This morning's Des Moines Register says: "H. H. Abrams is quarantined at 107 Twentieth street and says over the telephone that it is an outrage that there is no smallpox or contagion hospital in Des Moines. He lives in the lower floor of a double house and one of the rooms above has the disease yet the whole building is closed up and will be for two months. Mr. Abrams is writing a commentary on Iowa temperance laws and how to enforce them and is preparing several bills for the next legislature."

A Marshall county boy, Ray Coppel, son of A. B. Coppel, of LeGrand township, has just passed thru a trying ordeal in Cheyenne, Wyo., according to a letter just received by relatives from the young man. Mr. Coppel has been in Cheyenne for some time and at present the Wyoming city is in the midst of a smallpox scare. Mr. Coppel was one of many who contracted the disease and has just been released from the pest house after a forty-day quarantine. Mr. Coppel writes that he had the disease in its most virulent form and at one time was in so critical a condition that his doctor gave him up as dead. In writing home he says: "I fooled them, however, and am now out of all danger."

The Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company has adopted a fumigation system as a smallpox preventive in addition to the precautions it has already taken in the way of compelling employees to be vaccinated. The company has now ordered that after every trip its coaches are to be thoroughly disinfected and fumigated just as the sleepers are. R. E. Gibbons is on the road at the various division points instructing the workmen how to use the disinfectant. The Northwestern so far as known is the only road taking this precaution systematically. Every coach on the system is disinfected after each run. The process is to hang a sheet or the bell rope in the coaches thoroughly saturated with formaldehyde and then close the coaches. This system is enforced conscientiously each day at all the division points.

The Northwestern fast east-bound train, No. 6, was again annulled Monday night owing to the failure of the Union Pacific to furnish connecting sleepers at Council Bluffs. No. 2 got thru late, taking what time it could there were from the coast east. The Colorado special east Monday was also abandoned, but in its place a train was made up at Council Bluffs and run east in order to accommodate what Iowa and Chicago traffic there might be. The Des Moines sleeper that usually runs east on No. 6 was placed on No. 1 Monday night. It is not known whether the trains will get past the great drift of snow at Ogalala, Neb., by tonight or not. If not the Northwestern will make ample provision for its traffic in some way late another special train have been made up in order to provide for the wants of passengers.

THE DE MOTTE LECTURE.

The Best on the Season's Y. M. C. A. Course.

The Railroad Y. M. C. A. saved one of the best entertainments of the season's course for the last, the course closing Monday night with a lecture by Professor De Motte. It was pronounced by all to have been the best lecture furnished by the association.

The Python Egg and the American Boy was the subject. The python was described as a harmless reptile until hungry, then it lies in wait for its prey, strikes with unerring accuracy, wraps its body around its victim, crushes it and prepares to enjoy its feast at its leisure.

Like the hungry python to the American boy when he allows his anger to control him. After the outburst is over, the punkin words said or the hasty action done, he is sorry for his anger, like the harmless python after he has dined. An action many times repeated forms a habit. Action determines brain structure, but in time this will be reversed and brain structure will determine action. With this outline of cause and effect Mr. De Motte proceeded to discuss instructively on the manner in which character is formed or deformed.

He dwelt upon the importance of proper formation of the young mind and character instead of attempting reformation after the formative period. If trained properly there is no need of reform.

After the close of the lecture the nature of the course were given an opportunity to vote on the attractions for next season's course, a list of available lecturers and concerts being supplied. Professor De Motte was first choice, Senator J. P. Dooliver second, and third place was a tie between Dr. Gunsaulus, Booker T. Washington, and Alexander Brooke. As musical attractions T. P. Brooke and his Chicago Marine Orchestra were the first choice. Seven attractions are to be selected, and the polls are still open for the votes of the Y. M. C. A. patron.

AMONG THE RAILWAYS. Rock Island Will Run Cheap Excursions to Colorado.

[Chicago Inter Ocean.] The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway, which made a phenomenal success of cheap excursion rates to Colorado last season, has again asked its competitors in the western and southwestern passenger associations to agree upon a series of cheap excursions to and from Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo for the approaching season, on the following basis. Tickets to be sold from Chicago and all territory up to the Missouri river, June 18, 25, July 16, 23 and 30, Aug. 6, 13, 20 and 27, at a rate of one fare, plus $2, or $31.50 for the round trip.

On July 2 and 9 and Sept. 3 and 10 a rate of $2.15 is to be made from Chicago, and $15 from Missouri river points, for the round trip. Intermediate territory will have proportionate rates. Tickets are to be sold from Missouri river points one day later than the dates given above in each case. Proportionate rates will be made to and from Glenwood Springs, Salt Lake City and Ogden.

A series of east-bound excursions is also proposed, tickets to be sold from Colorado common points every Thursday, commencing with June 29 up to and including Sept. 12, at a rate of one fare, plus $2, for the round trip. All tickets will be limited for return passage to Oct. 31. These rates will be tendered connecting lines for basing purposes, which will probably insure a very low basis of rates throughout the United States for these excursions.

The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific will unquestionably make these rates and arrangements effective, regardless of the action of its competitors, and will run special trains, only one night out to and from Colorado, on the dates named.

Hello.. No. 21. There is no household contrivance so convenient as a telephone. It brings you closer to your friends than the railroad. It saves you time in ordering supplies. It saves the lives of dear ones when sickness occurs. When burglars are in the house call the police by telephone. When your house is on fire sound the alarm by telephone. The cost is small, so very small that all can afford it.

The Grocer, Baker, Butcher, Doctor, Husband or Friend: But be sure you have the new 'phone, for your friends are on that line.
