OBITUARY. Stoddart. Henry B. Stoddart, a well-known resident of the city, died this morning at 7:30 o'clock at his home, corner of Third and Main streets, after an illness of twelve weeks with chills and the liver and acute nephritis. Mr. Stoddart's death was not a surprise to his friends, who have realized for several days that the end was only a question of short time.

Mr. Stoddart was born in Liverpool, England, Oct. 8, 1851, and when 16 years of age went to sea, serving his apprenticeship of four years on a merchant-ship. He was in connection with the Liverpool and Calcutta. Upon the completion of his apprenticeship he took a position of second mate on the Canopus, an ocean steamer also plying between Liverpool and Calcutta.

Mr. Stoddart, upon coming to this city, engaged in the lumber business with M. L. Rogers, now of California, and remained in business seven or eight years, afterwards being affiliated with his brother, the late Tom Stoddart, who was married March 1, 1876, to Miss Ella E. Upson, and nineteen years ago purchased the property at the corner of Third and Main streets, which has been conducted as a boarding house and hotel ever since.

Mr. Stoddart leaves, besides his wife, two sons, Messrs. Earl and Harry Stoddart, and one daughter, Miss Stella, the latter of London. Mr. Stoddart was not a member of any of the local secret or fraternal societies, but in his young manhood had been a member of the Masonic fraternity. His membership was held in his native country, and was never transferred when he came to America.

The funeral will be held from the residence Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. N. C. Carman, friends from 1 to 2:30. Rev. F. W. Russell will officiate and the interment will be in Riverside. The pall bearers will be Messrs. Charles A. Seely, Seth Zieg, C. J. Lander, Ralph McBride, John Woodbury and Ben Ackerman.

Wickstrom. John Wickstrom, aged 42, died at his home, 112 West Church street, this afternoon at 2:05 o'clock after an illness of eight months with pneumonia. Mr. Wickstrom's condition had been serious for some time. The deceased was a tailor by trade and had made his home in this city for the past nine years, having recently been employed by the Marshall Tailoring Company prior to his last illness. Other than the wife there are no relatives residing in this country. The funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Martha A. Rhoades was held this morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of the deceased at Mrs. N. C. Carman, 107 West Main street, and was private, only the relatives and the most intimate friends being present. Many friends had remembered the deceased with beautiful floral offerings that were banked around the casket. Rev. P. W. Russell conducted the services, speaking briefly, and Miss Mae Smith and Mrs. George W. McGill sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "It is Well With My Soul." The interment was in Riverside. Mrs. P. M. Lewis and Mrs. Robert Culp, of Sac City, and Mr. Richard Bailey, of Atlantic, sisters and brother of the deceased, were present. The pall bearers were Messrs. P. E. Carman, John Bell, J. G. SCIENTIFIC FOOD. That Cures Patients Quickly. "My experience with food has been considerable.

"For twenty years I suffered with chronic indigestion and bowel complaint, which brought on general debility," says a gentleman of Danville, Ill. "I was very poor in flesh and every one thought I had consumption. I was treated by the best doctors of several cities, but to no benefit.

"At last I went to the hospital and while there began using Grape-Nuts, the physician giving me permission, and from that day I commenced to gain. By careful diet, and using judiciously, I gained in flesh and strength, my lungs got better and today I consider myself as well as men in general at my age of 60 years.

"The other patients noticed that I gained faster under the same treatment and care and I told them to add Grape-Nuts to their diet and be careful not to eat meat nor warm bread and starchy food. I can now eat anything in reason; I sleep well; bowels are regular and I have gained twenty-two pounds in flesh. Grape-Nuts Food saved my life.

"It adds to the health and comfort of living, makes the mind clear and prolongs life."
