THE CITY IN BRIEF.

Dr. Mighell, surgeon and physician. Abstracts, loans, B. F. Cummings. Masque ball, Forney's Hall Thursday.

A ten-hours' steady rain just now is invaluable. H. E. Simkins, undertaking exclusively. Second door west of postoffice.

A liberal reward will be paid for the return of the private papers stolen from my safe on Nov. 9, 1899. G. W. Beasley.

Mrs. W. S. McBride is still suffering from the throat trouble which has kept her confined to her home for the past ten days.

Lost or Stolen—English fox terrier puppy, white, with black mark over one eye. Reward will be given for its return to J. H. Stundell's care.

Trainmaster E. E. Karwin, of the Central, spent Monday and Tuesday in the superintendent's office, putting on the finishing touches to the new time card.

Gen. and Mrs. B. A. Beson and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beson were in Liscomb today in attendance at the funeral of their brother-in-law, the late Thomas J. McKibben.

Chief Clerk H. L. Laird, of the Central passenger department, left for Chicago Monday night, and today was present at a rate meeting of the Western Passenger Association.

Dining room tables, the largest and best assorted stock in Iowa, and prices to suit everybody. Come in and let us show you what we have. D. C. Wilbur, Box Five furniture department.

A message has been received announcing the birth this morning of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. John Fenner, of Harvard, Ill. Mrs. Fenner was formerly Miss Lucy Mitchell, of this place.

Commandant C. C. Horton, of the Soldiers' Home, went to Des Moines this morning, where he will attend the banquet this evening at the Savery of the state commandery of the Loyal Legion.

The art department of the Women's Club will give the program tomorrow, their subject being, "American Artists and Sculptors." Mrs. C. F. Schaefer is chairman of the department, and the members will give short talks.

Stop in at D. C. Wilbur's and see the new baby grand davenport couch, which may be converted into a divan also. It is a very handsome piece of furniture and would make some one extremely happy if they should receive it for Christmas.

Merit always wins. When you can buy a piano that is recommended by the best musicians all over the world, and buy it of a strictly reliable house, why would you even look at any other piano? It is the Emerson, sold by the Tuffee music house.

Received today, a large invoice of fine alabaster ware. Lovers of art will find something beautiful to adorn their homes and school rooms. In busts, plaques, panels, figures and medallions. C. D. Lusby & Co. Look for our window display.

An elegant line of the real Coughless kid gloves, all colors, worth $1.25 a pair, for 98 cents. Hoyt's Department Store. General Superintendent C. W. Huntington, of the Central, was in the capital city looking after business matters Monday.

Ralston entire wheat bread, baked fresh every day, at Sundell's Cafe and Bakery. There is none better or more wholesome. J. H. Stundell was at Mason City yesterday making arrangements to open up a restaurant, will take his son Julius in partnership with him.

V. A. Caldwell, of 509 South Third street, fell ten feet this noon while at work on the gluecase company's plant and his left ankle was badly bruised and sprained.

You can not warm a house evenly without circulation. The Anderson heater takes the cold air from the floor and pays for itself in fuel saved. Hundreds of them now are in use in Marshalltown.

The east-bound passenger No. 2, on the C. & N. W., due into this city at 2 o'clock this morning, did not arrive until 8:30. The delay was caused by the lateness of the Union Pacific into Jewellburg, Neb.

Miss Kate Shelley, the heroine of Missouri history, passing on her city Monday evening on the Northwestern's Colorado special, en route to her home in Moingona from Dubuque, where she has been on a visit with friends.

The Hawk Eye, the car of the Central officials, was sent south on No. 4 this morning at 1:40, bound for Chicago, via Nemo and the A. T. & S. Fe road, where it will be given into the service of the Chicago directors of the company, who will arrive here Thursday morning via the Rock Island & Peoria.

Mrs. C. H. Young was brought to the city Monday evening from Hampton, suffering from a severe spell of nervous exhaustion. She was accompanied by her husband, Engineer Young, of the Central, and was taken to her home in a carriage immediately after her arrival. Mrs. Young went to Hampton on Friday last to visit her husband, who is working out of that point at present. Her illness was very sudden, although she has been subject to attacks of nervous trouble for some time.

Mr. Chauncey D. Stoddard, of Longmont, Col., arrived in the city Monday evening from Chicago, and will remain for a visit until after Thanksgiving with his wife, Mrs. M. Brunner, of this city, and Mrs. Amos Hall, residing south of town. Mr. Stoddard has but recently returned from the Philippine Islands, where he served as a sergeant in Company B, First Colorado volunteer infantry. He has been spending the past few weeks and points in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Johnston and their mother, Mrs. J. C. Gilbert, arrived in the city Monday evening from Clinton, where they have been visiting at the Ira Johnston home. Mrs. Gilbert has been at her daughter's home in Clinton since last summer and Mrs. Joseph Johnston has been visiting there a few weeks, going for the purpose of accompanying her mother here to spend the winter. Mr. Johnston has been in Clinton since the recent meeting of the officers of the State Firemen's Association at Marion.

An enjoyable evening was spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Gifford. Their daughter Lulu was 19 years old last week and her sister Esther was 8 years old Sunday and guests invited for the occasion included the little girls' teachers, whether of the public schools, Sunday schools, mission band or music. The evening was spent with games and Mrs. Gifford served dainty refreshments. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Scott, daughter Lola and sons Walter and Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. James Bricker, Mrs. C. H. Smith and son Russell; Misses Orpha Stephens, Grace McMahon, Blanche McLarnan, Carrie Andrews, Della Chinnstrand and Valcosa Vall.

Lewis Morrison's most charming production "Faust," presented by a company of unusual excellence, will be seen at the Odeon tomorrow night. Of "Faust" much might be written, but one can not attempt to review it in a short article, its beauty, power and greatness being known from end to end of this broad land. To grasp its full intent one must witness its enactment at every opportunity, for it is a study of humanity and teaches a lesson of deep significance. This being so, farewell to it undoubtedly will be greeted by a large house. The beautiful scenery and marvelous electric effects will not soon be forgotten. Prices only 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

The case brought by Dick Perry against Peter Swedberg was dismissed by Justice Burritt Monday night, without a hearing, the justice holding that it could not proceed unless the county attorney wished to appear. Mr. Swedberg says there was nothing in the charges of assault brought against him, and that he had not been near enough to the complainant or any member of his family to assault them had he so desired. He says the trouble grew out of the fact that he had placed a fence that had been placed across a road adjoining his premises, the land for half the alley having been donated by himself and others, while the other half has not been deeded to the city.

Masque ball, Forney's Hall Thursday. James Livingston, a laborer residing on North Center street near the city's new pumping station, was assaulted by two strangers in front of a North Center street saloon Monday. Mayor Pierce, who was on his way home, arrested one of Livingston's assailants and the police were given a description of the other. The man arrested gave his name as R. Blackburn and was arraigned at 3 o'clock before Mayor Pierce on a charge of disorderly conduct, for which he was assessed the costs. Another information, charging assault was issued against Blackburn, and the case on this charge was heard by Justice Allen Monday evening. The defendant was discharged upon payment of the costs.

Masque ball, Forney's Hall Thursday. Dr. Janss, physician and surgeon. Masque ball, Forney's Hall Thursday. See our line of Batavia canned goods, peaches, pine apple and pears, Nothing better. Reynolds, Watson & Co.

For Sale—Densmore typewriter; been used two years; in good condition; will sell cheap. Address 99, care Times-Republican.

Ex-Governor Packard and Mr. J. M. Hughes, the latter of Lucas, left Monday for Chicago, where they will attend a meeting of Hereford stock men. Edward Farrell, of this city, is among the recruits recently enlisted at Des Moines for service in the infantry branch of the army. Farrell is a son of James P. Farrell, of 311 South Third street.

Masque ball, Forney's Hall Thursday. THE ROYAL BOX. An Extraordinary Dramatic Treat at the Odeon Friday Night.

It is a genuine pleasure to announce the coming of one of the very finest performers Marshalltown has seen. It will be Mr. Charles Coghlan in his famous play, "The Royal Box," on Friday evening, Nov. 24.

"The Royal Box" is a strong romantic drama adapted by Mr. Coghlan from Dumas' "Kean." It is thrilling in dramatic interest, strong in situations, most delightful in characterizations, introducing prominent personages—royalty, diplomats and actors—when the prince of Wales was a patron of the theater.

Mr. Coghlan as "Clarence"—England's leading actor in 1810—gives a finished and brilliant piece of artistic acting. He is surrounded by a large company of talented artists, by a large and lavishly mounted, a large car load of special scenery, antique furniture, furnishings, etc., in full keeping with the time, being employed. The principal scenes are all laid in London and include the Swedish embassy, the actor's lodgings, the inn and the stage of the Drury Lane Theater. It will be an artistic treat rarely enjoyed.

I. C. SPEERS, Manager Odeon Theater. "If Mr. Coghlan had done nothing else it would establish him as one of the greatest living players."—Harpers' Weekly. "The greatest English-speaking actor in the world in high-class comedy roles."—Washington Star.

W. C. HAVILAND DEAD. Former Marshalltown Resident and Business Man Dies in Minneapolis Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander, residing seven miles northwest of State Center, or near St. Anthony, received a telegram at 5 o'clock Monday evening announcing the death of their brother-in-law, Mr. W. C. Haviland, of Minneapolis, which occurred at his home in that city Monday afternoon. The news was very unexpected, although it was known that Mr. Haviland was ill with an attack of pneumonia. That his condition was all serious, however, was not known to Mr. and Mrs. Alexander. Mr. Alexander left at 2 o'clock this morning, via the Iowa Central, for Minneapolis, to attend the funeral, which will be held Thursday afternoon.

Will Haviland was for many years a business man of Marshalltown, being engaged in the grocery trade here for about twelve years. He left here in the early '90s, going to Minneapolis, where he engaged in the grocery business again. Some years ago, however, he afflicted himself with Mr. Frank Bosworth's ailment, and his condition was such that he was unable to do his work. He was engaged in the grocery business, but last fall the partnership was dissolved. Mr. Haviland was still engaged in that industry, however, at the time of his death.

Mr. Haviland's last visit to Marshalltown was last fall, when he accompanied his wife and daughter, Miss Kellie, who spent two weeks or so at the Alexander home. He leaves but the one child by his present wife, although an older son, by his first marriage, is living. Mr. Marsh H. Haviland, a brother of the deceased, is a resident of this city.

A True Friend. A friend in need is a friend indeed. That is exactly what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is. It is the mother's help when she is suddenly awakened in the night by the ominous husky cough and labored breathing of her babe. It is the safe resort of the youth or adult when he has "caught cold" and there is coughing and irritation of the mucous membrane of the throat. It always relieves the irritation and cures the cold. For sale by druggists.

CROWDS AT SCHOBERT'S. Taking Advantage of the Great Closing Out Sale.

Notwithstanding the stormy weather today the closing-out sale at Schobert's has been a great success. The stock is so great and the closing-out prices are so low that neither rain nor storm will stop the rush for the bargains that are being offered at Schobert's store. Many goods are being sold regardless of price and judicious buyers will see to it that they are getting the stock on an early inspection. It's a money saver for you to buy at Schobert's.

Mrs. Charles G. Rhoads, of Denver, has been in the city for the past five weeks as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Morgan, and sister, Mrs. Thad D. Evans, left this morning for Lake City, where she will visit a week before leaving for her home.

Miss Kate Armbruster arrived home Monday evening from her seven weeks' absence from home, spent at Omaha and Denison. In Omaha Miss Armbruster was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Stebbin and Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Conner, and at Denison of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Kuehne.

Miss Emma Bureh, of State Center, who has been visiting her friend, Miss Sadie Martin, of Albion, spent Monday in the city in company with Miss Martin, and returned to her home in the evening. Miss Martin will remain in the city for a week's visit at the home of her brother, Mr. G. L. Martin.

NO DEFINITE CLUE. Officers Still in the Dark Regarding Identity of Safe Crackers. The officers are watching every point in the effort to obtain a clue to the identity of the men who robbed the safe of the Southwestern Mutual Insurance Company Monday at noon. While several suspicious circumstances are being looked into, nothing definite has developed as yet.

Mr. W. H. Hargrave, who has an office in the southwest corner of the court house, and who remains in his office during the noon hour, reported to Sheriff McPherson after the robbery Monday that he had heard some one try the Acme Life Insurance office door, located between his and the Southwestern, about 12:50 o'clock. Some one was in his office and he was busy talking, consequently did not pay any very great attention to the occurrence, although he remarked at the time about the strangeness of any one trying to get into an insurance office at the noon hour. After unsuccessfully trying the door the man left the court house by the south side door furthest west, at which time Mr. Hargrave caught a glimpse of him. He gave a description of him, as near as he could remember, to the sheriff.

Mr. Charles Seager was with Mr. Hargrave at the time, and says he would judge that the man seen would weigh about 170 pounds, was rather short and stooped slightly when he walked. The man wore a dark coat and was a stranger to Mr. Seager.

SURE TO ASK. The Kind of Coffee When Postum is Well Made. "Three great coffee drinkers were my old school friends and her two daughters. They were always complaining and taking medicine. I determined to give them Postum Food Coffee instead of coffee when they visited me, so without saying anything to them about it I made a big pot of Postum the first morning, using four heaping teaspoons to the pint of water and letting it boil twenty minutes, stirring down occasionally. Before the meal was half over each one passed up the cup to be refilled, remarking how fine the coffee was. The mother asked for a third cup and inquired as to the brand of coffee I used. I didn't answer her question just then, for I had heard her say a while before that she didn't like Postum Food Coffee unless it was more than half old-fashioned coffee.

"After breakfast I told her that the coffee she liked so well at breakfast was pure Postum Food Coffee, and the reason she liked it was because it was properly made; that is, it was boiled long enough to bring out the flavor. I have been bringing it up from a nervous, wretched invalid to a fine condition of physical health by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. "I am doing all I can to help the world out of coffee slavery to Postum freedom, and have earned the gratitude of many, many friends." Myra J. Tulner, 1023 Troost avenue, Kansas City, Mo.
