WHAT THEY ARE DOING

Affairs of Iowa People Taking Place in Iowa Towns.

Public Opinion on Iowa Subjects as Reflected in the Iowa Newspapers.

The News of Iowa From Hundreds of Different Towns and Communities.

A RECORD OF CRIME. [Council Bluffs Nonpareil.]

The clerk of the district court is compiling the report of the court on the criminal business for the year ending September 30. It shows thirty-six sentences in all; eighteen of these were penitentiary sentences, with an aggregate of fifty-five years, of which twenty years went to Gregory, the horse thief, and ten to Cunningham, the colored burglar who went thru J. Stewart's residence. The jail sentences for the year have been eleven in number, with an aggregate of 760 days. Money fines were imposed in seven cases, with an aggregate of $300. The crimes for which punishment was thus meted out rank as follows in point of frequency of commission: Deceit, 10; larceny, 6; assault on various kinds, 6; cheating by false pretenses, 4; gambling, 3; adultery and kindred offenses, 2; forgery, 2; robbery, 1; malicious damage to building, 1.

TRYING TO BEAT THE CONDUCTOR. [Glenwood Opinion.]

A conductor's life is not all fraught with sunshine, for there are innumerable dead beats who make his life a thorny one at times. The other day on a Burlington train a young man was lying in a seat apparently asleep. Conductor Stanfield had charge of the train and on coming to the feigning sleeper there was a check carefully placed there in its holder on the side of the car. The conductor knew at a glance he was being worked and told the fellow so. The young man professed innocence and swore he had paid his fare. However, he produced his money. When the conductor had gone the young fellow turned about and said with a laugh, "It takes a good one to get ahead of that guy." Here is a good sermon for the boys on the subject of spending so much time and labor trying to get out of work when it is easier to do right and pay your way thru life. Such a young man as this has lost his self respect and all comes from trying to live without labor.

BIG SUGAR BEETS. [Madrid New-Register.]

Dr. Farr brought a sugar beet to our office yesterday that weighed 10 pounds. The total length is 18 inches and 19 inches in circumference. He bought a few seeds of Cray Bros. & Co. last spring and planted two rows about sixteen rods long with sugar beet seed. He has not given them any care, but in spite of that they have grown this size. The one he brought to our office, was picked up in a row well crowded with beets. He thinks he will have 200 bushels in his patch. This is a good point in favor of raising sugar beets around here. It would only take 200 of his beets to make a ton, and that would sell at $4. Around Fort Dodge, he says, the yield is forty tons to the acre, and at $40 a ton would bring $1600. Suppose $100 would be expended for the work, there would still be a gain of $60 an acre. That is better than either oats, corn, hogs or cattle will bring. It proves that sugar beets can successfully be raised around here, as the doctor has given no care to his, and still they have grown this size.

SHIRKING RESPONSIBILITY. [Spirit Lake Beacon.]

"If we can not elect our ticket we can at least maintain our self respect" recently remarked a leader of the prohibition party. This sounds well as a jingle of words, but it will hardly bear serious consideration. Assuming that the great parties by the people voted with power to perform the functions of government are far from what they ought to be ideally speaking, is it the part of noble manhood to assume to divorce itself from the real responsibilities of practical politics in order to avoid anything like personal compromise? If to be good is simply to shirk the duties which make for the best practical results in life, personal goodness is far worse than weakness. If to maintain self respect is to avoid practical contact with the contests in which are settled the policies of politics—the principles of government—self respect is indeed so cheap and vain as to be wholly undesirable. Voters who align themselves with numbers who flock in small bands because neither of the great parties will make a shibboleth to individual liking wash their hands of all responsibility in connection with national, state, county and city government. It is the cheapest possible way to avoid the wear and tear of partisan strife—the importance of candidates and the choice between real political issues—but the man who really desires above all things political the best attainable results in popular government ought to find in such relations serious difficulty in quieting his sense of duty toward his country and his fellow man.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES

Hampden. The Chronicle says the receipts of the late Franklin county fair will more than pay expenses.

Grundy Center. The steam fixtures have arrived for the new hotel and work will be commenced in placing them in position at once.

Winterset. Several wagons amounting to $200, or more, have been made around the square on the outcome of the approaching election. In most cases the McKinley men gave odds.

Kossauqua. Maj. Hugh Brown, on the retired list of the United States army, and Lieut. Conrad Craig, of the United States navy, reached their home in Kossauqua last the question of identification. Miss Hamilton and her two sisters are quite positive that Mr. Smith is the man that broke into their home, although there were some slight discrepancies in their stories. The interesting point of identification is that Mr. Smith is a Jamaican negro and his voice has the French accent so prevalent in the French West Indies. It is partly by his voice that the Hamilton girls are enabled to identify him.

Red Oak. Sheriff Thomas has a temporary boarder who is quite a puzzle to the audience. He dropped into town Saturday, and his strange eccentricities soon made him before the insane commission. He seems to be in constant fear of enemies, for whom he is continually on the lookout. He says his name is Smith, but further than that nothing definite can be ascertained from him. As his case under the law properly belongs to the state board of control, he is detained in the county jail until action is taken by that body.

Glenwood. The old Barbee place which Ed Dalton has occupied has been rented by Ed Anderson of Mineola who paid $800 cash down for the rent of the 200 acres of Barbee land from March 1st, 1901, to March 1st, 1902. Harry E. Johnson, who has had charge of the canning department of the canning factory left Tuesday morning for his home at Baltimore, Maryland. Mr. Johnson has been a favorite here and his splendid voice will be missed from the choir of the Baptist church. The canning company has manufactured 1,200,000 cans this season.

Conrad. Adam Goulter, who has been having his eyes treated by a doctor in Ames, shallown the past few weeks, was a caller in town Wednesday. In conversation he told the Record of the singular way in which his eyes were injured. He says that in carrying some milk to one evening after dark some object struck him in the eye, and with some substance which caused a burning sensation. He did not pay much attention to it at the time, but when his eyes kept getting worse he decided to see a doctor, which was none too soon. He thinks it was a bat that hit him in the eyes, but is not certain.

Mason City. The Gazette, Judge Sherwin, who left yesterday for Des Moines, has been the busiest member of the supreme court this year. He has already written sixty-seven opinions and will before the close of the year write at least thirty-three more, making a total of 100. This is just about twice as many as a supreme judge writes in a year. His work on the Iowa bench is very heavy and judges are kept very busy. Judge Sherwin will have rendered probably a dozen more opinions at the end of the year than his associates because of the opinions left for him by his predecessor. However, the judge is strong and vigorous and is capable of a great deal of hard work.

Collar. M. E. Elliott, a journeyman painter in the employ of Mr. James Marquis, was last Wednesday evening arrested upon a warrant sworn out before Mayor Cragan by a woman who arrived here on the afternoon train from Des Moines, accompanied by her 5-year-old son, who claimed to be Elliott's wife. The arrest was made by City Marshal Cline, and in default of $500 bonds demanded by Mayor Cragan the prisoner was committed to the Newton jail to await the action of the grand jury. The charge against Elliott is adultery and the evidence against him is strong. He is now living with a Creston woman named Minnie Fewson, who disappeared as soon as indications denoted trouble, and who has been made a co-defendant by Mrs. Elliott in the charge against her husband.

He Owe His Life to the Forethought of a Companion. While on a camping trip in Webster county, Mr. S. I. Stump, of Norman-town, W. Va., had a very bad case of bloody flux. He says, "I firmly believe that I owe my life to the forethought of one of the company who had taken along a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Moral—Procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. It cannot be obtained when a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamship, and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you. Thousands of travelers never leave home on a journey without it. For sale by druggists.

For further information inquire of J. A. Ellis, ticket agent, Marshalltown, Iowa.

To License Slot Machines. Des Moines, Oct. 2.—An ordinance having for its object the licensing, regulation and suppression of automatic devices and slot machines, many of which are in operation in the cigar stores in the city, was passed by the council yesterday. Alderman Hall, who has several of these machines, is understood to be the father of the measure. He declined, when asked about it, to admit as much.

The ordinance provides that after its passage and publication no person, firm or corporation shall, as owner, lessee, agent or custodian, exhibit or keep for use or patronage, or to be operated or permitted to be so exposed, exhibited or kept for use within the corporate limits of the city, any automatic sales machine of any kind or description, or any automatic musical or picture machine, or any automatic lung tester or mechanical device commonly known as a slot machine of any kind or description without first paying a license fee.

Charged With Wife Beating. Fort Dodge, Oct. 2.—C. M. Hamilton, former city clerk and prominent politician, whose actions as wife-beater have brought him into prominence, was arraigned before Justice Blomgren yesterday morning and was placed under a $1000 bond to appear before district court, which will be called in Fort Dodge on Oct. 22. The charge which will be brought against Mr. Hamilton will be assault with intent to commit great bodily injury, the information being signed and sworn to by his wife, Mrs. Mary J. Hamilton.

Charged With Pocket Picking. Mason City, Oct. 2.—Bert Larrimore is under arrest here on the charge of taking $100 from the pockets of Ed Morris. The two men were playing pool and hung up their coats together. Morris found his money missing and demanded a search of those present. All agreed but Larrimore. The doors were locked, an officer sent for and the roll found on Larrimore.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost raw, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters. To my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and now I am a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents guaranteed, at George P. Powers' drug store.
