

TWO TERRORS.

John W. Moore of Osage, Minn., Had Bright's Disease and Dropsy. But is Now Well.

Osage, Minn., Oct. 16.—John W. Moore has had a narrow escape from death. He relates his experience in a letter to the Dods Medicine Company, under date of July 4, 1899, as follows: "Dodd's Kidney Pills have saved my life. Three weeks ago some of the best doctors in the state gave me up to die. They said I had Bright's disease. My body and limbs were badly swollen. I had some dropsy, I could hardly stand on my feet. I had sleepless nights. I would do all I can to recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills."

WOOD IS CONVICTED

One of the Men Implicated in Killing of Schivaller at Dunlap Found Guilty.

Jury Returns Verdict of Manslaughter—Accessories on Trial—Story of Crime.

Hardin County Adopts New Method For Its Bridge Building Operations.

Special to Times-Republican.

Dunlap, Nov. 17.—Archie Wood was convicted Thursday in the court of this county of manslaughter, for the killing of Schivaller, an aged farmer living near here, last spring. Two accessories, Evan Mize and James Mitchell, are yet to be tried. Wood's trial lasted seven days. The story of the crime is well known to Times-Republican readers. It was particularly atrocious. Schivaller was a harmless, peaceable and respectable old farmer, who had come to town one Saturday early in the spring to do some trading. When he went to the barn to get his horse for the purpose of returning home he was attacked by Wood and his two companions and beaten into unconsciousness. Several bones were broken. The victim was then roughly dragged into a horse stall, where he was found Sunday morning, almost frozen. He was taken to the hotel and died a few days later, after intense suffering.

NEW BRIDGE METHODS.

Hardin County Supervisors Hire a Superintendent—Tax Dodgers.

Eldora, Nov. 17.—The board of supervisors at its recent meeting changed the method heretofore employed for building and repairing the bridges of the county. Heretofore the work was let by contract. Mr. O. Dillon has had the contract for the past ten years and has given good satisfaction, because he is a thorough mechanic and has done the work well, but the board has paid him about $10,000 a year for doing the work and furnishing the material. Mr. Frank Cummings, of Union, has been selected as superintendent of the work and will be paid $3 a day for every day he works, and the county will furnish the material and pay for all additional help.

The question of putting in a clock, which has been agitated for some time, was well discussed, and while no action was taken it was understood the clock will be put in early next spring. It will be a good one.

Mr. E. J. Davis, of Oskaloosa, appeared before the board of supervisors and explained the method of investigating the tax evaders of the county, and urged that a contract be let for that purpose. The board, after discussing the matter, decided to postpone any action on the matter until next term. It is to be hoped the board will take the necessary action to bring about this investigation, as it is a well known fact that many of our wealthiest men pay less taxes than some of the comparatively poor men. It is a question of honesty and right, and those who have money, bills receivable and property and give it in will not be wronged, and if they do not give it in the poor man is wronged.

THE URBANA MYSTERY.

Now Believed That Robbery Was a Motive for the Crime.

Cedar Rapids, Nov. 17.—Advices from Urbana indicate that the coils are rapidly tightening around the men who blew up the Burrell store and the office of the Monitor early Saturday morning. That there was more than revenge as a motive for the crime is now generally believed, although few except those who have been working directly on the case have any idea as to the character of evidence which has been dug up. Still it is positively known that some most damaging facts have been brought to light.

That J. D. Burrell's store was robbed before it was blown up is now the firm belief of those who have studied the case the closest, and when the mystery is finally solved Cedar Rapids will play an important part in the story. The parties who robbed the building, if a robbery was committed, were fourth-class thieves, of the clothes-line type. A wagon load of goods look like a fortune to them, and if they were successful in selling the plunder they could live a year on the proceeds. It was known that the Burrell stock was not as carefully kept as it might have been and that after the building and stock had been torn up by an explosion a wagon load of goods would never be missed from the stock. That the burglars had no idea of setting fire to the building is the belief of those who hold to the burglary theory, but it is contended that a fire might easily follow such an explosion as occurred, since there were two car loads of flour in the building, which is particularly inflammable.

Every possible effort is being made to connect the suspected parties with goods which it is said have already been located, although it is yet undecided whether this plunder is what came from the Burrell building. The blowing up of the Monitor office is regarded merely as an incident, an effort to thicken the mystery enshrouding the crime, but there are clues which would almost justify the detectives at work on the case in effecting the arrest of parties who are endeavoring to act as though nothing had happened. No one will be surprised to see at least two men make an effort to leave the county at any time, which action would of course be taken as an evidence of guilt.

THANKS TO CALIFORNIA.

Executive Council Takes Official Cognizance of Kindness to Soldiers. Des Moines, Nov. 17.—One of the transactions of the executive council yesterday was the adoption of resolutions extending, in an official way, the thanks of the government of Iowa and the people, to the governor of the people of California for the manifold kindnesses manifested toward the Iowa soldiers while in San Francisco. The resolutions follow: "Whereas, The state of California has, through her officers and citizens, put forth great efforts to make pleasant the sojourn in their midst of the Fifty-first Iowa regiment, United States volunteers, and for the entertainment of our citizens who have visited within her borders; therefore be it "Resolved, That the executive committee of the state of Iowa that we express to all the people of California, and to the citizens of San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley in particular, our appreciation of the liberal hospitality and kindness extended to the boys of the Iowa regiment and to our visiting delegations.

"Resolved further, That we especially thank his excellency, Henry D. Gage, the governor of California, for his kindness and for placing the government tug boat at the disposal of the governor of Iowa and his party; and that we also thank W. H. Seamans, adjutant general of California, and Col. Francis E. Beck, of the governor's staff, for the courteous attention and untiring efforts in the entertainment of our people.

"Resolved further, That these resolutions be spread upon our records and that a copy be forwarded by the governor of Iowa to his excellency, Henry D. Gage, governor of California."

Grinnell, Nov. 17.—The Refoon sale of short horns on Thursday was well attended by both local and foreign buyers. Col. Woods presided and the largest lot included 14 calves dropped in '99 and the total was $4,981, or an average of about $35.50.

Royal Prince, a yearling bull went to W. H. Nerce, of Macomb, Ill., at $205. The same gentleman got Princess of Edgewood 2nd, a 3 year old cow at $250, and Dandy, a 6-year-old cow with a calf by her side, at $200, and Beauty, a 2-year-old heifer, at $210. Pet, an 8-year-old cow, went to Wm. Smiley, of Malcom, at $140, while W. D. Jones, of New Sharon, took Grinnell Duchess, a 5-year-old cow, at $170.

Mr. Nerce, of Ill., was the largest foreign buyer, the local buyers were John Van Eowa, L. G. C. Pierce, E. M. WeCo, J. S. Brown and John Lentz, of Grinnell and Wm. Smiley, of Malcom. The cattle were not fat, but were in fine breeding and growing condition and many of the individuals were finely bred.

ILLINOIS GAME LAW.

Warden Delevan Advocates a Retaliatory Measure in Iowa.

Ottumwa, Nov. 17.—State Game Warden George E. Delevan advocates a retaliatory measure in Iowa to offset the obnoxious Illinois game law which the Burlington sportsmen have been fighting. "As a reporter he said: "Another thing that is an outrage is the Illinois game law, which compels the Iowa sportsman to pay a license of $10 for each county in which he hunts. Iowa has no law of this kind and Illinois hunters come over to our territory and hunt upon our preserves with impunity, while the Iowa hunter must pay or be arrested and fined. Last Saturday Judge Kohlsaat of Chicago held that the Illinois law is constitutional, in a test case brought from Burlington. The Burlington sportsmen have a club house on the Illinois side, and having been annoyed by the Illinois game warden determined to make a test case, so one of their number shot a duck in the club preserves and was immediately arrested. Judge Kohlsaat held the law constitutional and the Burlington sportsmen had to suffer. Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas have the same kind of law forbidding hunting within the limits of the state, but the license ranges from $10. I think, in the Dakotas to $25 per county in Minnesota and Wisconsin. If the other states have that kind of a law, why should not Iowa have the same. Iowa game is for Iowa tax-payers and should be protected from foreign shooters."

Firemen Elect Officers.

Cedar Rapids, Nov. 17.—Yesterday's meeting of the Iowa State Firemen's Association was the most important one held in the history of the association. There was a thorough revision of the constitution, by-laws and rules governing the annual tournament, made necessary by the changed conditions. The most important change was the selection of the annual tournament should be selected by a majority of the members present at the annual meeting. As amended the selection is left to the board of control in case no town is ready to furnish bond for the payment of the prizes and the amount of the prize. Nearly every section was amended more or less. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President—C. G. Warren, Harlan. Treasurer—J. H. Johnson, Marshalltown. Financial Secretary—W. J. Francis, Sanborn. Recording Secretary—F. A. Wood, Cedar Rapids.

Davenport gets the next annual meeting, and the selection of a place of holding the tournament is left to the board of control.

Montour Nuptial Event.

Montour, Nov. 17.—A very happy home wedding occurred here last evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Waggoner, when their daughter, Miss Laura M., was made the wife of Mr. P. M. Smith, of Wright. Rev. A. R. Dodd, of the Congregational church, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by about thirty relatives and friends of the bride and groom. A wedding dinner followed the ceremony, being served by Mrs. Waggoner, assisted by her niece, Miss Eva Hannagan, of LeGrand. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left last night for Wheatland, where they will visit his parents for a short time before leaving for their home, where Mr. Smith is employed as agent for the Iowa Central. Mrs. Smith is one of the best young women of Montour, and has a wide acquaintance throughout the county, she having been a teacher in the Tama county schools for about three years. Mr. Smith was formerly a northwestern operator at this place and is an exemplary young man.

CANDIDATE FOR CLERK.

John H. Williams, of Ames, Will Try for Chief Clerkship of Lower House of Legislature.

Special to Times-Republican. Ames, Nov. 17.—The Ames Times says editorially: "Mr. John H. Williams, of this city, will be a candidate for chief clerk of the house of representatives at Des Moines this winter. John Williams is well known over central Iowa, having been court reporter for Judge Stevens later for Judge Hyatt and at present holds that responsible position with Judge Birdsall. He is a gentleman of culture and ability, a man of good voice, quick and ready, and in the position of chief clerk of the house would be an ever ready, efficient and capable official. Who will be his opponents we know not at this writing, but we do know that the Twenty-eighth general assembly would make no mistake should it select Mr. Williams as its chief clerk. Mr. Williams is a man of observation and a man whose profession has thrown him into environments that have rounded him out for just such work as that connected with the position he seeks."

THE SIOUX CITY FIRE.

Business Property to Value of $35,000 Destroyed.

Sioux City, Nov. 17.—Sioux City suffered a loss of nearly $35,000 by a disastrous fire yesterday. It was nearly 9 o'clock a. m. that a watchman discovered a fire in the factory of the Iowa Candy Company, owned by the C. Shenker & Co. company, and he at once turned in the alarm. But the blaze got a headway, and by the time the full fire department responded it was beyond control. The result was that the three-story building occupied by the candy company, the Shenker Company, occupied by the C. Shenker & Co. company, and the building, was destroyed. The loss is estimated as follows: Selzer Bros. $10,000 C. Shenker & Co., building, ... 15,000 Iowa Candy Company, ... 10,000 Total $35,000

It seems almost a miracle that more property was not destroyed as the building which was burned is in the heart of the city. Just south of it is the large wholesale grocery house of the Shenker Company. On the north is the retail dry goods store of Davidson Bros., occupying a whole half block, and containing thousands of dollars' worth of perishable goods. It required the services of a bucket brigade to save the latter building, and even then it looked for nearly two hours as if human efforts would be of no avail.

Sparks in all directions over the city, but good luck seemed to be on the side of the owners of other property, as there was no fire. The most serious loss is to the candy company, which was working an extra force of seventy-five people to get ready for the holiday trade. It will have to cancel its orders, they can not be filled now. Its machinery is a total loss and more could not be secured in time to do any good. The building will be rebuilt at once, and in the meantime Selzer Bros. will find new quarters.

AMANA SOCIETY SETTLES.

Collateral Inheritance Tax of $1,000 Paid Up.

Des Moines, Nov. 17.—The Amana Society of Iowa county yesterday paid to the treasurer of state $1,000, representing the collateral inheritance tax on the estate of William Moerschel, a member of the society. The payment was made in pursuance of the decision of the attorney general, who held that it must be made just as if the estate had been accumulated in the ordinary ways of private business.

The Amana Society's plan of organizing provides that one on becoming a member takes a certain interest in the organization and in its prosperity. During the period of his membership his interest is at all times carefully shown on the books of the organization, and he may withdraw at any time and take out whatever he is entitled to, that is, he may draw the surrender value of his stake at that time. William Moerschel died, leaving no direct heirs. His interest in the society went to collateral heirs, and the books showed that it amounted to about $18,000. On this the inheritance tax, at 5 per cent, amounted to nearly $1,000. The society objected to paying this tax on the ground that the individual interest of Mr. Moerschel could not be treated as an ordinary private estate. The attorney general held that it was so subject and the society promptly paid the tax.

Business Opportunities.

The B. C. R. & N. railway is constructing a new line north and west from Worthington, Minn., to the west line of the state, which will be completed within the year. The country through which the line passes is the best in northwestern Minnesota, is practically all under cultivation and thickly settled by well-to-do farmers, who have been going fifteen and twenty miles to market. Arrangements have been made to lay out towns at the most advantageous locations for business. These towns will need stores and shops of all kinds and merchants will find favorable openings on this new line. Doctors and professional men will also find good locations.

This company is also constructing a line from Armstrong to Estherville, Ia. There will be two new towns on this line named Maple Hill and Irwin, and investors will find splendid opportunities at either of these points.

The railway company will, as it has always done, join with the business men of its towns to build up centers of trade.

A MEASURE OF MERIT.

Marshalltown Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence. Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in Marshalltown is not the testimony of strangers, but the endorsement of Marshalltown people.

That's the kind of proof given here. The statement of a Marshalltown citizen: Mr. R. H. Deacon, of 403 North Third street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did me a world of good. I had a good deal of pain through my kidneys, commonly called backache. The secretions from these organs were excessive. Knowing the danger of neglect of kidney difficulties I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at McBride & Will's drug store. Their use soon relieved the pains in my back, the kidney secretions became normal, and in a short time I was cured."
