Mr. Morris Daley, for ten years, prior to July 1 last, trainmaster of the Des Moines division of the Chicago Great Western railway, spent Tuesday in the city looking after business matters. Mr. Daley has been in charge of the Kansas City division since last July, but has again been given charge of his old division, with headquarters in Des Moines.

The Harlow-Murphy meetings at the Christian church are growing in attendance and enthusiasm. A good audience last night listened to a sermon on "Moses, a Type of Christ," the beginning of a series of sermons on types and anti-types. These sermons are exceedingly interesting and instructive, enforcing the new testament teaching concerning the Christ, the church, the duties of Christians and the plan of salvation.

A. C. Jackson, a well-known farmer living near Marlette, left Tuesday evening for the Colorado special for Central City, Neb., where he will purchase a farm and locate. Mr. Jackson has been living on the old Steven Jackson farm, his father's homestead, for several years, but, as the property of his father's estate, it has been sold, and is to be vacated by March 1. Mr. Jackson's family will join him in Central City shortly after March 1.

Wells, of Des Moines, the latter secretary of the Iowa State Grain Dealers' Association, were in the city Tuesday in attendance at the grain dealers' conference at the Pilgrim.

John Durkin, day clerk at the Pilgrim Hotel, was called to Mason City yesterday by a telegram informing him of the critical illness of his little sister, Loretta, aged 9 years. A telegram from Mr. Durkin late Tuesday afternoon announced that the sister was dead. The little girl is a niece of Mrs. P. Lynch of this city, and a sister of Miss Magie Durkin, who, until recently, spent some time in the city at her aunt's home. The Mason City Times-Herald of Tuesday evening says concerning the death: There was a very sad death in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Durkin this morning at 9 o'clock. On New Year's day their little nine year old daughter, Loretta, was taken sick and the family physician was called in. He pronounced the trouble tonsillitis and thought the child would soon recover from it. She did and was up and around. Yesterday at 2 o'clock she seemed to be a little worse and the doctor was again called but he could discover nothing serious and thought there was nothing in her illness to alarm the family. At 9 o'clock this morning the little one passed away. She was a beautiful child, a student in St. Francis academy, and was thought a great deal of by her teachers. The home has been quarantined as the doctor felt that the safest thing to do, although they are not able to tell what the trouble was.

Special sale of torchon laces at the Fair store. One thousand eight hundred yards of torchon lace, worth 10 cents to 15 cents per yard, will sell at 5 cents per yard for a few days.

The funeral of the late Mrs. William Cronk was conducted from the Friends church in LeGrand Tuesday afternoon, and was largely attended. Interment was in the cemetery at Montour.

Will A. Brown went to Gilman Tuesday evening, where tonight he will participate in the program to be given at the Old Fellows' entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Perry, Mrs. Rose Halferty and Mr. H. W. Mundhenk went to Gilman this morning to be present at the entertainment.

The Associated Press dispatches of Tuesday announced that Capt. Cyrus W. King, son of Dr. J. W. King, at present a dentist of this city, had been granted a new trial in the federal court of appeals. Captain King is serving sentence at present for alleged fraud in business made by him for the regular army at New Orleans.

Deputy Sheriff Huison went to Lescumb Tuesday night, armed with a search warrant sworn out before Justice Burritt by Mahlon Russell. The officer went to the home of Taylor Elliott, two and one-half miles southwest of Lescumb, where he found a plush robe valued at $12, the property of Russell. The robe was stolen from Russell six weeks ago, while he was in attendance at a dance. After the recovery of the robe a warrant for the arrest of Marshall Elliott, a boy 19 years of age, was served and the prisoner was brought to the city this morning. He gave bonds for his appearance in court next Friday.

The Christian Workers' Training School and Bible Institute, West Main street, began work again Tuesday, after a two weeks' vacation. A number of new students have entered for the winter term and the home is now more than full. While giving gifts at the time, and after the school, the Christian Workers' Training School was not forgotten. Among the things received were canned fruit, vegetables, chickens, beef, sausage, butter, flour, dried fruit, a new clock, and many other things. The donors were the people of LeGrand, Hartland, Prairieville, New Sharon, Bradgate, Marshalltown, M. E. Sunday school, Marshalltown Friends, Mrs. O. L. Binford and Elizabeth Harris.

With the announcement today of the candidacy of Mrs. M. E. Whitehead for recorder the list is probably complete as there are no other candidates for this position in prospect. Mrs. Whitehead had no thought of entering the contest until urged so by friends and neighbors who knew she was capable of fulfilling the duties of the office and that she was deserving and in need of the position. Mrs. Whitehead is widely known from her work as agent for the Organized Charity Society and also because of her long residence in the county. Thru the recent death of her husband she is dependent upon her own efforts in the gaining of a livelihood. Her friends are rallying in her support in the campaign.

The Iowa Central carried a large number of landseekers out of this city on Tuesday evening on its south-bound passenger, No. 2, to points in Kansas. One hundred passengers were turned over to the Wabash at Albion, all heading west. Among those out of this city were A. P. Pratt, H. A. Church and son Clyde and Marshall Ogden, of this city; Messrs. Owen, Hull, Newton and Carpenter, of Gilman, all en route to the Kansas points; and other southeasterners, Fort Scott and other points. John Chollert and George W. Hough, of Hawk Creek, Kan., and Mark Perneau, of this city, was a Joplin, Mo., passenger.

Capt. Mose Arquette, the veteran Iowa Central engineer, has been given temporary charge of one of the old-time engines of the road, which is to do service for a time on the north end, between Chicago and Mason City, on trains 5 and 6. The present shortage of motive power has compelled the using of some of the older engines that have been heretofore on the reserve list, which, by the way, he ran thirty-one years ago when it was one of the big engines on the Central, is better than half the locomotives on the road today, and that it does not have none of your old compounds, now." The 15 is one of the first engines the company placed into service and has been overhauled and practically built over. For many years it was in charge of the late Ed Wolcott.

Commencing tomorrow evening for an engagement of three nights and Saturday matinee at the Odeon, the Kinodrome show will produce moving pictures of the scenes and incidents concerning President McKinley's assassination, and the state of the funeral ceremonies at Buffalo, Washington and Canton. Among the views shown of the president at the Pan-American exposition is one of the president delivering his speech. In this picture we present a wonderful and life-like likeness of President McKinley. He first walks upon the platform, escorting Mrs. McKinley, whom he very reverently shows a seat, the president is next introduced to the audience by President Milburn of the Pan-American exposition, and amid handclapping, cheering and waving of hats, he at once begins his memorable speech. He was close to our camera and we secured an absolutely perfect photograph. Other scenes shown are of the president reviewing the troops at the Stadium, the mob outside the temple of music after the assassination, the funeral ceremonies. The prices will be 10, 20 and 30 cents. A lobby will be admitted free with each 30 cent ticket. The date for the game has not been decided upon as yet.

Fine watch repairing at Paley's. Dr. James, surgeon and physician. Dr. Trotter, physician and surgeon.

Having deserted me I will not pay future debts of my wife. Jackson Loney.

General Superintendent C. W. Huntington, of the Central, arrived in the city Tuesday evening and spent today in the city looking after business matters.

Because of the lateness of the Wabash from the south this morning, the Central did not get up for its connection at Albion, and came north without the Kansas City and St. Louis sleeper.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Spencer, residing three and a half miles southeast of the city, left Tuesday morning at 4:30 on the Great Western for Kansas City. From there they will go to Western Kansas to visit Mr. Spencer's brother, J. G. Spencer, for a week or ten days, then to southeastern Kansas, where they expect to invest in land.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP.

A Little Boy's Life Saved. I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I can give praise enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere, of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought surely he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the plug out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine my boy would not be here to-day.—Jed Dement, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by druggists.

Illinois Central Thru Florida.

Beginning Monday, January, 1902, the Illinois Central will run a thru sleeping car between Chicago and Jacksonville, Florida, via Nashville, Chattanooga and Atlanta. It will leave Chicago daily at 6:30 p. m. and arrive at Jacksonville the second morning, running over the celebrated "Dixie Flyer" scenic route. This is an extension of its all-the-year-around Chicago and Nashville sleeping-car line.

OBITUARY.

Biggs. Milton Biggs, a veteran of the Soldiers Home, died very suddenly Tuesday afternoon at about 4 o'clock. Mr. Biggs had been in his usual health all day, having been to Nevada, Adams City, about 3 and returning, sat down out of doors, under the porch of the main building, to eat an apple. He had been there only a few moments when he fell, and upon being carried to his ward, died in a very few moments. Heart disease is assumed as the cause of his death. The deceased was 57 years of age and was a native of Shelby county, Indiana. He was a three-months man, and was a private in Company A, Forty-ninth Iowa, at Indianola, May 20, 1864, and being discharged at Rock Island barracks Oct. 28, 1864. He is survived by a number of children. A son, Leo Biggs, lives at Nevada, Adams City; William H., John R. and Clarence Biggs, sons, and Misses Allie and Clara Biggs, daughters, live in Prescott, Adams county, and another daughter, Mrs. Nora Thompson, is in the residence of the younger Jones. The funeral will be conducted by Chaplain Cole from the chapel at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

TO PLAY THE CHAMPIONS.

Marshalltown Bowling Team to Meet Boone on the Local Alleys. Captain Melnerney, of the Boone bowling team, spent Tuesday in the city to make preliminary arrangements for a game between his team and the Marshalltown team, to be played on the alleys of the latter club. The Boone team claims the championship of the west and it will be remembered, defeated the great Arnon team last week. The date for the game has not been decided upon as yet.

IOWA CENTRAL'S SICK.

Three Well-Known Employees Critically Ill in This City. Three well-known Iowa Central employees, residing in this city, are quite critically ill, and their conditions are causing considerable anxiety among their many friends, both here and at other points along the line. Conductor E. D. Young, passenger conductor on Nos. 5 and 6, between Marshalltown and Mason City, is ill at his home, 302 South Third avenue. For a time yesterday he was not expected to live, but improved somewhat in the evening and remains in about the same condition today. Mr. Young's ailment is pneumonia. He came off his run last Thursday morning, ill with a hard cold, which settled on his lungs. His daughters, Misses Myrtle and Birdet Young, who were visiting at their mother's old home in St. Charles, Ill., were telegraphed for yesterday and arrived home today. There is but little change today in the condition of Engineer George Cummings, who is critically ill at his home, 186 South First avenue, with typhoid fever. Fireman Bert Morgan, of 401 South Second street, is also quite seriously ill, being threatened with an attack of pneumonia. He is somewhat improved today.

SEEKING EDWARD JONES.

Aged Minnesota Resident Wishes Inquiry Regarding His Son. County Auditor Hargrave is in receipt of a communication signed by John V. Dexter, overseer of the poor at Detroit, Minn., in which the latter requests that he be somewhere in southern Iowa. Mr. Dexter says he is attempting to locate the son for the aged father, John Jones, Trace of the younger Jones is lost by the father, and he is anxious to locate and communicate with him.

CAN ACCOMMODATE FEW MORE.

Crowded Conditions at Soldiers' Home Temporarily Relieved. Commandant Horton, of the Soldiers' Home, has received the invoice of new beds, ordered some time ago for the purpose of relieving some extent the crowded conditions at the institution. A few weeks ago it became impossible to admit any more members, but now that the new beds have arrived, and are in the hallways, more made comfortable, it is now to care for twenty or twenty-five more members.
