WHEAT WEAK TODAY

Bullish Government Report Fails to Strengthen the Market.

Weakness Due Largely to Rains in Wheat Region-Corn Sells Lower.

Hogs Five Cents Higher, Closing Easier-Cattle and Sheep Steady.

[By Associated Press.]
Chicago, June 11.—In spite of the bullish government report there was much weakness in wheat today. This condition was due particularly to the extensive rains in the northwest and southwest. There was a considerable volume of trade. July opened 1/4 to 1/2 of a cent lower at 72 1/2 to 72 3/4, and under liberal offers by commission houses declined within the first hour to 71 3/4 to 71 1/2. Lower cables had much to do with the selling, and the prospect for further rain in the areas that have been suffering for moisture.

The decline in July continued to 71 1/2, after which on covering by shorts there was a recovery to 71 3/4 cents. Subsequently there was another decline to 71 1/4. The close was weak, 1/2 cent lower at 71 1/4.

In corn there seemed to be a general desire to sell and apparently the only buyers are profit takers. July opened 1/4 of a cent lower at 43 1/2 to 43 3/4, and under free offerings with selling for the outside account sold down to 42 1/2 before the end of the first hour. It looked like the whole pit was long and frightened on account of improved weather conditions.

The market under covering by the shorts later reacted to 42 3/4, where it closed weak, July 42 3/4 to 42 1/2, below yesterday's closing.

Rains in the west had a bearish effect on oats. July opened 1/4 of a cent lower at 27 1/2 to 27 3/4. Large country of buyers and weakness in other grains had much to do with the selling. The market steadied around 27 1/2 to 27 3/4. Higher prices for hogs caused an improvement in the provision market, but these prices soon eased off.

Boone Boy Steals a Horse and Then Gets Married Heron Style.

MARRIED LIKE HERRON.
Boone Boy Steals a Horse and Joins Sweetheart in Omaha. Special to Times-Republican.
Boone, June 11.—On the 28th of May Oscar Thompson, of Ogden, son of a well-to-do widow lady of that city, stole a horse belonging to one of his mother's tenants, William Heron, who lives about three miles north of Ogden. He disappeared from view and at about the same time Anna Selge, who formerly lived in Boone, left Ogden to whereabouts unknown. Sheriff Garner traced the pair as far as Des Moines and found they had disposed of the horse there and a sacrifice on Decoration Day. He then tracked them to Perry where they took the Milwaukee train to Omaha, arriving June 1st.

They secured rooms at a rather questionable house on South Sixteenth street and there met Miss Anna Selge and Frank O. Pierce, supposed to be enjoying their honeymoon. They were never married, however but are said to be much in love with each other.

Sheriff Garner at last located Thompson and arrested him at 5 o'clock Saturday morning, causing the pair to get out of bed. Thompson consented to come back into Iowa without extradition papers and arrived in Boone Saturday evening, and returned to Boone Sunday morning. Sheriff Garner traced the pair as far as Des Moines and found they had disposed of the horse there and a sacrifice on Decoration Day. He then tracked them to Perry where they took the Milwaukee train to Omaha, arriving June 1st.

CLIMATE AND CROPS.
Conditions Prevailing for the Past Week in Iowa.
Special to Times-Republican.
Des Moines, June 11.—The regular weekly weather and crop bulletin was issued today as follows:
The week closed with a favorable change in the condition of all crops, the temperature averaged from one to three degrees below normal. Showers on the 4th, 5th and 6th were fairly well distributed, and in some localities were quite heavy. Again on the 8th and early on the 10th, both copious showers accompanied ample moisture for present needs in nearly all sections of the state. The rainfall and cool weather have been beneficial to small grain, pastures and meadows. The hay crop, however, will be generally light, except in meadows consisting mainly of clover, which has made a good stand. Good progress has been made in cultivating corn, and the fields are generally quite clean. The growth has been retarded by cold nights, and the stand is much impaired in extensive areas but out-works, which have been unusually destructive.

Reports received from crop correspondents of this service make the following estimates of crop conditions: Winter wheat, 7 per cent, spring wheat, 33; corn, 90; oats, 83; rye, 95; barley, 93; flax, 89; meadows, 90; pastures, 93; and potatoes, 95. According to figures tabulated by Secretary Garrison of the Horticultural Society, fruit conditions are as follows: Apples, 52 per cent; American plums, 72; domestic plums, 73; Japanese plums, 63; cherries, 82; currants, 77; peaches, 85; grapes, 84; red raspberries, 69; black raspberries, 73; blackberries, 77; blueberries, 84; and strawberries, 76. The condition of farm animals is generally rated from 95 to 100 per cent and the spring pig crop is 85 per cent and foals 96.

The reports indicate that farmers are now holding about 15 per cent of the corn crop of 1900.

SAYS JESUS IGNORED SABBATH
Rev. Dr. Denman Tells His Hearers That Christ Did Not Observe Sabbath.
The pastor of the First Baptist church of Milwaukee, recently told his congregation Sunday that Jesus paid no more attention to the Sabbath than to any other day of the week. Dr. Denman said that Christ was a revolutionist. His hands were lifted against the religious ideas of the day. With the Sabbath was the bulwark of the nation.

"Jesus," said Dr. Denman, "simply ignored all the rituals and forms. He went where He pleased on the Sabbath day, healed the sick, commanded the lame to walk, the blind to see, and gave the greatest lesson of the day. He was the greatest student of the scriptures can not discover that Jesus paid any more attention to the Sabbath than to any other day."

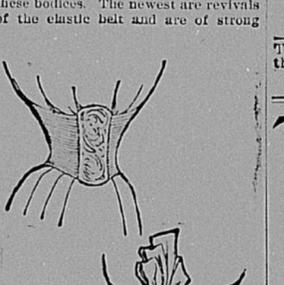

Dr. Denman continued, "was an iconoclast on all the Jewish ideas. He destroyed the Sabbath and made something better in its place. He destroyed the ethics of Judaism to give the ethics of love."

DIFFERENT BODICES.

They Are Much Worn With Black or Quiet Colored Skirts.
Separate or, rather, differing bodices, although not worn for costumes of great ceremony, nevertheless occupy an important place in the wardrobe. They are used not only for the house, but for the theater, concert and even for dinners, if the latter are not specially formal. Very beautiful models are shown, and no expense is spared in the devising of corages of this class. They are worn with a plain skirt, long and admirably fitting, but most often without much elaboration. Velvet, satin, silk or even cloth is the material employed for the skirt, and more often than not it is black. Black taffeta has a decided vogue for these skirts, and they are finished by ruffles at the foot.

Wide corsets of various kinds are the fashionable accompaniments of these bodices. The newest are revivals of the elastic belt and are of strong silk webbing, plain or embroidered with steel, jet or gold beads. There are also elastic belts of gold tissue. One of this sort is shown in the first cut. It is entirely of metal threads, the elastic not showing on the surface, and the wide belt is of enamel. The second corset is of bias sarah, plaited in large folds and fastened at the side by a strip of ribbon which passes from tip to bottom, the ends terminating in knots and loops.

FASHION HINTS.
The Trimming of Sleeves and Arrangement of Collar Neck.
Sleeves, which have been comparatively plain of late years, although at one time of gigantic dimensions, are becoming more and more ornamented. One of the newest styles is tight at the top and flaring at the wrist, with more or less decoration upon the flaring part and one or two large puffs inside the opening. Another fashion has the very tight sleeve as a foundation, with a puff at the elbow or three between the elbow and shoulder.

Boleros and wide corsets necessitate chemisettes and vests of various sorts. These are of silk, mousseline de soie or lace and vary from the plain shirt waist variety to highly elaborate arrangements. The one illustrated is of finely plaited white mousseline de soie. It is covered by bands of black velvet fastened at the middle by bows and gold buckles. The collar is of plaited mousseline, with velvet bands, bows and gold buckles and tabs of guipure turning over at the top. The lower part of the front of the vest is covered by a display of guipure embroidered with spangles, which is suspended from the shoulders and gathered in at the waist under a sort of guipure sash.

Dyspepsia Cure

Dyspeptics cannot regain health and strength by living upon half rations. They must eat plenty of good food and digest it. To enable them to do this they should use something that will help the stomach do its work. KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE is such a preparation. It digests what you eat and supplies the substances needed to build up the worn out digestive organs.

Prof. J. Iverson, of Lonaconing, Md., says: "For thirteen years I suffered agony from dyspepsia and neuralgia of the stomach. I tried almost everything and doctors drugged me nearly to death with morphine, but temporary relief was all I could obtain till I was advised to use KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. The first dose gave me relief. I bought my first bottle in March, 1900, and I have not had a single pain since. It has completely cured me. I cannot endorse it too highly."

It can't help but do you good
