Hundreds Tell of the Change Which They Have Felt.

The Time Comes for Iowa People to Tell What Has Been Done for Them.

The time has come when people in Iowa feel the change. Many people in this city have given voluntary endorsement of the great change they have felt after using Morrow's Kid-Ne-Oids.

SORT OF BOILED OVER

New York's Financial Flurry Natural Result of Unprecedented Rise in Values.

Investment in Industrials of Doubtful Values Required Too Much Cash Margin.

And the Monetary Supply Was Thus Depleted—General Situation is Good.

New York, Dec. 23.—The worst day in Wall street for years was in part the legitimate result of the best year in business ever known. Because the country had prospered so greatly and had expanded its business it could no longer afford to have many millions locked up in carrying stocks representing imaginary values.

By looking from the highest general average last spring, industrial stocks had fallen at the close on Monday 23.75 percent, street railroad stocks 28.90 percent, and agricultural and telegraph stocks 6.95 percent.

As a result of the recent flurry in Wall street R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, says of present business conditions in the country:

The business of the country close to the money is necessarily smaller than it has been, and yet longer than at the present time in any other year.

Yielding appears at least in hides at Chicago. In those kinds of about one-quarter of a cent, with evidence that the demand could not be sustained.

High prices for iron ore are wonderful. Sustained for stock taking and the market is not so good as it was.

These are the most recent fluctuations in the London market for tin, but the tin price here is slightly lower.

What has fallen in both in foreign exchange and in prices, in spite of still greater loss in western receipts—for the week only 2,206,250 bushels, against 7,349,170 last year.

HITS AT STATE BOARD

Regent Ingham Incensed at the Board of Control's Report on University.

And Proceeds to Read Them a Lecture in the Algona Upper Des Moines.

Delends Business Methods at the School and Makes Some Caustic Comments.

Special to the Times-Republican. Algona, Dec. 23.—Harvey Ingham, a university regent and editor of the Upper Des Moines, has taken a hard rap at the board of control.

Under the head of "Essentially Quibbles," this week's issue of the Algona Upper Des Moines comments as follows on the report of the board of control on the State University:

The board of control has filed a report on the management of the State University, which is so quibbling in the character of its criticisms that it is not to be believed.

The board says the regents allowed the widow of President Schaefer his salary without legal authority.

President Schaefer died Sept. 24 a few weeks after the school year had opened. The board estimated that his work for the year had been so fully done that stopping his salary at Nov. 1 would not be more than an actual payment.

The board of control says the regents had no authority to pay the funeral expenses of President Schaefer.

THE COUNTY PHYSICIAN

Figures on the Cost of Medical Attendance on the Pauper.

Special to Times-Republican. Eldora, Dec. 23.—The figures of medical attendance for the paupers of the county come up at the January session of the board of supervisors.

The present doctors are Hunt, of Union, and Himmell, of Iowa Falls, who have done all the work.

At the rate paid them it costs the county about $1,200 a year for doctoring the poor.

Under the old way it cost the county about $4,000 a year. It is not thought the bids for medical attendance next year will be any higher.

WISE DENIES REPORT

Representative From Black Hawk Indicates He is for Gear.

Special to Times-Republican. Waterloo, Dec. 23.—In an interview in the Courier, regarding the statement in a Des Moines paper that he told a reporter for a Gear organ he would vote for Eaton and Cummings, Representative Wise said:

"I have not seen a Gear organ which has printed anything purporting to be an interview with me. I have not been interviewed by a Gear organ, or any other paper in regard to the senatorial situation. I was in Des Moines a day or two this week, and during the time I was there I visited extensively with the men at the Gear headquarters.

This purported interview is an indication of the reliability which may be placed on the news sent out by some of the Des Moines correspondents and papers. There is no truth in it. I intend on the senatorial question to represent the people of Blackhawk county."

OUR AUTHORITY FOR IT! DO WE HANDLE LOWER VEIN COAL? READ. OFFICE OF W. D. JOHNSON & CO. COAL CO. H. H. CANFIELD, MANAGER. Boonsboro, Iowa, Aug. 31, 1898. Dear Sir:—In reply to your favor of this date, we will say that for us to claim that we have the best coal, will have but little weight unless the consumer has tried it. Every operator in Boone thinks he has the best coal, but when we permit sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure female troubles in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chaitano Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of women's weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure. A LARGE BOTTLE OF WINE OF CARDUI COSTS $1.00 AT THE DRUG STORE.

WINE OF CARDUI. Woman's Crowning Virtue. For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and so I tried a bottle of Wine of Cardui. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years. MRS. MINNIE LITTLE. Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure female troubles in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chaitano Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of women's weaknesses and irregularities.
