tuesday evening at a charming little party given in honor of Miss Mary Palmer, of Chicago, Illinois. The guests were given cards, mainly painted in water colors by the hostess, upon which were to be written the characteristics of the guests, the initials of the words being identical with the initials of the names. The honored guest received the lady's prize and Mr. Joe Egermayer the gentleman's. The cards were tied with purple ribbons and the decorations were all of that royal color as a compliment to Miss Palmer's alma mater, Northwestern University at Evanston, from which she was graduated in June. Violets were used in the parlors. Mrs. A. H. Sheldon and Mrs. H. J. Allard served the refreshments late in the evening, after which crokinole was played. The recipients of Miss Sheldon's hospitality were Misses Mae Blinham, Carolyn Anderson, Edith Waterman, Messrs. C. S. A. Drich, Ellis Porter, Harry Echternacht, Joe Egermayer, S. E. Arthur and Luther Sheldon.

Dr. Jansa, physician and surgeon.

Mrs. Thomas Farrell was called to Oskaloosa Tuesday evening upon receipt of a telegram announcing that her grandson, Charley Snyder, son of Conductor Frank Snyder, of the Central, was very ill.

Mrs. Lydia McNally left this morning for Minneapolis, where she will remain for two weeks, during which time she will be entertained by her friend, Mrs. Nettie Thorpe. Mrs. McNally's trip is one of business, and is made for the purpose of securing, if possible, a business opening of some kind.

The low rate excursion to Peoria via the Iowa Central to witness the dedication of the old soldiers' monument on October 6 at 9:15 p. m. Round-trip rate, $2.50. G. S. Batty, G. P. and T. A.

One of the Central's wrecking derricks was sent north to Belmont Tuesday night in charge of Dr. J. H. Cleary, where a car belonging to one of the branch freights had broken down. The accident was a very slight one, and required only a few minutes work with the derrick to replace it on a pair of trucks.

Mrs. W. M. Thompson went to Baxter Tuesday evening, where this evening at 5 o'clock she will attend the marriage of her daughter, Miss Agnes Cool, to Mr. John Work. Mr. Thompson and daughter, Miss Georgia, went to Baxter this morning. The bride is quite well known in Marshalltown, having visited at her aunt's home many times.

Councilman George W. Harris, who has been in the east for a couple of weeks, attending the municipal league convention and visiting in New York, arrived at home Tuesday night. Misses Myrtle and Florence Harris remained in New York and will be absent a month or more. Dr. Harris reports a pleasant trip and his visit to the league convention is a very profitable one.

Mrs. Adaline M. Payne, of Nevada, was in the city Tuesday afternoon as the guest of Mrs. H. J. Howe, leaving later for Ottumwa, where this afternoon she was the guest of the Ottumwa Women's Club, delivering before the club her paper on "The Modern Era," which came into prominence upon its first reading, before the state federation of women's clubs at Burlington, early last May, and later in the same month before the members of the Spinning Wheel Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, in this city.

Miss Lulu Huffaker returned Tuesday evening from her ten days' vacation, the most of which was spent in Sheridan, Mo., with Miss Charlotte Jones. On her return Miss Huffaker spent a few days in Des Moines, where she called upon Miss Mayme Campbell, who has been for the past two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Welver. Miss Campbell seems improved since she left Marshalltown in the summer. Her extreme nervousness has "disappeared" and she is cheerful and confident of being well soon. Her physicians say she will have entirely recovered by Christmas, although she will be advised not to return to her school duties for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Peck have just completed a handsome new home on their old homestead, four and one-half miles northeast of the city. The home is one of the largest and most commodious in the county. Tuesday afternoon the guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Peck at a house warming. The furniture and carpets had not been placed in the house, and so the guests danced away into the night to the music of a string orchestra. A bountiful supper was served and the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Peck many years of happy life in the new home. Those present from this city were Messrs. and Mesdames D. C. Wilbur, G. D. Pegg, Rudolph Henry, J. O. Adams, W. E. Nicholson, Charles Baker, E. Steepleton and C. E. Haas and Mr. Albert Pegg.

Tuesday evening Mrs. W. B. Cottoms, of 502 Woodbury street, gave a farewell party to her mother, Mrs. Bryant Carter, of Keokuk, who have been visiting her for the past two or three weeks, and who expect soon to leave for their home. Quite an enjoyable time was had by about forty guests. Those in attendance were Rev. and Mrs. J. Burton, Messrs. and Mesdames J. C. Wheeler, L. L. Brown, G. L. Suter, C. Williams, R. J. Wright, L. H. Johnson, W. H. Flipping, Mrs. T. C. Cottoms, Mrs. C. Carter, Mrs. Grundy, Mrs. Goings, Mrs. Frederick Wright, of Sterling, Ill.; Misses Hattie and May Mayes, of Newton; Della Howard, of Albion; Myrtle and Flossie Wright, Anna Williams, Mayme and Eva Cottoms; Messrs. A. L. Harris, J. B. Waters, Preston Cottoms, Albert Walker and Clarence Carter; and Harry Greene, of Toledo.

The Unity Club met for the first time this year Tuesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. G. L. Andrews. It was "officers' day," the other hostesses being Mrs. H. A. Church, vice president; Mrs. F. S. Kaufmann, secretary, and Mrs. A. E. Wilbur, treasurer. Plans for the winter's work were discussed and after a pleasant visit and relating of summer experiences the supper was served, the like of which has not been seen in Marshalltown since the days when Marietta strove for the county seat at what Iowa was indeed "the wild and woolly west." Cloths of the most vivid red, packed away in wooden chests for years, were spread on the tables. The knives and forks were of steel, but the ladies forsook the delicacies of conventional society and not a fork was soiled. The dishes were veritable heirlooms, a few of them being a century old, and all of them grown precious with age. There were no waiters, but every one helped herself and the one next to her and the pork and beans and doughnuts vanished as if by magic. After another social hour, the guests departed, their next meeting to be one of work, although they hope for a little play on the side.
