Do you know a snap when you see it? We have an 80-acre farm, good improvements that must be sold before Nov. 1st. Five miles to good town. R. F. D. Price $2,500 per acre. For particulars address, Will H. Hill & Co., 107 East Main street.
If you want the best kerosene oil made in the world for your lamps buy of your grocer, but ask for the Marshall Company's oil, which is Pennsylvania oil, the world's best. Our oils are sold by peddlers of tank wagons. We sell to the grocery trade only. Try it.
Another new time card is said to be planned for next Sunday, effective at noon. The only changes promised are in Nos. 25 and 16, the local night passengers, which, according to the recent card, had their terminal at Knox county. The change contemplates extending the runs to the Bluffs, thus giving the west end a night local train.
Look here! A good farm of seventy-two acres, well located, two miles from a railroad station, in Marshall county, Iowa. House and barn. Shingled roof on double brick. Barn. Hog house and hen house. Good water and plenty of it. Place well fenced and cross fenced. Price for quick sale, $65 per acre. Enquire or write to William H. Woodward, No. 11 South Fourth street, Marshalltown, Iowa.
This morning's Des Moines Register and Leader says: "Mr. E. D. Hadley, secretary of the state council of Sons of the American Revolution, goes to Marshalltown today on business and will stop at Ames on his way to visit the local chapter there." Mr. Hadley recently has returned from Knox county, Mo., where he spent several days on business. He says that the land craze there is as widespread as it is in this country, and that good land is selling for $50 and $60 just as it is in Iowa.
Mr. E. S. Gifford and daughters, who have been spending the past week in Omaha attending the national Christian church convention, and visiting with Mr. Gifford's brother, Mr. L. W. Gifford, arrived home Thursday night. While in Omaha Mr. Gifford received a telegram, announcing the death of his uncle, Mr. T. D. Gifford, at Madison, Wis., who died on Tuesday. The funeral services were held at Madison Thursday, and the interment will be made in Seneca Falls, N. Y. Mr. Gifford visited this city at the time of the death of his niece.
Mr. George F. Kennedy, of Lincoln, Neb., whose recent appointment as route agent for the American Express Company was announced in these columns Thursday, arrived in the city Thursday evening and spent the night here, looking after business matters. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will be pleased to know that while the prospects bid fair for their new home being in Cedar Rapids, the matter is not yet definitely decided, and it is barely possible that they may return here. Mr. Kennedy will make an effort to obtain permission to make Marshalltown his headquarters, and a decision will be

Geo. J. Allen, scientific optician.

Ladies, buy your tailor-made suits tomorrow at Henry Pappé's ladies' clothing parlor and save from $5 to $10.
Is the saving of one-third to one-quarter on the price of a suit or overcoat an object to you? You can do it at Stern's great closing out sale.
For Saturday's trade we shall have cauliflower, wax beans, lettuce, cranberries, celery, sweet potatoes and a full supply of fruits, etc. Reynolds & Sheldon.
Manager E. W. Archer, of the Standard Oil Company, went to Des Moines Thursday evening, where today he was present at a meeting of the district of the company, held at the office of Manager M. Storor.
Messdames C. C. Horton and Delano T. Smith returned Thursday evening from Waterloo, where they have been in attendance at the annual Woman's Missionary Society meeting held in connection with the Iowa Presbyterian synod.
Fifteen German and Danish families, 100 people in all, passed thru the city Thursday evening on a special car attached to the Portland special, en route from points in Illinois to western Nebraska, where they will take up homesteads.
The Sinclair Tea and Coffee Company have another Haviland & Co. china sale tomorrow. The three stock patterns they are giving their customers an opportunity to secure are beautiful and you will never be able to have a Haviland set of china any easier.
Ten silver fillings are by no means a large number to have done at one sitting. On every silver filling we save you just 50 cents; on ten fillings we save you just $5. Better material than is used in our fillings has never been produced. Has some dentist told you otherwise? Surely 50 cents on the dollar is worth investigation. Drs. Hurd & Hynd.
Commandant C. C. Horton, of the Soldiers' Home, who has been away from the city a month arrived home Thursday. Col. Horton went east to be present at the national encampment of the G. A. R., and after that he will visit relatives. He stopped in Chicago on his way home for a brief visit with his son, Mr. Frank Horton, who is in the employ of Barnhart Bros. & Spindler, type foundry.
Blind Boone, M. E. church tonight.
Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McConnell went to McCallsburg this morning to attend the funeral of Mr. McConnell's nephew, Oscar Reed, who died Tuesday after a few days illness with Bright's disease. The funeral was held this afternoon at McCallsburg and the interment was at Zealring. Miss Anna Reed, a sister of Mr. Reed, and her nephew, Mr. Chapman, of Fort Madison, arrived in the city this morning and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. McConnell to McCallsburg.
Now is the time to have your overcoat or suit fitted for winter. We do all kinds of repairing, such as re-lining, new velvet collars, sleeve linings, etc. We will clean and press your suit in first class shape for $1.50, pants 50 cents, pressing suit 75 cents. If you have a suit or overcoat that is faded or you don't like the color let us color them for you, and we will endeavor to please you. We also dye or clean ladies' suits, jackets or waists without ripping. Work called for or delivered. Both 'phones, 24 West Church street. Filton Steam Dye Works.
Blind Boone, M. E. church tonight.
Mrs. Benjamin Jarvis, of Pasadena, Cal., a former well-known resident of the city, arrived in the city Thursday evening from Washington, D. C., where she has been in attendance at the annual convention of the National W. R. C. Mrs. Jarvis is prominent in W. R. C. circles in California, being department president. She will remain here for a few days' visit with her mother and brother, Mrs. S. J. Fulmer and Mr. Fred Fulmer, of 107 South Twelfth street, and sister, Mrs. E. F. Moon, corner of Fifth and Second streets. A family reunion will be held Sunday at the Moon home, in honor of Mrs. Jarvis.
The Political Equality Club met with Mrs. Emma Boardman Thursday evening. Mrs. T. J. Fletcher read a paper on "City Federations" and the subject Florence Phillips, niece of Mrs. Joseph Holmes, read for the club. Hereafter the meetings of the club will be held on Wednesday evenings instead of Thursdays. The change has been made owing to the fact that the mid-week meetings of the churches are now being held on Thursday. The next meeting of the club will be in the east court room on Nov. 12, when Superintendent Crane will lecture on "Manual Training."
Blind Boone, M. E. church tonight.
Russell Smith, a young man who does a stunt on a unicycle for the benefit of the public, and who usually manages to get in the way of a street car or frighten horses not yet broken to a one-wheel machine, was ordered by Officer Clark Thursday evening to quit pulling by the union station platform. Smith has been getting into the habit of showing off his relationship to the Nelson family on the platform at train time, and Agent Garvin doesn't take to it kindly. Bicycles are prohibited by signs on either end of the platform, but the placards do not say anything regarding unicycles. Mr. Garvin asked Officer Clark to order Smith to desist and the officer made it plain to him that a repetition of the offense would result in his arrest.

Try the "Middle West" cigar
Dr. Myers-Townsend, South Center
Blind Boone, M. E. church tonight.

George Bristow, of Des Moines, division passenger agent of the Chicago Great Western, notified the county republican central committee today that his road had granted a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip to the big political meeting meeting here next Tuesday. Waterloo and Cedar Falls are included in the reduced rates from the north, and Bondurant on the south.
Mrs. H. J. Howe was hostess to a few friends at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Julian Richards, of Waterloo.
Mr. W. S. Porter and daughter Hortense, of Eldora, passed thru the city this morning on their way to Iowa City, where they go to witness the Minnesota-Iowa football game Saturday.
A letter received by Mr. Willard Hull from Washington states that he failed to pass his mental examination, which he recently took in that city for admission to the consular service of the United States.
The Sinclair Tea and Coffee Company give you another opportunity tomorrow to get a piece of Haviland & Co.'s china, which they are carrying in the three patterns: one piece with each 50-cent, $1, $2 and $3 cash purchase.
John Golwitzer was discharged in Justice Clark's court Thursday afternoon in the case brought against him for fast driving, preferred by John Radcliff, a North First avenue liveryman. P'n BwlgonRapidscDlo emtaeoq htra
Mrs. Pearl Somers, of Grinnell, arrived in the city Thursday evening and will be the guest of Mrs. Belle Waldo for a few days. Mrs. Somers came especially to be present at the afternoon tea given by Mrs. D. W. Norris, Jr., today.
The remains of the late Charles Wulff, who was killed in Chicago on Sunday, arrived in the city this morning. Brief funeral services were held at the grave in Riverside this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. W. Sinden.
George Daniel, Ph. D., ex-captain of a band of Turkish brigands, will lecture on his native country at the Methodist church Sunday evening. He will also speak at the Railroad Hotel this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. W. Sinden.
A traveling advertising agent who gave his name as Earl Paul was arrested by Deputy Marshal Cochran this afternoon for tacking advertising signs on telephone poles. He was fined $5 by Judge Jones. There is no admission to this offense and the mayor is determined to put a stop to it.
Miss Grace Baker, of Centerville, who has been employed in the city schools for a number of years and is at present in charge of the first grade at the Woodbury, handed in today her resignation to the board and will leave the city Monday to take a position in the Des Moines schools. Her successor has as yet not been chosen.
"Tommy" Bissell, who has been a regular worshipper at the shrine of Bacchus for many years, with the result that he has been a frequent visitor at the police court, was arrested Thursday night by Officer Hanson and was committed to await a hearing before Judge Caswell, who will probably order him taken to Cherokee for dipomania treatment.
The police were called to the home of E. R. Stretcher, 503 Woodbury street, Thursday night, at a disturbance caused by some young rowdies who had made themselves objectionable to the guests at the Fetters-Stretcher wedding. They attempted to create a rough house by making a noise and throwing eggs at the guests. Arrests were made as they had desisted before the police arrived.
James Peckham, bill clerk of the American Express Company, leaves the city tonight for Casper, Wyo., where he has accepted a run on the E. E. & M. V. railway, between that city and Chadron, Neb. Mr. Peckham's condition here will be filled by the promotion of Ernest Richeson, driver of wagon No. 1. Jerome Hull will be moved up to wagon No. 1, while Fred Crum, of Vienna township, has accepted the position made vacant by Mr. Hull's promotion.
Two freight trains on the Iowa Central came together at Grinnell at about 7 o'clock Thursday evening, doing small damage. An extra freight, No. 78, in charge of Conductor Russell, was in the act of getting on a siding for passenger No. 2, when they were into by extra freight 109, in charge of Conductor Christian and Engineer Green. The pilot of engine 109 was broken and one or two draw bars were bent. The passenger train remained torn out of the cars. Trains were delayed, as neither engines or cars were derailed.
Superintendent W. E. Tomlinson, of the county fund, returned Thursday from Des Moines in company with Louis Roth, an inmate of the ward for incurables at the county hospital. Roth escaped from the farm Sunday night and in some unaccountable manner got to Des Moines. Superintendent Tomlinson traced him to within a short distance from Colfax, but there all information concerning him was lost until an answer from a query from Des Moines notified the superintendent that Roth had been arrested there and placed in jail. It was not known at first where the man was from and as it was clearly seen that he was insane he was taken to the county hospital and so adjudged. Roth is 67 years of age and has been an inmate of the county hospital a number of years.
Mrs. D. W. Norris, Jr., entertained 130 ladies at an afternoon tea Thursday and Friday afternoons at her home, 311 North First street. The house was decorated with white chrysanthemums, and the guests were entertained at guessing the well-known magazine advertisements, from which pictures had been cut. A substantial luncheon was served Thursday evening. The guests were Mrs. Minnie Thayer-Mullin, of Sioux City, who is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. George F. Thayer, of 519 North First street, and Mrs. J. E. Hamilton, of Two Rivers, Wis., who is the guest of her brother, Mr. H. W. Shove, and family, of 402 North Fourth street. Mesdames H. V. Speers, D. H.
