BURNS' PLAN REJECTED

President Schwab Refuses to Submit the Dispute With Labor to Arbitration.

Simon Burns' Plan to Settle the Strike Falls Through—New Proposition.

The Corporation Training New Men to Take Places of Skilled Strikers.

Indianapolis, Aug. 29.—Simon Burns, who is here today, announces his plan for settling the steel strike by arbitration has been rejected by President Schwab of the steel corporation. Another proposition will be submitted to Schwab by Burns tomorrow at Pittsburgh. Burns said his plan of arbitration was submitted to Schwab Aug. 21, but he received no reply to it until yesterday, when Schwab's secretary telephoned him from New York that his chief would not consider the proposition.

Pittsburg, Aug. 29.—A New Philadelphia, O., dispatch reports that the attorneys for the American Steel Company have served an injunction through the United States court, against the Amalgamated Association at Canal Dover for intimidating and keeping workmen from entering the rolling mill, and also for holding and stopping pedestrians upon the highway.

Pittsburg, Aug. 29.—The strike situation continues quiet and devoid of interesting features. While the strikers still express satisfaction with the prevailing conditions, the steel corporation is slowly, but steadily, increasing its forces at the plants already in operation, and preparing to open more mills. With this in view and because of ample police protection the American Tin Plate Company is said to have made its start in this city, a school of instruction. Skilled men in charge are instructing other men in the mysteries of tin plate making. When the modern show efficient degrees of proficiency they are to be sent to other plants. The management of the works say 250 men are at work there now, but this is denied by Amalgamated officials. President Shaffer officially denied several stories printed in the papers today. He said there was no truth in the reports that the Amalgamated Association is making efforts to effect a settlement of the strike by trying to force the United States Steel Corporation into arbitration through the courts, and that John R. Byrne, a small stockholder in the company, had been requested to join in a petition asking for appointment of a board. This statement is also denied by Byrne. In a dispatch to the Associated Press this morning, the report that the Amalgamated lodges are voting on a peace proposition was also denied by Shaffer, who said:

"There has been no vote of any kind taken by us. The lodges may have taken votes on their own account, but none have been ordered since the strike was started and no vote has been taken by the executive board."

After next Monday the Amalgamated Association will begin the disbursement of strike benefits to such as are still out of employment. The rate is $4 a week. The sheet and hoop workers will have been out nine weeks by the end of August, the tin workers seven weeks and Federal and National steel employees and tubular workers three weeks. Secretary Williams received a check from the Flint glass workers today for $2,000, besides several other large donations. Advice from Lisbon, O., say the strikers have erected seven large tents at different points outside the tin mill enclosure. Pickets have increased their vigilance and will endeavor to keep all non-union men from entering the plant.

One Strike Declared Off.

Pittsburg, Aug. 29.—The strikers at the plant of the McClinch—Marshall Company, at Rankin, Pa., met this morning and decided the strike off. The men go back at terms offered by the company.

TELLS FARMHANDS' WAGES.

Agricultural Department Bulletin Will Show Average Salary.

Washington, Aug. 29.—The department of agriculture is preparing to issue at an early day a bulletin concerning the wages of farm laborers in the United States from 1865 to 1899. The statement shows that in the country at large wages per month by the year, or season, both with board and without board, had their maximum in 1863 and their minimum in 1873.

For wages per month without board, Maryland, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Iowa and California had highest wages in 1875, South Carolina and Oregon in 1882, Texas in 1882, Virginia in 1888. In Florida the rate of 1866 was reached in 1888 and the culmination was in 1890. The minimum for Alabama, Texas and Ohio was in 1894; for South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Michigan, Colorado, Oregon and California in 1895. Wages per month, by the year or season, with board, surpassed those of 1866 in Maine in 1890. The culmination in Vermont, New Jersey, Alabama, Arkansas and Georgia was in 1889, South Carolina and Oregon in 1875, Louisiana and Texas in 1882, North Carolina in 1881.

Wages per day for ordinary farm labor with board were at a maximum in New Hampshire, Connecticut and Delaware in 1869. They were at a minimum in Arkansas, Tennessee (same in 1885), Ohio, Minnesota, Nebraska and Colorado in 1884; in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Kentucky (same in 1875), Michigan, Utah, Oregon and California in 1895.

Both without board and with board in the country as a whole, the year 1899 shows higher rates than any preceding

MOB HUNTS FOR NEGRO

Search for the Murderer of Mary Henderson in Missouri Continued Today.

Francis Believed to Be Hiding in Mine Near Holden—Bloodhounds Secured.

Three Negroes Strung Up to Secure Information—Mob Increasing.

Kansas City, Aug. 29.—A telephone message from Holden, Mo., says Francis, the negro who outraged and murdered Mary Henderson is believed to have been located in a mine pit just outside of Holden. Information of his whereabouts was obtained by the strapping up of three negroes living in the vicinity of the scene of the murder.

Francis is known to be armed, and if finally located in the mine it will doubtless become necessary to starve him out, as but a few men could enter the pit at a time and they would be at the mercy of the murderer.

Kansas City, Aug. 28.—"Bossie" Francis the negro who outraged and murdered Miss Mary Henderson on Tuesday night, is believed to have been located in a mine pit in a negro settlement six miles north of Holden, and within a mile of Columbus, the scene of the crime. There seems no doubt the murderer is hiding in the mine or in the vicinity, but as there are so many favorable places there in which he may secret himself, Francis may elude his pursuers almost indefinitely. The lead to his whereabouts was obtained by strapping up three negroes who lived near the Hyatt farm at Columbus. Bloodhounds have been sent for and will arrive during the day. In the meantime search for the murderer has been renewed, with increased vigor by hundreds of armed men. The mob had spent the entire night searching for the negro. Finally after midnight, they came upon Emmet Davenport and Charles Briscoe, who lived near Columbus, and who are the brother of the murderer, between Columbus and Holden. The men acted suspiciously, but declared they knew nothing about Francis' whereabouts.

To make them talk, it was decided to string up three men. A rope was placed about the neck of each, and would say nothing and attention was turned to Davenport. After Davenport had dangled at the end of the rope for a few moments he became terror stricken and mentioned to be let down. He finally cried: "Let me go and I'll show you."

Davenport said Bud Francis had told him he was to meet the murderer last night at the Porter-Murray coal mine, six miles north of Holden, when he was to give "Bossie" the $18 that Briscoe owed him. Bud Francis had, Davenport said, taken Davenport and Briscoe with him and into the mine to find the murderer. He declared they had not found Francis. Davenport with Briscoe and Bud Francis were hurried before the mob to the place indicated by Davenport. The negro led them to a coal bank several miles away. The mob worked hard and long, but to no avail, and only gave up when they were dismayed by hundreds of other armed men, who took up the hunt where the night shift left off. The three negroes were finally sent to Warrenburg and placed in jail for safe-keeping. The funeral of the dead woman was held this morning. A special to the Star from Coesa, Mo., says: Bloodhounds were started from there for the scene of the murder this morning. Columbus and the coal mine near Holden are about ten and fifteen miles respectively across the country from Coesa and can not be reached by rail. There is great excitement at Coesa and mobs are reported forming there every hour to join in the chase.

Father Manlett will arrive in the city Saturday and will at once take charge of the Sacred Heart parish.

For the past eleven years Father Manlett has been vice-president of St. Ambrose college, Davenport, and is said to be a very brilliant man. The Sacred Heart parish is fortunate in securing such an able man, and one who can fill the vacancy left by Father Flood. Father Manlett gets an excellent parish and one in good condition.

MOB BURNS BUILDINGS.

More Trouble at Grand Mesa Lakes in Colorado.

Denver, Aug. 29.—News has reached here that a mob burned the remaining buildings belonging to William Radcliffe at Grand Mesa Lakes. It was the burning of the hotel at this place recently by a mob that caused Radcliffe to call on the governor for troops to protect his property; also caused the report that Radcliffe had appealed to the British government for its protection, claiming to be a subject of Great Britain. The trouble began when one of Radcliffe's guards killed a ranchman in a controversy over the right to fish in the lakes.

ELEVEN DEAD, NINE MISSING.

Result of the Explosion of Boilers of City of Trenton.

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—Eleven known dead, nine missing and thirty-two injured is the record made by the explosion of the boilers of the steamboat City of Trenton yesterday. Search for the missing continues. Ten of the dead recovered were identified, but the eleventh was so badly burned that the sex can not be determined. The injured are all doing well and it is believed none will die. The cause of the explosion is not yet determined and the officers and crew of the steamboat deny they were racing at the time of the explosion. The expert machinist who recently overhauled the boat's boilers said today that he believed the explosion was due to the exhaustion of the water in the boilers while the vessel was running rapidly.

Strike It Rich.

Iowa City, Aug. 29.—Iowa City capitalists, headed by former Attorney General Milton Remley, City Solicitor W. H. Bailey and Alderman J. G. Lindsay, who recently purchased 4,400 acres of timber and grazing land in Missouri have been offered $1,000,000 for the estate, part of which is not far from Sabula. Frank Mullin, an Iowa City man now in Missouri, telegraphed today that he had made a "ten-strike" of lead, discovering a fine mine in his land in Jefferson county. The Iowa City syndicate of twenty men owns much land near that of Mullin, and experts, after examining the wide tract belonging to the syndicate, declared that there is every evidence that millions of dollars worth of lead may be found therein. The 4,400 acres were bought for only $117,000. Mullin has been offered $300,000 for his interest in forty acres, the syndicate is picturing marvelous developments today. Stockholders will go from Iowa City to investigate this week.

Basements in the city were flooded, and much damage was caused in wholesale warehouses and newspaper offices. It is estimated that nearly 6,000 acres of grass were broken during the storm.

The Y. M. C. A. building, in which the meeting of the Canadian Medical Association was being held, was badly damaged and the convention proceedings suspended. As far as can be learned the storm was local, not extending to the western wheat fields.

The Nevada boys won by a score of 7 to 0. The game was played in the eighth inning, but the members grew overconfident and when the score stood 6 to 4, at the end of the eighth inning, Nevada braced up and ran in three scores. Four home runs were made by the State Center men during the game.

A New Water Plant.

Williamsburg, Aug. 29.—The city officials closed a contract last night that will put this town still further ahead than ever in the line of municipal improvement. This contract calls for a complete change in the water system from gravity to compressed air to sustain pressure. It is a step that is taken after over a year of investigation of the subject. The contract is made with J. L. White of Perry, Ill., and calls for the removal of the present tank and the installation in its place of two huge tanks with air compressors, engines and everything complete, together with a brick building to enclose it all. The effect of this will be to take our present splendid mineral water, put it under a pressure of over fifty pounds and to force it upward until released at the hydrant, thus affording absolutely pure water in its natural state and temperature. The principal fault with the present gravity or tank system is that the water becomes too warm in summer and too cold in winter, while in its natural state it is just right to make good drinking water. Hardly a day passes now but what inquiry is made for a committee to visit our town to investigate our present system of water or gas and with this new improvement our town will be better fixed for both than any other town in Iowa.

BIGOTRY SURVIVES

Remained For Prohibition Partisans To Demonstrate That Intolerance Survives.

Partisan Politics in Anti-Saloon League Destined To Disrupt the League.

Appanoose County Republicans Vote On Fifteen Candidates For Sheriff.

Special to Times-Republican: Des Moines, Aug. 29.—The action of the political conventions and conferences held in Iowa the present summer forces the conclusion that political partisans and partisan politicians are much the same in all parties. The action of the Cedar Rapids convention in its nomination for governor was virtual endorsement of that great American idea of political independence. The convention vindicated the right of every American to choose his own party, to change party affiliations when his conscience dictates and to refuse on occasion, to bow to the will of a party when that will seems to be wrong. The democratic convention, by nominating a candidate for governor who is not in accord with the main plank of the party creed in state and nation, and who since his nomination has declared he would rather the convention had not tied him up to the Kansas City plan, form again gave encouragement to that large body of Iowa citizens who vote their consciences and not the dictates of their party. But it remained for the prohibition partisans to demonstrate that intolerance survives. They went into the anti-saloon league and packed it and turned out their superintendent for the sole reason that he had dared to openly declare his intention of voting for one who is not the prohibition party candidate for a political office. There were other reasons, perhaps, which should have been done, but this was the ostensible reason for the drastic action. In fact that which was done at the meeting of the anti-saloon league in this city this week, is regarded by many as the sure sign of the approaching doom of the league. As one of the delegates put it to your correspondent:

"The old farmer's alliance was killed by the politicians getting control and using it to further the interests of candidates for office; the Knights of Labor, a worth while organization, and the same fate the same way; the old Iowa prohibition league fell into the hands of politicians and they used it until it lost its influence; then the same gang of men attempted to make use of the W. C. T. U. and it would have perished but for the fact that the members had no vote and it was loved to survive; and now they want to gain control of the anti-saloon league to convert it into a machine for making votes for this or that candidate for office better by far than they kill the league at once. It is based on the theory of non-partisanship, and unless it kept non-partisan it can accomplish nothing of value. We had proceeded along the line of working for temperance thru all available channels. The men who controlled at this meeting of the league believe there can be nothing good that does not conform in every particular to their ideas. They are impatient, and they packed the convention for the very purpose of ruining the league and making it non-effective in the work in which it has been engaged."

It may be recalled that some time ago officers of the league declared that they were desirous of having some changes in Iowa laws more favorable to temperance. One of the suggested changes was that of abolishing the 50 per cent clause and making a requirement of 55 per cent in cities as well as in the rural districts. This is almost the only change in the law that has been suggested. The saloon men have made no demand for any change. When the bill came to Governor Drake to be signed he is reported to have said that he did not like the discrimination in the matter of the 50 per cent and 55 per cent clauses, and if he had his way would reverse the order. But he accepted it as the best that could be secured then. In fact the 55 per cent clause was not in the bill as originally drawn, as everybody knows, but was forced in as a compromise to get two votes for the bill it would not otherwise get in the house. Another change suggested by one of the leaders of the anti-saloon league while here this week is the requirement that drug stores where liquor is sold must get permission the same as saloons and that the law shall apply to them the same as saloons. He would have the drug stores where liquors are sold closed the same hours and days as saloons. This would be a drastic measure and could hardly expect much support in the legislature. As for that, it is hard to see how the representatives of the anti-saloon league are going to go as lobbyists into the legislative halls next winter with their organization for the first time indefinitely committed to make war on the parties to which the members will belong.

The republican county convention in Appanoose county ought to be recorded on the bill boards as a sample for Iowa. The great confidence of republicans in this year's contest is shown by the fact that the convention had fifteen candidates before it for sheriff and all were voted for on the first ballot, and thirteen on the second and pick the winner. In the same convention there were five candidates for member of the board of supervisors and four candidates for coroner. The convention endorsed the Cedar Rapids platform and candidate as follows:

"Resolved, That we heartily and unreservedly endorse the platform of all of its parts adopted by the republican state convention at Cedar Rapids, and the candidate nominated there by the state convention. In Hon. A. B. Cummings, the nominee for governor, we recognize an able, honest and courageous man, a man who having risen from the humblest walks in life, and from the plain, common people to the highest standard of manhood, and to be the peer of any man in Iowa for in all that represents the people, one who can not be driven, cajoled or governed by any corporation, class, ring or the influence of wealth against the people. We cordially endorse his candidacy."

Then these cheerful republicans of Appanoose adopted the following as a part of their platform:

"We demand the equal taxation of all classes and kinds of property according to its actual fair value in the market. We demand that roads and all other corporation stock and property should bear the burden of taxation equally with all other property, and we instruct our representative in the legislature to see that such a law is passed by the next legislature.
