John Johnson, the man sentenced to fifteen days in jail for violating the quarantine rules, was released Wednesday night, because his child, which is ill with diphtheria, was not expected to survive the night. Rev. E. S. Stucker, of Chicago, will be in the city the coming week for the purpose of conducting a series of revival meetings at the Baptist church. The services will commence on Sunday and will continue a week or ten days. The Elf Club, a social organization that held many pleasant sessions last year, held a reunion with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Werlich last evening, at which time two former members, Mr. and Mrs. Will Barry, of Chicago, were present. Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hole, Mr. K. C. Roberts and Mr. A. C. Lookwood were in State Center today, attending the funeral of Mrs. Thomas Triplett, who died Wednesday from injuries received by falling down a flight of stairs the day before. Mrs. Ida Maas, of Cedar Rapids, who has been in the city the past two seasons training in the city's Department Store, went to Centerville Wednesday evening, where she will visit friends for about two weeks. From there she will return to her home. Mr. C. L. Winterowd and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hamlin, who live about ten miles east of the city, departed Wednesday evening for Hibernia, Mo., where they will remain until spring. It is not improbable that the families will decide to locate in Missouri. The Beethovens met Wednesday afternoon with Miss Bessie Blossom, owner of the lateness of the hour when the musical director took charge, only a short program was given, consisting of a vocal solo by Miss Blossom, piano solos by Mrs. E. Lawrence and Miss Abene Patterson and a paper on Beethoven by Mrs. F. G. Stewart. Mrs. E. O. Houghman will entertain at the next meeting at her home, 210 North Third avenue. To seventy friends Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simmons issued cards for progressive dinner for Wednesday evening. The house was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and a profusion of potted palms and plants. In the games of cards Mrs. T. J. Fletcher and Mr. G. W. McNeely were given the first prizes, and Mrs. G. L. Whitney, of Iowa Falls, and Mr. C. R. Wiley received the consolation. In serving a dainty repast Mrs. Simmons was assisted by Mrs. W. W. Shannon and Mrs. J. L. Carney. Veteran J. Van Treese, of the Soldiers' Home, left Wednesday evening for Ottumwa, where today he enjoyed Thanksgiving turkey at the home of his sister, Mrs. Susan Rugg. He will not return to the city for ten days, going from there to Lebanon, Van Buren county, where he will visit another sister, Mrs. A. Van Fleet. Mr. Van Treese is a pioneer resident of Van Buren county, settling there forty years ago, when Iowa was comparatively a new state. Mr. Ira C. Belden, of Chicago, assistant claim agent of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, was in the city Wednesday to investigate the injury of the man, Henry Crawford, who was quite badly injured a few days ago at Quarry by being struck by passenger train No. 3. Crawford left for Clinton this morning, where a brother resides. He is very tighty yet, but it seems that the condition is a natural one for him, and that he has been considered to be "not right" for years. A friend of the brother, from Clinton, came here to accompany Crawford to that city. A large invoice of hanging hall racks at Densel & Wilbur's. Something new and novel. See them.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Frances Smith and daughter, Mrs. James Bricker, No. 412 South Third street.

We never know anything until we find it out. Years of experience have demonstrated that the Anderson heater is the greatest fuel-saving device on earth. It produces complete circulation in all rooms adjacent to it.

If you don't believe it, come and see. Come in and select your Christmas presents.

Mr. M. G. Doolittle celebrated today the second anniversary of his engagement in the real estate business in this city and provided his friends with choice cigars. Mr. Doolittle has been very successful in his business operations here, especially so when considering the fact that he probably the youngest man in the business in Marshalltown and was at a disadvantage in having as his competitors men of years and experience. He is determined to make his third year a bigger one than ever.

To be a guest at the home of Miss Josephine Welch last evening was a rare treat. The guests were received by little Miss Kathryn, sister of the hostess, and were shown into the parlors by Misses Marie and Helen Welch. Miss Josephine was assisted in entertaining by Misses Frances Mooney and Minnie Daley. During the evening games were played, the most interesting being a zoological fair. Miss Agnes Collins was awarded a prize for guessing the greatest number of animals which were represented in various ways, and Frank Kearns received the booby prize. Light refreshments were served by Miss Welch, who was assisted by Mrs. Hayes and the Misses Ella McCrack, Marie Higgins, Kathryn Mooney and Frances McManus. Those present were Misses Anna Hayes, Mary Narey, Mayms Swift, Mary McMahon, Agnes Collins, Minnie Daley, Frances Mooney, Messrs. James Mitchell, Peter Griffin, Frank Kunkel, Frank Kearns, Gus Lang, William Gayne, William Cahill, Ed. Eshay, John Coghlin, George Spies and P. J. McCavick.

Zachary Taylor, a descendant of old "Uncle Sam" and "Old Fuss and Feathers," once president of the United States, who was injured on the Northwestern at Quarry about ten days ago by having his left leg broken by the falling of a pile, left Wednesday evening for his home in Council Bluffs. Taylor is yet far from being well enough to travel, and fainted at the depot Wednesday evening while waiting for the train. He is very anxious, however, to spend Thanksgiving with his wife and family, and was given permission to travel and furnished with a pass by Mr. Ira C. Belden, of Chicago, assistant claim agent of the Northwestern. Although extremely youthful in appearance, Taylor is a married man and is 35 years of age, having a wife and four children. He has worked for the Northwestern eleven years and this is his first accident of any consequence. Taylor's ancestry is traced directly to the ex-president. His father is J. J. Taylor, a farmer of Little Sioux, Harrison county, and his grandfather, Henry Taylor, was a half brother of Zachary Taylor.

The Northwestern improvements in the yards at this point are about completed. The track has been raised six inches, or even with the depot platform. Coarse gravel has been used in abundance and a covering of finer gravel and sand has been placed between the double tracks. The next improvement to be made, which will be completed, it is thought, before long, will be the placing of a new platform between the tracks and extending far enough south to take in the Central tracks. The only thing then lacking to make Marshalltown's depot as good as the best of them will be the placing of an overhead covering for the tracks. During rains and snow storms passengers are greatly inconvenienced by having to alight from trains which are not under cover. This condition will be found to be true in winter, on stormy days, by the passengers on the Northwestern's west-bound trains, on which passengers are now loaded and unloaded on the south track without any cover whatever. The passengers are compelled to alight and get on the train on the south side of the train in order to avoid any rain, or east-bound trains on the next track, and they are compelled to walk around the long trains in order to get under cover.

Give the Children a Drink Called Grain. It is delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it, because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee, but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant, but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about one-fourth as much as coffee. Fifteen and 25 cents.

Notice. Owing to the loss and dissatisfaction of laundering shirts at a reduced price that have been washed by the customer, and sent to the laundry to be starched and ironed, we have decided that after Nov. 29, 1899, to charge the regular list price for all shirts whether received from the customer washed or unwashed, and all shirts received from customers washed, with the request to starch and iron without rewashing, will be laundered at the customer's risk of being satisfactory.

W. J. FLITTON, R. F. WEIGEL, MRS. M. LAUGHEY, A. D. MEKKEK.

Stop that cough right away, with Mull's Lightning Cough Cure; 25 cents. For sale by McBride & Will Drug Co.

TEAM GOES TO ELDORA.

Athletic Association Foot Ball Eleven Does Battle With Town Team at Eldora.

The members of the foot ball eleven of the Marshalltown Athletic Association, left this morning at 9:45 for Eldora in the best of spirits and confident of winning the laurels in the last game of the season with the Eldora Athletic Association.

The Marshalltown team is even stronger than it was at the last game, with Bangor, and if it fails to win it will be because luck is against it. The lineup, as arranged by Capt. Rice, when the team left this city, was as follows: Rice, left end; Richeson, left tackle; Scott, left guard; Packard, center; Pigman, right guard; Schooley, right tackle; Jones, right end; quarter, Reynolds and Wilson; left half, Beebe; right half, Beckwith; full back, Zwick. The substitutes who accompanied the team were Weaver, Sargent, Hubler and Stern. Manager Morse accompanied the eleven, as did also the following rooters: Clarence Bates, Claude Culley, Earl Bigalow, Will James, Fred Weber, Earl Stedda, E. Will, Cunningham, Al Fredland, Frank Sherlock, Gus Johnson, Maurice Lawrence, Fred Johnson, Roscoe Adams, Chester Claus, Roy Woods, Paul Shetler, George Olson, George Owings, Will Hellen, Gus Lang, Will A. Brown, Byron Carpenter, L. O. Meryman and C. Peterson.

Nevada Plays a Shabby Trick. The high school had no game in Marshalltown this afternoon, owing to the failure of the Nevada team to show up. To make matters worse, it was not known until Wednesday evening that the eleven would not come. A card to the effect that the team was coming was written the 28th and received after supper Wednesday, said that the team had disbanded and would not be here to keep its engagement. Manager Reed was at a loss to know what to do, but as he had advertised a game he was determined to make sure with Nevada and to get some sort of a satisfactory excuse, he telephoned the manager of that eleven, but got no satisfaction. He then telephoned the manager of the Oskaloosa high school team, but that team was already having a game and could not come. Waterloo team was asked and the manager stated it would be impossible to get the boys together at that late date. State Center was appealed to, and promised to come providing the weather was favorable. A Collins was away at the depot this morning, it was learned, but as all the members were not there the rest did not come. They were telephoned again, but declined to come on account of the rain. As a consequence the game had to be abandoned.

Nevada seems to be a hoodoo to the Marshalltown eleven, as a game had been scheduled last year and the weather prevented. The arrangements for the game today were made two weeks ago and should the Nevada eleven have decided to disband for the season, it should certainly have come to that conclusion before the eleventh hour. Manager Reed says that he has understood that Nevada had a game scheduled with Ames and that that is the reason the team did not come here. This has not been verified, however, and but little credence is placed in it.

DEPUTY GARVEY RETIRES.

Gives Up His Duties in Sheriff's Office to Look After Business Matters.

Wednesday evening Deputy Sheriff M. M. Garvey severed his connection with the sheriff's office. The action was voluntary, Mr. Garvey's part and agreeable to Sheriff McPherson, and was taken in order to enable Mr. Garvey to look after some private business matters that need his attention. As he expected to retire on January 4, he concluded his interests would be best served by giving up his public duties at once. Mr. Ed L. Staat, who has acted as bailiff during several terms of court, will fill out the remainder of Mr. Garvey's term. The latter has made a careful and competent official and has added strength to Sheriff McPherson's administration.

MARRIED.

Asay-Martine. At Toledo Wednesday Justice Dingee united in marriage Dr. E. M. Asay and Mrs. Georgia Martine, both of this city. Dr. Asay is a veterinarian of Marshalltown, formerly residing at State Center, but has been a resident here for the past two years. Mrs. Martine has been in the city for several years and was the mother of the child who was accidentally burned to death at the Fred Russe home last winter.
