WILL WIN BY ABOUT 500

Shoemaker For Sheriff Will Win Over McPherson by a Good Big Vote.

Conservative Estimates Fail to Show Any Other Result—The City Vote.

McPherson Will Carry the Town But Will Lose Over Two Years Ago in the Country.

Correspondents are requested not to wire election returns. Other arrangements have been made for receiving full returns.

The situation in Marshall county on the eve of the election is most encouraging to the republicans, and now that the actual work of the campaign is concluded a fair round-up of the situation is due the readers of the T-R.

The only office which the democrats have hoped to capture and on which they hoped to win is that of sheriff, and the efforts have been centered towards repeating their success of two years ago in regard to that office. Of course the causes which led up to the defeat of the republican candidate in 1892 have some bearing on the present contest, but not to a considerable extent, and with the excellent ticket the republicans have placed in nomination this year, against no part of which not one word could be said, republican by even democrats, republican success in electing the entire ticket must be conceded. That Mr. McPherson will run ahead of his own ticket to some extent must also be conceded, but careful estimates, based on the vote of two years ago and that of last year, when the democrats made a special effort to elect their candidate for judge, go to show that Mr. Shoemaker will win by a majority of 500. Some of the estimates give his majority at a little less, others a little more.

Mr. McPherson will go out of the city with a majority of about 200 votes. He can not be conceded more than that, as two years ago, with an unpopular candidate on the republican ticket, he carried the city by only 231 votes. This year he is conceded the First and Fourth wards, with an even break in the Third. Mr. Shoemaker will carry the second by a handsome majority. But to win Mr. McPherson would have to go to the country with about 700 majority as Mr. Shoemaker will poll almost the full republican strength in the country and in the towns outside of Marshalltown. Mr. McPherson will lose LeGrand, which he carried two years ago, and will lose State Center and Eden, in which he broke even with the republicans. There is no reason to believe that he will carry a township outside of the few that are always democratic. Therefore, with an ordinarily heavy vote, he stands no possible show of winning.

Chairman Estabrook, while he is not giving out his figures, says he has made a very careful estimate and that Mr. Shoemaker will be elected by a good big majority. On the whole ticket Mr. Estabrook looks forward to a bigger majority than last year, when the republican ticket secured a majority of 1,443 votes. Chairman Estabrook's figures place the republican majority at 1,600 in the county. The county is in the best shape for two years, so far as organization and aggressive work go. The democrats have been doing some hard work, but the effects of this have been met on every hand in a clean but effective way. Over 2,000 personal letters have been sent out by Chairman Estabrook and Secretary Hoover, and they have been in touch with the situation in every precinct.

Mr. Estabrook has arranged to receive the election returns from both the Western Union and the Postal, and these will be announced in the main court room.

DIRECTORS ENJOINED.

Timber Creek Trustees Will Use New School Building for Election Purposes. In the controversy between the school directors and the trustees of Timber Creek township over the use of the new school building in sub-district No. 3 for election purposes Tuesday the trustees are winners. Saturday afternoon the trustees went before Judge Caswell and secured a writ to compel the contractor to turn the keys of the building, which were still in the contractor's possession, over to the directors. This was followed today by the issuance of a writ of injunction restraining the directors from interfering with the trustees in the preparation of the building for election purposes, and the voting booths are being put up. It will be remembered that the directors did not desire the building, which has just been completed, used for election purposes, but as it is in the center of the township and the elections had previously been held in the old structure, the trustees desired to continue the elections there. The directors are A. A. Parker, Charles Noid and Nils Bottnen, and the trustees are W. H. Driesback, Ed Putnam and H. P. Koepke.

DOINGS IN POLICE CIRCLES.

Several Mixups Aired in Police Court—Other Cases. Saturday night was a busy one in police circles and as a result there were several cases to be disposed of this morning. A fight late in the afternoon between E. D. Sanstrom and E. S. McKnight, Timber creek county, which caused the arrest of both men by Officer Hanson. They were before Mayor Pierce and convicted of engaging in an affray. McKnight paid the costs and Sanstrom was committed.

As a direct result of the quarrel, which was over 25 cents, Guy McKnight, a brother of one of the participants, was arrested by the officer making the other arrests, charged with resisting an officer. He pleaded guilty and paid his fine.

About 7:30 o'clock Matt Cooper and J. F. Gowdy, the latter a hog buyer living near Piquette, were engaged in a quarrel near Center and Main streets. Cooper claimed that Gowdy had made an insulting remark about a relative of his, while on the other hand Gowdy alleges that he did not know of such relative and was not guilty of the allegation. At any rate blows were struck and Gowdy received the worst of it, getting a blow on the eye. He swore out an information in Justice Burritt's court, Cooper appearing before being arrested. He was tried on a charge of assault and battery and a decision will be given this evening.

John Shillato and two fellows by the names of Williams and Hubler became involved in a quarrel about 1 o'clock Sunday morning, renewing trouble that occurred a short time before at the Clem dance. They were arrested by City Marshal Jones and Officer Cochran.

Three cases for intoxication were before Mayor Pierce this morning, one from an arrest made by Officer Clark Saturday night, another by Officer Weaver and a third by City Marshal Jones. The usual disposition was made of the cases.

DEATH RECORD.

Death of Dr. F. S. Newton Sunday Morning, After a Long Illness.

Rev. O. Holmes Dies at Cedar Rapids—Intention to Be In Riverside.

After a long illness, which was attended with much suffering, Dr. F. S. Newton passed away Sunday morning shortly before 7 o'clock, at his home on North Third street. Dr. Newton had been ill since April 4 last, when he was attacked with typhoid fever. He recovered from this, but the disease had left its effects on his lungs, which were not strong, and quick consumption developed, finally resulting in death.

Dr. Newton was 44 years of age. He was born in Bridgewater, Vt., in 1850, but had spent the greater portion of his life in Iowa. For fifteen years he practiced dentistry—for a short time at Zeeland; but for the past eleven years in this city. On July 4, 1882, at Nevada, he was married to Miss Cora E. Burdick, daughter of Z. C. and S. E. Burdick. He is survived by his wife and six children—three boys and three girls. Three brothers, O. A. B. Newton, of Spencer; Locke Newton, of Lake Park, and Elmer E. Newton, of Cedar Falls, also survive. The brothers will be in the city to attend the funeral, O. A. B. Newton having reached the city on Saturday.

The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Christian church, of which deceased was a member. Rev. W. H. Scott officiating. The services at the grave will be in charge of the Woodmen of the World, Dr. Newton was a member of the Woodmen of the World and Iowa Legion of Honor.

Deceased carried $8,000 of life insurance, but there is some question regarding the collection of $3,000 of this amount.

Rev. O. Holmes.

Rev. O. Holmes, a resident of this city for the past ten years, died Saturday night at 9:20 o'clock at the home of his son, George B. Holmes, in Cedar Rapids, whither he had gone on a visit three weeks ago. Rev. Holmes was 70 years of age and had not been robust for some time. Kidney and heart troubles were the direct cause of his death. Rev. Holmes was born in Marcellus, N. Y., in 1823. Graduated from the Wesleyan University at Middletown, Conn., and took up the ministry. For thirty-four years he was actively engaged in religious work under the northern Methodist conference of New York. He was married at Rome, N. Y., in the year 1855 to Mary Ann Scott, who survives him. He moved west to Marshalltown ten years ago. He is also survived by two children, George B. Holmes, of Cedar Rapids, and Mrs. James Hall, of No. 405 West Main street.

The body will arrive from Cedar Rapids at 8:20 o'clock Tuesday morning and the funeral services will be held at the M. E. church at 10 o'clock. The body will lie in state at the church between the hours of 9 and 10 a. m. and the church will be open to friends. Rev. J. T. Crippen, D. D., of Mt. Vernon, an old time friend of Rev. Holmes, will make the funeral address.

Bracewell.

The mother of a large family knows that every child has its own place and when death comes and takes one all the others can not fill the place. But there is a desolation which is felt when an only child dies that is not known in the larger family. So it is that the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bracewell is so afflicted by the death of their only child, Violet. The little girl, who was 10 years old last March, had been ill for five weeks with typhoid fever, and her complications. Never robust, she grew steadily weaker, until she died at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Her illness was almost without pain and her mind was clear up to the last. Of a naturally sunny disposition, she was cheerful all during her illness and made many plans for a happy Thanksgiving, when she should be well again. But her friends feel that for the past few days she had known she was not to grow better, but was bright and happy lest she make them sorrow. She was an exceedingly bright little girl, in the fifth grade of the public schools and she was also a member of the M. E. Sunday school. Rev. Van Ness will conduct the funeral at the church Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Cole.

Rev. David P. Cole aged 86, the twentieth member to be admitted to the Soldiers' Home, and until his death the fifth oldest member of the institution in point of membership, died Saturday evening at 5:30 o'clock in the hospital, of old age, resulting from a generally debilitated condition. Mr. Cole came to the Home Dec. 6, 1887, the winter the institution was opened, from Washington. He was a member of Company G, Thirty-seventh Iowa volunteer infantry, having enlisted November 8, 1862, at Washington, and served three years, being discharged at Davenport May 24, 1865. The deceased was at one time, and for many years, a Methodist minister, holding a pastorate at Washington and in various other points in the southwestern part of the state. It remains were sent this morning to the Soldiers' Home, where his daughter reside, and where the funeral and interment will occur.

YANCY AND SMITH GO UP

Marshall County Murder Suspects Sentenced at Nevada for the Story County Crime.

Get Five and Ten Years For Shooting Conductor Hicks, of the Northwestern.

No Attempt to Be Made to Indict Them in This County For the Present.

Charles Yancy and "Sloppy" Smith, the two men who have been under arrest at Nevada for the shooting of Conductor Hicks, of the Northwestern, and suspected of being two of the parties who shot and killed Brakemen Mathews and Wilson, of the Great Western, near this city, have been convicted in the Story county court of assault with intent to murder. Judge Birdsall passed sentence on the men Saturday afternoon, and has determined that Smith shall serve a term of ten years and Yancy one of five years. Smith is the one who shot Hicks. A dispatch from Nevada in reference to the case there and the shooting of the brakemen says:

"Yancy is an old-timer, having but recently been discharged from the Nebraska state penitentiary, where he has been serving a sentence of four years for robbery. Smith, the younger man of the two, has often been in the criminal courts of Omaha and has been connected with a great many petty crimes there, but on account of his youth has been able heretofore to keep out of the penitentiary.

"The case in Story county has been of added interest on account of the attempt to connect these parties with the murder of the Great Western brakemen, Wilson and Mathews, near Marshalltown. The evidence of their connection with this affair has been worked up pretty conclusively. The Marshalltown and Great Western authorities have investigated the murder very thoroughly and have much evidence against these men. It is also stated that there is a man in the Newton, Iowa, jail who has made a confession to the sheriff of that county in which he stated that his brother, together with Yancy and Smith, committed the crime, and that he was with the trio up to within a few days of the time of the commission of the murder. He is also reported to have given to the Newton sheriff some pointers which will enable him to locate the third murderer. This matter will be worked up and an effort to indict them will be made by the next grand jury of Marshall county. This evidence will be retained as far as possible and will be brought against them after they have served the sentence pronounced today.

The portion of the dispatch in reference to the attempt to indict the men here is somewhat premature. County Attorney Stone was informed by a T-R reporter that the men had been sentenced, and was asked in regard to his probable action. He said that while he was convinced in his own mind that Yancy and Smith had something to do with the Marshalltown crime, he did not believe that the evidence now in hand was strong enough to secure an indictment, although some of the statements made by Yancy's brother while in jail at Newton were damaging. Mr. Stone said that no attempt would be made to have the men indicted until the Green Mountain grand jury, which convenes on Wednesday. The case will not be dropped, however, and further evidence for future action will be secured.

TELEPHONE WORKMEN STOPPED.

Green Mountain Citizens Compel Them to Lay Work Aside on Sunday.

Linemen on the Cedar Valley Telephone Company were stopped from working at Green Mountain Sunday, were stopped temporarily Sunday while working at the Homer Thomas residence. Rev. O. H. L. Mason and some of the good people of the town headed the movement to have the men quit. The formation of a grand jury, which is to be organized on Monday, was demanded by the citizens to comply with the law, replied that neither he nor his men were working as a matter of choice, but that he had received orders to push the work to a speedy completion and were therefore in the discharge of their duty. He told the Green Mountain gentlemen very respectfully that if work must be stopped they would have to resort to force, and do it as prescribed by law, as that would relieve him from any responsibility and then the difficulty could be settled by the company direct. The township authorities were then forced to quit, and the men then returned to work, when demanded by the citizens to comply with the law, replied that neither he nor his men were working as a matter of choice, but that he had received orders to push the work to a speedy completion and were therefore in the discharge of their duty. He told the Green Mountain gentlemen very respectfully that if work must be stopped they would have to resort to force, and do it as prescribed by law, as that would relieve him from any responsibility and then the difficulty could be settled by the company direct.

DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Caswell Makes Voters of a Number of Foreign Born Residents.

Judge Caswell convened the November term of the district court today for Judge Burnham, to enable the latter to remain at home until after election. Judge Burnham will be on hand Wednesday. No attempt was made to transact any business further than issuing final papers to foreign born residents who desire to become full citizens and cast their ballots on election day. Frank Will acted as chaperone for a number of his German friends, the persons of Frank Wisener, Johann Moeller, Ludwig Herman Holl and Herman Holl.

Other final papers granted were to Martin Thompson, Lars Thorsen, Lewis Holland, Peter Dainsen, Thomas Oxenfield, Bert Ingelbust and Ole Ingelbust, all natives of Norway, and Neils Rasmussen, a native of Denmark.

A petition for divorce has been filed by Norma E. Harmon against Ellsworth W. Harmon. Adultery is alleged. The McGowan divorce case has been withdrawn and the attachment secured by Mrs. McGowan against her husband's property has been released.

SHOEMAKER GAINS

T-R County Solicitor Sees Many People Who Talk Farm and Politics.

Some Will Scratch But Shoemaker Will Have 700 to Spare in County.

County politics in Jefferson, Green-castle, Logan and Washington townships seems to be greatly guess work, both candidates for sheriff having a considerable number of fairly devoted followers. McPherson people are claiming Logan, Washington and Jefferson, with an even break in Green-castle. Shoemaker people are doing the same thing, and then some, and both parties believe what they say, which goes to show that the vote will be reasonably close. LeGrand village and township are said for the republican candidate. Gilman village is said to be strong for McPherson, who will also poll heavily among the German farmers about Haverhill and in Logan. Some republicans will vote for McPherson, not favoring a change, and some democrats will vote for Shoemaker because the present incumbent appointed republican deputies. And here you are. The writer is inclined to think from his personal observation that while considerable scratching will be done the major part of the republican voters will use the circle, also that the chances of the past two weeks have been favorable to Shoemaker. The general impression among the voters is that the result will depend greatly upon the poll in Marshalltown, and that Shoemaker will come from the country to the corporation lines at least 700 to the good, which would seem to settle it.

A very strong advocate of shallow culture for corn is William Gallentine, a successful farmer living near Van-cleave. Mr. Gallentine furnishes a strong argument favoring his practice in his cornfield, which is yielding seventy-five bushels of perfectly ripened corn to the acre. His corn is the best I have seen and I was unable to find a single ear that was not plump excepting one with an arrangement of knives which simply scrape the surface. His corn matures a week or ten days earlier than that cultivated by the common process. He cites in support of his theory the fact that a rented field on his farm, equal or better in quality of soil to his field, yielded above at seventy-five bushels, though tended by an excellent farmer by the old method, yielded but sixty-three bushels. As the fields lie side by side this would seem somewhat conclusive evidence in favor of the shallow culture.

Mrs. David Paul and daughter, Mrs. W. L. Boye, of Laurel, have lately returned from an extended visit among relatives at Brookville, Ill., and in Indiana.

Jasper Vanscoy, of Vaneleve, who has lately made a trip through Kentucky and adjoining states, comes home excited with his Iowa home and citizenship. He found no such agricultural country in the south.

William Owings, of Vaneleve, will vote a straight ticket this fall and as many succeeding falls as he may be spared to vote. He cast his first ballot for Andrew Jackson, his second for William H. Harrison and has voted for every candidate ever presented by the republican party.

A tale of wonderful corn husking comes from Laurel. William Colburn, it is stated, is paying a Mr. Lindsay, one of his hands, for 125 bushels of corn husked daily. This is the common day's work of this price of pickers. On one occasion, feeling particularly brisk, he husked and cribbed seventy-five bushels in five hours. He challenges the state to produce his peer and professes to have large bundles of legal currency to stake on the result.

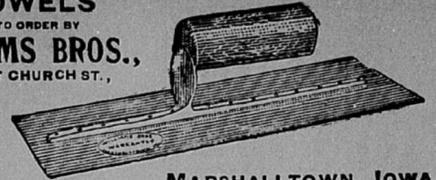

Mrs. Nakkien, wife of a thrifty farmer who gets the T-R at Vaneleve, has an heirloom in the shape of a skirt or petticoat which is somewhat of a curiosity on account of its age. Mrs. Nakkien, who is a native of Holland, states that the skirt has been handed down from mother to daughter for hundreds of years. It is well preserved and she still wears it on state occasions and will bequeath it to her eldest daughter. F. A. MOSCRIPT.
