ALL SCHOOLS ACCEPTED

New Building is Turned Over by the Contractor to Board This Morning

TOTAL COST OF BUILDINGS, $16,388

Members of the Board Are Highly Pleased With New Structure, Which Will Be Ready for Occupancy Monday—Thanks Extended to Contractor and Mr. Nicholson.

At 10 o'clock this morning the entire school board, together with Superintendent Crane, visited the new Glick building and, after a thorough inspection, in company with Contractor C. F. Reimer, the building was turned over to the board as completed and was accepted. The original contract price was $15,500, but additional extras and changes were necessary that added $886 to the cost, making the total $16,386.

Many residents of the city interested in the new building gathered at the time the board was making the inspection. The Glick school has been under the course of construction for about five months, and the board is more than pleased with the building completed, and consider it by far the prettiest of the city's school buildings. The work of placing the seats in the building will be commenced Friday, so that by Monday everything will be in readiness for school. The first class will be by George Glick, of Des Moines, for whom the building was named, was unfurled and hoisted on the building this morning.

The extras that have run the price above that originally contracted for have been caused by the purchase of slate black boards, deadening felt for the floors, marble columns at the front entrance, steel ceilings and lowering the foundation walls. The board, as a result of the highly successful termination of the work which has involved much labor on the part of the members, and a vote of thanks was extended by the board to Mr. Frank Nicholson, who has supervised the building operations for the board; also to Contractor Reimer and Dr. Glick.

Orders Fire Escapes. A special meeting of the board was held in the office of Mr. George A. Turner this morning for the purpose of awarding the contract for the fire escapes to be placed on the high school building. The contract went to Tinker & Armstrong, they being the lowest bidders. A fire escape on both the north and west sides of the building will be placed at a cost of $120.

"WHICH IS WHICH?" High School Students Present S. Thayer Smith's Farce Comedy in Highly Pleasing Manner.

Without doubt the most successful attempt at amateur theatricals ever made in this city was that of the members of the high school when they appeared in the one-act farce comedy by S. Thayer Smith, "Which is Which," at the high school auditorium before a large audience Wednesday night.

The play is a pretentious thing, with many clever lines and contains not a little that is humorous. The story is that of an artist, who is as many artists always are, talented but poor, and badly in debt. In order to escape his creditors, he consents to a marriage with the heiress, with whom he played when a child, but who, thru years of separation, is unrecognized by him. When the would-be bride appears with a companion the artist is at a loss to know "Which is Which," and in the unraveling of the identity of the lady considerable comedy is brought out. He, however, after many blunders, secures the heiress, thinking he is winning her penniless friend. It is presumed they marry and live happily, although the curtain shuts out the scene at this point. The entire cast was good and while in places it lacks, as is the case with all amateur performances, the smoothness of the professional, the rendition was most creditable.

Mr. Herbert Parker, in the leading role of Robert Capper, the artist, was especially good, although a trifle less facial expression would have improved his style. Miss Lora Carney, as Miss Bertha Bingham, and Miss Helen Albert, as Mrs. Mills, Capper's old servant, show not a little talent, and the portrayal of the characters represented by each were highly to the average.

Mr. George Tuffree, in the role of Mr. Faddles, Mr. George Hawley, as Mr. Gargle, and Miss Edith Woodward, as Miss Anna Peste, an heiress, were all good.

When it is considered that less than a month has been given in which to prepare the piece the result must be satisfactory to Miss Agnes Sears and Miss Ruby Baughman, who have had written as a curtain riser in an act, for convenience it was lengthened into two acts for its local production. Before the curtain rose for each act, the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Bessie Beaver, sang two numbers, both of which were encored. The pupils are planning to stage another theatrical venture during the winter months.

THE BEETHOVEN CLUB. Miss Mae Sherman and Mrs. D. R. Jackson Entertain Members and Their Friends.

Miss Mae Sherman and Mrs. D. R. Jackson were hostesses, at the home of the former, 307 West Main street, at the regular meeting of the Beethoven Club Wednesday afternoon.

The ladies proved themselves charming entertainers, and made the meeting one of the best the members have enjoyed this season. The house decorations were in pink, and in the dining room, where the ladies were served, the blinds had been drawn, and the dining room table was decorated with a huge pumpkin, heaped round with flowers and fruit.

The program follows: Paper, "Women Composers" Mrs. D. V. Larkin. Piano Solo—Miss Nova Bentley. Piano Solo, "Perle's" (Chaminade) Miss Theresa Jones. Piano Solo, "Lied"—Mrs. F. E. North.

Miss Alleene Patterson, who was a former member of the club kindly favored the ladies with two solos. One of the pretty incidents of the meeting was the giving of the souvenirs. A huge form of a turkey, stuck thick with the white feathers of the bird was used, each member drawing one of the feathers which were tied with the club's colors. The guests were Mesdames R. S. Patten, J. O. Monohon, Alice Wells, Ernestus Cornell, C. E. Patterson, May F. Montgomery, and I. J. Buck; Miss Alleene Patterson; Mrs. J. W. Eichnor, of Clinton.

DECIDE NOT TO TRY. Grocers Think Best Not to Attempt Securing State Meeting.

The Marshalltown Retail Grocers' Association, at its meeting Wednesday evening at the east court room, decided not to extend an invitation to the state association and pure food show to be held here in 1923. The grocers were well represented at the meeting, but the citizens, and other business men, did not respond very generously to the invitation to meet and talk over the plans. The grocers feel that if the citizens are not sufficiently interested they do not care to go ahead and stand all the responsibilities of such a mammoth gathering. The money part of the proposition is not worrying the grocers at all, but the main problem seems to be, at the present time, sufficient hotel accommodations. The pure foods show and grocers' meeting would bring to the city in the neighborhood of 300 representatives of large concerns from all parts of the country, and they would remain about ten days. With only one first-class hotel in the city, accommodations would likely be insufficient, and the city would likely derive very little benefit as a result. For this reason, largely, the grocers decided to let the meeting go by default for another year, when it is hoped another hotel will be built and Marshalltown placed in a position to receive the visitors with open arms.

OBITUARY. Agan. Miss Josie Agan, 42, died at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. C. Agan 411 South Fourth street, this morning at 4 o'clock, of heart disease. Miss Agan had been subject to attacks for several years, but was taken sick a week ago while visiting relatives in Steamboat Rock, and was compelled to return home. She had been confined to her bed ever since her return. Miss Agan had been a resident of this city for twenty-four years and was well known by many friends. Other than the widowed mother she leaves one brother, Mr. Chester Agan, a well known Iowa Central passenger conductor, and one sister, Mrs. Chester Crellin, of this city. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Plum. Charles Joseph Plum, aged 18 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Plum, 71 North Fourth street, died at 6:20 o'clock Wednesday evening of whooping cough. The funeral will be conducted by Dr. Elijah Brown Jones, of the First Baptist church, from the residence at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Jumped on a Ten Penny Nail. The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made entirely thru her foot and a second one thru her hand. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoes as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well-known merchant of Portland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third of the time usually required by the usual treatment. For sale by druggists.

Notice to Ice Consumers. It would be advisable for you to make no contract until you make further investigation, as we intend installing an artificial ice plant with sufficient capacity to supply the entire output of the city. Iowa Fruit & Produce Co.

Startling, But True. "If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Life Pills is," writes D. H. Turner, Dempseytown, Pa. "you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks' use has made a new man of me." Infallible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c at Geo. Powers' drug store.

A Thanksgiving Dinner. Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach.

Licensed to Wed. Samuel E. Baker, farmer, aged 63, and Mrs. Mary A. Bowdin, aged 64, both of Hampton.

Mr. Charles O. Russe, farmer aged 42, of Green Mountain, and Miss Olive C. Steele, aged 26, of Marshalltown.

Bennett G. Large, farmer, aged 19, and Miss Mabel J. Newby, aged 19, both of Union.

SALESMEN'S TRIALS. Bad Food is One of Them. Road traveling is rather hard on salesmen. Irregular hours, indifferent hotels and badly cooked food play smash with their digestion.

An old Philadelphia traveler tells how he got the start in health by using Grape-Nuts. "For years I was troubled with a bad stomach which gave me constant headaches and pains all thru my body, caused by eating improper food. I spent considerable money on doctors, who said I might as well die, and after taking medicine for a year and it doing me no good, I decided to go on a diet, but the different cereals I ate did not help me. If it had been for the advice of a friend to try Grape-Nuts I might be ailing yet."

"I commenced to feel better in a short time after using the food; my indigestion left me; stomach regained its tone so that I could eat anything, and headaches stopped. I have gained weight and have a better complexion than I had for years. At many hotels the salesmen will have nothing in the line of cereals but Grape-Nuts, as they consider it not only delicious but also beneficial for their health in the life they lead." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Mich.
